PREFACE

IN his essay on Protestantism, de Quincey has a characteristic paragraph upon the popular delusion that "every idea and word which exists, or has existed, for any nation, ancient or modern, must have a direct interchangeable equivalent in all other languages." No one who attempts to translate any part of the New Testament is likely to remain very long under such a delusion. Thus there is no exact English equivalent for terms like λόγος and μυστήριον and δικαιοσύνη. The first of these I have simply transliterated once or twice; 'Logos' is at any rate less misleading than 'Word' would be to a modern reader. Even when an equivalent can be got for some New Testament term like ἔθνη or Ἄιδης, it cannot be used invariably. I have kept "Gentiles" for ἔθνη in cases where the contrast between Judaism and the outer world is prominent; if Kipling's "Recessional" was intelligible to modern readers, "Gentiles" here should not cause them undue difficulty. But now and then the Greek term carries a sense which can only be represented by our "pagans" or "heathen," and occasionally it is no more than "nations." This will serve as an illustration of the difficulties which confront a translator. But once the translation of the New Testament is freed from the influence of the theory of verbal inspiration, these difficulties cease to be so formidable. I have tried not to sacrifice the spirit to the letter. It is true, as de Quincey observes in the same essay, that "the great ideas of the Bible protect themselves. The heavenly truths, by their own imperishableness, defeat the mortality of languages with which for a moment they are associated." Still, this is a victory in which even the camp-followers or translators have a modest share. They can or they should further this linguistic triumph. Hellenistic Greek has its own defects, from the point of view of the classical scholar, but it is an eminently translatable language, and the evidence of papyrology shows it was more flexible than once was imagined. My intention, therefore, has been to produce a version which will to some degree represent the gains of recent lexical research and also prove readable. I have attempted to translate the New Testament exactly as one would render any piece of contemporary Hellenistic prose; in this way, students of the original text may perhaps be benefited. But I hope also that the translation may fall into the hands of some who know how to freshen their religious interest in the meaning of the New Testament by reading it occasionally in some unauthorized English or foreign version, as well as into the hands of others who for various reasons neglect the Bible even as an English classic. This is a hope which, no doubt, is accompanied with some risks and fears. Every translation has to face a double ordeal. Some of its readers know the original, some do not, and both classes have to be met. "The English reader," as Dr. Rouse remarks, "may be quite competent to judge of a translation as literature and as intelligible or not intelligible, but he cannot judge of its accuracy. The scholar alone can judge of its accuracy, but (granting that he has literary taste) he knows the original too well to be independent of it, and hence cannot judge of the impression which the translation will make on the minds of those who are not scholars." If this is true of Homer, it is three times true of the New Testament. Any new translation starts under a special handicap. It appears to challenge in every line the rhythm and diction of an English classic, and this irritates many who have no knowledge of the original. The old, they say, is better. They are indifferent to the changes which recent grammatical research has necessitated in the translation of the aorist, the article, and the particles, for example, even since the Revised Version of 1881 was made. But intelligibility is more than associations, and to atone in part for the loss of associations I have endeavoured to make the New Testament, especially St. Paul's epistles, as intelligible to a modern English reader as any version that is not a paraphrase can hope to make them.

This raises one of the numerous points of difficulty that beset the translator. How far is he justified in modernizing an Oriental book? How far can he assume that certain turns of expression have become naturalized in English by the Authorized Version itself? I have never seen any satisfactory solution of this problem, and I have not been able to find one. However, it is superfluous to discuss such matters at length. This is not the place to develop any theories on the subject. What the general public cares for is a translator's practice rather than his principles, and students can easily detect the latter, or the lack of them, in the former.

I wish only to add this caution, that a translator appears to be more dogmatic than he really is. He must come down on one side of the fence or on the other. He has often to decide on a rendering, or even on the text of a passage, when his own mind is by no means clear and certain. In a number of cases, therefore, when the evidence is conflicting, I must ask scholars and students to believe that a line has been taken only after long thought and only with serious hesitation.

The translation has been made from the text recently issued by Von Soden of Berlin, but I have not invariably followed his arrangement and punctuation. Wherever I have felt obliged to adopt a different reading, this is noted at the foot of the page.

Quotations or direct reminiscences of the Old Testament are printed in italics.

The books are arranged for the convenience of the general reader in the order of the English Bible. This applies to the order of chapters as well. Thus the last four chapters of Second Corinthians appear in their usual canonical position instead of in what I believe to be their original position between First and Second Corinthians. The only exception I have made to this rule is in the case of some occasional transpositions either of verses or of paragraphs, for example, in the case of the Fourth Gospel. Any one who cares to look into the evidence for such changes will find it in my Introduction to the Literature of the New Testament.

Lastly, it is right to add that I have not consulted any other version of the New Testament in preparing this work, though probably echoes and reminiscences have clung to one's mind. The only version I have kept before me is the one I prepared thirteen years ago for my Historical New Testament. But the present version is not a revision of that. It is an independent work. I agreed to undertake it with sharp misgivings, but I trust that the spirit and method of its composition may at any rate do something to make some parts of the New Testament more intelligible to some readers.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

A NEW TRANSLATION

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MATTHEW

1 THE birth-roll of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of 3 Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez the father 4 of Hezron, Hezron the father of Aram, Aram the father of Aminadab, Aminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the 5 father of Salmon, Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, Obed the father of Jessai, 6 and Jessai the father of king David.

David was the father of Solomon by Uriah's wife, 7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of 8 Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa, Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, Joram the 9 father of Uzziah, Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the 10 father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, 11 Amon the father of Josiah, and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers at the period of the Babylonian 12 captivity. After the Babylonian captivity, Jechoniah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, 13 Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Elia-14 kim, Eliakim the father of Azor, Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, Achim the father of Eliud, 15 Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, 16 Matthan the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Joseph, and Joseph (to whom the virgin Mary was betrothed) the the father of Jesus, who is called 'Christ.'

17 Thus all the generations from Abraham to David number fourteen, from David to the Babylonian captivity fourteen, and from the Babylonian captivity to Christ fourteen.

18 The birth of [Jesus] Christ came about thus. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they came together she was discovered to be pregnant by the holy 19 Spirit. As Joseph her husband was a just man but unwilling to disgrace her, he resolved to divorce her secretly; 20 but after he had planned this, there appeared an angel of the Lord to him in a dream saying, "Joseph, son of David, fear not to take Mary your wife home, for what is begotten 21 in her comes from the holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you will call him 'Jesus,' for he will save his people 22 from their sins." All this happened for the fulfilment of what the Lord had spoken by the prophet:

23 The maiden will conceive and bear a son, and his name will be called Immanuel

24 (which may be translated, God is with us). So on waking from sleep Joseph did as the angel of the Lord had com-25 manded him; he took his wife home, but he did not live with her as a husband till she bore a son, whom he called Jesus.

2 Now when Jesus was born at Bethlehem, belonging to Judaea, in the days of king Herod, magicians from the 2 East arrived at Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the newly-born king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose, and we 3 have come to worship him." The news of this troubled 4 king Herod and all Jerusalem as well; so he gathered all the high priests and scribes of the people and made inquiries of them about where the messiah was to be born.
 5 They told him, "In Bethlehem belonging to Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 *And you Bethlehem, in Judah's land,
 You are not least among the rulers of Judah:
 For a ruler will come from you,
 Who will shepherd Israel my people."*

7 Then Herod summoned the magicians in secret and ascer-8 tained from them the time of the star's appearance. He also sent them to Bethlehem, telling them, "Go and make a careful search for the child, and when you have found him 9 report to me, so that I can go and worship him too." The magicians listened to the king and then went their way.
 And the star they had seen rise went in front of them till 10 it stopped over the place where the child was. When they 11 caught sight of the star they were intensely glad. And on reaching the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, they fell down to worship him, and opening their caskets they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense 12 and myrrh. Then, as they had been divinely warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their own country by a different road.

13 After they had gone, there appeared an angel of the Lord to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Rise, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt; stay there till I tell you. For Herod is going to search for the child and de-14 stroy him." So he got up, took the child and his mother 15 by night, and went off to Egypt, where he stayed until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what the Lord had said by the prophet: I called my Son from Egypt.

16 Then Herod saw the magicians had trifled with him, and he was furiously angry; he sent and slew all the male children in Bethlehem and in all the neighbourhood who were two years old or under, calculating by the time he had ascertained from the magicians. Then the saying was fulfilled which had been uttered by the prophet Jeremiah:

18 A cry was heard in Rama, weeping and sore lamentation—Rachel weeping for her children, and inconsolable because they are no more.

19 But when Herod died, there appeared an angel of the Lord in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." So he rose, took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel; but on hearing that Archelaus reigned over Judaea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there and, by a divine injunction in a dream, withdrew to the region of Galilee. He went and settled in a town called Nazaret, so that what had been said by the prophets might be fulfilled: 'He shall be called a Nazarene.' ~

3 IN those days John the Baptist came on the scene, preaching in the desert of Judaea, "Repent, the Reign of heaven is near." (This was the man spoken of by the prophet Isaiah:

*The voice of one who cries in the desert,
'Make the way ready for the Lord,
level the paths for him.'*)

4 This John had his clothes made of camel's hair, with a leather girdle round his loins; his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and the whole of Judaea and all the Jordan-district went out to him and got baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he noticed a number of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers, who told you to flee from the coming Wrath? Now, produce fruit that answers to your repentance, instead of presuming to say to yourselves, 'We have a father in Abraham.' I tell you, God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones! The axe is lying all ready at the root of the trees; any tree that is not producing good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier, and I am not fit even to carry his sandals;
he will baptize you with the holy Spirit and fire.
12 His winnowing-fan is in his hand, he will clean out his threshing-floor, his wheat he will gather into the granary, but the straw he will burn with fire unquenchable."

13 Then Jesus came on the scene from Galilee, to get bap-14 tized by John at the Jordan. John tried to prevent him;
"I need to get baptized by you," he said, "and you come 15 to me!" But Jesus answered him, "Come now, this is how we should fulfil all our duty to God." Then John gave 16 in to him. Now when Jesus had been baptized, the moment he rose out of the water, the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove upon him.

17 And a voice from heaven said,
"This is my Son, the Beloved,
in him is my delight."

2 4 THEN Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty 3 nights and afterwards felt hungry. So the tempter came up and said to him, "If you are God's Son, tell these stones 4 to become loaves." He answered, "It is written, Man is not to live on bread alone, but on every word that issues from the mouth of God."

5 Then the devil conveyed him to the holy city and, placing 6 him on the pinnacle of the temple, said to him, "If you are God's Son, throw yourself down; for it is written,

He will give his angels charge of you;

they will bear you on their hands,

lest you strike your foot against a stone."

7 Jesus said to him, "It is written again, You shall not tempt 8 the Lord your God." Once more the devil conveyed him to an exceedingly high mountain and showed him all the 9 realms of the world and their grandeur; he said, "I will give you all that if you will fall down and worship me." 10 Then Jesus told him, "Begone, Satan! it is written, You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone." 11 At this the devil left him, and angels came up and ministered to him.

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he 13 withdrew to Galilee; he left Nazaret and settled at Capharnahum beside the lake, in the territory of Zebulun 14 and Naphtali—for the fulfilment of what had been said by the prophet Isaiah:

15 Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali lying to the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles!

16 The people who sat in darkness saw a great light, yea light dawned on those who sat in the land and the shadow of death.

- 17 From that day Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, the Reign of heaven is near."
- 18 As he was walking along the sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew, casting a net in the sea—for they were fishermen;
- 19 so he said to them, "Come, follow me, and I will make you 20 fish for men." And they dropped their nets at once and fol-21 lowed him. Then going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedaeus and his brother 22 John, mending their nets in the boat beside their father Zebedaeus. He called them, and they left the boat and their father at once, and went after him.
- 23 Then he made a tour through the whole of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the Reign, and healing all the sickness and disease of the people.
- 24 The fame of him spread all through the surrounding country,* and people brought him all their sick, those who suffered from all manner of disease and pain, demoniacs, lunatics, and paralytics; he healed them all.
- 25 And he was followed by great crowds from Galilee and De-capolis and Jerusalem and Judaea and from across the Jordan.

- 5 So when he saw the crowds, he went up the hill and 2 sat down; his disciples came up to him and he opened his lips and began to teach them. He said:
- 3 "Blessed are those who feel poor in spirit!
the Realm of heaven is theirs.
- 4 Blessed are the mourners!
they will be consoled.
- 5 Blessed are the humble!
they will inherit the earth.
- 6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for goodness!
they will be satisfied.
- 7 Blessed are the merciful!
they will find mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in heart!
they will see God.
- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers!
they will be ranked sons of God.
- 10 Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of goodness!
the Realm of heaven is theirs.
- 11 Blessed are you when men denounce you and persecute you and utter all manner of evil against you for my sake; 12 rejoice and exult in it, for your reward is rich in heaven;
that is how they persecuted the prophets before you.

* I accept Blass's suggestion that Συπλαν here is a corruption of συνοπλαρ (see Mark i. 28), which is actually read by one uncial manuscript Γ.

- 13 You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes insipid, what can make it salt again? After that it is fit for nothing, fit only to be thrown outside and trodden by the feet of men.
- 14 You are the light of the world. A town on the top of a 15 hill cannot be hidden. Nor do men light a lamp to put it under a bowl; they put it on a stand and it shines for 16 all in the house. So your light is to shine before men, that they may see the good you do and glorify your Father in heaven.
- 17 Do not imagine I have come to destroy the Law or the 18 prophets; I have not come to destroy but to fulfil. (I tell you truly, till heaven and earth pass away not an iota, not a comma, will pass from the Law until it is all in force. Therefore
- 19 whoever relaxes a single one of these commands, were it even one of the least, and teaches men so, he will be ranked least in the Realm of heaven;
but whoever obeys them and teaches them, 20 he will be ranked great in the Realm of heaven.) For I tell you, unless your goodness excels that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the Realm of heaven.
- 21 You have heard how the men of old were told, 'Murder not:
whoever murders must come up for sentence,* 22 whoever maligns his brother must come before the Sanhedrin, whoever curses his brother must go to the fire of Gehenna.'
- But I tell you, whoever is angry with his brother [without 23 cause] will be sentenced by God. So if you remember, even when offering your gift at the altar, that your brother has 24 any grievance against you, leave your gift at the very altar and go away; first be reconciled to your brother, then come back and offer your gift.
- 25 Be quick and make terms with your opponent, so long as you and he are on the way to court, in case he hands you over to the judge, and the judge to the jailer, and you 26 are thrown into prison; truly I tell you, you will never get out till you pay the last halfpenny of your debt.
- 27 You have heard how it used to be said, Do not commit 28 adultery. But I tell you, any one who even looks with lust at a woman has committed adultery with her already in his heart.

* I follow the suggestion that the second and third clauses of ver. 22 should be restored to what seems to be their original position as a rabbinic comment upon the closing words of ver. 21.

- 29 If your right eye is a hindrance to you, pluck it out and throw it away:
better for you to lose one of your members
than to have all your body thrown into Gehenna.
- 30 And if your right hand is a hindrance to you, cut it off and throw it away:
better for you to lose one of your members
than to have all your body thrown into Gehenna.
- 31 It used to be said, Whoever divorces his wife must give 32 her a divorce-certificate. But I tell you, anyone who divorces his wife for any reason except unchastity makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.
- 33 Once again, you have heard how the men of old were told, 'You must not forswear yourself but discharge your 34 vows to the Lord'. But I tell you, you must not swear any oath, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God, 35 nor by earth, for it is the footstool of his feet.
nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King; 36 nor shall you swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black.
- 37 Let what you say be simply 'yes' or 'no'; whatever exceeds that springs from evil.
- 38 You have heard the saying, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.
- 39 But I tell you, you are not to resist an injury:
whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other to him as well;
- 40 whoever wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat as well;
- 41 whoever forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him;
- 42 give to the man who begs from you, and turn not away from him who wants to borrow.
- 43 You have heard the saying, 'You must love your neigh- 44 bour and hate your enemy.' But I tell you, love your 45 enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in heaven:
he makes his sun rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.
- 46 For if you love only those who love you, what reward do you get for that?
do not the very taxgatherers do as much?

47 and if you only salute your friends, what is special about that?

do not the very pagans do as much?

48 You must be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 TAKE care not to practise your charity before men in order to be noticed; otherwise you get no reward from your Father in heaven. No,

2 When you give alms, make no flourish of trumpets like the hypocrites in the synagogues and the streets, so as to win applause from men;
I tell you truly, they do get their reward.

3 When you give alms,
do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so as to keep your alms secret;

then your Father who sees what is secret will reward you openly.*

5 Also, when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, for they like to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street-corners, so as to be seen by men;
I tell you truly, they do get their reward.

6 When you pray, go into your room and shut the door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you.

7 Do not pray by idle rote like pagans, for they suppose they will be heard the more they say;

8 you must not copy them; your Father knows your needs before you ask him.

9 Let this be how you pray:

'our Father in heaven,
thy name be revered, 10 thy Reign begin, thy will be done on earth as in heaven!

11 give us to-day our bread for the morrow, 12 and forgive us our debts as we ourselves have forgiven our debtors, 13 and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.'

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, then your heavenly Father will forgive you;

* Retaining ἐν τῷ φανερώ, which has powerful support in the Old Latin and Syriac versions.

- 15 but if you do not forgive men, your Father will not forgive your trespasses either.
- 16 When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they look woebegone to let men see they are fasting;
I tell you truly, they do get their reward.
- 17 But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that your fast may be seen not by men but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you.
- 19 Store up no treasures for yourselves on earth, where moth and rust corrode, where thieves break in and steal:
- 20 store up treasures for yourselves in heaven, where neither moth nor rust corrode, where thieves do not break in and steal.
- 21 For where your treasure lies,
your heart will lie there too.
- 22 The eye is the lamp of the body:
so, if your Eye is generous, the whole of your body will be illumined,
- 23 but if your Eye is selfish, the whole of your body will be darkened.
And if your very light turns dark, then—what a darkness it is!
- 24 No one can serve two masters:
either he will hate one and love the other,
or else he will stand by the one and despise the other—you cannot serve both God and Mammon.
- 25 Therefore I tell you, do not trouble about what you are to eat or drink in life, nor about what you are to put on your body;
surely life means more than food, surely the body means more than clothes!
- 26 Look at the wild birds; they sow not, they reap not, they gather nothing in granaries,
and yet your heavenly Father feeds them.
Are you not worth more than birds?
- 27 Which of you can add an ell to his height by troubling about it?
- 28 And why should you trouble over clothing?
Look how the lilies of the field grow;
they neither toil nor spin,
- 29 and yet, I tell you, even Solomon in all his grandeur was never robed like one of them.

30 Now if God so clothes the grass of the field which blooms to-day and is thrown to-morrow into the furnace, will not he much more clothe you? O men, how little you trust 31 him! Do not be troubled, then, and cry, 'What are we to eat?' or 'what are we to drink?' or 'how are we to be 32 clothed?' (pagans make all that their aim in life) for your 33 heavenly Father knows quite well you need all that. Seek God's Realm and his goodness, and all that will be yours over and above.

34 So do not be troubled about to-morrow;
to-morrow will take care of itself.
The day's own trouble is quite enough for the day.

7 JUDGE not, that you may not be judged yourselves; 2 for as you judge so you will be judged, and the measure you deal out to others will be dealt out to yourselves.
3 Why do you note the splinter in your brother's eye and 4 fail to see the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the splinter from your 5 eye,' when there lies the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite! take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see properly how to take the splinter out of your brother's eye.
6 Do not give dogs what is sacred and do not throw pearls before swine, in case they trample them under foot and turn to gore you.
7 Ask and the gift will be yours,
seek and you will find,
knock and the door will open to you;
8 for every one who asks receives,
the seeker finds,
the door is opened to anyone who knocks.
9 Why, which of you, when asked by his son for a loaf, will hand him a stone?
10 Or, if he asks a fish, will you hand him a serpent?
11 Well, if for all your evil you know to give your children what is good,
how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him?
12 Well then, whatever you would like men to do to you, do just the same to them; that is the meaning of the Law and the prophets.
13 Enter by the narrow gate: for [the gate] is broad and the road is wide that leads to destruction, and many enter that way.

- 14 But the road that leads to life is both narrow and close, and there are few who find it.
- 15 Beware of false prophets; they come to you with the garb of sheep but at heart they are ravenous wolves.
- 16 You will know them by their fruit; do men gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles? No, 17 every good tree bears sound fruit, but a rotten tree bears bad fruit; 18 a good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a rotten tree cannot bear sound fruit.
- 20 So you will know them by their fruit.* Any tree that 19 does not produce sound fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.
- 21 It is not everyone who says to me 'Lord, Lord!', who will get into the Realm of heaven, but he who does the will 22 of my Father in heaven. Many will say to me at that Day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name? did we not cast out daemons in your name? did we not perform many 23 miracles in your name?' Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from my presence, you workers of iniquity.'
- 24 Now, everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts upon them will be like a sensible man who built his 25 house on rock. The rain came down, the floods rose, the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, 26 for it was founded on rock. And everyone who listens to these words of mine and does not act upon them will be 27 like a stupid man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the floods rose, the winds blew and beat upon that house, and down it fell—with a mighty crash."
- 28 When Jesus finished his speech, the crowds were as-29 tounded at his teaching; for he taught them like an authority, not like their own scribes.

8 WHEN he came down from the hill, he was followed by 2 large crowds. A leper came up and knelt before him, saying, "If you only choose, sir, you can cleanse me"; 3 so he stretched his hand out and touched him, with the words, "I do choose, be cleansed." And his leprosy was 4 cleansed at once. Then Jesus told him, "See, you are not to say a word to anybody; away and show yourself to the priest and offer the gift prescribed by Moses, to notify men."

5 When he entered Capharnahum an army-captain came

* Ver. 19 is repeated from iii. 10; to preserve the proper sequence of thought, it must be placed after ver. 20 as a link with the following paragraph.

6 up to him and appealed to him, saying, "Sir, my servant 7 is lying ill at home with paralysis, in terrible agony." He 8 replied, "I will come and heal him." The captain answered, 9 "Sir, I am not fit to have you under my roof; only say the word, and my servant will be cured. For 10 though I am a man under authority myself, I have soldiers under me; I tell one man to go, and he goes, I tell another to come, and he comes, I tell my servant, 'Do this,' and 11 he does it." When Jesus heard that, he marvelled; "I tell you truly," he said to his followers, "I have never met 12 faith like this anywhere in Israel. Many, I tell you, will come from east and west and take their places beside 13 Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Realm of heaven, while the sons of the Realm will pass* outside, into the darkness; 14 there men will wail and gnash their teeth." Then Jesus said to the captain, "Go; as you have had faith, your prayer is granted." And the servant was cured at that very hour.

14 On entering the house of Peter, Jesus noticed his 15 mother-in-law was down with fever, so he touched her hand; the fever left her and she rose and ministered to him.

16 Now when evening came they brought him many demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and 17 healed all the invalids—that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled, He took away our sicknesses and he removed our diseases.

18 When Jesus saw crowds round him he gave orders for 19 crossing to the other side. A scribe came up and said to 20 him, "Teacher, I will follow you anywhere"; Jesus said to him,

"The foxes have their holes, the wild birds have their nests,
 but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me go 22 and bury my father first of all"; Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead." 23 Then he embarked in the boat, followed by his disciples.
 24 Now a heavy storm came on at sea, so that the boat was 25 buried under the waves. He was sleeping. So the disciples went and woke him up, saying, "Help, Lord, we are drowning!" He said to them, "Why are you afraid? How little 26 you trust God!" Then he got up and checked the winds and 27 the sea, and there was a great calm. Men marvelled at this; they said, "What sort of man is this? the very winds and sea obey him!"

- 28 When he reached the opposite side, the country of the Gadarenes, he was met by two demoniacs who ran out of the tombs; they were so violent that nobody could pass 29 along the road there. They shrieked, "Son of God, what business have you with us? Have you come here to torture us before it is time?" Now, some distance away, 30 there was a large drove of swine grazing; so the daemons begged him saying, "If you are going to cast us out, send 31 us into that drove of swine." He said to them, "Begone!" So out they came and went to the swine, and the entire 32 drove rushed down the steep slope into the sea and perished in the water. The herdsmen fled; they went off to the town and reported the whole affair of the demoniacs.
33 Then all the town came out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him they begged him to move out of their district.

- 9 So he embarked in the boat and crossed over to his own town. There a paralytic was brought to him, lying on a pallet; and when Jesus saw the faith of the bearers he said to the paralytic, "Courage, my son! your 3 sins are forgiven." Some scribes said to themselves, "The man is talking blasphemy!" Jesus saw what they were thinking and said, "Why do you think evil in your 5 hearts? Which is the easier thing, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? But to let you see the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins"—he 6 then said to the paralytic, "Get up, lift your pallet, and go home." And he got up and went home. The crowds 7 who saw it were awed and glorified God for giving such power to men.

- 9 As Jesus passed along from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax-office; he said to him, "Follow me"; and he rose and followed him.
10 Jesus was at table indoors, and many taxgatherers and sinners had come to be guests with him and his disciples.
11 So when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with taxgatherers and 12 sinners?" When Jesus heard it he said, "Those who are strong have no need of a doctor, but those who are ill.
13 Go and learn the meaning of this word, I care for mercy not for sacrifice. For I have not come to call just men but sinners."
14 Then the disciples of John came up to him and said, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast a great deal, and your disciples do not fast?" 15 Jesus said to them,

"Can friends at a wedding mourn so long as the bridegroom is beside them?

A time will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then they will fast.

16 No one sews a piece of undressed cloth on an old coat, for the patch breaks away from it, and the tear is made worse:

18 As he said this, an official came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter is just dead; do come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." So Jesus rose and went 19 after him, accompanied by his disciples. Now a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years came up 20 behind him and touched the tassel of his robe; what she said to herself was this, "If I can only touch his robe, 21 I will recover." Then Jesus turned round, and when he saw her he said, "Courage, my daughter, your faith has made you well." And the woman was well from that hour. 22 Now when Jesus reached the official's house and saw the flute-players and the din the crowd were making, he 23 said, "Be off with you; the girl is not dead but asleep." 24 They laughed at him. But after the crowd had been put out, he went in and took her hand, and the girl rose up. 25 The report of this went all over that country.

26 As Jesus passed along from there, he was followed by two blind men who shrieked, "Son of David, have pity on 27 us!" When he went indoors the blind men came up to him, and Jesus asked them, "Do you believe I can do 28 this?" They said, "Yes, sir." Then he touched their eyes and said, "As you believe, so your prayer is granted," 29 and their eyes were opened. Jesus sternly charged them, 30 "See, nobody is to know of this." But they went out and 31 spread the news of him all over that country. As they went out, a dumb man was brought to him, who was pos- 32 sessed by a daemon, and when the daemon had been cast out, the dumb man spoke. Then the crowd marvelled; they said, "Such a thing has never been seen in Israel!" * 33 Then Jesus made a tour through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the 34 gospel of the Reign, and healing every disease and com-

* Ver. 34 ('But the Pharisees said, "He casts out daemons by the prince of daemons"') is to be omitted, with D, Syr.^{Sin.}, the Old Latin, the Diatessaron, etc. It is probably a later insertion from xii. 24 or Mark iii. 22, to prepare for xii. 24 f.

36 plaint. As he saw the crowds he was moved with pity for them; they were harassed and dejected, like sheep with-37 out a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The 38 harvest is rich, but the labourers are few; so pray the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to gather his harvest."

10 AND summoning his twelve disciples he gave them power over unclean spirits, power to cast them out 2 and also to heal every disease and every ailment. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, James the son of 3 Zebedaeus and John his brother, Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the taxgatherer, James the son of Alphaeus and Lebbaeus whose surname is Thaddaeus, 4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.
 5 These twelve men Jesus despatched with the following 6 instructions, "Do not go among the Gentiles, rather make 7 your way to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And preach as you go, tell men, 'The Reign of heaven is near.' 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out daemons; give without paying, as you have got without 9 paying; you are not to take gold or silver or coppers in 10 your girdle, nor a wallet for the road, nor two shirts, nor sandals, nor stick—the workman deserves his rations.
 11 Whatever town or village you go into, find out a deserving inhabitant and stay with him till you leave.
 12 When you enter the house, salute it; 13 if the household is deserving, let your peace rest on it; but if the household is undeserving, let your peace return to you.
 14 Whoever will not receive you or listen to your message, leave that house or town and shake off the very dust from 15 your feet. I tell you truly, on the day of judgment it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorra than for that town.
 16 I am sending you out like sheep among wolves; so be 17 wise like serpents and guileless like doves. Beware of men, they will hand you over to sanhedrins and scourge 18 you in their synagogues, and you will be haled before governors and kings for my sake—it will be a testimony to 19 them and to the Gentiles. Now, when they bring you up for trial, do not trouble yourselves about how to speak or what to say; what you are to say will come to you at the 20 moment, for you are not the speakers, it is the Spirit of 21 your Father that is speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, the father will betray his child, children will rise against their parents and put them to

- 22 death, and you will be hated by all men on account of my name; but he will be saved who holds out to the very end.
- 23 When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; truly I tell you, you will not have covered the towns of Israel before the Son of man arrives.
- 24 A scholar is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord;
- 25 enough for the scholar to fare like his teacher, and the servant like his lord.
If men have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they miscall his servants!
- 26 Fear them not:— nothing is veiled that shall not be revealed, or hidden that shall not be known;
- 27 what I tell you in the dark, you must utter in the open, what you hear in a whisper you must proclaim on the housetop.
- 28 Have no fear of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul:
rather fear Him who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.
- 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing?
Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unless your Father wills it.
- 30 The very hairs on your head are all numbered;
- 31 fear not, then, you are worth far more* than sparrows!
- 32 Everyone who will acknowledge me before men, I will acknowledge him before my Father in heaven;
- 33 and whoever will disown me before men,
I will disown him before my Father in heaven.
- 34 Do not imagine I have come to bring peace on earth;
I have not come to bring peace but a sword.
- 35 I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
- 36 yes, a man's own household will be his enemies.
- 37 He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me;
he who loves son or daughter more than me
is not worthy of me:
- 38 he who will not take his cross and follow after me
is not worthy of me.
- 39 He who has found his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

* The πολλῶν of the text is either a corruption of πολλῶ or, as Wellhausen points out, a mistranslation of the Aramaic equivalent for that. 'The distinction is qualitative, not quantitative.'

- 40 He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives Him who sent me.
- 41 He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet's reward;
he who receives a good man because he is good, will receive a good man's reward.
- 42 And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, I tell you, he shall not lose his reward."

11 AFTER finishing these instructions to his twelve disciples, Jesus removed from there to teach and preach among their towns.

- 2 Now when John heard in prison what the Christ was 3 doing, he sent his disciples to ask him, "Are you the Com-4 ing One? Or are we to look out for someone else?" Jesus 5 answered them, "Go and report to John what you hear and 6 see: the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the 7 deaf hear, and the dead are raised.* And blessed is he who 8 is repelled by nothing in me!" As the disciples of John 9 went away, Jesus proceeded to speak to the crowds about 10 John:

"What did you go out to the desert to see?

A reed swayed by the wind?

- 8 Come, what did you go out to see?

A man arrayed in soft raiment?

The wearers of soft raiment are in royal palaces.

- 9 Come, why did you go out?

To see a prophet?

Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet.

- 10 This is he of whom it is written,

Here I send my messenger before your face

to prepare the way for you.

- 11 I tell you truly, no one has arisen among the sons of 12 women who is greater than John the Baptist, and yet the 13 least in the Realm of heaven is greater than he is. From 14 the days of John the Baptist till now the Realm of heaven 15 suffers violence, and the violent press into it. For all the 16 prophets and the law prophesied of it until John:—if you 17 care to believe it, he is the Elijah who is to come. He 18 who has an ear, let him listen to this.

- 16 But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplace, who call to their playmates,

- 17 'We piped to you and you would not dance,

we lamented and you would not beat your breasts.'

* Omitting καὶ πτωχοὶ εὐαγγελίζονται, which seems a harmonistic interpolation from Luke vii. 22. Matthew never uses εὐαγγελίζεσθαι.

- 18 For John has come neither eating nor drinking, and men say, 'He has a devil'; 19 the Son of man has come eating and drinking, and men say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of taxgatherers and sinners!'

Nevertheless, Wisdom is vindicated by all that she does."

- 20 Then he proceeded to upbraid the towns where his many miracles had been performed, because they would not re-21 pent. "Woe to you, Khorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida!
Had the miracles performed in you been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth 22 and ashes. I tell you this, it will be more bearable for Tyre 23 and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. And you, O Capharnahum! Exalted to heaven? No, you will sink to Hades!—for if the miracles performed in you had been performed in Sodom, Sodom would have lasted to this day.
24 I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you."

- 25 At that time Jesus spoke and said, "I praise thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding all this from the wise 26 and learned and revealing it to the simpleminded; yes, Father, I praise thee that such was thy chosen purpose.

- 27 All has been handed over to me by my Father:
and no one knows the Son except the Father—nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

- 28 Come to me, all who are labouring and burdened, and I will refresh you.

- 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find your souls refreshed; 30 my yoke is kindly and my burden light."

- 12 At that time Jesus walked one sabbath through the cornfields, and as his disciples were hungry they 2 started to pull some ears of corn and eat them. When the Pharisees noticed it, they said to him, "Look at your disciples, they are doing what is not allowed on the sabbath." 3 He replied, "Have you not read what David did when he 4 and his men were hungry, how he went into the house of God, and there they ate the loaves of the Presence which neither he nor his men were allowed to eat, but only the 5 priests? Have you not read in the Law that the priests in the temple are not guilty when they desecrate the sabbath?
6 I tell you, One is here who is greater than the temple.
7 Besides, if you had known what this meant, I care for mercy not for sacrifice, you would not have condemned men

8 who are not guilty. For the Son of man is Lord of the sabbath."

9 Then he moved on from there and went into their syn-10 agogue. Now a man with a withered hand was there; so in order to get a charge against him they asked him, "Is 11 it right to heal on the sabbath?" He said to them, "Is there a man of you with one sheep, who will not catch hold of it 12 and lift it out of a pit on the sabbath, if it falls in? And how much more is a man worth than a sheep? Thus it is 13 right to do a kindness on the sabbath." Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and 14 it was quite restored, as sound as the other. So the Pharisees withdrew and plotted against him, to destroy him; 15 but as Jesus knew of it he retired from the spot. Many 16 followed him, and he healed them all, charging them 17 strictly not to make him known—it was for the fulfilment of what had been said by the prophet Isaiah,

18 *Here is my servant whom I have selected, my Beloved in whom my soul delights;
 I will invest him with my Spirit, and he will proclaim religion to the Gentiles.*

19 He will not wrangle or shout, no one will hear his voice in the streets.

20 He will not break the bruised reed, he will not put out the smouldering flax, till he carries religion to victory:

21 and the Gentiles will hope in his name.

22 Then a blind and dumb demoniac was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw.
 23 And all the crowds were amazed; they said, "Can this be 24 the Son of David?" But when the Pharisees heard of it they said, "This fellow only casts out daemons by Beelzebul 25 the prince of daemons." As Jesus knew what they were thinking, he said to them,

"Any realm divided against itself comes to ruin, any city or house divided against itself will never stand;

26 and if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself;

how then can his realm stand?

27 Besides, if I cast out daemons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out?

Thus they will be your judges.

28 But if I cast out daemons by the Spirit of God, then the Reign of God has reached you already.

29 Why, how can anyone enter the strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first of all binds the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

- 30 He who is not with me is against me,
and he who does not gather with me scatters.
- 31 I tell you therefore, men will be forgiven any sin and blasphemy,
but they will not be forgiven for blaspheming the Spirit.
- 32 Whoever says a word against the Son of man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the holy Spirit will never be forgiven, neither in this world nor in the world to come.
- 33 Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten;
for the tree is known by its fruit.
- 34 You brood of vipers, how can you speak good when you are evil?
For the mouth utters what the heart is full of.
- 35 The good man brings good out of his good store, and the evil man brings evil out of his store of evil.
- 36 I tell you, men will have to account on the day of judgment for every light word they utter;
- 37 for by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."
- 38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to him, 39 "Teacher, we would like to have some Sign from you." He replied to them,
"It is an evil and disloyal generation that craves a Sign, but no Sign will be given to it except the Sign of the prophet Jonah;
- 40 for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so the Son of man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
- 41 The men of Ninive will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it;
for when Jonah preached they did repent,
and here is One greater than Jonah.
- 42 The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon,
- 43 When an unclean spirit leaves a man, it roams through 44 dry places in search of refreshment and finds none. Then it says, 'I will go back to the house I left,' and when it comes it finds the house vacant, clean, and all in order.
- 45 Then it goes off to fetch seven other spirits worse than itself; they go in and dwell there, and the last state of that man is worse than the first. This is how it will be with the present evil generation."

46 He was still speaking to the crowds when his mother and 48 brothers came and stood outside; they wanted to speak to 49 him.* But he replied to the man who told him this, "Who 50 is my mother? and who are my brothers?" Stretching out his hand towards his disciples he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven, that is my brother and sister and mother."

2 13 THAT same day Jesus went out of the house and seated himself by the seaside; but, as great crowds gathered 3 to him, he entered a boat and sat down, while all the crowd stood on the beach. He spoke at some length to them in 4 parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow, and as he sowed some seeds fell on the road and the birds came and 5 ate them up. Some other seeds fell on stony soil where they had not much earth, and shot up at once because they had 6 no depth of soil; but when the sun rose they got scorched 7 and withered away because they had no root. Some other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and 8 choked them. Some other seeds fell on good soil and bore a crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirtyfold.
 9 He who has an ear, let him listen to this."

10 Then the disciples came up and said to him, "Why do you 11 speak in parables?" He replied, "Because it is granted you to understand the open secrets of the Realm of heaven, but it is not granted to these people."

12 For he who has, to him shall more be given and richly given,
 - but whoever has not, from him shall be taken even what he has.

13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because for all their seeing they do not see and for all their hearing they 14 do not hear or understand. In their case the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled:

*You will hear and hear but never understand,
 you will see and see but never perceive.*

15 *For the heart of this people is obtuse, their ears are heavy of hearing,
 their eyes they have closed,
 lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears,*

* Ver. 47, which is rightly omitted by N*BL, the Old Latin and Syriac versions, etc., has been interpolated by an early copyist who wished to prepare for ver. 48 by using the material of Mark iii. 32. It runs thus: "And a man said to him, 'Here are your mother and brothers standing outside and wanting to speak to you.'" lest they understand with their heart and turn again, and I cure them.

16 But blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears, for they hear!

17 I tell you truly, many prophets and good men have longed to see what you see,
but they have not seen it;
and to hear what you hear,
but they have not heard it.

18 Now, listen to the parable of the sower. When anyone 19 hears the word of the Realm and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart; that is the man who is sown 'on the road.' 20 As for him who is sown 'on stony soil,' that is the man who hears the word and accepts it at once with enthusiasm; 21 he has no root in himself, he does not last, but when the word brings trouble or persecution he is at once repelled.
22 As for him who is sown 'among thorns,' that is the man who listens to the word, but the worry of the world and the delight of being rich choke the word; so it proves un-23 fruitful. As for him who is sown 'on good soil,' that is the man who hears the word and understands it; he bears fruit, producing now a hundredfold, now sixty, and now thirty-fold."

24 He put another parable before them. "The Realm of heaven," he said, "is like a man who sowed good seed in 25 his field, but while men slept his enemy came and resowed 26 weeds among the wheat and then went away. When the blade sprouted and formed the kernel, then the weeds ap-27 peared as well. So the servants of the owner went to him and said, 'Did you not sow good seed in your field, sir?
28 How then does it contain weeds?' He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Then 29 would you like us to go and gather them?' 'No,' he said,
'for you might root up the wheat when you were gathering 30 the weeds. Let them both grow side by side till harvest; and at harvest-time I will tell the reapers to gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to be burnt, but to collect the wheat in my granary.'"

heaven," he said, "is like a grain of mustard-seed which a 32 man takes and sows in his field. It is less than any seed on earth, but when it grows up it is larger than any plant, it becomes a tree, so large that the wild birds come and roost in its branches."

33 He told them another parable. "The Realm of heaven," he said, "is like dough which a woman took and buried in three pecks of flour, till all of it was leavened."

34 Jesus said all this to the crowds in parables; he never 35 spoke to them except in a parable—to fulfil what had been said by the prophet,

I will open my mouth in parables,

I will speak out what has been hidden since the foundation of the world.

36 Then he left the crowds and went indoors. And his disciples came up to him saying, "Explain to us the parable of 37 the weeds in the field." So he replied, "He who sows the 38 good seed is the Son of man; the field is the world; the good seed means the sons of the Realm; the weeds are the sons 39 of the evil one; the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers are 40 angels. Well then, just as the weeds are gathered and burnt 41 in the fire, so will it be at the end of the world; the Son of man will despatch his angels, and they will gather out of his Realm all who are hindrances and who practise iniquity, 42 and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will 43 wail and gnash their teeth. Then the just will shine like the sun in the Realm of their Father. He who has an ear, let him listen to this.

44 The Realm of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field; the man who finds it hides it and in his delight goes and sells all he possesses and buys that field.

45 Again, the Realm of heaven is like a trader in search of 46 fine pearls; when he finds a single pearl of high price, he is off to sell all he possesses and buy it.

47 Again, the Realm of heaven is like a net which was 48 thrown into the sea and collected fish of every sort. When it was full, they dragged it to the beach and sitting down they gathered the good fish into vessels but flung away the 49 bad. So will it be at the end of the world. The angels will 50 go out and separate the evil from among the just and fling them into the furnace of fire; there men will wail and gnash their teeth.

51 Have you understood all this?" They said to him, "Yes." 52 So he said to them, "Well then, every scribe who has become a disciple of the Realm of heaven is like a householder who produces what is new and what is old from his stores."

53 Now when Jesus had finished these parables he set out 54 from there, and went to his native place, where he taught the people in the synagogue till they were astounded.
They said, "Where did he get this wisdom and these 55 miraculous powers? Is this not the son of the joiner? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and 56 Joseph and Simon and Judas? Are not his sisters settled 57 here among us? Then where has he got all this?" So they were repelled by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet never goes without honour except in his native place and in his home." There he could not do many miracles owing to their lack of faith.

2 14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard about the fame of Jesus. And he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead. That is why miraculous powers are working through him."

3 For Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison on account of Herodias the wife of his brother Philip, since John had told him, "You have no right to her." He was anxious to kill him but he was afraid of the people, for they held John to be a prophet. However, on Herod's birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced in public to the delight of Herod; whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she wanted. And she, at the instigation of her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head this moment on a dish." The king was sorry, but for the sake of his oath and his guests he ordered it to be given her; he sent and had John beheaded in the prison, his head was brought on a dish and given to the girl, and she took it to her mother. His disciples came and removed the corpse and buried him; then they went and reported it to Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard it he withdrew by boat to a desert place in private; but the crowds heard of it and followed him on foot from the towns. So when he disembarked he saw a large crowd, and out of pity for them he healed their sick folk. When evening fell, the disciples came up to him and said, "It is a desert place and the day is now gone; send off the crowds to buy food for themselves in the villages." Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away; give them some food yourselves." They said, "We have only five loaves with us and two fish." He said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to recline on the grass, and after taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, blessed them, and after breaking the loaves handed them to the disciples, and the disciples handed them to the crowds. They all ate and had enough; besides, they picked up the fragments left over and filled twelve baskets with them. The men who ate numbered about five thousand, apart from the women and children.

22 Then he made the disciples embark in the boat and cross before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds; after he had dismissed the crowds he went up the hill by himself to pray. When evening came he was there alone, but the boat was now in the middle of the sea, buffeted by the 25 waves (for the wind was against them). In the fourth watch 26 of the night he went to them, walking on the sea, but when the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terri-27 fied; "It is a ghost," they said and shrieked for fear. Then Jesus spoke to them at once; "Courage," he said, "it is I, 28 have no fear." Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is really you, 29 order me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come."

 Then Peter got out of the boat and walked over the water 30 on his way to Jesus; but when he saw the strength of the wind he was afraid and began to sink. "Lord," he shouted, 31 save me." Jesus at once stretched his hand out and caught him, saying, "How little you trust me! Why did you 32 doubt?" When they got into the boat the wind dropped, 33 and the men in the boat worshipped him, saying, "You are certainly God's Son."

34 On crossing over they came to land at Gennesaret. The 35 men of that place recognized him and sent all over the surrounding country, bringing him all who were ill 36 and begging him to let them touch the mere tassel of his robe—and all who touched it got perfectly well.

2 15 THEN Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, "Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? They do not wash their hands 3 when they take their food." He replied, "And why do you 4 transgress the command of God with your traditions? God enjoined, Honour your father and mother, and, He who 5 curses his father or mother is to suffer death. But you say, whoever tells his father or mother, 'This money might have been at your service but it is dedicated to God,' 6 need not honour his father or mother. So you have repealed 7 the law of God to suit your own tradition. You hypocrites! Isaiah made a grand prophecy about you when he said,

8 This people honours me with their lips,
but their heart is far away from me:
 9 vain is their worship of me,
for the doctrines they teach are but human precepts." 10 Then he called the crowd and said to them, "Listen, understand this:

11 it is not what enters a man's mouth that defiles him, what defiles a man is what comes out of his mouth."

12 Then the disciples came up and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees have taken offence at what they hear 13 you say?" He replied, "Any plant that my heavenly Father 14 has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind, and if one blind man leads 15 another, both of them will fall into a pit." Peter answered, 16 Explain this parable to us at anyrate." He said, "And are 17 you totally ignorant? Do you not see how all that enters the mouth passes into the belly and is then thrown out 18 into the drain, while what comes out of the mouth comes 19 from the heart—and that is what defiles a man. For out of the heart come evil designs, murder, adultery, sexual 20 vice, stealing, false witness, and slander. That is what defiles a man; a man is not defiled by eating with hands unwashed!"

21 Going away from there Jesus withdrew to the district of 22 Tyre and Sidon. And a woman of Canaan came out of these parts and wailed, "Have pity on me, Lord, O Son of David!
 23 My daughter is cruelly possessed by a daemon." But he made no answer to her. Then his disciples came up and pressed him, saying, "Send her away, she is wailing behind 24 us." He replied, "It was only to the lost sheep of the house 25 of Israel that I was sent." But she came and knelt before 26 him, saying, "Lord, do help me." He replied, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." 27 "No, sir," she said, "but even the dogs eat the crumbs that 28 fall from their master's table." At that Jesus replied, "O woman, you have great faith; your prayer is granted as you wish." And from that hour her daughter was cured.

29 Then Jesus removed from that country and went along the sea of Galilee; he went up the hillside and sat there.
 30 And large crowds came to him bringing the lame, and the blind, the dumb, the maimed, and many others; they laid 31 them at his feet, and he healed them. This made the crowd wonder, to see dumb people speaking,* the lame walking, 32 and the blind seeing. Then Jesus called his disciples and said, "I am sorry for the crowd; they have been three days with me now, and they have nothing to eat. I will not send them away starving, in case they faint on the road." 33 The disciples said to him, "Where are we to get loaves 34 enough in a desert to satisfy such a crowd?" Jesus said to them, "How many loaves have you got?" They said, "Seven, 35 and some little fish." So he ordered the crowd to recline on 36 the ground. He took the seven loaves and the fish and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, 37 and the disciples to the crowds. So the people all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over 38 and filled seven large baskets with them. The men who ate numbered four thousand, apart from the children and the 39 women. Then he sent the crowd away, got into the boat and went to the territory of Magadan.

* Leaving out the phrase κυλλοὺς ὑγιείς with 8, the Latin version, the Old Syriac, Origen, etc. Its insertion for harmonistic reasons is more likely than its omission.

16 Now the Pharisees and Sadducees came up and, in order to tempt him, asked him to show them a Sign from heaven. He replied, 4 "It is an evil and disloyal generation that craves a Sign, and no Sign shall be given to it except the Sign of Jonah."*

Then he left them and went away.

5 When the disciples reached the opposite side, they found 6 they had forgotten to bring any bread. Jesus said to them, "See and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." They argued among themselves, "But we have not 8 brought any bread!" When Jesus noted this he said, "How little trust you have in me! Why all this talk, because you 9 have brought no bread? Do you not understand even yet? Do you not remember the five loaves of the five thousand 10 and how many baskets you took up? And the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took 11 up? Why do you not see that I was not speaking to you about bread? No, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees 12 and Sadducees." Then they realized that what he told them to beware of was not leaven† but the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when Jesus came to the district of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the 14 Son of man is?" They told him, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He said to them, "And who do you say I am?" So Simon 16 Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living 17 God." Jesus answered him, "You are a blessed man, Simon Bar-jona, for it was my Father in heaven, not flesh and 18 blood, that revealed this to you. Now I tell you, Peter is your name‡ and on this rock I will build my church; the 19 powers of Hades shall not succeed against it. I will give you the keys of the Realm of heaven;

* Three uncials (C D W) of the fifth century and several versions, including the Latin and the Syriac (Vulgate), together with the Diatesaron, insert at the beginning of this answer the following:

"When evening comes, you say, 'It will be fine,' for the sky is red; in the morning you say, 'It will be stormy to-day,' for the sky is red and cloudy. You know how to distinguish the look of the sky, but you cannot read the signs of the times."

The majority of the uncials, with the Old Syriac and Origen, rightly omit the passage as irrelevant to the original text.

‡ English fails to bring out the play on the Greek word for "rock." The French version reproduces it: "Et moi je te dis aussi que tu es le Pierre, et sur cette pierre je bâtirai mon église."

whatever you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven."

20 Then he forbade the disciples to tell anyone he was the Christ.

21 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he had to leave for Jerusalem and endure great suffering at the hands of the elders and high priests and scribes, and 22 be killed and raised on the third day. Peter took him and began to reprove him for it; "God forbid, Lord," he said, 23 "This must not be." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, you Satan! You are a hindrance to me! Your 24 outlook is not God's but man's." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and so follow me;

25 for whoever wants to save his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

26 What profit will it be if a man gains the whole world and forfeits his own soul? What will a man offer as an equivalent for his soul? For the Son of man is coming in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will 28 reward everyone for what he has done. I tell you truly, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death till they see the Son of man coming himself to reign.

17 Six days afterwards Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John, and led them up a high hill by themselves; in their presence he was transfigured, his face shone like the sun, and his clothes turned white as light.
3 There appeared to them Moses and Elijah, who conversed 4 with Jesus. So Peter addressed Jesus and said, "Lord, it is a good thing we are here; if you like, I will put up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 5 He was still speaking when a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said,
"This is my Son, the Beloved,
in him is my delight:
listen to him."

6 When the disciples heard the voice they fell on their faces 7 in terror; but Jesus came forward and touched them, saying, "Rise, have no fear." And on raising their eyes they 9 saw no one except Jesus all alone. As they went down the hill Jesus ordered them, "Tell this vision to nobody until 10 the Son of man is raised from the dead." The disciples inquired of him, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah 11 has to come first?" He replied, "Elijah to come and 12 restore all things? Nay, I tell you Elijah has already come, but they have not recognized him—they have worked their will on him. And the Son of man will suffer at their hands in the same way.” Then the disciples realized he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

When they reached the crowd, a man came up and knelt to him. “Ah, sir,” he said, “have pity on my son; he is an epileptic and he suffers cruelly, he often falls into the fire and often into the water. I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him.” Jesus answered, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long must I still be with you? How long have I to bear with you? Bring him here to me.” So Jesus checked the daemon and it came out of him, and from that hour the boy was healed. Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and said, “Why could we not cast it out?” He said to them, “Because you have so little faith. I tell you truly, if you had faith the size of a grain of mustard-seed, you could say to this hill, ‘Move from here to there,’ and remove it would; nothing would be impossible for you.”

When his adherents mustered in Galilee Jesus told them, “The Son of man is to be betrayed into the hands of men, they will kill him, but on the third day he will be raised.” They were greatly distressed at this.

When they reached Capharnahum, the collectors of the temple-tax came and asked Peter, “Does your teacher not pay the temple-tax?” He said, “Yes.” But when he went indoors Jesus spoke first; “Tell me, Simon,” he said, “from whom do earthly kings collect customs or taxes? Is it from their own people or from aliens?” “From aliens,” he said. Then Jesus said to him, “So their own people are exempt. However, not to give any offence to them, go to the sea, throw a hook in, and take the first fish you bring up. Open its mouth and you will find a five-shilling piece; take that and give it to them for me and for yourself.”

18 At that hour the disciples came and asked Jesus, “Who is greatest in the Realm of heaven?” So he called a child, set it among them, and said, “I tell you truly, unless you turn and become like children, you will never get into the Realm of heaven at all. Whoever humbles himself like this child, he is the greatest in the Realm of heaven; and whoever receives a little child like this for my sake, receives me. But whoever is a hindrance to one of these little ones who believe in me, better for him to have a great mill-stone hung round his neck and be sunk in the deep sea. Woe to the world for hindrances! Hindrances have to come, but—woe to the man by whom the hindrance does come!

- 8 If your hand or your foot is a hindrance to you, cut it off and throw it away;
better be maimed or crippled and get into Life, than keep both feet or hands and be thrown into the everlasting fire.
- 9 If your eye is a hindrance to you, tear it out and throw it away; better get into Life with one eye than keep your two eyes and be thrown into the fire of Gehenna.
- 10 See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you, their angels in heaven always look on the face of my Father in heaven.
- 12 Tell me, if a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays, will he not leave the ninety-nine sheep on the hills 13 and go in search of the one that has strayed? And if he happens to find it, I tell you he rejoices over it more than 14 over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that a single one of these little ones should be lost.
- 15 If your brother sins [against you], go and reprove him, as between you and him alone. If he listens to you, then you 16 have won your brother over; but if he will not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that every case may be decided on the evidence of two or of three witnesses.
17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church; and if he refuses to listen to the church, treat him as a pagan or a 18 taxgatherer. I tell you truly, Whatever you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven,
and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven.
- 19 I tell you another thing: if two of you agree on earth about anything you pray for, it will be done for you by my 20 Father in heaven. For where two or three have gathered in my name, I am there among them."
- 21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often is my brother to sin against me and be forgiven? Up to 22 seven times?" Jesus said to him, "Seven times? I say, seventy times seven! That is why the Realm of heaven 23 may be compared to a king who resolved to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the settlement, a debtor 24 was brought in who owed him three million pounds; as he was unable to pay, his master ordered him to be sold, 25 along with his wife and children and all he had, in payment of the sum. So the servant fell down and prayed him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you it all.'
26 And out of pity for that servant his master released him

28 and discharged his debt. But as that servant went away, he met one of his fellow-servants who owed him twenty pounds, and seizing him by the throat he said, 'Pay your debt!' So his fellow-servant fell down and implored him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; he went and had him thrown into prison, till he should pay the debt. Now when his fellow-servants saw what had happened they were greatly distressed, and they went and explained to their master all that had happened. Then his master summoned him and said, 'You scoundrel of a servant! I discharged all that debt for you, because you implored me. Ought you not to have had mercy on your fellow-servant, as I had on you?' And in hot anger his master handed him over to the torturers, till he should pay him all the debt. My Father will do the same to you unless you each forgive your brother from the heart."

19 WHEN Jesus finished saying this he moved from Galilee and went to the territory of Judaea that lies across the Jordan. Large crowds followed him and he healed them there.

3 Then the Pharisees came up to tempt him. They asked, "Is it right to divorce one's wife for any reason?" He replied, "Have you never read that He who created them male and female from the beginning said,

*Hence a man shall leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife,
and the pair shall be one flesh?*

6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What God has joined, then, man must not separate." They said to him, "Then why did Moses lay it down that we were to divorce by giving a separation-notice?" He said to them, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, on account of the hardness of your hearts, but it was not so from the beginning. I tell you, whoever divorces his wife except for unchastity and marries another woman, commits adultery; and he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery." The disciples said to him, "If that is a man's position with his wife, there is no good in marrying." He said to them, "True, but this truth is not practicable for everyone, it is only for those who have the gift.

12 There are eunuchs who have been eunuchs from their birth, there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the Realm of heaven.

Let anyone practice it for whom it is practicable."

13 Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray over them. The disciples

14 checked the people, but Jesus said to them, "Let the children alone, do not stop them from coming to me: the 15 Realm of heaven belongs to such as these." Then he laid his hands on them and went upon his way.

16 Up came a man and said to him, "Teacher, what good 17 deed must I do to gain life eternal?" He said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? One alone is good. But if you want to get into Life, keep the com-

18 mands." "Which?" he said. Jesus answered, "The commands, you shall not kill, you shall not commit adultery, 19 you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, honour your father and mother, and you must love your neighbour
20 as yourself." The young man said, "I have observed all

21 these. What more is wanting?" Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go and sell your property, give the money to the poor and you shall have treasure in heaven; 22 then come and follow me." When the young man heard that, he went sadly away, for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you truly, it will be difficult for a rich man to get into the Realm of heaven.
24 I tell you again, it is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye than for a rich man to get into the Realm of 25 God." When the disciples heard this they were utterly astounded; they said, "Who then can possibly be saved?" 26 Jesus looked at them and said, "This is impossible for men, 27 but anything is possible for God." Then Peter replied, "Well, we have left our all and followed you. Now what 28 are we to get?" Jesus said to them, "I tell you truly, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me shall also sit on twelve 29 thrones to govern the twelve tribes of Israel. Everyone who has left brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands or houses for my name's sake will get a hundred times as much and inherit life eternal.

30 Many who are first shall be last, and many who are last shall be first.

20 For the Realm of heaven is like a householder who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for 2 his vineyard; and after agreeing with the labourers to pay them a shilling a day he sent them into his vineyard.
3 Then, on going out at nine o'clock he noticed some other 4 labourers standing in the marketplace doing nothing; to them he said, 'You go into the vineyard too, and I will give 5 you whatever wage is fair.' So they went in. Going out again at twelve o'clock and at three o'clock, he did the 6 same thing. And when he went out at five o'clock he came upon some others who were standing; he said to them, 7 'Why have you stood doing nothing all the day?' 'Because nobody hired us,' they said. He told them, 'You go into the vineyard too.' Now when evening came the master of the vineyard said to his bailiff, 'Summon the labourers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last and going on to the first.*' When those who had been hired about five o'clock came, they got a shilling each. So when the first labourers came up, they supposed they would get more; but they too got each their shilling. And on getting it they grumbled at the householder. 'These last,' they said, 'have only worked a single hour, and yet you have ranked them equal to us who have borne the brunt of the day's work and the heat!' Then he replied to one of them, 'My man, I am not wronging you. Did you not agree with me for a shilling? Take what belongs to you and be off. I choose to give this last man the same as you. Can I not do as I please with what belongs to me? Have you a grudge because I am generous?' So shall the last be first and the first last."

Now as Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem he took the twelve aside by themselves and said to them as they were on the road, "We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be betrayed to the high priests and scribes; they will sentence him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified; then on the third day he will be raised."

Then the mother of the sons of Zebedaeus came up to him with her sons, praying him for a favour. He said to her, "What do you want?" She said, "Give orders that my two sons are to sit at your right hand and at your left in your Realm." Jesus replied, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?" They said to him, "We can." "You shall drink my cup," said Jesus, "but it is not for me to grant seats at my right hand and at my left; these belong to the men for whom they have been destined by my Father." When the ten heard of this, they were angry at the two brothers, but Jesus called them and said,

"You know the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men overbear them:

not so with you.

Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave;

just as the Son of man has not come to be served but to serve,

and to give his life as a ransom for many."

* Note the connexion between this parable (ver. 16) and xix. 30.

29 As they were leaving Jericho a crowd followed him, 30 and when two blind men who were sitting beside the road heard Jesus was passing, they shouted, "O Lord, Son of 31 David, have pity on us!" The crowd checked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, "O 32 Lord, Son of David, have pity on us!" So Jesus stopped and called them. He said, "What do you want me to do 33 for you?" "Lord," they said, "we want our eyes opened." 34 Then Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and they regained their sight at once and followed him.

21 WHEN they came near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage at the Hill of Olives, then Jesus des-2 patched two disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village in front of you and you will at once find an ass tethered with a colt alongside of her; untether them and bring 3 them to me. If anyone says anything to you, you will say that the Lord needs them; then he will at once let them 4 go." This took place for the fulfilment of what had been spoken by the prophet,

5 Tell the daughter of Sion,

'Here is your king coming to you,

He is gentle and mounted on an ass,

And on a colt the foal of a beast of burden.'

6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus told them; 7 they brought the ass and the colt and put their clothes on 8 them. Jesus seated himself on them, and the greater part of the crowd spread their clothes on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road.
9 And the crowds who went in front of him and who followed behind shouted,

"Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed be he who comes in the Lord's name!

Hosanna in high heaven!"

10 When he entered Jerusalem the whole city was in excite-11 ment over him. "Who is this?" they said, and the crowds replied, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazaret in Gali-12 lee!" Then Jesus went into the temple of God and drove out all who were buying and selling inside the temple; he upset the tables of the money-changers and the stalls 13 of those who sold doves, and told them, "It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer, but you make it a den of robbers.'"

14 Blind and lame people came up to him in the temple and 15 he healed them. But when the high priests and scribes saw his wonderful deeds and saw the children who shouted in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were 16 indignant; they said to him, "Do you hear what they are saying?" "Yes," said Jesus, "have you never read Thou hast brought praise to perfection from the mouth of babes and sucklings?" Then he left them and went outside the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

In the morning as he came back to the city he felt hungry, and noticing a fig tree by the roadside he went up to it, but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you after this!" And instantly the fig tree withered up. When the disciples saw this they marvelled. "How did the fig tree wither up in an instant?" they said. Jesus answered, "I tell you truly, if you have faith, if you have no doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree but even if you say to this hill, 'Take and throw yourself into the sea,' it will be done. All that ever you ask in prayer you shall have, if you believe."

When he entered the temple, the high priests and elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, "What authority have you for acting in this way? Who gave you this authority?" Jesus replied, "Well, I will ask you a question, and if you answer me, then I will tell you what authority I have for acting as I do. Where did the baptism of John come from? From heaven or from men?" Now they argued to themselves, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?' And if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." He said to them, "No more will I tell you what authority I have for acting as I do. Tell me what you think. A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard to-day'; he replied, 'I will go, sir,' but he did not go. The man went to the second and said the same to him; he replied, 'I will not,' but afterwards he changed his mind and did go. Which of the two did the will of the father?" They said, "The last." Jesus said to them, "I tell you truly, the taxgatherers and harlots are going into the Realm of God before you. For John showed you the way to be good and you would not believe him; the taxgatherers and harlots believed him, and even though you saw that, you would not change your mind afterwards and believe him.

Listen to another parable. There was a householder who planted a vineyard, put a fence round it, dug a wine-vat inside it, and built a watchtower: then he leased it to vine-dressers and went abroad. When the fruit-season was near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers to collect his fruit; but the vinedressers took his servants and flogged

36 one, killed another, and stoned a third. Once more he 37 sent some other servants, more than he had sent at first, 38 and they did the same to them. Afterwards he sent them 39 his son; 'They will respect my son,' he said. But when 40 the vinedressers saw his son they said to themselves, 'Here 41 is the heir; come on, let us kill him and seize his inherit-42 ance!' So they took and threw him outside the vineyard 43 and killed him. Now, when the owner of the vineyard 44 comes, what will he do to these vinedressers?" They replied, "He will utterly destroy the wretches and lease the vineyard to other vinedressers who will give him the fruits in their season." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures,

*The stone that the builders rejected is the chief stone now of the corner:
 this is the doing of the Lord,
 and a wonder to our eyes?*

43 I tell you therefore that the Realm of God will be taken from you and given to a nation that bears the fruits of the Realm.

44 [Everyone who falls on this stone will be shattered, and whoever it falls upon will be crushed.]"

45 When the high priests and Pharisees heard these parables 46 they knew he was speaking about them; they tried to get hold of him, but they were afraid of the crowds, as the crowds held him to be a prophet.

2 22 THEN Jesus again addressed them in parables. "The Realm of heaven," he said, "may be compared to a king who gave a marriage-banquet in honour of his son.
 3 He sent his servants to summon the invited guests to the 4 feast, but they would not come. Once more he sent some other servants, saying, 'Tell the invited guests, here is my supper all prepared, my oxen and fat cattle are killed, 5 everything is ready; come to the marriage-banquet.' But they paid no attention and went off, one to his estate, 6 another to his business, while the rest seized his servants 7 and ill-treated them and killed them. The king was enraged; he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers 8 and burned up their city. Then he said to his servants,
 "The marriage-banquet is all ready, but the invited guests 9 did not deserve it. So go to the byeways and invite anyone 10 you meet to the marriage-banquet.' And those servants went out on the roads and gathered all they met, bad and good alike. Thus the marriage-banquet was supplied 11 with guests. Now when the king came in to view his guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in a 12 wedding-robe. So he said to him, 'My man, how did you get in here without a wedding-robe?" The man was speechless. Then said the king to his servants, "Take him hand and foot, and throw him outside, out into the darkness; there men will wail and gnash their teeth. For many are invited but few are chosen."

Then the Pharisees went and plotted to trap him in talk. They sent him their disciples with the Herodians, who said, "Teacher, we know you are sincere and that you teach the Way of God honestly and fearlessly; you do not court human favour. Tell us, then, what you think about this. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" But Jesus detected their malice. He said, "Why do you tempt me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin for taxes." So they brought him a shilling. Then Jesus said to them, "Whose likeness, whose inscription is this?" "Caesar's," they said. Then he told them, "Give Caesar what belongs to Caesar, give God what belongs to God." When they heard that they marvelled; then they left him and went away.

That same day some Sadducees came up to him, men who hold there is no resurrection. They put this question to him: "Teacher, Moses said that if anyone dies without children, his brother is to espouse his wife and raise offspring for his brother. Now there were seven brothers in our number. The first married and died; as he had no children he left his wife to his brother. The same happened with the second and the third, down to the seventh. After them all, the woman died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will she be? They all had her." Jesus answered them, "You go wrong because you understand neither the scriptures nor the power of God. At the resurrection people neither marry nor are married, they are like the angels of God in heaven. And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God, I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is not a God of dead people but of living." And when the crowds heard it, they were astounded at his teaching.

When the Pharisees heard he had silenced the Sadducees, they mustered their forces, and one of them, a jurist, put a question in order to tempt him. "Teacher," he said, "what is the greatest command in the Law?" He replied, "You must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, with your whole soul, and with your whole mind. This is the greatest and chief command. There is a second like it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. The whole Law and the prophets hang upon these two commands."

As the Pharisees had mustered, Jesus put a question to them. "Tell me," he said, "what you think about the Christ.

43 Whose son is he?" They said to him, "David's." He said to them, "How is it then that David in the Spirit calls him Lord?"

44 The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, till I put your enemies under your feet.'

45 If David calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one 46 could make any answer to him, and from that day no one ventured to put another question to him.

23 THEN Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples.
2 "The scribes and Pharisees sit on the seat of Moses; 3 so do whatever they tell you, obey them, but do not do as 4 they do. They talk but they do not act. They make up heavy loads and lay them on men's shoulders but they will 5 not stir a finger to remove them. Besides, all they do is done to catch the notice of men; they make their phylacteries broad, they wear large tassels, they are fond of the 6 best places at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues; they like to be saluted in the marketplaces and to be called 'rabbi' by men.

8 But you are not to be called 'rabbi,' for One is your teacher, and you are all brothers; 9 you are not to call anyone 'father' on earth, for One is your heavenly Father; 10 nor must you be called 'leaders,' for One is your leader, even the Christ.

11 He who is greatest among you must be your servant.
12 Whoever uplifts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be uplifted.

13 Woe to you, you impious scribes and Pharisees!
you shut the Realm of heaven in men's faces;
you neither enter yourselves, nor will you let those enter who are on the point of entering.

15 Woe to you, you impious scribes and Pharisees!
you traverse sea and land to make a single proselyte, and when you succeed you make him a son of Gehenna twice as bad as yourselves.

16 Woe to you, blind guides that you are!
you say, 'Swear by the sanctuary, and it means nothing; but swear by the gold of the sanctuary, and the oath is binding.'

17 You are senseless and blind! for which is the greater, the gold or the sanctuary that makes the gold sacred?

18 You say again, 'Swear by the altar, and it means nothing; but swear by the gift upon it, and the oath is binding.'

19 You are blind! for which is the greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

- 20 He who swears by the altar swears by it and by all that lies on it;
- 21 he who swears by the sanctuary swears by it and by Him who inhabits it;
- 22 he who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.
- 23 Woe to you, you impious scribes and Pharisees!
you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and omit the weightier matters of the law, justice and mercy and faithfulness; these latter you ought to have practised—without omitting the former.
- 24 Blind guides that you are, filtering away the gnat and swallowing the camel!
- 25 Woe to you, you irreligious scribes and Pharisees!
you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are filled with your rapacity and self-indulgence.
- 26 Blind Pharisee! first clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside may be clean as well.
- 27 Woe to you, you irreligious scribes and Pharisees!
you are like tombs white-washed;
they look comely on the outside, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all manner of impurity.
- 28 So to men you seem just,
but inside you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
- 29 Woe to you, you irreligious scribes and Pharisees! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the tombs of the
- 30 just, and you say 'If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have joined them in shedding the
- 31 blood of the prophets.' So you are witnesses against yourselves, that you are sons of those who killed the prophets!
- 32 And you will fill up* the measure that your fathers filled.
- 33 You serpents! you brood of vipers! how can you escape
- 34 being sentenced to Gehenna? This is why I will send you prophets, wise men, and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, some of whom you will flog in your synagogues
- 35 and persecute from town to town; it is that on you may fall the punishment for all the just blood shed on earth from the blood of Abel the just down to the blood of Zechariah the son of Barachiah, whom you murdered be-
- 36 tween the sanctuary and the altar. I tell you truly, it will all come upon this generation.

* Reading πληρώσετε with B, Syr.Sin.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! slaying the prophets and stoning those who have been sent to you! How often I would fain have gathered your children as a fowl gathers her 38 brood under her wings! But you would not have it! See, 39 your House is left to you, desolate. For I tell you, you will never see me again till you say, Blessed be he who comes in the Lord's name."

24 So Jesus left the temple and went on his way. His disciples came forward to point out to him the temple-buildings, but he replied to them, "You see all this? I tell you truly, not a stone here will be left upon another, without being torn down."

3 So as he sat on the Hill of Olives the disciples came up to him in private and said, "Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign of your arrival and of the end of the world?" Jesus replied, "Take care that no one misleads you; for many will come in my name, saying 'I am the Christ,' and they will mislead many. You will hear of wars and rumours of wars; see and do not be alarmed. These have to come, but it is not the end yet. For nation will rise against nation, and realm against realm; there will be 8 famines and earthquakes here and there. All that is but 9 the beginning of the trouble. Then men will hand you over to suffer affliction, and they will kill you; you will be hated 10 by all the Gentiles on account of my name. And many will be repelled then, they will betray one another and hate one 11 another. Many false prophets will rise and mislead 12 many. And in most of you love will grow cold by the increase of iniquity; but he will be saved who holds out to 14 the very end. This gospel of the Reign shall be preached all over the wide world as a testimony to all the Gentiles, and then the end will come.

15 So when you see the appalling Horror spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing erect in the holy place (let the 16 reader note this), then let those who are in Judaea fly to 17 the hills; a man on the housetop must not go down to fetch 18 what is inside his house, and a man in the field must not 19 turn back to get his coat. Woe to women with child and to 20 women who give suck in those days! Pray that you may 21 not have to fly in winter or on the sabbath, for there will be 22 sore misery then, such as has never been from the beginning of the world till now—no and never shall be. Had not those days been cut short, not a soul would be saved alive; however, for the sake of the elect, those days will be cut short.

23 If anyone tells you at that time, 'Here is the Christ!' or, 24 'there he is!' do not believe it; for false Christs and false

- prophets will rise and bring forward great signs and wonders, so as to mislead the very elect,—if that were possible. (I am telling you this beforehand.)*
- 25 sible. (I am telling you this beforehand.)
- 26 If they tell you, 'Here he is in the desert,' do not go out;
'here he is in the chamber,'
do not believe it.
- 27 For like lightning that shoots from east to west, so will be the arrival of the Son of man.
- 28 Wherever the body lies, there will the vultures gather.
- 29 Immediately after the misery of those days
the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not yield her light,
the stars will drop from heaven
and the orbs of the heavens will be shaken.
- 30 Then the Sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven;
then all tribes on earth will wail, they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with great power and
- 31 glory. He will despatch his angels with a loud trumpet-call to muster his elect from the four winds, from the verge of heaven to the verge of earth.
- 32 Let the fig tree teach you a parable. As soon as its branches turn soft and put out leaves, you know summer is
- 33 at hand; so, whenever you see all this happen, you may be sure He is at hand, at the very door.
- 34 I tell you truly, the present generation will not pass away
- 35 till all this happens. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
- 36 Now no one knows anything about that day or hour, not
- 37 even the angels in heaven, but only my Father. As were the days of Noah, so will the arrival of the Son of man be.
- 38 For as in the days before the deluge people ate and drank, married and were married, till the day Noah entered the
- 39 ark; and as they knew nothing till the deluge came and swept them all away; so will the arrival of the Son of man be.
- 40 Then there will be two men in the field,
one will be taken and one will be left;
- 41 two women will be grinding at the millstone,
one will be taken and one will be left.
- 42 Keep on the watch then, for you never know what day your
- 43 Lord will come. But be sure of this, that if the householder had known at what watch in the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the watch, he would not have
- 44 allowed his house to be broken into. So be ready yourselves, for the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

45 Now where is the trusty and thoughtful servant, whom his lord and master has set over his household to assign 46 them their supplies at the proper time? Blessed is that servant if his lord and master finds him so doing when he 47 arrives! I tell you truly, he will set him over all his prop-48 erty. But if the* bad servant says to himself, 'My lord and 49 master is long of coming,' and if he starts to beat his fel-50 low-servants and to eat and drink with drunkards, that servant's lord and master will arrive on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour which he does not know; 51 he will cut him in two and assign him the fate of the hypocrites. There men will wail and gnash their teeth.

25 THEN shall the Realm of heaven be compared to ten maidens who took their lamps and went out to meet 2 the bridegroom and the bride. † Five of them were stupid 3 and five were sensible. For although the stupid took their 4 lamps, they took no oil with them, whereas the sensible 5 took oil in their vessels as well as their lamps. As the bridegroom was long of coming, they all grew drowsy and 6 went to sleep. But at midnight the cry arose, 'Here is the 7 bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all the maidens 8 rose and trimmed their lamps. The stupid said to the sensible, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going 9 out.' But the sensible replied, 'No, there may not be enough for us and for you. Better go to the dealers and buy for 10 yourselves.' Now while they were away buying oil, the bridegroom arrived; those maidens who were ready accompanied him to the marriage-banquet, and the door was shut.
 11 Afterwards the rest of the maidens came and said, 'Oh sir, 12 oh sir, open the door for us!' but he replied, 'I tell you 13 frankly, I do not know you.' Keep on the watch then, for you know neither the day nor the hour.
 14 For the case is that of a man going abroad, who summoned his servants and handed over his property to them; 15 to one he gave twelve hundred pounds, to another five hundred, and to another two hundred and fifty; each got according to his capacity. Then the man went abroad.
 16 The servant who had got the twelve hundred pounds at once went and traded with them, making another twelve hundred.
 17 Similarly the servant who had got the five hundred pounds 18 made another five hundred. But the servant who had got the two hundred and fifty pounds went off and dug a hole

* Omitting [ἐκεῖνος], a harmonistic gloss from Luke xii. 45.

† The words καὶ τῆς νύμφης are added by D X*, the Latin and Syriac versions, etc. Their omission may have been due to the feeling of the later church that Jesus as the Bridegroom ought alone to be mentioned.

- 19 in the ground and hid his master's money. Now a long time afterwards the master of those servants came back and 20 settled accounts with them. Then the servant who had got the twelve hundred pounds came forward, bringing twelve hundred more; he said, 'You handed me twelve hundred pounds, sir; here I have gained another twelve hundred.'
- 21 His master said to him, 'Capital, you excellent and trusty servant! You have been trusty in charge of a small sum: I will put you in charge of a large sum. Come and share 22 your master's feast.' Then the servant with the five hundred pounds came forward. He said, 'You handed me five hundred pounds, sir; here I have gained another 23 five hundred.' His master said to him, 'Capital, you excellent and trusty servant! You have been trusty in charge of a small sum: I will put you in charge of a 24 large sum. Come and share your master's feast.' Then the servant who had got the two hundred and fifty pounds came forward. He said, 'I knew you were a hard man, sir, reaping where you never sowed and gathering 25 where you never winnowed. So I was afraid; I went and hid your two hundred and fifty pounds in the earth.
26 There's your money!' His master said to him in reply, 'You rascal, you idle servant! You knew, did you, that I reap where I have never sowed and gather where I have never 27 winnowed! Well then, you should have handed my money to the bankers and I would have got my capital with interest when I came back. Take therefore the two hundred and fifty pounds away from him, give it to the servant who had the twelve hundred.'
- 28
29 For to everyone who has shall more be given and richly given;
but from him who has nothing, even what he has shall be taken.
- 30 Throw the good-for-nothing servant into the darkness outside; there men will wail and gnash their teeth.
- 31 When the Son of man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory, 32 and all nations will be gathered in front of him; he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates 33 the sheep from the goats, setting the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then shall the King say to those on his right, 'Come, you whom my Father has blessed, come into your inheritance in the realm prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'
- 34
35 For I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a stranger and you entertained me, 36 I was unclothed and you clothed me,

I was ill and you looked after me,

I was in prison and you visited me.'

37 Then the just will answer,

'Lord, when did we see you hungry and fed you? or thirsty and gave you drink?

38 when did we see you a stranger and entertain you? or unclothed and clothed you?

39 when did we see you ill or in prison and visit you?'

40 The King will answer them, 'I tell you truly, in so far as you did it to one of these brothers of mine, even to the least of them, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those on the left, 'Begone from me, you accursed ones, to the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels!

42 For I was hungry but you never fed me,

I was thirsty but you never gave me drink,

43 I was a stranger but you never entertained me,

I was unclothed but you never clothed me,

I was ill and in prison but you never looked after me.'

44 Then they will answer too, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or unclothed or ill or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, 'I tell you truly, in so far as you did not do it to one of these, even the least of them, you did not do it to me.'

46 So they shall depart to eternal punishment, and the just to eternal life."

26 WHEN Jesus finished saying all this he said to his disciples, "You know the passover is to be held two days after this; and the Son of man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3 Then the high priests and the elders of the people met in the palace of the high priest who was called Caiaphas and took counsel together to get hold of Jesus by craft and have him put to death. "Only," they said, "it must not be during the festival, in case of a riot among the people."

6 Now when Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, a woman came up to him with an alabaster flask of expensive perfume which she poured over his head as he lay at table. When the disciples saw this they were angry. "What is the use of this waste?" they said; "the perfume might have been sold for a good sum, and the poor might have got that." But Jesus was aware of what they said, and he replied, "Why are you annoying the woman? It is a beautiful thing she has done to me. The poor you always have beside you, but you will not always have me. In pouring this perfume on my body she has acted in view of my burial. I tell you truly, wherever this gospel is preached through all the world, men will speak of what she has done in memory of her."

14 Then one of the twelve called Judas Iscariot went 15 and said to the high priests, "What will you give me for betraying him to you?" And they weighed out for him thirty 16 silver pieces. From that moment he sought a good opportunity to betray him.

17 On the first day of unleavened bread the disciples of Jesus came up and said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare 18 for you to eat the passover?" He said, "Go into the city to so-and-so; tell him that the Teacher says, 'My time is near, I will celebrate the passover at your house with my dis-19 ciples.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had told them and 20 prepared the passover. When evening came he lay at table 21 with the disciples, and as they were eating he said, "One 22 of you is going to betray me." They were greatly distressed at this, and each of them said to him, "Lord, surely it is 23 not me." He answered, "One who has dipped his hand into 24 the same dish as myself is going to betray me. The Son of man goes the road that the scripture has described for him, but woe to the man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Better that man had never been born!" Then Judas his betrayer said, "Surely it is not me, rabbi?" He said to him, "Is it not?"

26 As they were eating he took a loaf and after the blessing he broke it; then he gave it to the disciples saying, "Take 27 and eat this, it means my body." He also took a cup and after thanking God he gave it to them saying, "Drink of 28 it, all of you; this means my blood, the new covenant-blood, 29 shed for many, to win the remission of their sins. I tell you, after this I will never drink this produce of the vine till the day I drink it new with you in the Realm of my Father."

30 After the hymn of praise they went out to the Hill of 31 Olives. Then Jesus said to them, "You will all be disconcerted over me to-night, for it is written, I will strike at the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.
32 But after my rising I will precede you to Galilee." Peter 33 answered, "Supposing they are all disconcerted over you, I will not be disconcerted." Jesus said to him, "I tell you truly, you will disown me three times this very night, 34 before the cock crows." Peter said to him, "Even though I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And all the disciples said the same thing.

36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he told the disciples, "Sit here till I go over there and 37 pray." But he took Peter and the two sons of Zebedaeus along with him; and when he began to feel distressed and 38 agitated, he said to them, "My heart is sad, sad even to 39 death; stay here and watch with me." Then he went forward a little and fell on his face praying, "My father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me. Yet, not what I will but 40 what thou wilt." Then he went to the disciples and found them asleep; and he said to Peter, "So the three of you could 41 not watch with me for a single hour? Watch and pray, all of you, so that you may not slip into temptation. The 42 spirit is eager but the flesh is weak." Again he went away for the second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cup 43 cannot pass unless I drink it, thy will be done." And when he returned he found them asleep again, for their eyes 44 were heavy. So he left them and went back for the third 45 time, praying in the same words as before. Then he went to the disciples and said to them, "Still asleep? still resting? The hour is near, the Son of man is betrayed into the 46 hands of sinners. Come, get up and let us go. Here is my betrayer close at hand!" While he was still speaking, up 47 came Judas, one of the twelve, accompanied by a large mob with swords and clubs who had come from the high priests 48 and the elders of the people. Now his betrayer had given them a signal; he said, "Whoever I kiss, that is the man." 49 So he went up at once to Jesus; "Hail, rabbi!" he said, and 50 kissed him. Jesus said, "My man, do your errand." Then 51 they laid hands on Jesus and seized him. One of his companions put out his hand, drew his sword, and struck the 52 servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; all who 53 draw the sword shall die by the sword. What! do you think I cannot appeal to my Father to furnish me at this moment 54 with over twelve legions of angels? Only, how could the scriptures be fulfilled then—the scriptures that say this 55 must be so?" At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you sallied out to arrest me like a robber, with swords and clubs? Day after day I sat in the temple teaching, and you 56 never seized me. However, this has all happened for the fulfilment of the prophetic scriptures!"

57 Then all the disciples left him and fled; but those who had seized Jesus took him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders had gathered.
58 Peter followed him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and when he got inside he sat down beside the attendants to see the end.
59 Now the high priests and the whole of the Sanhedrin tried to secure false witness against Jesus, in order to have him 60 put to death; but they could find none, although a number of false witnesses came forward. However, two men came 61 forward at last and said, "This fellow declared, 'I can destroy the temple of God and build it in three days.'" 62 So the high priest rose and said to him, "Have you no reply 63 to make? What of this evidence against you?" Jesus said nothing. Then the high priest addressed him, "I adjure you 64 by the living God, tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God!" Jesus said to him, "Even so! But I tell you, in future you will all see the Son of man seated at the right hand of the 65 Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven." Then the high priest tore his dress and cried, "He has blasphemed!

What more evidence do we want? Look, you have heard 66 his blasphemy for yourselves! What is your view?" They 67 replied, "He is doomed to death." Then they spat in his face and buffeted him, some of them cuffing him and crying, 68 "Prophecy to us, you Christ! tell us who struck you!" 69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A maidservant came up and said to him, "You were with Jesus the 70 Galilean too." But he denied it before them all. "I do not 71 know what you mean," he said. When he went out to the gateway another maidservant noticed him and said to those who were there, "This fellow was with Jesus the Nazarene." 72 Again he denied it; he swore, "I do not know the man." 73 After a little the bystanders came up and said to Peter,
"To be sure, you are one of them too. Why, your accent 74 betrays you!" At this he broke out cursing and swearing,
"I do not know the man." At that moment a cock crowed.
75 Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said, that 'before the cock crows you will disown me three times.' And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27 WHEN morning came, all the high priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, so as 2 to have him put to death. After binding him, they led him off and handed him over to Pontius Pilate the governor.
3 Then Judas his betrayer saw he was condemned, and repented; he brought back the thirty silver pieces to the 4 high priests and elders, saying, "I did wrong in betraying innocent blood." "What does that matter to us?" they said, 5 "it is your affair, not ours!" Then he flung down the silver pieces in the temple and went off and hung himself.
6 The high priests took the money and said, "It would be wrong to put this into the treasury, for it is the price of 7 blood." So after consulting they bought with it the Potter's 8 Field, to serve as a burying-place for strangers. That is why the field is called to this day "The Field of Blood." 9 Then the word spoken by the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:
and I took the thirty silver pieces, the price of him who had been priced, whom they had priced and expelled

10 from the sons of Israel; and I gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord had bidden me.

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" Jesus replied, 12 "Certainly." But while he was being accused by the high 13 priests and elders, he made no reply. Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear all their evidence against you?" 14 But, to Pilate's great astonishment, he would not answer him a single word.

15 At festival time the governor was in the habit of releasing 16 any one prisoner whom the crowd chose. At that time they 17 had a notorious prisoner called Jesus* Bar-Abbas; so, when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Who do you want released? Jesus Bar-Abbas or Jesus the so-called 'Christ'?" 18 (He knew quite well that Jesus had been delivered up out 19 of envy. Besides, when he was seated on the tribunal, his wife had sent to tell him, "Do nothing with that innocent man, for I have suffered greatly to-day in a dream about 20 him.") But the high priests and elders persuaded the 21 crowds to ask Bar-Abbas and to have Jesus killed. The governor said to them, "Which of the two do you want 22 me to release for you?" "Bar-Abbas," they said. Pilate said, "Then what am I to do with Jesus the so-called 23 'Christ'?" They all said, "Have him crucified!" "Why," said the governor, "what has he done wrong?" But they shouted on more fiercely than ever, "Have him crucified!" 24 Now when Pilate saw that instead of him doing any good a riot was rising, he took some water and washed his hands in presence of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this 25 good man's blood. It is your affair!" To this all the people replied, "His blood be on us and on our children!" 26 Then he released Bar-Abbas for them; Jesus he scourged and handed over to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the prae- 28 torium and got all the regiment round him; they stripped 29 him and threw a scarlet mantle round him, plaited a crown of thorns and set it on his head, put a stick in his hand, and knelt before him in mockery, crying, "Hail, king of the 30 Jews!" They spat on him, they took the stick and struck 31 him on the head, and after making fun of him they stripped him of the mantle, put on his own clothes, and took him 32 off to be crucified. As they went out they met a Cyrenian 33 called Simon, whom they forced to carry his cross. When they came to a place called Golgotha (meaning the place 34 of a skull), they gave him a drink of wine mixed with 35 bitters; but when he tasted it he would not drink it. Then they crucified him, distributed his clothes among them by 36 drawing lots, and sat down there to keep watch over him.

37 They also put over his head his charge in writing,

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Two robbers were also crucified with him at that time, one 39 on the right hand and one on the left. Those who passed 40 by scoffed at him, nodding at him in derision and calling,
"You were to destroy the temple and build it in three days!
Save yourself, if you are God's Son! Come down from the 41 cross!" So, too, the high priests made fun of him with the 42 scribes and the elders of the people. "He saved others," they said, "but he cannot save himself! He the 'King of Israel!' Let him come down now from the cross; then we 43 will believe in him! His trust is in God? Let God deliver him now if he cares for him! He said he was the Son of 44 God!" The robbers who were crucified with him also denounced him in the same way.

45 Now from twelve o'clock to three o'clock darkness covered 46 all the land, and about three o'clock Jesus gave a loud cry, "Eli, eli, lema sabachthani" (that is, My God, my God, 47 why hast thou forsaken me?) On hearing this some of 48 the bystanders said, "He is calling for Elijah." One of them ran off at once and took a sponge, which he soaked in vinegar and put on the end of a stick to give him 49 a drink. But the others said, "Stop, let us see if Elijah does come to save him!" [Seizing a lance, another pricked 50 his side, and out came water and blood.] Jesus again uttered 51 a loud scream and gave up his spirit. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom, the earth 52 shook, the rocks were split, the tombs were opened, and a number of bodies of the saints who slept the sleep of death 53 rose up—they left the tombs after his resurrection and entered the holy city and appeared to a number of people.
54 Now when the army-captain and his men who were watching Jesus saw the earthquake and all that happened, they were dreadfully afraid; they said, "This man was certainly 55 a son of God!" There were also a number of women there looking on from a distance, women who had followed Jesus 56 from Galilee and waited on him, including Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedaeus.

57 Now when evening came, a rich man from Arimathaea, 58 called Joseph, who had become a disciple of Jesus, went to Pilate and asked him for the body of Jesus. Pilate then 59 ordered the body to be handed over to him. So Joseph took 60 the body, wrapped it in clean linen, and put it in his new tomb, which he had cut in the rock; then, after rolling a large boulder to the opening of the tomb, he went away.

61 Mary of Magdala and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

62 Next day (that is, on the day after the Preparation) the 63 high priests and Pharisees gathered round Pilate and said,
"We remember, sir, that when this impostor was alive he 64 said, 'I will rise after three days.' Now then, give orders for the tomb to be kept secure till the third day, in case his disciples go and steal him and then tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' The end of the fraud will then 65 be worse than the beginning of it." Pilate said to them, "Take a guard of soldiers, go and make it as secure as you 66 can." So off they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the boulder and setting the guard.

28 At the close of the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary of Magdala and the other 2 Mary went to look at the tomb. But a great earthquake took place; an angel of the Lord came down from heaven 3 and went and rolled away the boulder and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning and his raiment white as 4 snow. For fear of him the sentries shook and became like 5 dead men; but the angel addressed the women, saying,
"Have no fear; I know you are looking for the crucified 6 Jesus. He is not here, he has risen, as he told you he would.
7 See, here is the place where he [the Lord] lay. Now be quick and go to his disciples, tell them he has risen from the dead and that 'he precedes you to Galilee; you shall see him 8 there.' That is my message for you." Then they ran quickly from the tomb in fear and great joy, to announce the news 9 to his disciples. And Jesus himself met them, saying, "Hail!" So they went up to him and caught hold of his 10 feet and worshipped him; then Jesus said to them, "Have no fear! Go and tell my brothers to leave for Galilee; they shall see me there."

11 While they were on their way, some of the sentries went into the city and reported all that had taken place to the 12 high priests, who, after meeting and conferring with the elders, gave a considerable sum of money to the soldiers 13 and told them to say that "his disciples came at night and 14 stole him when we were asleep." "If this comes to the ears of the governor," they added, "we will satisfy him and 15 see that you have no trouble about the matter." So the soldiers took the money and followed their instructions;

and this story has been disseminated among the Jews down to the present day.

16 Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the hill where 17 Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him 18 they worshipped him, though some were in doubt. Then Jesus came forward to them and said, "Full authority has 19 been given to me in heaven and on earth; go and make disciples of all nations, baptize them in the name of the 20 Father and the Son and the holy Spirit, and teach them to obey all the commands I have laid on you. And I will be with you all the time, to the very end of the world."

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MARK

- 1 THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ [the Son of God].
- 2 As it is written in the prophet Isaiah,
*Here I send my messenger before your face
to prepare the way for you:*
- 3 *the voice of one who cries in the desert,
'Make the way ready for the Lord,
level the paths for him'—*
- 4 John appeared baptizing in the desert and preaching a 5 baptism of repentance for the remission of sins; and the whole of Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him and got baptized by him in the Jordan river, con-6 fessing their sins. John was dressed in camel's hair, with a leather girdle round his loins, and he ate locusts and 7 wild honey. He announced,
"After me one who is mightier will come, and I am not fit to stoop and untie the string of his sandals:
- 8 I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the holy Spirit."
- 9 Now it was in those days that Jesus arrived from Nazaret in Galilee and got baptized in the Jordan by John.
- 10 And the moment he rose from the water he saw the heavens cleft and the Spirit coming down upon him like a 11 dove; then said a voice from heaven,
"Thou art my Son, the Beloved, in thee is my delight."
- 12 Then the Spirit drove him immediately into the desert, 13 and in the desert he remained for forty days, while Satan tempted him; he was in the company of wild beasts, but angels ministered to him.
- 14 After John had been arrested Jesus went to Galilee 15 preaching the gospel of God; he said, "The time has now come, God's reign is near: repent and believe in the gospel."
- 16 Now as he passed along the sea of Galilee he saw Simon and Simon's brother Andrew netting fish in the sea—for 17 they were fishermen; so Jesus said to them, "Come, follow 18 me and I will make you fish for men." At once they 19 dropped their nets and went after him. Then going on a little further he saw James the son of Zebedaeus and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their 20 nets; he called them at once, and they left their father Zebedaeus in the boat with the crew and went to follow him.

21 They then entered Capharnahum. As soon as the sabbath came, he at once began to teach in the synagogue; 22 and they were astounded at his teaching, for he taught 23 them like an authority, not like the scribes. Now there was a man with an unclean spirit in their synagogue, who 24 at once shrieked out, "Jesus of Nazaret, what business have you with us? Have you come to destroy us? We 25 know who you are, you are God's holy One." But Jesus 26 checked it; "Be quiet," he said, "come out of him." And after convulsing him the unclean spirit did come out of 27 him with a loud cry. Then they were all so amazed that they discussed it together, saying, "Whatever is this?"
"It's new teaching with authority behind it!" "He orders 28 even unclean spirits!" "Yes, and they obey him!" So his fame at once spread in all directions through the whole of the surrounding country of Galilee.

29 On leaving the synagogue they went straight to the house of Simon and Andrew, accompanied by James and John.
30 Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with fever, so they told 31 him at once about her, and he went up to her and taking her hand made her rise; the fever left her at once and 32 she ministered to them. Now when evening came, when the sun set, they brought him all who were ill or possessed 33 by daemons—indeed the whole town was gathered at the 34 door—and he cured many who were ill with various diseases and cast out many daemons; but as the daemons 35 knew him he would not let them say anything. Then in the early morning, long before daylight, he got up and went 36 away out to a lonely spot. He was praying there when 37 Simon and his companions hunted him out and discovered him; they told him, "Everybody is looking for 38 you," but he said to them, "Let us go somewhere else, to the adjoining country-towns, so that I may preach there as 39 well; that is why I came out here." And he went preaching in their synagogues throughout the whole of Galilee, casting out daemons.

40 A leper came to him beseeching him on bended knee, say-41 ing, "If you only choose, you can cleanse me;" so he stretched his hand out in pity and touched him saying, 42 "I do choose, be cleansed." And the leprosy at once left 43 him and he was cleansed. Then he sent him off at once

44 with the stern charge, "See, you are not to say a word to anybody; away and show yourself to the priest and offer what Moses prescribed for your cleansing, to notify men." 45 But he went off and proceeded to proclaim it aloud and spread news of the affair both far and wide. The result was that Jesus could no longer enter any town openly; he stayed outside in lonely places, and people came to him from every quarter.

2 WHEN he entered Capharnahum again after some days 2 it was reported that he was at home, and a large number at once gathered, till there was no more room for them, not even at the door. He was speaking the word to 3 them, when a paralytic was brought to him; four men 4 carried him, and as they could not get near Jesus on account of the crowd, they tore up the roof under which he stood and through the opening they lowered the pallet 5 on which the paralytic lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "My son, your sins are for-6 given." Now there were some scribes sitting there who 7 argued in their hearts, "What does the man mean by talking like this? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins, 8 who but God alone?" Conscious at once that they were arguing to themselves in this way, Jesus asked them, 9 "Why do you argue thus in your hearts? Which is the easier thing, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' 10 or to tell him, 'Rise, lift your pallet, and go away'? But to let you see the Son of man has power on earth to forgive 11 sins"—he said to the paralytic, "Rise, I tell you, lift your 12 pallet, and go home." And he rose, lifted his pallet at once, and went off before them all; at this they were all amazed and glorified God saying, "We never saw the like of it!"

13 Then he went out again by the seaside, and all the crowd 14 came to him and he taught them. As he passed along he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax-office; he said to him, "Follow me," and he rose and followed him.
15 Now Levi was at table in his own house, and he had many taxgatherers and sinners as guests along with Jesus and his disciples—for there were many of them among his 16 followers. So when some scribes of the Pharisees saw he was eating with sinners and taxgatherers they said to his disciples, "Why does he eat and drink with taxgatherers 17 and sinners?" On hearing this, Jesus said to them,
"Those who are strong have no need of a doctor, but those who are ill:

I have not come to call just men but sinners."

18 As the disciples of John and of the Pharisees were observing a fast, people came and asked him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, and your disciples do not fast?" Jesus said to them,

"Can friends at a wedding fast while the bridegroom is beside them?

As long as they have the bridegroom beside them they cannot fast.

A time will come when the bridegroom is taken from them; then they will fast, on that day.

No one stitches a piece of undressed cloth on an old coat, otherwise the patch breaks away, the new from the old, and the tear is made worse:

no one pours fresh wine into old wineskins, otherwise the wine will burst the wineskins, and both wine and wineskins are ruined."*

Now it happened that he was passing through the corn-fields on the sabbath, and as the disciples made their way through they began to pull the ears of corn. The Pharisees said to him, "Look at what they are doing on the sabbath!

That is not allowed." He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and his men? He went into the house of God (Abiathar was high priest then) and ate the loaves of the Presence which no one except the priests is allowed to eat, and also shared them with his followers." And he said to them,

"The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath:

so that the Son of man is Lord even over the sabbath."

3 AGAIN he entered a synagogue. Now a man was there whose hand was withered, and they watched to see if he would heal him on the sabbath, so as to get a charge against him. He said to the man with the withered hand, "Rise and come forward"; then he asked them, "Is it right to help or to hurt on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" They were silent. Then glancing round him in anger and vexation at their obstinacy he told the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out and his hand was quite restored. On this the Pharisees withdrew and at once joined the Herodians in a plot against him, to destroy him.

Jesus retired with his disciples to the sea, and a large number of people from Galilee followed him; also a large

* Omitting ἀλλὰ οἶνονά νέον εἰς ἀσκοὺς καινοὺς, a harmonistic addition from the parallel passage in Luke v. 38 and Matthew ix. 17.

8 number came to him from Judaea, Jerusalem, Idumaea, the other side of the Jordan, and the neighbourhood of Tyre, 9 and Sidon, as they had heard of his doings. So he told his disciples to have a small boat ready; it was to prevent 10 him being crushed by the crowd, for he healed so many that all who had complaints were pressing on him to get 11 a touch of him. And whenever the unclean spirits saw him they fell down before him, screaming, "You are the 12 Son of God!" But he charged them strictly and severely not to make him known.

13 Then he went up the hillside and summoned the men he 14 wanted, and they went to him. He appointed twelve to be 15 with him, also that he might despatch them to preach with 16 the power of casting out daemons; there was Simon, 17 whom he surnamed Peter, James the son of Zebedaeus and John the brother of James (he surnamed them Boanerges, 18 or "Sons of thunder"), Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, 19 Simon the zealot, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.

20 Then they went indoors, but the crowd gathered again, 21 so that it was impossible even to have a meal. And when his family heard this, they set out to get hold of him, for 22 what they said was, "He is out of his mind." But the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul," and "It is by the prince of daemons that he 23 casts out daemons." So he called them and said to them by way of parable, "How can Satan cast out Satan?"

24 If a realm is divided against itself, that realm cannot stand: 25 if a household is divided against itself, that household cannot stand: 26 and if Satan has risen against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, he comes to an end.

27 No one can enter the strong man's house and plunder his goods unless first of all he binds the strong man; then 28 he can plunder his house. I tell you truly, the sons of men shall be forgiven all their sins, and all the blasphemies they may utter, 29 but whoever blasphemes against the holy Spirit is never forgiven, he is guilty of an eternal sin."

30 (This was because they said, "He has an unclean spirit.") 31 Then came his brothers and his mother, and standing out-32 side they sent to call him; there was a crowd sitting round him, and he was told, "Here are your mother and brothers 33 and sisters wanting you outside." He replied, "Who are 34 my mother and my brothers?" And glancing at those who were sitting round him in a circle he said, "There are my 35 mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God, that is my brother and sister and mother."

4 ONCE more he proceeded to teach by the seaside, and a huge crowd gathered round him; so he entered a boat on the sea and sat down, while all the crowd stayed on 2 shore. He gave them many lessons in parables, and said to 3 them in the course of his teaching: "Listen, a sower went 4 out to sow, and as he sowed it chanced that some seed fell 5 on the road, and the birds came and ate it up; some other seed fell on stony soil where it had not much earth, and 6 it shot up at once because it had no depth of earth, but when the sun rose it got scorched and withered away, 7 because it had no root; some other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked it, so it bore no crop; 8 some other seed fell on good soil and bore a crop that sprang up and grew, yielding at the rate of thirty, sixty, 9 and a hundredfold." He added, "Anyone who has ears to hear, let him listen to this."

10 When he was by himself his adherents and the twelve 11 asked him about the parable, and he said to them: "The open secret of the Realm of God is granted to you, but these outsiders get everything by way of parables, so that 12 for all their seeing they may not perceive, and for all their hearing they may not understand, lest they turn and be forgiven."

13 And he said to them, "You do not understand this parable?
14 Then how are you to understand the other parables? The 15 sower sows the word. As for those 'on the road,' when the seed is sown there—as soon as they hear it, Satan at once comes and carries off the word sown within them.
16 Similarly those who are sown 'on stony soil' are the people 17 who on hearing the word accept it* with enthusiasm; but they have no root in themselves, they do not last; the next thing is that when the word brings trouble or persecu-18 tion, they are at once repelled. Another set are those 19 who are sown 'among thorns'; they listen to the word, but the worries of the world and the delight of being rich and all the other passions come in to choke the word; so it 20 proves unfruitful. As for those who were sown 'on good soil,' these are the people who listen to the word and take it in and bear fruit at the rate of thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold."

21 He also said to them,

* Omitting εὐθὺς with D, the Sinaitic Syriac, some manuscripts of the Old Latin, etc. The tendency was to add Mark's εὐθὺς rather than omit it, especially when it occurred as here in the Matthew-parallel (xiii. 20).

"Is a lamp brought to be placed under a bowl or a bed?

Is it not to be placed upon the stand?

22 Nothing is hidden except to be disclosed, nothing concealed except to be revealed.

23 If anyone has an ear to hear, let him listen to this." Also 24 he said to them, "Take care what you hear; the measure you deal out to others will be dealt out to yourselves, and you will receive extra.

25 For he who has, to him shall more be given; while as for him who has not, from him shall be taken even what he has."

26 And he said, "It is with the Realm of God as when a 27 man has sown seed on earth; he sleeps at night and rises by day, and the seed sprouts and shoots up—he knows not 28 how. (For the earth bears crops by itself, the blade first, the ear of corn next, and then the grain full in the ear.) 29 But whenever the crop is ready, he has the sickle put in at 30 once, as harvest has come." He said also,

"To what can we compare the Realm of God?

how are we to put it in a parable?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed—less than any seed on 32 earth when it is sown on earth; but once sown it springs up to be larger than any plant, throwing out such big branches that the wild birds can roost under its shadow."

33 In many a parable like this he spoke the word to them, so 34 far as they could listen to it; he never spoke to them except by way of parable, but in private he explained everything to his own disciples.

35 That same day when evening came he said to them, 36 "Let us cross to the other side"; so, leaving the crowd, they took him just as he was in the boat, accompanied by 37 some other boats. But a heavy squall of wind came on, and the waves splashed into the boat, so that the boat 38 filled. He was sleeping on the cushion in the stern, so they woke him up saying, "Teacher, are we to drown, for all 39 you care?" And he woke up, checked the wind, and told the sea, "Peace, be quiet." The wind fell and there was 40 a great calm. Then he said to them, "Why are you afraid 41 like this? Have you no faith yet?" But they were overawed and said to each other, "Whatever can he be, when the very wind and sea obey him?"

2 5 THEN they reached the opposite side of the sea, the country of the Gerasenes. And as soon as he stepped out of the boat a man from the tombs came to meet him, a man 3 with an unclean spirit who dwelt among the tombs; by this 4 time no one could bind him, not even with a chain, for he had often been bound with fetters and chains and had snapped the chains and broken the fetters—nobody could tame him. All night and day among the tombs and the hills he shrieked and gashed himself with stones. On catching sight of Jesus from afar he ran and knelt before him, shrieking aloud, "Jesus, son of God most High, what business have you with me? By God, I adjure you, do not torture me." (For he had said, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit.") Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" "Legion," he said, "there is a host of us." And they begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country. Now a large drove of swine was grazing there on the hillside; so the spirits begged him saying, "Send us into the swine, that we may enter them." And Jesus gave them leave. Then out came the unclean spirits and entered the swine, and the drove rushed down the steep slope into the sea (there were about two thousand of them) and in the sea they were drowned. The herdsmen fled and reported it to the town and the hamlets. So the people came to see what had happened, and when they reached Jesus they saw the lunatic sitting down, clothed and in his sober senses—the man who had been possessed by 'Legion.' That frightened them. And those who had seen it related to them what had happened to the lunatic and the swine. Then they began begging Jesus to leave their district. As he was stepping into the boat the lunatic begged that he might accompany him; but he said, "Go home to your own people, and report to them all the Lord has done for you and how he took pity on you." So he went off and began to proclaim throughout Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; it made everyone astonished.

Now when Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side again, a large crowd gathered round him; so he remained beside the sea. A president of the synagogue called Jairus came up, and on catching sight of him fell at his feet with earnest entreaties. "My little girl is dying," he said, "do come and lay your hands on her that she may recover and live." So Jesus went away with him. Now a large crowd followed him; they pressed round him. And there was a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years—she had suffered a great deal under a number of doctors and had spent all her means but was none the better; in fact she was rather worse. She heard about Jesus, got behind him in the crowd, and touched his robe; "If I can touch even his clothes," she said to herself, "I will recover." And at once the hemorrhage stopped, and she felt in her body that she was cured of her complaint. Jesus was at once conscious that some healing virtue had passed from him, so he turned round

31 in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?" His disciples said to him, "You see the crowd are pressing 32 round you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" But 33 he kept looking round to see who had done it, and the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came forward in fear and trembling and fell down before him, telling 34 him all the truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be free from your 35 complaint." He was still speaking when a message came from the house of the synagogue-president, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher to come any further?" 36 Instantly Jesus ignored the remark and told the president, 37 "Have no fear, only believe." He would not allow anyone to accompany him except Peter and James and John the 38 brother of James. So they reached the president's house, where he saw a tumult of people wailing and making shrill 39 lament; and on entering he asked them, "Why make a 40 noise and wail? The child is not dead but asleep." They laughed at him. However, he put them all outside and taking the father and mother of the child as well as his companions he went in to where the child was lying; 41 then he took the child's hand and said to her, "Talitha koun"—which may be translated, "Little girl, I am telling 42 you to rise." The girl got up at once and began to walk (she was twelve years old); and at once they were lost in 43 utter amazement. But he strictly forbade them to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

2 6 LEAVING there he went to his native place, followed by his disciples. When the sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and the large audience was astounded.
"Where did he get all this?" they said. "What is the meaning of this wisdom he is endowed with? And these 3 miracles, too, that his hands perform! Is this not the joiner, the son of Mary and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? Are not his sisters settled here 4 among us?" So they were repelled by him. Then Jesus said to them, "A prophet never goes without honour except in his native place and among his kinsfolk and in his 5 home." There he could not do any miracle, beyond laying 6 his hands on a few sick people and curing them. He was astonished at their lack of faith.
7 Then he made a tour round the villages, teaching. And summoning the twelve he proceeded to send them out two 8 by two; he gave them power over the unclean spirits, and ordered them to take nothing but a stick for the journey, 9 no bread, no wallet, no coppers in their girdle; they were to wear sandals, but not to put on two shirts, he said.

10 Also, he told them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay 11 there till you leave the place. And if any place will not receive you and the people will not listen to you, shake off the very dust under your feet when you leave as a 12 warning to them." So they went out and preached re-13 pentance; also they cast out a number of daemons and cured a number of sick people by anointing them with oil.
14 Now this came to the hearing of king Herod, for the name of Jesus had become well known; people said,*
"John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, that is why 15 miraculous powers are working through him;" others said, "It is Elijah," others again, "It is a prophet, like 16 one of the old prophets." But when Herod heard of it he 17 said, "John has risen, the John I beheaded." For this Herod had sent and arrested John and bound him in prison on account of his marriage to Herodias the wife of 18 his brother Philip; John had told Herod, "You have no 19 right to your brother's wife." Herodias had a grudge against him; she wanted him killed but she could not 20 manage it, for Herod stood in awe of John, knowing he was a just and holy man; so he protected John—he was greatly exercised when he listened to him, still he was 21 glad to listen to him. Then came a holiday, when Herod held a feast on his birthday for his chief officials and gen-22 erals and the notables of Galilee. The daughter of Herodias went in and danced to them, and Herod and his guests were so delighted that the king said to the girl, 23 "Ask anything you like and I will give you it." He swore to her, "I will give you whatever you want, were it the half 24 of my realm." So she went out and said to her mother, "What am I to ask?" "John the Baptizer's head," she an-25 swered. Then she hurried in at once and asked the king, saying, "I want you to give me this very moment John the 26 Baptist's head on a dish." The king was very vexed, but for the sake of his oaths and his guests he did not like to 27 disappoint her; so the king at once sent one of the guard with orders to bring his head. The man went and be-28 headed him in the prison, brought his head on a dish, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.
29 When his disciples heard of it they went and fetched his body and laid it in a tomb.
30 Now the apostles gathered to meet Jesus and reported to 31 him all they had done and taught. And he said to them, "Come away to some lonely spot and get a little rest" (for there were many people coming and going, and they could 32 get no time even to eat). So they went away privately 33 in the boat to a lonely spot. However a number of people who saw them start and recognized them, got to the place before them by hurrying there on foot from all the towns.

34 So when Jesus disembarked he saw a large crowd, and out of pity for them, as they were like sheep without a shep-35 herd, he proceeded to teach them at length. Then, as the day was far gone, his disciples came up to him, saying, "It 36 is a desert place and the day is now far gone; send them off to the farms and villages round about to buy some food 37 for themselves." He replied, "Give them some food, yourselves." They said, "Are we to go and buy ten pounds' 38 worth of food and give them that to eat?" He said, "How many loaves have you got? Go and see." When they found 39 out they told him, "Five, and two fish." Then he gave orders that they were to make all the people lie down 40 in parties on the green grass; so they arranged them-41 selves in groups of a hundred and of fifty. And he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven he blessed them, broke the loaves in pieces which he handed to the disciples to set before them, and divided the two 42 fish among them all. They all ate and had enough; 43 besides, the fragments of bread and of fish which were 44 picked up filled twelve baskets. (The number of men who ate the loaves was five thousand.) 45 Then he made the disciples at once embark in the boat and cross before him towards Bethsaida, while he dis-46 missed the crowd; and after saying goodbye to them he 47 went up the hill to pray. Now when evening came the boat was [far out] in the middle of the sea, and he was on the 48 land alone; but when he saw them buffeted as they rowed (for the wind was against them) he went to them about the 49 fourth watch of the night walking on the sea. He meant to pass them, but when they saw him walking on the sea they 50 thought it was a ghost and shrieked aloud—for they all saw him and were terrified. Then he spoke to them at 51 once; "Courage," he said, "it is I, have no fear." And he got into the boat beside them, and the wind dropped. They 52 were utterly astounded, for they had not understood the lesson of the loaves; their minds were dull.
53 On crossing over they came to land at Gennesaret and 54 moored to the shore. And when they had disembarked, the 55 people at once recognized Jesus; they hurried round all the district and proceeded to carry the sick on their pallets 56 wherever they heard that he was; whatever village or town or hamlet he went to, they would lay their invalids in the marketplace, begging him to let them touch even the tassel of his robe—and all who touched him recovered.

7 Now the Pharisees gathered to meet him, with some 2 scribes who had come from Jerusalem. They noticed that some of his disciples ate their food with 'common' 3 (that is, unwashed) hands. (The Pharisees and all the Jews decline to eat till they wash their hands up to the 4 wrist, in obedience to the tradition of the elders; they decline to eat what comes from the market till they have washed it; and they have a number of other traditions to keep about washing cups and jugs and basins [and beds].) 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes put this question to him, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders? Why do they take their food with 'common' 6 hands?" He said to them, "Isaiah made a grand prophecy about you hypocrites—as it is written,

*This people honours me with their lips,
 but their heart is far away from me:*

7 vain is their worship of me, for the doctrines they teach are but human precepts.

8 You drop what God commands and hold to human tradi-9 tion.* Yes, forsooth," he added, "you set aside what God 10 commands, so as to maintain your own tradition. Thus, Moses said, Honour your father and mother, and, He who 11 curses his father or mother is to suffer death. But you say that if a man tells his father or mother, 'This money might have been at your service, but it is Korban' (that 12 is, dedicated to God), he is exempt, so you hold, from 13 doing anything for his father or mother. That is repealing the word of God in the interests of the tradition which 14 you keep up. And you do many things like that." Then he called the crowd to him again and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand this:—

15 nothing outside a man can defile him by entering him; it is what comes from him that defiles him.

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him listen to this."

17 Now when he went indoors away from the crowd, his disciples asked him the meaning of this parabolic saying.
 18 He said to them, "So you do not understand, either? Do you not see how nothing outside a man can defile him by 19 entering him? It does not enter his heart but his belly and passes from that into the drain" (thus he pronounced 20 all food clean). "No," he said, "it is what comes from a 21 man, that is what defiles him. From within, from the 22 heart of man, the designs of evil come: sexual vice, stealing, murder, adultery, lust, malice, deceit, sensuality, envy-

* Omitting βαπτισμούς ζεστῶν καὶ ποτηρίων καὶ ἄλλα παρόμοια τοιαῦτα πολλά ποιεῖτε.

23 ing, slander, arrogance, recklessness, all these evils issue from within and they defile a man."

24 Leaving there, he went away to the territory of Tyre and Sidon. He went into a house and wished no one to know 25 of it, but he could not escape notice; a woman heard of him, whose daughter had an unclean spirit, and she came 26 in and fell at his feet (the woman was a pagan, of Syro-phenician birth) begging him to cast the daemon out of 27 her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be satisfied first of all; it is not fair to take the children's bread 28 and throw it to the dogs." She answered him, "No, sir, but under the table the dogs do pick up the children's 29 crumbs." He said to her, "Well, go your way; the daemon 30 has left your daughter, since you have said that." So she went home and found the child lying in bed and the daemon gone from her.

31 He left the territory of Tyre again and passed through Sidon to the sea of Galilee, crossing the territory of Decapolis. And a deaf man who stammered was brought to him, with the request that he would lay his hand on him.
32 So taking him aside from the crowd by himself, he put his fingers into the man's ears, touched his tongue with saliva, 33 and looking up to heaven with a sigh he said to him, "Ephphatha" (which means, Open). Then his ears were [at 34 once] opened and his tongue freed from its fetter—he began 35 to speak correctly. Jesus forbade them to tell anyone about it, but the more he forbade them the more eagerly 36 they made it public; they were astounded in the extreme, saying, "How splendidly he has done everything! He 37 actually makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak!"

8 In those days, when a large crowd had again gathered and when they had nothing to eat, he called his 2 disciples and said to them, "I am sorry for the crowd; they have been three days with me now, and they have nothing 3 to eat. If I send them home without food they will faint on the road. Besides, some of them have come a long 4 way." His disciples replied, "Where can one get loaves to satisfy them in a desert spot like this?" He asked 5 them, "How many loaves have you got?" They said, "Seven." So he ordered the crowd to recline on the 6 ground, and taking the seven loaves he gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve out. They 7 served them out to the crowd, and as they also had a few small fish, he blessed them too and told the disciples to 8 serve them out as well. So the people ate and were satisfied, and they picked up seven baskets of fragments which 9 were left over. (There were about four thousand of them.)

10 Then he sent them away, embarked at once in the boat with his disciples, and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

11 Now the Pharisees came out and started to argue with him, asking him for a Sign from heaven, by way of tempting him. But he sighed in spirit and said, 12 "Why does this generation demand a Sign?

I tell you truly, no Sign shall be given this generation."

13 Then he left them, embarked again, and went away to the opposite side.

14 They had forgotten to bring any bread, and had only one 15 loaf with them in the boat. So he cautioned them, "See and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven 16 of Herod." "Leaven?" they argued to themselves, "we 17 have no bread at all." He noted this and said to them, "Why do you argue you have no bread? Do you not see, do you not understand, even yet? Are you still dull of heart?

18 You have eyes, do you not see?

you have ears, do you not hear?

19 Do you not remember how many baskets full of fragments you picked up when I broke the five loaves for the five 20 thousand?" They said, "Twelve." "And how many basketfuls of fragments did you pick up when I broke the seven 21 loaves for the four thousand?" They said, "Seven." "Do you not understand now?" he said.

22 Then they reached Bethsaida. A blind man was brought 23 to him with the request that he would touch him. So he took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village; then, after spitting on his eyes, he laid his hands 24 on him and asked him, "Do you see anything?" He began to see and said, "I can make out people, for I see them as 25 large as trees, moving." At this he laid his hands on his eyes once more, and the man stared in front of him; he 26 was quite restored and saw everything distinctly. And Jesus sent him home, saying, "Do not go even into the village."

27 Then Jesus and his disciples set off for the villages of Cæsarea Philippi; and on the road he inquired of his disciples, "Who do people say I am?" "John the Baptist," they told him, "though some say Elijah and others say you 29 are one of the prophets." So he inquired of them, "And who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "You are the 30 Christ." Then he forbade them to tell anyone about him.
31 And he proceeded to teach them that the Son of man had to endure great suffering, to be rejected by the elders and the high priests and the scribes, to be killed and after 32 three days to rise again; he spoke of this quite freely.

33 Peter took him and began to reprove him for it, but he turned on him and noticing his disciples reproved Peter, telling him, "Get behind me, you Satan! Your outlook is 34 not God's but man's." Then he called the crowd to him with his disciples and said to them, "If anyone wishes to follow me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and so follow me;

35 for whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

36 What profit is it for a man to gain the whole world and 37 to forfeit his soul? What could a man offer as an equivalent for his soul?

38 Whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this disloyal and sinful generation, the Son of man will be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy 9 angels. I tell you truly," he said to them, "there are some of those standing here who will not taste death till they see the coming of God's Reign with power."

2 Six days afterwards Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high hill by themselves alone; in their 3 presence he was transfigured, and his clothes glistened white, vivid white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach 4 them. And Elijah along with Moses appeared to them, and 5 conversed with Jesus. So Peter addressed Jesus, saying, "Rabbi, it is a good thing we are here; let us put up three 6 tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" (for 7 he did not know what to say, they were so terrified). Then a cloud came overshadowing them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, listen to him." 8 And suddenly looking round they saw no one there except 9 Jesus all alone beside them. As they went down the hill, he forbade them to tell anyone what they had seen, till 10 such time as the Son of man rose from the dead. This order they obeyed, debating with themselves what 'rising 11 from the dead' meant. So they put this question to him, "Why do the [Pharisees and] scribes say that Elijah has to 12 come first?" He said to them, "Elijah does come first, to restore all things; but what is written about the Son of man as well? This, that he is to endure great suffering 13 and be rejected. As for Elijah, I tell you he has come already, and they have done to him whatever they pleased 14 —as it is written of him." When they reached the disciples they saw a large crowd round them, and some 15 scribes arguing with them. On seeing him the whole 16 crowd was thunderstruck and ran to greet him. Jesus 17 asked them, "What are you discussing with them?" A man from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought 18 my son to you; he has a dumb spirit, and whenever it seizes him it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth. He is wasting away with it; so I told your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." 19 He answered them, "O faithless generation, how long must I still be with you? how long have I to bear with you?

20 Bring him to me." So they brought the boy to him, and when the spirit saw Jesus it at once convulsed the boy; he fell on the ground and rolled about foaming at the 21 mouth. Jesus asked his father, "How long has he been 22 like this?" "From childhood," he said; "it has thrown him into fire and water many a time, to destroy him. If you can do anything, do help us, do have pity on us." 23 Jesus said to him, "'If you can!' Anything can be done 24 for one who believes." At once the father of the boy cried 25 out, "I do believe; help my unbelief." Now as Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering, he checked the unclean spirit. "Deaf and dumb spirit," he said, "leave him, 26 I command you, and never enter him again." And it did come out, after shrieking aloud and convulsing him violently. The child turned like a corpse, so that most people 27 said, "He is dead"; but, taking his hand, Jesus raised 28 him and he got up. When he went indoors his disciples asked him in private, "Why could we not cast it out?" 29 He said to them, "Nothing can make this kind come out but prayer and fasting." 30 On leaving there they passed through Galilee. He did 31 not want anyone to know of their journey, for he was teaching his disciples, telling them that the Son of man would be betrayed into the hands of men, that they would kill him, and that when he was killed he would rise again 32 after three days. But they did not understand what he said, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.
33 Then they reached Capharnahum. And when he was indoors he asked them, "What were you arguing about 34 on the road?" They said nothing, for on the road they had been disputing about which of them was the greatest.
35 So he sat down and called the twelve. "If anyone wants to be first," he said to them, "he must be last of all and the 36 servant of all." Then he took a little child, set it among them, and putting his arms round it said to them, 37 "Whoever receives one of these little ones in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives not me but him who sent me." 38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw a man casting out daemons in your name; but he does not follow us, and

- 39 so we stopped him." Jesus said, "Do not stop him; no one 40 who performs any miracle in my name will be ready to 41 speak evil of me. He who is not against us is for us.
 42 Whoever gives you a cup of water because you belong to Christ, I tell you truly, he shall not miss his reward.
 42 And whoever is a hindrance to one of these little ones who believe, it were better for him to have a great millstone hung round his neck and be thrown into the sea.
 43 If your hand is a hindrance to you, cut it off:
 better be maimed and get into Life, than keep your two hands and go to Gehenna, to the fire that is never quenched.
 45 If your foot is a hindrance to you, cut it off:
 better get into Life a cripple, than keep your two feet and be thrown into Gehenna.
 47 If your eye is a hindrance to you, tear it out:
 better get into God's Realm with one eye, than keep your two eyes and be thrown into Gehenna, 48 where their worm never dies and the fire is never put out.
 49 Everyone has to be consecrated* by the fire of the discipline.
 50 Salt is excellent: but if salt is tasteless, how are you to restore its flavour?
 Let there be 'salt between you';
 be at peace with one another."

10 THEN he left and went to the territory of Judaea over the Jordan. Crowds gathered to him again, and 2 again he taught them as usual. Now some Pharisees came up and asked him if a man was allowed to divorce 3 his wife. This was to tempt him. So he replied, "What 4 did Moses lay down for you?" They said, "Moses permitted a man to divorce her by writing out a separation 5 notice." Jesus said to them, "He wrote you that com-6 mand on account of the hardness of your hearts. But from the beginning, when God created the world, Male and female, He created them:
 7 hence a man shall leave his father and mother,
 8 and the pair shall be one flesh.

* The Greek word ἀλισθήσεται literally means 'salted,' the metaphor being taken from the custom of using salt in sacrifices (cp. e.g. Levit.
 ii. 13; Josephus, Antiquities, iii. 9. 1). "There is fire to be encountered afterwards if not now; how much better to face it now and by self-sacrifice insure against the future" (Professor Menzies).

9 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. What God has 10 joined, then, man must not separate." Indoors, the dis-11 ciples again asked him about this, and he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman 12 is an adulterer to the former, and she is an adulteress if she divorces her husband and marries another man."

13 Now people brought children for him to touch them, 14 and the disciples checked them; but Jesus was angry when he saw this, and he said to them, "Let the children come to me, do not stop them: the Realm of God belongs to such 15 as these. I tell you truly, whoever will not submit to the Reign of God like a child will never get into it at all." 16 Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and blessed them.

17 As he went out on the road a man ran up and knelt down before him. "Good teacher," he asked, "what must 18 I do to inherit life eternal?" Jesus said to him, "Why call 19 me 'good'? No one is good, no one but God. You know the commands: do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not defraud, honour 20 your father and mother." "Teacher," he said, "I have ob-21 served all these commands from my youth." Jesus looked at him and loved him. "There is one thing you want," he said; "go and sell all you have; give the money to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, take 22 up the cross, and follow me." But his face fell at that, and he 23 went sadly away, for he had great possessions. Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have money to get into the Realm of God!" 24 The disciples were amazed at what he said; so he repeated,
"My sons, how difficult it is [for those who rely on money] 25 to get into the Realm of God! It is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye than for a rich man to get into 26 the Realm of God." They were more astounded than ever; they said to themselves, "Then who ever can be saved?" 27 Jesus looked at them and said, "For men it is impossible, 28 but not for God: anything is possible for God." Peter 29 began, "Well, we have left our all and followed you." Jesus said, "I tell you truly, no one has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my 30 sake and for the sake of the gospel, who does not get a hundred times as much—in this present world homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and lands, together with persecutions, and in the world to come life eternal.
31 Many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first."

32 They were on the way up to Jerusalem, Jesus walking in front of them: the disciples were in dismay and the company who followed were afraid. So once again he took the twelve aside and proceeded to tell them what was 33 going to happen to himself. "We are going up to Jerusalem," he said, "and the Son of man will be betrayed to the high priests and scribes; they will sentence him to 34 death and hand him over to the Gentiles, who will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him; then after three days he will rise again."

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedaeus, came up to him saying, "Teacher, we want you to do whatever we ask 36 you." So he said, "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 They said to him, "Give us seats, one at your right hand 38 and one at your left hand, in your glory." Jesus said, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup I have to drink, or undergo the baptism I have to under-39 go?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said, "You shall drink the cup I have to drink and undergo the baptism 40 I have to undergo; but it is not for me to grant seats at my right or my left hand—these belong to the men for 41 whom they have been destined." Now when the ten heard 42 of this, they burst into anger at James and John; so Jesus called them and said,

"You know the so-called rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men overbear them:

43 not so with you.

Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant,

44 and whoever of you wants to be first must be your slave;

45 for the Son of man himself has not come to be served but to serve,

46 Then they reached Jericho; and as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a considerable crowd, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, the blind beggar who sat beside the 47 road, heard it was Jesus of Nazaret. So he started to shout, "Son of David! Jesus! have pity on me." A number of the people checked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me!"
48 Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." Then they called the blind man and told him, "Courage! Get up, he is calling 49 you." Throwing off his cloak he jumped up and went to 50 Jesus. Jesus spoke to him and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said, "Rabboni, I want 51 to regain my sight." Then Jesus said, "Go, your faith has made you well;" and he regained his sight at once and followed Jesus along the road.

11 Now when they came near Jerusalem, near Bethphage 2 and Bethany, at the Hill of Olives, he despatched 3 two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village 4 in front of you. As soon as you enter it you will find a 5 colt tethered, on which no one has ever sat; untether it 6 and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing 7 that?' say, 'The Lord needs it, and he will send it back 8 immediately.'" Off they went and found a colt tethered 9 outside a door in the street. They untethered it; but some 10 of the bystanders said to them, "What do you mean by un-11 tethering that colt?" So they answered as Jesus had told 12 them, and the men allowed them to go. Then they brought 13 the colt to Jesus, and when they had put their clothes on 14 it Jesus seated himself. Many also spread their clothes 15 on the road, while others strewed leaves cut from the 16 fields; and both those in front and those who followed 17 shouted,

"Hosanna!

Blessed be he who comes in the Lord's name!

10 Blessed be the Reign to come, our father David's reign.
Hosanna in high heaven!"

11 Then he entered Jerusalem, entered the temple, and looked round at everything; but as it was late he went away with the twelve to Bethany.

12 Next day, when they had left Bethany, he felt hungry, 13 and noticing a fig tree in leaf some distance away he went to see if he could find anything on it; but when he reached it he found nothing but leaves, for it was not 14 the time for figs. Then he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you after this!" The disciples heard him say it.

15 Then they came to Jerusalem, and entering the temple he proceeded to drive out those who were buying and sell-16 ing inside the temple; he upset the tables of the moneychangers and the stalls of those who sold doves, and would not allow anyone to carry a vessel through the temple; 17 also he taught them. "Is it not written," he asked, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations?" 18 You have made it a den of robbers." This came to the ears of the scribes and high priests, and they tried to get him put to death, for they were afraid of him. But the multi-19 tude were all astounded at his teaching. And when evening came he went outside the city.

20 Now as they passed in the morning they noticed the fig 21 tree had withered to the root. Then Peter remembered.
 "Rabbi," he said, "there is the fig tree you cursed, all 22 withered!" Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God!
 23 I tell you truly, whoever says to this hill, 'Take and throw yourself into the sea,' and has not a doubt in his mind

but believes that what he says will happen, he will have it done. So I tell you, whatever you pray for and ask, believe you have got it and you shall have it. Also, whenever you stand up to pray, if you have anything against anybody, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your trespasses."

Once more they came to Jerusalem. And as he was walking within the temple the high priests and scribes and elders came and asked him, "What authority have you for acting in this way? Who gave you authority to act in this way?" Jesus said to them, "I am going to ask you a question. Answer this, and I will tell you what authority I have for acting as I do. What about the baptism of John? Was it from heaven or from men?" Now they argued to themselves, "[What are we to say?] If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why did you not believe him?' No, let us say, 'From men'"—but they were afraid of the multitude, for the people all held John had been really a prophet. So they replied to Jesus, "We do not know." Jesus said to them, "No more will I tell you what authority I have for acting as I do."

12 THEN he proceeded to address them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, fenced it round, dug a trough for the winepress, and built a tower; then he leased it to vinedressers and went abroad. When the season came round he sent a servant to the vinedressers to collect from the vinedressers some of the produce of the vineyard, but they took and flogged him and sent him off with nothing. Once more he sent them another servant; him they knocked on the head and insulted. He sent another, but they killed him. And so they treated many others; some they flogged and some they killed. He had still one left, a beloved son; he sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But these vinedressers said to themselves, 'Here is the heir; come on, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be our own.' So they took and killed him, and threw him outside the vineyard. Now what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and he will give the vineyard to others. Have you not even read this scripture?—

The stone that the builders rejected is the chief stone now of the corner:

*this is the doing of the Lord,

Then they tried to get hold of him, but they were afraid of the multitude. They knew he had meant the parable for them.

- 13 So they left him and went away. But they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to him for the purpose of
- 14 catching him with a question. They came up and said to him, "Teacher, we know you are sincere and fearless; you do not court human favour, you teach the Way of God
- 15 honestly. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Are we to pay, or are we not to pay?" But he saw their trick and said to them, "Why tempt me? Bring me a shilling.
- 16 Let me see it." So they brought one. He said, "Whose likeness, whose inscription is this?" "Caesar's," they said.
- 17 Jesus said to them, "Give Caesar what belongs to Caesar, give God what belongs to God." He astonished them.
- 18 Sadducees, men who hold there is no resurrection, also
- 19 came up and put a question to him. "Teacher," they said, "Moses has written this law for us, that if a man's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother is to take
- 20 the woman and raise offspring for his brother. Now there were seven brothers. The first married a wife and died
- 21 leaving no offspring: the second took her and died without
- 22 leaving any offspring: so did the third: none of the seven
- 23 left any offspring. Last of all the woman died too. At the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? She
- 24 was wife to the seven of them." Jesus said to them, "Is this not where you go wrong?—you understand neither the
- 25 scriptures nor the power of God. When people rise from the dead they neither marry nor are married, they are
- 26 like the angels in heaven. As for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, at the passage on the Bush, how God said to him, I am the God of Abraham
- 27 and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of dead people but of living. You are far wrong."
- 28 Then a scribe came up, who had listened to the discussion. Knowing Jesus had given them an apt answer, he put this question to him, "What is the chief of all the commands?"
- 29 Jesus replied, "The chief one is: Hear, O Israel, the Lord
- 30 our God is one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, with your whole soul, with your
- 31 whole mind, and with your whole strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no
- 32 other command greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Right, teacher! You have truly said, He is One, and there
- 33 is none else but Him. Also, to love him with the whole heart, with the whole understanding, and with the whole strength, and to love one's neighbour as oneself—that is far more than
- 34 all holocausts and sacrifices." Jesus noted his intelligent answer and said to him, "You are not far off the Realm of God." After that no one ventured to put any more questions to him.

35 And as Jesus taught in the temple he asked, "How can 36 the scribes say that the Christ is David's son? David himself said in the holy Spirit,

The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.'

37 David here calls him Lord. Then how can he be his son?"

Now the mass of the people listened with delight to him.
38 And in the course of his teaching he said, "Beware of the scribes! They like to walk about in long robes, to get 39 saluted in the marketplaces, to secure the front seats in 40 the synagogues and the best places at banquets; they prey upon the property of widows and offer long unreal prayers.
All the heavier will their sentence be!"

41 Sitting down opposite the treasury, he watched the people putting their money into the treasury. A number of the 42 rich were putting in large sums, but a poor widow came up and put in two little coins amounting to a halfpenny.
43 And he called his disciples and said to them, "I tell you truly, this poor widow has put in more than all who have 44 put their money into the treasury; for they have all put in a contribution out of their surplus, but she has given out of her neediness all she possessed, her whole living."

13 As he went out of the temple one of his disciples said to him, "Look, teacher, what a size these stones and 2 buildings are!" Jesus said to him, "You see these great buildings? Not a stone shall be left on another, without being torn down."

3 And as he sat on the Hill of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him in pri-4 vate, "Tell us, when is this to happen? What will be the 5 sign for all this to be accomplished?" So Jesus began:

6 "Take care that no one misleads you:—many will come in 7 my name saying, 'I am he,' and mislead many. And when you hear of wars and rumours of war, do not be alarmed; 8 these have to come, but it is not the end yet. For nation will rise against nation, and realm against realm; there will be earthquakes here and there, and famines too. All 9 that is but the beginning of the trouble. Look to yourselves. Men will hand you over to Sanhedrins and you will be flogged in synagogues and brought before governors 10 and kings for my sake, to testify to them. (Ere the end, 11 the gospel must be preached to all nations.) Now when they carry you off to trial, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say; say whatever comes to your lips at the moment, for he who speaks is not you but the holy Spirit.

12 Brother will betray brother to death, the father will betray his child, children will rise against their parents and kill them, and you will be hated by all men on account of my name; but he will be saved who holds out to the very end.

But whenever you see the appalling Horror standing where he has no right to stand (let the reader note this), then let those who are in Judaea fly to the hills; a man on the housetop must not go down into the house or go inside to fetch anything out of his house, and a man in the field must not turn back to get his coat. Woe to women with child and to women who give suck in those days! Pray it may not be winter when it comes, for those days will be days of misery, the like of which has never been from the beginning of God's creation until now—no and never shall be. Had not the Lord cut short those days, not a soul would be saved alive; but he has cut them short for the sake of the elect whom he has chosen.

If anyone tells you at that time, 'Look, here is the Christ,' or, 'Look, there he is,' do not believe it; for false Christs and false prophets will rise and perform signs and wonders to mislead the elect if they can. Now take care! I am telling you of it all beforehand.

But when that misery is past, in those days,
the sun will be darkened

and the moon will not yield her light,

the stars will drop from heaven,

and the orbs of the heavens will be shaken.

Then they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. Then he will despatch his angels and muster the elect from the four winds, from the verge of earth to the verge of heaven.

Let the fig tree teach you a parable. As soon as its branches turn soft and put out leaves, you know summer is at hand; so, whenever you see this happen, you may be sure He is at hand, at the very door.

I tell you truly, the present generation will not pass away till all this happens. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words never.

Now no one knows anything about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, not even the Son, but only the Father. Take care, keep awake and pray; you never know the time. It is like a man leaving his house to go abroad; he puts his servants in charge, each with his work to do, and he orders the porter to keep watch. Watch then, for you never know when the Lord of the House will come, in the late evening or at midnight or at cock-crow or in the morning. Watch, in case he comes suddenly and finds you asleep. Watch: I say it to you, and I say it to all."

- 14 THE passover and the festival of unleavened bread fell two days later; so the high priests and scribes were trying how to get hold of him by craft and have him put to death. "Jury," they said, "it must not be during the festival; that would mean a popular riot."
- 3 Now when he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, lying at table, a woman came up with an alabaster flask of pure nard perfume, which had cost a great sum; the flask she broke and poured the perfume over his head.
- 4 This angered some of those present. "What was the use of wasting perfume like this? This perfume might have been sold for over three hundred shillings, and the poor might have got that." So they upbraided her. But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why are you annoying her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. The poor you always have beside you, and you can be kind to them whenever you want; but you will not always have me. She has done all she could—she has anticipated the perfuming of my body for burial. I tell you truly, wherever the gospel is preached all over the world, men will speak of what she has done in memory of her."
- 10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the high priests to betray him to them. They were delighted to hear it, and promised to pay him for it. Meantime he sought a good opportunity for betraying him.
- 12 On the first day of unleavened bread (the day when the paschal lamb was sacrificed) his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the passover?" So he despatched two of his disciples, telling them, "Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a water-jar; follow him, and whatever house he goes into, tell the owner that the Teacher says, 'Where is my room, that I may eat the passover there with my disciples?'"
- 15 He will show you a large room upstairs, with couches spread, all ready; prepare the passover for us there."
- 16 The disciples went away into the city and found it was as he had told them. So they prepared the passover, and when evening fell he arrived along with the twelve. As they were at table eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, one of you is going to betray me, one who is eating with me." They got distressed at this, and said to him one after another, "Surely it is not me?" "Surely it is not me?" "One of the twelve," he told them, "one who is dipping into the same dish as I am. The Son of man goes the road that the scripture has described for him, but woe to the man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! Better that man had never been born!" And as they were eating he took a loaf and after the blessing he broke and gave it to them, saying,

23 "Take this, it means my body." He also took a cup and 24 after thanking God he gave it to them, and they all drank 25 of it; he said to them, "This means my covenant-blood which is shed for many; truly I tell you, I will never drink the produce of the vine again till the day I drink it new within the Realm of God."

26 After the hymn of praise they went out to the Hill of 27 Olives. Jesus said to them, "You will all be disconcerted, for it is written: I will strike at the shepherd and the sheep 28 will be scattered. But after my rising I will precede you to 29 Galilee." Peter said to him, "Though all are disconcerted, 30 I will not be." Jesus said to him, "I tell you truly, to-day you will disown me three times, this very night, before the 31 cock crows twice." But he persisted, "Though I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And they all said the same.

32 Then they came to a place called Gethsemane, and he 33 told his disciples, "Sit here till I pray." But he took Peter and James and John along with him; and as he began to 34 feel appalled and agitated, he said to them, "My heart is 35 sad, sad even to death; stay here and watch." Then he went forward a little and fell to the earth, praying that the 36 hour might pass away from him, if possible. "Abba, Father," he said, "Thou canst do anything. Take this cup away from me. Yet, not what I will but what thou wilt." 37 Then he came and found them asleep; so he said to Peter, "Are you sleeping, Simon? Could you not watch for a 38 single hour? Watch and pray, all of you, so that you may not slip into temptation. The spirit is eager but the flesh 39 is weak." Again he went away and prayed in the same 40 words as before; then he returned and found them once more asleep, for their eyes were heavy. They did not know 41 what to say to him. Then he came for the third time and said to them, "Still asleep? still resting? No more of that!
The hour has come, here is the Son of man betrayed into 42 the hands of sinners. Come, get up, here is my betrayer 43 close at hand." At that very moment, while he was still speaking, Judas [Iscariot] one of the twelve came up accompanied by a mob with swords and clubs who had come 44 from the high priests and scribes and elders. Now his betrayer had given them a signal; he said, "Whoever I kiss, that is the man. Seize him and get him safely away." 45 So when he arrived he at once went up to him and said, 46 "Rabbi [rabbi]," and kissed him. Then they laid hands on 47 him and seized him, but one of the bystanders drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off 48 his ear. Jesus turned on them, saying, "Have you sallied out to arrest me like a robber, with swords and clubs?"

49 Day after day I was beside you in the temple teaching, and you never seized me. However, it is to let the scriptures be fulfilled."

50 Then they left him and fled, all of them; one young man 51 did follow him, with only a linen sheet thrown round his 52 body, but when the [young] men seized him he fled away naked, leaving the sheet behind him.

53 They took Jesus away to the high priest, and all the high 54 priests and scribes and elders met there with him. Peter followed him at a distance till he got inside the courtyard of the high priest, where he sat down with the attendants to warm himself at the fire.

55 Now the high priests and the whole of the Sanhedrin tried to secure evidence against Jesus, in order to have him put to 56 death; but they could find none, for while many bore false 57 witness against him their evidence did not agree. Some got 58 up and bore false witness against him, saying, "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made by hands, and in three days I will build another temple not made by hands.'"

59 But even so the evidence did not agree. So the high priest 60 rose in their midst and asked Jesus, "Have you no reply to make? What about this evidence against you?" He said nothing and made no answer. Again the high priest put a question to him. "Are you the Christ?" he said, "the Son of

62 the Blessed?" Jesus said, "I am. And, what is more, you will all see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of the

63 Power and coming with the clouds of heaven." Then the high priest tore his clothes and cried, "What more evidence

64 do we want? You have heard his blasphemy for yourselves. What is your mind?" They condemned him, all of them, 65 to the doom of death; and some of them started to spit on him and to blindfold him and buffet him, asking him, "Prophecy." The attendants treated him to cuffs and slaps.

66 Now as Peter was downstairs in the courtyard, a maid-67 servant of the high priest came along, and when she noticed Peter warming himself she looked at him and said, "You

68 were with Jesus of Nazaret too." But he denied it. "I do not know," he said, "I have no idea what you mean." Then 69 he went outside into the passage. The cock crowed. Again the maidservant who had noticed him began to tell the by-

70 standers, "That fellow is one of them." But he denied it again. After a little the bystanders once more said to Peter, "To be sure, you are one of them. Why, you are a 71 Galilean!" * But he broke out cursing and swearing, "I 72 do not know the man you mean." At that moment the cock crowed for the second time. Then Peter remembered how

* Omitting [καὶ ἡ λαλία σου ὁμοιάζει].

Jesus had told him, "Before the cock crows twice you will disown me thrice;" and he burst into tears.

15 Immediately morning came, the high priests held a consultation * with the elders and scribes and all the Sanhedrin, and after binding Jesus they led him off and 2 handed him over to Pilate. Pilate asked him, "Are you 3 the king of the Jews?" He replied, "Certainly." Then the high priest brought many accusations against him, and 4 once more Pilate asked him, "Have you no reply to make?
5 Look at all their charges against you." But, to the astonishment of Pilate, Jesus answered no more. Now at festival time he used to release for them some prisoner whom they 7 begged from him. (There was a man called Bar-Abbas in prison, among the rioters who had committed murder during the insurrection.) So the crowd pressed up and started 9 to ask him for his usual boon. Pilate replied, "Would you 10 like me to release the king of the Jews for you?" (For he knew the high priests had handed him over out of envy.) 11 But the high priests stirred up the crowd to get him to 12 release Bar-Abbas for them instead. Pilate asked them again, "And what am I to do with your so-called king of 13 the Jews?" Whereupon they shouted again, "Crucify him." 14 "Why," said Pilate, "what has he done wrong?" But they 15 shouted more fiercely than ever, "Crucify him!" So, as Pilate wanted to satisfy the crowd, he released Bar-Abbas for them; Jesus he handed over to be crucified, after he had scourged him.

16 The soldiers took him inside the courtyard (that is, the 17 praetorium) and got all the regiment together; then they dressed him in purple, put on his head a crown of thorns which they had plaited, and began to salute him with, 19 "Hail, O king of the Jews!" They struck him on the head with a stick and spat upon him and bent their knees to 20 him in homage. Then, after making fun of him, they stripped off the purple, put on his own clothes, and took 21 him away to crucify him. They forced Simon a Cyrenian who was passing on his way from the country (the father of Alexander and Rufus) to carry his cross, and they led him to the place called Golgotha (which means the place of 23 a skull). They offered him wine flavoured with myrrh, 24 but he would not take it. Then they crucified him and distributed his clothes among themselves, drawing lots for 25 them to decide each man's share. It was nine in the morning when they crucified him. The inscription bearing his charge was:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

* Reading ποιήσαντες instead of ἐτοιμάσαντες.

27 They also crucified two robbers along with him, one at his 29 right and one at his left.* Those who passed by scoffed at him, nodding at him in derision and calling, "Ha! You were to destroy the temple and build it in three days!
 30 Come down from the cross and save yourself!" So, too, 31 the high priests made fun of him to themselves with the scribes. "He saved others," they said, "but he cannot save 32 himself! Let 'the Christ,' 'the king of Israel' come down now from the cross! Let us see that and we will believe!"
 Those who were crucified with him also denounced him.
 33 When twelve o'clock came, darkness covered the whole 34 land till three o'clock, and at three o'clock Jesus gave a loud cry, "Elôî, Elôî, lema sabachthanei" (which means, My 35 God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?) On hearing this some of the bystanders said, "Look, he is calling for 36 Elijah." One man ran off, soaked a sponge in vinegar, and put it on the end of a stick to give him a drink, saying, "Come 37 on, let us see if Elijah does come to take him down!" But 38 Jesus gave a loud cry and expired. And the curtain of 39 the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. Now when the army-captain who stood facing him saw that he expired in this way, he said, "This man was certainly a son of God." 40 There were some women also watching at a distance, among them Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James 41 the younger and of Joses, and Salome, women who had followed him when he was in Galilee and waited on him, besides a number of other women who had accompanied him to Jerusalem.
 42 By this time it was evening, and as it was the day of 43 Preparation (that is, the day before the sabbath) Joseph of Arimathaea, a councillor of good position who himself was on the outlook for the Reign of God, ventured to go to 44 Pilate and ask for the body of Jesus. Pilate was surprised that he was dead already; he summoned the captain and 45 asked if he had been dead some time, and on ascertaining this from the captain he bestowed the corpse on Joseph.
 46 He, after buying a linen sheet, took him down and swathed him in the linen, laying him in a tomb which had been cut out of the rock and rolling a boulder up against the opening 47 of the tomb. Now Mary of Magdala and Mary the mother of Joses noted where he was laid.

16 AND when the sabbath had passed Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought some 2 spices in order to go and anoint him; and very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, after sunrise.

* Von Soden retains ver. 28 (cp. Luke xxii, 37): "So the scripture was fulfilled which says, He was classed among criminals."

 3 They said to themselves, "Who will roll away the boulder 4 for us at the opening of the tomb?" (for it was a very large 5 boulder).^{*} But when they looked they saw the boulder had 6 been rolled to one side, and on entering the tomb they saw a youth sitting on the right dressed in a white robe. They 7 were bewildered, but he said to them, "Do not be bewildered.
 You are looking for Jesus of Nazaret, who was crucified?
 He has risen, he is not here. That is the place where he 8 was laid. Go you and tell his disciples and Peter, 'He precedes you to Galilee; you shall see him there, as he told you.'" And they fled out of the tomb, for they were seized with terror and beside themselves. They said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid of —.†

9 Now after he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary of Magdala out of whom he had cast 10 seven daemons. She went and reported it to those who had 11 been with him, as they mourned and wept; but although they heard he was alive and had been seen by her, they 12 would not believe it. After this he appeared in another form to two of them as they were walking on their way to 13 the country. They too went and reported it to the rest, 14 but they would not believe them either. Afterwards he appeared at table to the eleven themselves and reproached them for their unbelief and dulness of mind, because they had not believed those who saw him risen from the dead.
 [But they excused themselves, saying, "This age of lawlessness and unbelief lies under the sway of Satan, who will not allow what lies under the unclean spirits‡ to understand the truth and power of God; therefore," they said to Christ, "reveal your righteousness now." Christ answered them, "The limit of years for Satan's power has now expired, but other terrors are at hand. I was delivered to death on behalf of sinners,§ that they might return to the truth and sin no more, that they might inherit that glory of righteousness which is spiritual and imperishable in

* Transposing the second clause of ver. 4 to the end of ver. 3.

† The following appendix represents a couple of second century attempts to complete the gospel. The passage within brackets in the first of these epilogues originally belonged to it, but was excised for some reason at an early date. Jerome quoted part of it, but the full text has only been discovered quite recently in codex W, the Freer uncial of the gospels.

- 15 heaven."] And he said to them, "Go to all the world and preach the gospel to every creature: 16 he who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who will not believe shall be condemned.
17 And for those who believe, these miracles will follow:
they will cast out daemons in my name, they will talk in foreign tongues, 18 they will handle serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick and make them well." 19 Then after speaking to them the Lord Jesus was taken 20 up to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God, while they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the miracles that endorsed it.

But they gave Peter and his companions a brief account of all that had been enjoined. And after that, Jesus himself sent out by means of them from east to west the sacred and imperishable message of eternal salvation.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

1 INASMUCH as a number of writers have essayed to draw 2 up a narrative of the established facts in our religion exactly as these have been handed down to us by the original
3 eyewitnesses who were in the service of the Gospel Message, and inasmuch as I have gone carefully over them 4 all myself from the very beginning, I have decided, O Theophilus, to write them out in order for your excellency, to let you know the solid truth of what you have been taught.

5 In the days of Herod king of Judaea there was a priest called Zechariah, who belonged to the division of Abijah; he had a wife who belonged to the daughters of Aaron, and 6 her name was Elizabeth. They were both just in the sight of God, blameless in their obedience to all the commands 7 and regulations of God; but they had no child, for Elizabeth was barren. Both of them were advanced in years.

8 Now while he was officiating before God in the due 9 course of his division, it fell to him by lot, as was the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the 10 Lord and burn incense, the mass of the people all remaining in prayer outside at the hour of incense. And an angel 11 of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw him he was 12 troubled, and fear fell on him; but the angel said to him, "Fear not, Zechariah, your prayer has been heard; your 13 wife Elizabeth will bear a son to you, and you must call his name John.

14 It will be joy and gladness for you, and many will rejoice over his birth: 15 for he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, he will drink neither wine nor strong drink, he will be filled with the holy Spirit from his very birth; 16 he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God, 17 he will go in front of Him with the spirit and power of Elijah
to turn the hearts of fathers to their children, turning the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make a people ready and prepared for the Lord."

18 Zechariah said to the angel, "But how am I to be sure of 19 this? I am an old man myself, and my wife is advanced 20 in years." The angel replied, "I am Gabriel, I stand be-21 fore God; I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you 22 this good news. But you will be silent and unable to speak 23 till the day this happens, because you have not believed what I told you; it will be accomplished, for all that, in due time."

24 Now the people were waiting for Zechariah and wonder-25 ing that he stayed so long inside the sanctuary. When he did come out he could not speak to them, so they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary; he made signs 26 to them and remained dumb. Then, after his term of service had elapsed, he went home.

27 After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived; and for 28 five months she concealed herself. "The Lord has done this for me," she said, "he has now deigned to remove my reproach among men."

29 In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God 30 to a town in Galilee called Nazaret, to a maiden who was betrothed to a man called Joseph, belonging to the house of 31 David. The maiden's name was Mary. The angel went in and said to her, "Hail, O favoured one! the Lord be with 32 you!" At this she was startled; she thought to herself, 33 whatever can this greeting mean? But the angel said to her, "Fear not, Mary, you have found favour with God.
34 You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must call his name Jesus.

35 He will be great, he will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father;

36 he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and to his reign there will be no end."

37 "How can this be?" said Mary to the angel, "I have no 38 husband." The angel answered her, "The holy Spirit will come upon you, the power of the Most High will overshadow you; hence what is born will be called holy, Son of 39 God. Look, there is your kinswoman Elizabeth! Even she has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called 40 barren is now in her sixth month; for with God nothing 41 is ever impossible." Mary said, "I am here to serve the Lord. Let it be as you have said." Then the angel went away.

42 In those days Mary started with haste for the hill-country, for a town of Judah; she entered the house of 43 Zechariah and saluted Elizabeth, and when Elizabeth heard

- the salutation of Mary, the babe leapt in her womb. Then 42 Elizabeth was filled with the holy Spirit; she called out with a loud cry,
"Blessed among women are you, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43 What have I done to have the mother of my Lord come to 44 me? Why, as soon as the sound of your salutation reached 45 my ears, the babe leapt for joy within my womb. And blessed is she who believed that the Lord's words to her 46 would be fulfilled." Then Mary said
*"My soul magnifies the Lord, 47 My spirit has joy in God my Saviour:
48 for he has considered the humiliation of his servant.
From this time forth all generations will call me blessed, 49 for He who is Mighty has done great things for me.
His name is holy,
50 his mercy is on generation after generation, for those who reverence him.
51 He has done a deed of might with his arm, he has scattered the proud with their purposes, 52 princes he has dethroned and the poor he has uplifted, 53 he has satisfied the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty.
54 He has succoured his servant Israel, mindful of his mercy—55 as he promised our fathers, to have mercy on Abraham and his offspring for ever."* 56 Mary stayed with her about three months and then returned home.
57 Now the time for Elizabeth's delivery had elapsed, and 58 she gave birth to a son. When her neighbours and kins-folk heard of the Lord's great mercy to her they rejoiced 59 with her, and on the eighth day came to circumcise the child. They were going to call it by the name of its father 60 Zechariah, but the mother told them, "No, the child is to 61 be called John." They said to her, "None of your family is 62 called by that name." Then they made signs to the father, 63 to find out what he wanted the child to be called, and he asked for a writing-tablet and wrote down, "His name is 64 John," to the astonishment of all. Instantly his mouth was opened, his tongue loosed, and he spoke out blessing 65 God. Then fear fell on all their neighbours, and all these events were talked of through the whole of the hill-country 66 of Judaea. All who heard of it bore it in mind; they said, "Whatever will this child become?" For the hand of the Lord was indeed with him.
67 And Zechariah his father was filled with the holy Spirit;
he prophesied in these words,

- 68 "Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, for he has cared for his people and wrought them redemption;
- 69 he has raised up a strong saviour for us in the house of his servant David—
- 70 as he promised of old by the lips of his prophets— 71 to save us from our foes and from the hand of all who hate us,
- 72 to deal mercifully with our fathers and to be mindful of his holy covenant, 73 of the oath he swore to Abraham our father, 74 that freed from fear and from the hand of our foes 75 we should worship him in holiness and uprightness all our days within his presence.
- 76 And you, my child, shall be called a prophet of the Most High;
 for you shall go in front of the Lord to make his ways ready,
- 77 to bring his people the knowledge of salvation through the remission of their sins—
- 78 by the tender mercy of our God, who will make the Dawn visit us from on high,
- 79 to shine on those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 to guide our steps into the way of peace."
- 80 And the child grew, he became strong in the Spirit and remained in the desert till the day when he made his appearance before Israel.

- 2 Now in those days an edict was issued by Caesar 2 Augustus for a census of the whole world. (This was 3 the first census, and it took place when Quirinius was gov-3 ernor of Syria.) So everyone went to be registered, each 4 at his own town, and as Joseph belonged to the house and 4 family of David he went up from Galilee to Judaea, from 5 the town of Nazaret to David's town called Bethlehem, to 6 be registered along with Mary his wife. She was pregnant, 6 and while they were there the days elapsed for her de-7 livery; she gave birth to her firstborn son, and as there 7 was no room for them inside the khan she wrapped him 8 up and laid him in a stall for cattle. There were some 8 shepherds in the district who were out in the fields keep-9 ing guard over their flocks by night; and an angel of the 9 Lord flashed upon them, the glory of the Lord shone all 10 round them. They were terribly afraid, but the angel said 10 to them, "Have no fear. This is good news I am bringing 10 you, news of a great joy that is meant for all the People.

11 To-day you have a saviour born in the town of David, 12 the Lord messiah. And here is a proof for you: you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle.” 13 Then a host of heaven’s army suddenly appeared beside the angel extolling God and saying,

14 “Glory to God in high heaven, and peace on earth for men whom he favours!”

15 Now when the angels had left them and gone away to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us be off to Bethlehem to see this thing that the Lord has told us 16 of.” So they made haste and discovered Mary and Joseph 17 and the baby lying in the stall for cattle. When they saw this they told people about the word which had been 18 spoken to them about the child; all who heard it were 19 astonished at the story of the shepherds, and as for Mary, 20 she treasured it all up and mused upon it. Then the shepherds went away back, glorifying and extolling God for all they had heard and seen as they had been told they would.

21 When the eight days had passed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus—the name given by the angel before he had been conceived in the womb.

22 When the days for their purification in terms of the Mosaic law had elapsed, they brought him up to Jeru-23 salem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord: every male that opens the womb must be 24 considered consecrated to the Lord) and also to offer the sacrifice prescribed in the law of the Lord, a pair of turtle- 25 doves or two young pigeons. Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Symeon, an upright and devout man, who was on the outlook for the Consolation of Israel. The holy 26 Spirit was upon him; indeed it had been revealed to him by the holy Spirit that he was not to see death before 27 he had seen the Lord messiah. By an inspiration of the Spirit he came to the temple, and when the parents of the child Jesus carried him in to perform the customary regu-28 lations of the law for him, then Symeon took him in his arms, blessed God, and said, 29 “Now, Master, thou canst let thy servant go, and go in peace, as thou didst promise; 30 for mine eyes have seen thy saving power 31 which thou hast prepared before the face of all the peoples, 32 to be a light of revelation for the Gentiles and a glory to thy people Israel.”

33 His father and mother were astonished at these words 34 about him, but Symeon blessed them, and to his mother Mary he said, “This child is destined for the downfall as well as for the rise of many a one in Israel; destined to be a Sign for man's attack—to bring out the secret aims of 35 many a heart. And your own soul will be pierced by a spear."

36 There was also a prophetess, Hannah the daughter of Phanuel, who belonged to the tribe of Asher; she was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her girlhood and having been a widow for 37 eighty-four years. She was never away from the temple; night and day she worshipped, fasting and praying. Now 38 at that very hour she came up, and she offered praise to God and spoke of him to all who were on the outlook for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 When they had finished all the regulations of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of 40 Nazaret. And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the favour of God was on him. Every year his parents used to travel to Jerusalem at the 41 passover festival; and when he was twelve years old they went up as usual to the festival. After spending the full 42 number of days they came back, but the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know of this;
 43 they supposed he was in the caravan and travelled on for a day, searching for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. Then, as they failed to find him, they came 44 back to Jerusalem in search of him. Three days later they found him in the temple, seated among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, till all his hearers 45 were amazed at the intelligence of his own answers. When his parents saw him they were astounded, and his mother said to him, "My son, why have you behaved like this to 46 us? Here have your father and I been looking for you anxiously!" "Why did you look for me?" he said, "Did you 47 not know I had to be at my Father's house?" But they 48 did not understand what he said. Then he went down along with them to Nazaret, and did as they told him.
 49 His mother treasured up everything in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favour with God and man.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, Philip his brother tetrarch of the country of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysias
 2 tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas the word of God came to John the son 3 of Zechariah in the desert; and he went into all the Jordan-district preaching a baptism of repentance for the 4 remission of sins—as it is written in the book of the sayings of the prophet Isaiah,

*The voice of one who cries in the desert,
‘Make the way ready for the Lord,
level the paths for him.*

5 Every valley shall be filled up, every hill and mound laid low, the crooked made straight, the rough roads smooth;

6 so shall all flesh see the saving power of God.’

7 To the crowds who came out to get baptized by him John said, “You brood of vipers, who told you to flee from the 8 coming Wrath? Now, produce fruits that answer to your repentance, instead of beginning to say to yourselves, ‘We have a father in Abraham.’ I tell you, God can raise up 9 children for Abraham from these stones! The axe is lying all ready at the root of the trees; any tree that is not producing good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

10 The crowds asked him, “Then what are we to do?”

11 He replied, “Let everyone who possesses two shirts share with him who has none, and let him who has food do likewise.” Taxgatherers also came to get baptized, and they 12 said to him, “Teacher, what are we to do?” He said to 13 them, “Never exact more than your fixed rate.” Soldiers also asked him, “And what are we to do?” He said to 14 them, “Never extort money, never lay a false charge, but be content with your pay.”

15 Now as people’s expectations were roused and as everybody thought to himself about John, “Can he be the 16 Christ,” John said to them all,

“I baptize you with water, but after me one who is mightier will come, and I am not fit to untie the string of his sandals;
he will baptize you with the holy Spirit and fire.

17 His winnowing-fan is in his hand to purge his threshing-floor, to gather the wheat into his granary and burn the straw with fire unquenchable.”

18 Thus with many another appeal he spoke his message 19 to the people. But Herod the tetrarch, who had been reproved by him for Herodias his brother’s wife as well as for all the wickedness that he, Herod, had committed, 20 crowned all by shutting John up in prison.

21 Now when all the people had been baptized and when Jesus had been baptized and was praying, heaven opened 22 and the holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon him; and a voice came from heaven,

"Thou art my son, the Beloved,
to-day have I become thy father." *

23 At the outset Jesus was about thirty years of age; he was the son, as people supposed, of Joseph, the son of 24 Heli, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, 25 the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, 26 the son of Naggai, the son of Maath, the son of Mat-tathias, son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of 27 Joda, the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of 28 Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Kosam, the son of 29 Elmadam, the son of Er, the son of Jesus, the son of 30 Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Symeon, the son of Judas, the son of Joseph, the son of 31 Jonam, the son of Eliakim, the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son 32 of David, the son of Jessai, the son of Jobed, the son of 33 Boaz, the son of Sala, the son of Nahshon, the son of Aminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Arni, the son of 34 Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of 35 Terah, the son of Nachor, the son of Serug, the son of 36 Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Sala, the son of Kainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the 37 son of Noah, the son of Lamech, the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Maleleel, the 38 son of Kainan, the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

4 FROM the Jordan Jesus came back full of the holy Spirit, and for forty days he was led by the Spirit in the 2 desert, while the devil tempted him. During these days he 3 ate nothing, and when they were over he felt hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are God's son, tell this stone to 4 become a loaf." Jesus replied to him, "It is written, Man 5 is not to live on bread alone." Then he lifted Jesus up and showed him all the realms of the universe in a single 6 instant; and the devil said to him, "I will give you all their power and grandeur, for it has been made over to me and 7 I can give it to anyone I choose. If you will worship 8 before me, then it shall all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, You must worship the Lord your God, and 9 serve him alone." Then he brought him to Jerusalem

* Reading ἐγὼ σήμερον γεγέννηκά σε, with D, the Old Latin, Justin, Clement, Tyconius, etc. In the other MSS it has been altered, for harmonistic reasons.

and placing him on the pinnacle of the temple said to him, "If you are God's son, throw yourself down from this; 10 for it is written,

He will give his angels charge of you, 11 and

*They will bear you on their hands,
lest you strike your foot against a stone."*

12 Jesus answered him, "It has been said, You shall not tempt 13 the Lord your God." And after exhausting every kind of temptation the devil left him till a fit opportunity arrived.

14 Then Jesus came back in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and the news of him spread over all the surround-15 ing country. He taught in their synagogues and was glori-16 fied by all. Then he came to Nazaret, where he had been brought up, and on the sabbath he entered the synagogue 17 as was his custom. He stood up to read the lesson and was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah; on opening the book he came upon the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me: for he has consecrated me to preach the gospel to the poor,

he has sent me to proclaim release for captives and recovery of sight for the blind, to set free the oppressed,

19 to proclaim the Lord's year of favour.

20 Then, folding up the book, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue 21 were fixed on him, and he proceeded to tell them that 22 "To-day, this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and marvelled at the gracious words that came from his lips; they said, "Is this not Joseph's 23 son?" So he said to them, "No doubt you will repeat to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' 'Do here in your own country all we have heard you did in Capharnahum.'" 24 He added, "I tell you truly, no prophet is ever welcome 25 in his native place. I tell you for a fact,

In Israel there were many widows during the days of Elijah,

when the sky was closed for three years and six months,

when a great famine came over all the land: 26 yet Elijah was not sent to any of these, but only to a widow woman at Zarephath in Sidon.

27 And in Israel there were many lepers in the time of the prophet Elisha,

yet none of these was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian."

28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled

29 with rage; they rose up, put him out of the town, and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, in order to hurl him down. But he made his way through them and went off.

31 Then he went down to Capharnahum, a town of Galilee, and on the sabbath he taught the people; they were astounded at his teaching, for his word came with authority. Now in the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean daemon, who shrieked aloud, 34 "Ha! Jesus of Nazaret, what business have you with us? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, you are God's holy One!" But Jesus checked it, saying, "Be quiet, come out of him." And after throwing him down before them the daemon did come out of him without doing 36 him any harm. Then amazement came over them all; they talked it over among themselves, saying, "What does this mean? He orders the unclean spirits with authority 37 and power, and they come out!" And a report of him spread over all the surrounding country.

38 When he got up to leave the synagogue he went to the house of Simon. Simon's mother-in-law was laid up with a severe attack of fever, so they asked him about her; 39 he stood over her and checked the fever, and it left her. 40 Then she instantly got up and ministered to them. At sunset all who had any people ill with any sort of disease brought them to him; he laid his hands on everyone and 41 healed them. From many people daemons were also driven out, clamouring aloud, "You are God's son!" But he checked them and refused to let them say anything, as 42 they knew he was the Christ. When day broke he went away out to a lonely spot, but the crowds made inquiries about him, came to where he was, and tried to keep 43 him from leaving them. He answered them, "I must preach the glad news of the Reign of God to the other 44 towns as well, for that is what I was sent to do." So he went preaching through the synagogues of Judaea.

5 Now as the crowd were pressing on him to listen to the word of God, he saw, as he stood beside the lake of Genesaret, two boats on the shore of the lake; the fishermen 3 had disembarked and were washing their nets. So he entered one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to push out a little from the land. Then he sat 4 down and taught the people from the boat. When he stopped speaking, he said to Simon, "Push out to the deep 5 water and lower your nets for a take." Simon replied, "Master, we worked all night and got nothing! However, 6 I will lower the nets at your command." And when they did so, they enclosed a huge shoal of fish, so that their 7 nets began to break. Then they made signals to their mates in the other boat to come and assist them. They 8 came and filled both the boats, till they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it he fell at the knees of Jesus, cry-9 ing, "Lord, leave me; I am a sinful man." For amazement had seized him and all his companions at the take of fish 10 they had caught; as was the case with James and John, the sons of Zebedaeus, who were partners of Simon. Then said Jesus to Simon, "Have no fear; from now your catch will 11 be men." Then they brought the boats to land, and leaving all they followed him.

12 When he was in one of their towns there was a man full of leprosy who, on seeing Jesus, fell on his face and besought him, "If you only choose, sir, you can cleanse me." 13 So he stretched his hand out and touched him, with the words, "I do choose, be cleansed." And the leprosy at once 14 left him. Jesus ordered him not to say a word to anybody, but to "Go off and show yourself to the priest, and offer whatever Moses prescribed for your cleansing, to notify 15 men." But the news of him spread abroad more and more; large crowds gathered to hear him and to be healed of their 16 complaints, while he kept in lonely places and prayed.

17 One day he was teaching, and near him sat Pharisees and doctors of the Law who had come from every village of Galilee and Judaea as well as from Jerusalem. Now the power of the Lord was present for the work of healing.
18 Some men came up carrying a man who was paralysed; they tried to carry him inside and lay him in front of Jesus, 19 but when they could not find any means of getting him in, on account of the crowd, they climbed to the top of the house and let him down through the tiles, mattress and all, 20 among the people in front of Jesus. When he saw their 21 faith he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." Then the scribes and Pharisees began to argue, "Who is this blasphemer? Who can forgive sins, who but God alone?" 22 Conscious that they were arguing to themselves, Jesus 23 addressed them, saying, "Why argue in your hearts? Which is the easier thing, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to 24 say, 'Rise and walk'? But to let you see the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralysed man, "Rise, I tell you, lift your mattress and go 25 home." Instantly he got up before them, lifted what he 26 had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. And all were seized with astonishment; they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen incredible things today."

27 On going outside after this he noticed a taxgatherer called

- 28 Levi sitting at the tax-office and said to him, "Follow me"; 29 he rose, left everything and followed him. Levi held a great banquet for him in his house; there was a large com-30 pany present of taxgatherers and others who were guests along with them. But the Pharisees and their scribes com-31 plained to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with taxgatherers and sinners?" Jesus replied to them, "Healthy people have no need of a doctor, but those who are ill:
 32 I have not come to call just men but sinners to repentance." 33 They said to him, "The disciples of John fast frequently and offer prayers, as do the disciples of the Pharisees; but 34 your adherents eat and drink." Jesus said to them, "Can you make friends at a wedding fast while the bridegroom is beside them?
 35 A time will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then they will fast at that time." 36 He also told them a parable:
 "No one tears a piece from a new cloak and sews it on an old cloak;
 otherwise he will tear the new cloak, and the new piece will not match with the old.
 37 No one pours fresh wine into old wineskins; otherwise the fresh wine will burst the wineskins, the wine will be spilt and the wineskins ruined.
 38 No, fresh wine must be poured into new wineskins.
 39 Besides, no one wants new wine [immediately] after drinking old;
 'The old,' he says, 'is better.'"

- 6 ONE sabbath it happened that as he was crossing the cornfields his disciples pulled some ears of corn and ate 2 them, rubbing them in their hands. Some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not allowed on the sab-3 bath?" But Jesus answered them, "And have you never read what David did when he and his men were hungry?
 4 He went into the house of God, took the loaves of the Presence and ate them, giving them to his men as well—bread 5 that no one is allowed to eat except the priests." And he said to them, "The Son of man is lord even over the sabbath."
 6 Another sabbath he happened to go into the synagogue and teach. Now a man was there who had his right hand 7 withered, and the scribes and Pharisees watched to see if he would heal on the sabbath, so as to discover some charge 8 against him. He knew what was in their minds; so he told

- the man with the withered hand, "Rise and stand forward." 9 He rose and stood before them. Then Jesus said to them,
"I ask you, is it right on the sabbath to help or to hurt, 10 to save life or to kill?" And glancing round at them all in anger he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He 11 did so, and his hand was quite restored. This filled them with fury, and they discussed what they could do to Jesus.
12 It was in these days that he went off to the hillside to 13 pray. He spent the whole night in prayer to God, and when day broke he summoned his disciples, choosing twelve of 14 them, to whom he gave the name of 'apostles': Simon (to whom he gave the name of Peter), Andrew his brother, 15 James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon (who was called 'the Zealot'), 16 Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot (who turned 17 traitor). With them he came down the hill and stood on a level spot. There was a great company of his disciples with him, and a large multitude of people from all Judaea, from Jerusalem, and from the coast of Tyre and Sidon, who had come to hear him and to get cured of their diseases.
18 Those who were annoyed with unclean spirits also were 19 healed. Indeed the whole of the crowd made efforts to touch him, for power issued from him and cured everybody.
20 Then, raising his eyes he looked at his disciples and said:
"Blessed are you poor!
the Realm of God is yours.
21 Blessed are you who hunger to-day!
you shall be satisfied.
Blessed are you who weep to-day!
you shall laugh.
22 Blessed are you when men will hate you, when they will excommunicate you and denounce you and defame you as wicked on account of the Son of man; 23 rejoice on that day and leap for joy! rich is your reward in heaven—for their fathers did the very same to the prophets.
24 But woe to you rich folk!
you get all the comforts you will ever get.
25 Woe to you who have your fill to-day!
you will be hungry.
Woe to you who laugh to-day!
you will wail and weep.
26 Woe to you when all men speak well of you!
that is just what their fathers did to the false prophets.
27 I tell you, my hearers, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you:

- 28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse
 you.
- 29 If a man strikes you on the one cheek, offer him the other as well:
 if anyone takes your coat, do not deny him your shirt as well;
- 30 give to anyone who asks you, and do not ask your goods back from anyone who has taken them.
- 31 As you would like men to do to you, so do to them.
- 32 If you love only those who love you, what credit is that to you?
 Why, even sinful men love those who love them.
- 33 If you help only those who help you, what merit is that
 to you?
 Why, even sinful men do that.
- 34 If you only lend to those from whom you hope to get something, what credit is that to you?
 Even sinful men lend to one another, so as to get a fair return.
- 35 No, you must love your enemies and help them, you must lend to them without expecting any return;
 then you will have a rich reward, you will be sons of the Most High—for he is kind even to the ungrateful and the evil.
- 36 Be merciful, as your Father is merciful.
- 37 Also, judge not, and you will not be judged yourselves:
 condemn not, and you will not be condemned:
 pardon, and you will be pardoned yourselves:
- 38 give, and you will have ample measure given you—they will pour into your lap measure pressed down, shaken together, and running over;
 for the measure you deal out to others will be dealt back to yourselves."
- 39 He also told them a parabolic word:
 "Can one blind man lead another?
 will they not both fall into a pit?
- 40 A scholar is not above his teacher:
 but if he is perfectly trained he will be like his teacher.
- 41 Why do you note the splinter in your brother's eye and
- 42 fail to see the plank in your own eye? How dare you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye,' and you never notice the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite! take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see properly to take out the splinter in your brother's eye.

- 43 No sound tree bears rotten fruit, nor again does a rotten tree bear sound fruit: 44 each tree is known by its fruit.
Figs are not gathered from thorns, and grapes are not plucked from a bramble-bush.
45 The good man produces good from the good stored in his heart, and the evil man evil from his evil:
for a man's mouth utters what his heart is full of.
46 Why call me, 'Lord, Lord!' and obey me not? Everyone 47 who comes to me and listens to my words and acts upon 48 them, I will show you whom he is like. He is like a man engaged in building a house, who dug deep down and laid his foundation on the rock; when a flood came, the river dashed against that house but could not shake it, for it 49 had been well built. He who has listened and has not obeyed is like a man who built a house on the earth with no foundation; the river dashed against it and it collapsed at once, and the ruin of that house was great."

7 WHEN he had finished what he had to say in the hearing of the people, he went into Capharnahum.

- 2 Now there was an army-captain who had a servant ill whom he valued very highly. This man was at the point 3 of death; so, when the captain heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and make 4 his servant well. When they reached Jesus they asked him earnestly to do this. "He deserves to have this favour 5 from you," they said, "for he is a lover of our nation; it 6 was he who built our synagogue." So Jesus went with them. But he was not far from the house when the captain sent some friends to tell him, "Do not trouble yourself, 7 sir, I am not fit to have you under my roof, and so I did not consider myself fit even to come to you. Just say the word, 8 and let my servant be cured. For though I am a man under authority myself, I have soldiers under me; I tell one man to go, and he goes, I tell another to come, and he comes, 9 I tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard this he marvelled at him, and turning to the crowd that followed he said, "I tell you, I have never met faith 10 like this anywhere even in Israel." Then the messengers went back to the house and found the sick servant was quite well.
11 It was shortly afterwards that he made his way to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a large 12 crowd. Just as he was near the gate of the town, there was a dead man being carried out; he was the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the town were with her. And when the Lord saw her, he felt pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then he went forward and touched the bier; the bearers stopped, and he said, "Young man, I bid you rise." Then the corpse sat up and began to speak; and Jesus gave him back to his mother. All were seized with awe and glorified God. "A great prophet has appeared among us," they said, "God has visited his people." And this story of Jesus spread through the whole of Judaea and all the surrounding country.

John's disciples reported all this to him. So John summoned two of his disciples and sent them to ask the Lord, "Are you the Coming One? Or are we to look out for someone else?" When the men reached Jesus they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask if you are the Coming One or if we are to look out for someone else?" Jesus at that moment was healing many people of diseases and complaints and evil spirits; he also bestowed sight on many blind folk. So he replied, "Go and report to John what you have seen and heard; that the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and to the poor the gospel is preached. And blessed is he who is repelled by nothing in me!" When John's messengers had gone, he proceeded to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out to the desert to see?

A reed swayed by the wind?

Come, what did you go out to see?

A man arrayed in soft robes?

Those who are gorgeously dressed and luxurious live in royal palaces.

Come, what did you go out to see? A prophet?

Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet.

This is he of whom it is written,

to prepare the way for you.*

I tell you, among the sons of women there is none greater than John, and yet the least in the Realm of God is greater than he is." (On hearing this all the people and the tax-gatherers acknowledged the justice of God, as they had been baptized with the baptism of John; but the Pharisees and jurists, who had refused his baptism, frustrated God's purpose for themselves.)

"To what then shall I compare the men of this generation? What are they like?

Like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another,

'We piped to you and you would not dance,
we lamented and you would not weep.'

- 33 For John the Baptist has come, eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a devil';
- 34 the Son of man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard,
a friend of taxgatherers and sinners!'
- 35 Nevertheless, Wisdom is vindicated by all her children."
- 36 One of the Pharisees asked him to dinner, and entering 37 the house of the Pharisee he reclined at table. Now there was a woman in the town who was a sinner, and when she found out that Jesus was at table in the house of the
- 38 Pharisee she brought an alabaster flask of perfume and stood behind him at his feet in tears; her tears began to wet his feet, so she wiped them with the hair of her head, pressed kisses on them, and anointed them with the per-
- 39 fume. When his host the Pharisee noticed this, he said to himself, "If he was a prophet he would know what sort of a woman this is who is touching him; for she is a sinner."
- 40 Then Jesus addressed him. "Simon," he said, "I have some-
- 41 thing to say to you." "Speak, teacher," he said. "There was a moneylender who had two debtors; one owed him
- 42 fifty pounds, the other five. As they were unable to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell me, now, which of them
- 43 will love him most?" "I suppose," said Simon, "the man
- 44 who had most forgiven." "Quite right," he said. Then turning to the woman he said to Simon, "You see this woman? When I came into your house,
- you never gave me water for my feet, while she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair;
- 45 you never gave me a kiss, while ever since she came in she has kept pressing kisses on my feet;
- 46 you never anointed my head with oil, while she has anointed my feet with perfume.
- 47 Therefore I tell you, many as her sins are, they are forgiven, for her love is great; whereas he to whom little is
- 48 forgiven has but little love." And he said to her, "Your
- 49 sins are forgiven." His fellow guests began to say to them-
- 50 selves, "Who is this, to forgive even sins?" But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

8 SHORTLY afterwards he went travelling from one town and village to another preaching and telling the good news of the Reign of God; he was accompanied by the 2 twelve and by some women who had been healed of evil spirits and illnesses, Mary called Magdalene (out of whom 3 seven daemons had been driven), Joanna the wife of Chuza

- the chancellor of Herod, Susanna, and a number of others, 4 who ministered to him out of their means. As a large crowd was gathering and as people were resorting to him from town after town, he addressed them in a parable.
5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the road and was trampled down, and the wild birds ate it up; 6 some other seed dropped on the rock, but it withered away when it sprang up because it had no moisture; 7 some other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up along with it and choked it; 8 some other seed fell on sound soil, and springing up bore a crop, a hundredfold."

When he said this he called out, "He who has an ear, let 9 him listen to this." The disciples questioned him about 10 the meaning of the parable; so he said, "It is granted you to understand the open secrets of the Reign of God, but the others get it in parables, so that for all their seeing they may not see,

and for all their hearing they may not understand.

- 11 This is what the parable means. The seed is the word 12 of God. Those 'on the road' are people who hear; but then the devil comes and carries off the word from their heart, 13 that they may not believe and be saved. Those 'on the rock' are people who on hearing the word welcome it with enthusiasm, but they have no root; they believe for a 14 while and fall away in the hour of trial. As for the seed that fell among thorns, that means people who hear but who go and get choked with worries and money and the 15 pleasures of life, so that they never ripen. As for the seed in the good soil, that means those who hear and hold fast the word in a good and sound heart and so bear fruit steadily.

- 16 No one lights a lamp and hides it under a vessel or puts it below the bed:

he puts it on a stand so that those who come in can see the light.

- 17 For nothing is hidden that shall not be disclosed, nothing concealed that shall not be known and revealed.

- 18 So take care how you listen;

for he who has, to him shall more be given,

while as for him who has not, from him shall be taken even what he thinks he has."

- 19 His mother and brothers reached him but they were un-20 able to join him for the crowd. Word was brought to him that "your mother and brothers are standing outside; they 21 wish to see you." But he answered, "My mother and brothers are those who listen to the word of God and obey it."

- 22 It happened on one of these days that he embarked in a boat alone with his disciples and said to them, "Let us 23 cross to the other side of the lake." So they set sail. During the voyage he fell asleep. But when a gale of wind came down on the lake and they were being swamped and in peril, 24 they went and woke him up. "Master, master," they cried, "we are drowning!" So he woke up and checked the wind 25 and the surf; they ceased and there was a calm. Then he said to them, "Where is your faith?" They marvelled in awe, saying to one another, "Whatever can he be? He gives orders to the very winds and water, and they obey 26 him!" They put in at the country of the Gergesenes, on the 27 shore facing Galilee. As he stepped out on land he was met by a man from the town who had daemons in him; for a long while he had worn no clothing, and he stayed not in 28 a house but among the tombs. On catching sight of Jesus he shrieked aloud and prayed him with a loud cry, "Jesus, son of God most High, what business have you with me? Do not torture me, I beg of you." (For he had charged the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many a time when it had seized hold of him, he had been fastened secure in fetters and chains, but he would snap his bonds 30 and be driven by the daemon into the desert.) So Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" "Legion," he said, for 31 a number of daemons had entered him. And they begged 32 him not to order them off to the abyss. Now a considerable drove of swine was grazing there on the hillside, so the daemons begged him for leave to enter them. He gave 33 them leave, and the daemons came out of the man and went into the swine; the drove rushed down the steep slope 34 into the lake and were suffocated. When the herdsmen saw what had occurred they fled and reported it to the town 35 and the hamlets. The people came out to see what had occurred and when they reached Jesus they discovered the man whom the daemons had left, seated at the feet of Jesus, clothed and sane. That frightened them. They got a report 36 from those who had seen how the lunatic was cured, and then all the inhabitants of the surrounding country of the Gergesenes asked him to leave them, they were so seized with terror. He embarked in the boat and went back.
38 The man whom the daemons had left begged that he might accompany him. Jesus, however, sent him away, saying, 39 "Go home and describe all that God has done for you." So he went off to proclaim through the whole town all that Jesus had done for him.
- 40 On his return Jesus was welcomed by the crowd; they 41 were all looking out for him. A man called Jairus came, 42 who was a president of the synagogue, and falling at the 43 feet of Jesus entreated him to come to his house, for he 44 had an only daughter about twelve years old and she was 45 dying. As Jesus went the crowds kept crushing him, and 46 a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years* 47 which no one could cure, came up behind him and touched 48 the tassel of his robe. Her hemorrhage instantly ceased.

 49 Jesus said, "Who touched me?" As everyone denied it, 50 Peter and his companions said, "Master, the crowds are all 51 round you pressing hard!" Jesus said, "Somebody did 52 touch me, for I felt power had passed from me." So when 53 the woman saw she had not escaped notice she came trem-54 bling, and falling down before him she told before all the 55 people why she had touched him and how she had been 56 instantly cured. "Daughter," he said to her, "your faith has made you well; depart in peace." He was still speaking when someone came from the house of the synagogue-president to say, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the teacher any further." But when Jesus heard it he said to him, "Have no fear, only believe and she shall get well."
 When he reached the house he would not allow anyone to come in with him except Peter and James and John, and the child's father and mother. Everyone was weeping and bewailing her, but he said, "Stop weeping; she is not dead but asleep." They laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But he took her hand and called to her, "Rise, little girl." And her spirit returned, she got up instantly, and he ordered them to give her something to eat. Her parents were amazed, but he charged them not to tell anyone what had happened.

9 CALLING the twelve apostles together he gave them power and authority over all daemons as well as to heal diseases.
 2 He sent them out to preach the Reign of God and to cure 3 the sick. And he told them, "Take nothing for the journey, 4 neither stick nor wallet nor bread nor silver, and do not 5 carry two shirts. Whatever house you go into, stay there 6 and leave from there. Whoever will not receive you, leave that town and shake off the very dust from your feet as a 7 testimony against them." So they went out from village to 8 village preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.
 9 When Herod the tetrarch heard all that was going on, he was quite at a loss; for some said that John had risen from the dead, some that Elijah had appeared, and others that

- 9 one of the ancient prophets had arisen. Herod said, "John I beheaded. But who is this, of whom I hear such tales?" And he made efforts to see him.
- 10 Then the apostles came back and described all they had done to Jesus. He took them and retired in private to a
- 11 town called Bethsaida, but the crowds learned this and followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them of the Reign of God, and cured those who needed to be healed.
- 12 Now as the day began to decline the twelve came up to him and said, "Send the crowd off to lodge in the villages and farms around and get provisions there, for here we are in
- 13 a desert place." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." They said, "We have only got five loaves and two fish. Unless—are we to go and buy food for the whole
- 14 of this people?" (There were about five thousand men of them.) He said to his disciples, "Make them lie down in
- 15 rows of about fifty." They did so, and made them all lie
- 16 down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven he blessed them, broke them in pieces and handed them to the disciples to set before the crowd.
- 17 And they all ate and had enough. What they had left over was picked up, twelve baskets full of fragments.
- 18 Now it happened that while he was praying by himself his disciples were beside him. So he inquired of them,
- 19 "Who do the crowds say I am?" They replied, "John the Baptist, though some say Elijah and some say that one of
- 20 the ancient prophets has arisen." He said to them, "And who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "The Christ of God."
- 21 Then he forbade them strictly to tell this to anyone.
- 22 The Son of man, he said, has to endure great suffering, to be rejected by the elders and high priests and scribes, to be killed, and on the third day to be raised.
- 23 He said to all, "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross day after day, and so follow me;
- 24 for whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it.
- 25 What profit will it be for a man to gain the whole world
- 26 and lose or forfeit himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father
- 27 and of the holy angels. I tell you plainly, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death till they see the Reign of God."
- 28 It was about eight days after he said this, when he took Peter, John, and James, and went up the hillside to pray.
- 29 While he was praying the appearance of his face altered and
- 30 his dress turned dazzling white. There were two men con-

31 versing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in a 32 vision of glory and said he must go through with his death and departure at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his compan-33 ions had been overpowered with sleep, but on waking up they saw his glory and the two men who were standing 34 beside him. When they were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is a good thing we are here; let us put up three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for 35 Elijah" (not knowing what he was saying). As he spoke, a cloud came and overshadowed them. They were awe-36 struck as they passed into the cloud, but a voice came from the cloud, "This is my Son, my Chosen one; listen to him."
 When the voice ceased, they found themselves alone with Jesus. And in those days they kept silence and told nobody anything of what they had seen.

37 Next day, when they came down the hill, a large crowd 38 met him. "Teacher," shouted a man from the crowd, "look 39 at my son, I beg of you, for he is my only boy, and a spirit gets hold of him till he suddenly shrieks; it convulses him till he foams; indeed it will hardly leave off 40 tearing him to pieces. I begged your disciples to cast it 41 out, but they could not." Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long must I still be with you and 42 bear with you? Fetch your son here." Before the boy could reach Jesus, the daemon dashed him down and convulsed him, but Jesus checked the unclean spirit, cured the boy, 43 and handed him back to his father. And all were astounded at this grand display of God. But while all marvelled at 44 all he did, he said to his disciples, "Let these words sink into your ears: 'the Son of man is to be betrayed into the 45 hands of men.'" But they did not understand this saying—indeed it was kept a secret from them, to prevent them from fathoming it—and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 A dispute arose among them as to which of them was 47 the greatest. Jesus knew the dispute that occupied their minds, so he took hold of a little child and set it by his 48 side; then he said to them,

"Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.

For it is the lowliest of you all who is great."

49 John said to him, "Master, we saw a man casting out daemons in your name, but we stopped him because he is 50 not a follower of ours." Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him; * he who is not against you is for you."

51 As the time for his assumption was now due, he set his 52 face for the journey to Jerusalem. He sent messengers 53 in front of him. They went and entered a Samaritan vil-54 lage to make preparations for him, but the people would not 55 receive him because his face was turned in the direction of 56 Jerusalem. So when the disciples James and John saw 57 this, they said, "Lord, will you have us bid fire come down 58 from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and 59 checked them. Then they journeyed to another village.

60 And as they journeyed along the road a man said to him, 61 "I will follow you anywhere." Jesus said to him,

"The foxes have their holes,

the wild birds have their nests,

but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head."

59 He said to another man, "Follow me"; but he said, "Let me 60 go and bury my father first of all." Jesus said to him, 61 "Leave the dead to bury their own dead; you go and spread 62 the news of the Reign of God." Another man also said to him, "I will follow you, Lord. But let me first say good-bye to my people at home." Jesus said to him, "No one is any use to the Reign of God who puts his hand to the plough and then looks behind him."

10 AFTER that the Lord commissioned other seventy disciples, sending them in front of him two by two to every town and place that he intended to visit himself.
2 He said to them, "The harvest is rich, but the labourers are few; so pray the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to 3 gather his harvest. Go your way; I am sending you out 4 like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no wallet, no 5 sandals. Do not stop to salute anybody on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this household!' 6 Then, if there is a soul there breathing peace, your peace will rest on him; otherwise it will come back to you.
7 Stay at the same house, eating and drinking what the people provide (for the workman deserves his wages); you 8 are not to shift from one house to another. Wherever you are received on entering any town, eat what is provided for 9 you, heal those in the town who are ill, and tell them, 'The 10 Reign of God is nearly on you.' But wherever you are not received on entering any town, go out into the streets of 11 the town and cry, 'The very dust of your town that clings to us we wipe off from our feet as a protest. But mark this, 12 the Reign of God is near!' I tell you, on the great Day it will be more bearable for Sodom than for that town.
13 Woe to you, Khorazin! woe to you, Bethsaida! Had the miracles performed in you been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would long ago have been sitting penitent in 14 sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more bearable for

- 15 Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. And you, O Capharnahum! Exalted to heaven? No, you will sink to Hades!
- 16 He who listens to you listens to me, he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me."
- 17 The seventy came back with joy. "Lord," they said, "the 18 very daemons obey us in your name." He said to them, 19 "Yes, I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. I have indeed given you the power of treading on serpents and scorpions and of trampling down all the 20 power of the Enemy; nothing shall injure you. Only, do not rejoice because the spirits obey you:
 rejoice because your names are enrolled in heaven."
- 21 He thrilled with joy at that hour in the holy Spirit, saying, "I praise thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for concealing this from the wise and learned and revealing it to the simple-minded; yes, Father, I praise thee that such was thy chosen purpose." Then turning to the disciples he said,
- 22 "All has been handed over to me by my Father:
 and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son,
 and he to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."
 Then turning to the disciples he said privately,
- 23 "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!
- 24 For I tell you many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see,
 but they have not seen it;
 and to hear what you hear,
 but they have not heard it."
- 25 Now a jurist got up to tempt him. "Teacher," he said, 26 "what am I to do to inherit life eternal?" He said to him,
 "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"
- 27 He replied, "You must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, with your whole soul, with your whole strength, and with your whole mind. Also your neighbour 28 as yourself." "A right answer!" said Jesus; "do that and 29 you will live." Anxious to make an excuse for himself, however, he said to Jesus, "But who is my neighbour?"
- 30 Jesus rejoined, "A man going down from Jerusalem to Jericho fell among robbers who stripped and belaboured 31 him and then went off leaving him half-dead. Now it so chanced that a priest was going down the same road, but on seeing him he went past on the opposite side.
 32 So did a Levite who came to the spot; he looked at him 33 but passed on the opposite side. However a Samaritan traveller came to where he was and felt pity when he saw

34 him; he went to him, bound his wounds up, pouring oil and wine into them, mounted him on his own steed, took 35 him to an inn, and attended to him. Next morning he took out a couple of shillings and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Attend to him, and if you are put to any extra 36 expense I will refund you on my way back.' Which of these three men, in your opinion, proved a neighbour to the man 37 who fell among the robbers?" He said, "The man who took pity on him." Jesus said to him, "Then go and do the same."

38 In the course of their journey he entered a certain village, and a woman called Martha welcomed him to her house.
39 She had a sister called Mary, who seated herself at the feet 40 of the Lord to listen to his talk. Now Martha was so busy attending to them that she grew worried; she came up and said, "Lord, is it all one to you that my sister has left me to do all the work alone? Come, tell her to lend me a hand." 41 The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha,* Mary has chosen the best dish, and she is not to be dragged away from it."

11 HE was praying at a certain place, and when he stopped one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach 2 us to pray, as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say, Father,
thy name be revered,
thy Reign begin;
3 give us our bread for the morrow day by day, 4 and forgive us our sins for we do forgive everyone who has offended us;
and lead us not into temptation." 5 And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, let me 6 have three loaves; for a friend of mine travelling has come 7 to my house and I have nothing to set before him.' And suppose he answers from the inside, 'Don't bother me; the door is locked by this time, and my children are in bed 8 with me. I can't get up and give you anything.' I tell you, though he will not get up and give you anything because you are a friend of his, he will at least rise and give you 9 whatever you want, because you persist. So I tell you, ask and the gift will be yours,
seek and you will find,
knock and the door will open to you;

* Omitting, with D, Syr.Sin. and the majority of the old Latin manuscripts μεριμνᾷς . . . χρεῖα (D adding θουβάσῃ). I translate μερίδα by 'dish,' to bring out the point and play of the saying. Jesus means that Mary has chosen well in selecting the nourishment of his teaching.

- 10 for everyone who asks receives,
the seeker finds,
the door is opened to anyone who knocks.
- 11 What father among you, if asked by his son for a loaf, will hand him a stone?
Or, if asked for a fish, will hand him a serpent instead of a fish?
- 12 Or, if asked for an egg, will he hand him a scorpion?
- 13 Well, if for all your evil you know to give your children
what is good,
how much more will your Father give the holy Spirit from heaven to those who ask him?"
- 14 He was casting out a dumb daemon, and when the daemon had gone out the dumb man spoke. The crowds marvelled.
- 15 but some of them said, "It is by Beelzebul the prince of 16 daemons that he casts out daemons." Others by way of tempting him demanded he should give them a Sign from 17 heaven. He knew what they were thinking about, so he said to them,
"Any realm divided against itself comes to ruin,
house after house falls down; 18 and if Satan is divided against himself, how can his realm stand?
You say I am casting out daemons by Beelzebul?
19 If I cast out daemons by Beelzebul,
by whom do your sons cast them out?
Thus they will be your judges.
- 20 But if it is by the finger of God that I cast daemons out,
then the Reign of God has reached you already.
- 21 When the strong man in armour guards his homestead, his 22 property is undisturbed; but when a stronger man attacks and conquers him, he seizes the panoply on which he relied and divides up the spoil.
- 23 He who is not with me is against me,
and he who does not gather with me scatters.*
- 24 When an unclean spirit leaves a man, it roams through dry places in search of refreshment. As it finds none, then it 25 says, 'I will go back to the house I left,' and when it comes 26 it finds the house clean and in order. Then it goes off to fetch seven other spirits worse than itself; they go in and dwell there, and the last state of that man is worse than the first."
- 27 While he was saying this, a woman shouted to him out of the crowd, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the

* Omitting $\mu\epsilon$, which von Soden inserts within brackets from NL 33 and a few other authorities.

- 28 breasts you sucked!" But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear and who observe the word of God!"
- 29 / As the crowds were thronging to him, he proceeded to say,
 "This is an evil generation: it demands a Sign, but no Sign will be given to it except the Sign of Jonah;
- 30 for as Jonah was a Sign to the Ninivites, so shall the Son of man be to this generation.
- 31 The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon,
 and here is One greater than Solomon.
- 32 The men of Ninive will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it;
 for when Jonah preached they did repent,
 and here is One greater than Jonah.
- 33 No one lights a lamp to put it in a cellar or under a bowl, but on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light.
 Your eye is the lamp of the body:
 when your eye is sound, then the whole of your body has light, but if your eye is diseased, then your body is darkened.
- 35 (Look! perhaps your very light is dark.)
- 36 So if your whole body has light, without any corner of it in darkness, it will be lit up entirely, as when a lamp lights you with its rays."
- 37 When he finished speaking, a Pharisee asked him to take a meal in his house; so he went in and lay down at table.
- 38 The Pharisee was astonished to see that he had not 39 washed before the meal, but the Lord said to him, "You Pharisees do clean the outside of the cup and the plate,
 but your inner life is filled with rapacity and malice.
- 40 Foolish men! did not He who made the outside make the inside of things too?
- 41 Better cleanse * what is within; then nothing will be unclean for you.

* The ordinary text δοτε ἐλεημοσυνην ("give alms") represents the Aramaic zakki. But the Aramaic dakki ("purify" or "cleanse") suits the context better, and Wellhausen plausibly suggests that Luke has confused "these two verbs which differ very little in sound and originally are identical."

- 42 But woe to you Pharisees!
 you tithe mint and rue and every vegetable, but justice and the love of God you disregard; these latter you ought to have practised—without omitting the former.
- 43 Woe to you Pharisees!
 you love the front bench in the synagogues and salutations in the marketplaces.
- 44 Woe to you!
 you are like unsuspected tombs;
 men walk over them unawares."
- 45 One of the jurists said to him, "Teacher, when you say 46 this you are insulting us as well." He said, "And woe to you jurists! you load men with irksome burdens, and you will not put a single finger to their burdens.
- 47 Woe to you! you build tombs for the prophets whom your own fathers killed:
- 48 thus you testify and consent to what your fathers did,
 for they killed and you build.
- 49 This is why the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them 50 prophets and apostles, some they will kill and some they 51 will persecute'; it was that the blood of all the prophets 52 shed from the foundation of the world might be charged 53 upon this generation, from the blood of Abel down to the 54 blood of Zechariah who was slain between the altar and the House of God—yes, I tell you, it will all be charged upon this generation.
- 52 Woe to you jurists! you have taken the key that unlocks the door of knowledge; you have not entered yourselves, and you have stopped those who were entering."
- 53 After he had gone away, the scribes and Pharisees com-54 menced to follow him up closely and cross-question him on many points, lying in ambush to catch a word from his lips.

12 MEANWHILE as the crowd was gathering in its thousands till they trod on one another, he proceeded to say to his disciples first of all, "Be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

- 2 Nothing is hidden that shall not be revealed, or concealed that shall not be made known.
- 3 So all you utter in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you whisper in chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.
- 4 I tell you, my friends, have no fear of those who kill the body but after that can do no more;

- 5 I will show you whom to fear—fear Him who after he has killed has power to cast you into Gehenna.

Yes, I tell you, fear Him.

- 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings?
Yet not one of them is forgotten by God.

- 7 But the very hairs on your head are all numbered;
fear not, you are worth far more * than sparrows.

- 8 I tell you, whoever acknowledges me before men, the Son of man will acknowledge him before the angels of God;

- 9 and he who disowns me before men will be disowned before the angels of God.

- 10 Everyone also who says a word against the Son of man will be forgiven for it, but he who blasphemes against the holy Spirit will never be forgiven.

- 11 When they bring you before synagogues and the magistrates and authorities, do not trouble yourselves about how 12 to defend yourselves or what to say, for the holy Spirit will teach you at that hour what you should say."

- 13 A man out of the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my 14 brother to give me my share of our inheritance"; but he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator over 15 your affairs?" Then he said to them, "See and keep clear of covetousness in every shape and form, for a man's life is not part of his possessions because he has ample wealth."

- 16 And he told them a parable. "A rich man's estate bore 17 heavy crops. So he debated, 'What am I to do? I have 18 no room to store my crops.' And he said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my granaries and build larger 19 ones, where I can store all my produce and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample stores laid up for many a year; take your ease, eat, drink and be merry.'"

- 20 But God said to him, 'Foolish man, this very night your soul is wanted; and who will get all you have prepared?"

- 21 So fares the man who lays up treasure for himself instead 22 of gaining the riches of God." To his disciples he said,

"Therefore I tell you, do not trouble about what you are to eat in life,

nor about what you are to put on your body;

- 23 life is something more than food, and the body is something more than clothes.

- 24 Look at the crows! they neither sow nor reap,

* See above, on p. 16.

- no storehouse or granary have they,
and yet God feeds them.
How much more are you worth than birds?
- 25 Which of you can add an ell to his height by troubling
about it?
- 26 and if you cannot manage even this, why trouble over other things?
- 27 Look how the lilies neither spin nor weave;
and yet, I tell you, even Solomon in all his grandeur
was never robed like one of them.
- 28 Now if God so clothes grass which blooms to-day in the field and is thrown to-morrow into the furnace, will he not much more clothe you? O men, how little you trust him!
- 29 So do not seek food and drink and be worried; pagans 30 make food and drink their aim in life, but your Father 31 knows quite well you need that; only seek his Realm, and 32 it will be yours over and above. Fear not, you little flock, for your Father is delighted to give you the Realm.
- 33 Sell what you possess and give it away in alms, make purses for yourselves that never wear out:
get treasure in heaven that never fails, that no thief can get at, no moth destroy.
- 34 For where your treasure lies,
your heart will lie there too.
- 35 Keep your loins girt and your lamps lit, and be like men 36 who are expecting their lord and master on his return from a marriage-banquet, so as to open the door for him 37 at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the lord and master finds awake when he comes! I tell you truly, he will gird himself, make them recline at table, and come forward to wait on them.
- 38 Whether he comes in the second or the third watch of the 39 night and finds them thus alert, blessed are they! Be sure that if the householder had known at what hour the thief was coming,* he would not have allowed his house to be 40 broken into. So be ready yourselves, for the Son of man 41 is coming at an hour you do not expect." Peter said, 42 "Lord, are you telling this parable for us, or is it for all and sundry?" The Lord said, "Well, where is the trusty, thoughtful steward whom the lord and master will set over his establishment to give out supplies at the proper 43 time? Blessed is that servant if his lord and master finds 44 him so doing when he arrives! I tell you plainly, he will 45 set him over all his property. But if that servant says to himself, 'My lord and master is long of arriving,' and if

* Omitting [ἐγγηγόρησεν αὐν, καί], a harmonistic gloss from Matthew xxiv. 43.

- he starts to beat the menservants and maidservants, to eat 46 and drink and get drunk, that servant's lord and master will arrive on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour which he does not know; he will cut him in two and assign him the fate of unbelievers.
- 47 The servant who knew his lord and master's orders and did not prepare* for them, will receive many lashes; 48 whereas he who was ignorant and did what deserves a beating, will receive few lashes.
- He who has much given him will have much required from him, and he who has much entrusted to him will have all the more demanded of him.
- 49 I have come to throw fire on earth.
 Would it were kindled already!
- 50 I have a baptism to undergo.
 How I am distressed till it is all over!
- 51 You think I am here to make peace on earth?
 No, I tell you, it is dissension.
- 52 After this there will be five at issue in one house, three divided against two and two against three, 53 father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in- law against mother-in-law."
- 54 And to the crowds he said,
 "When you see a cloud rise in the west, you say, 'There is a shower coming,'
 and so it is:
 55 when you feel the south wind blow, you say, 'There will be heat,'
 and so it is.
- 56 You hypocrites, you know how to decipher the look of earth and sky;
 how is it you cannot decipher the meaning of this era?
 57 And why do you not yourselves settle what is right?
 58 Thus, when you go before the magistrate with your opponent, do your utmost to get quit of him on the way there, in case he hales you before the judge; then the judge will hand you over to the jailer and the jailer will throw you 59 in prison. I tell you, you will never get out till you pay the last farthing of your debt."

* Omitting ἡ ποίησας with L, the majority of the old Latin manuscripts, the Syriac and Armenian versions, etc. The ordinary text is complete.

13 It was at this time that some people came to tell 2 him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. But he replied to them, "Do you think, because they suffered this, that these Galileans were worse sinners than the rest of the Galileans?"

3 I tell you, no;
 unless you repent you will all perish as they did.
 4 Or those eighteen men killed by the fall of the tower at Siloam?—

do you think they were worse offenders than the rest of the residents in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, no;
 unless you repent you will all perish as they did."

6 And he told this parable. "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; he came in search of fruit on it but he 7 found none. So he said to the vinedresser, 'Here have I come for three years in search of fruit on this fig tree without finding any; cut it down, why should it take up 8 space?' But the man replied, 'Leave it for this year, sir, 9 till I dig round about it and put in manure. Then it may bear fruit next year. If not, you can have it cut down.'"

10 When he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the 11 sabbath, there was a woman who for eighteen years had suffered weakness from an evil spirit; indeed she was bent 12 double and quite unable to raise herself. Jesus noticed her and called to her, "Woman, you are released from your 13 weakness." He laid his hands on her, and instantly she 14 became erect and glorified God. But the president of the synagogue was annoyed at Jesus healing on the sabbath, and he said to the crowd, "There are six days for work to be done; come during them to get healed, instead of on 15 the sabbath." The Lord replied to him, "You hypocrites, does not each of you untether his ox or ass from the stall 16 on the sabbath and lead it away to drink? And this woman, a daughter of Abraham, bound by Satan for all these eighteen years, was she not to be freed from her 17 bondage on the sabbath?" As he said this, all his opponents were put to shame, but all the crowd rejoiced over all his 18 splendid doings. So he said,

"What is the Reign of God like? to what shall I compare it?"

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed which a man took and put into his orchard, where it grew up and became a tree, 20 and the wild birds roosted in its branches." He added, "To 21 what shall I compare the Reign of God? It is like dough which a woman took and buried in three pecks of flour, till all of it was leavened."

22 On he went, teaching from one town and village to an-23 other, as he made his way to Jerusalem. A man said to him, "Is it only a few, sir, who are saved?" So he said 24 to them, "Strive to get in through the narrow door, for I tell 25 you many will try to get in and not be able, once the master of the House has got up and closed the door. You may stand outside and knock at the door, crying, 'Lord, open for us,' but he will answer you, 'I do not know where 26 you come from.' You will then proceed to say, 'But we ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets!' 27 'I tell you,' he will say, 'I do not know where you come 28 from; begone every one of you, you evildoers.' There you will wail and gnash your teeth, to see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the prophets inside the Realm of God and 29 yourselves thrown out. Yes, and people will come from east and west and north and south to their places at the feast within the Realm of God.

30 Some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." 31 Just then some Pharisees came up to tell him, "Get 32 away from here, for Herod intends to kill you." "Go and tell that fox," he replied, "I cast out daemons and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and on the third day I com-33 plete my task! But I must journey on, to-day, to-morrow, and the next day; it would never do for a prophet to perish 34 except in Jerusalem! O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, slaying the prophets and stoning those who have been sent to you!
How often I would fain have gathered your children as a fowl gathers her brood under her wings! But you would 35 not have it! See, your House is left to yourselves. I tell you, you will never see me till the day comes when you say, Blessed be he who comes in the Lord's name."

14 Now when he entered the house of a ruler who belonged to the Pharisees to take a meal, they 2 watched him closely. In front of him there was a man who 3 had dropsy; so Jesus asked the jurists and Pharisees, "Is 4 it right to heal on the sabbath or not?" They held their peace. Then Jesus took hold of the man and cured him 5 and sent him off. "Which of you," he said to them, "when an ass or an ox has fallen into a well, will not pull him 6 out at once upon the sabbath day?" This they could not 7 dispute. He also told a parable to the guests, when he 8 observed how they picked out the best places. "When anyone invites you to a marriage-banquet," he said, "never lie down in the best place, in case a more distinguished guest 9 than yourself has been invited; then the host will tell you,
'Make room for him,' and you will proceed in shame to

- 10 take the lowest place. No, when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when your host comes in he will tell you, 'Move higher up, my friend.' Then you will be honoured before your fellow guests.
- 11 For everyone who uplifts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be uplifted."
- 12 He also said to his host, "When you give a dinner or supper, do not ask your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your rich neighbours, in case they
- 13 invite you back again and you get repaid. No, when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the maimed,
- 14 the lame, and the blind. Then you will be blessed; for as they have no means of repaying you, you will be repaid
- 15 at the resurrection of the just." Hearing this, one of his fellow guests said to him, "Blessed is he who feasts in the
- 16 Realm of God!" Jesus said to him, "There was a man who was giving a large supper, to which he had invited a
- 17 number of guests. At the hour for supper he sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come, things are all ready.'
- 18 But they all alike proceeded to decline. The first said to him, 'I have bought a farm and I am obliged to go and look
- 19 at it. Pray consider me excused.' The second said, 'I have bought five pair of oxen and I am going to try them. Pray
- 20 consider me excused.' Another said, 'I have married a
- 21 wife; that is why I cannot come.' The servant went and reported this to his master. Then the master of the house was enraged, and said to his servant, 'Quick, go out to the streets and lanes of the town and bring in the poor, the
- 22 maimed, the blind, and the lame.' When the servant announced, 'Your order has been carried out, sir, but there
- 23 is still room,' the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the roads and hedges and make people come in, to fill
- 24 up my house. For I tell you that not one of those who were invited shall taste my supper.'"
- 25 There were large crowds travelling with him; so he turned and said to them,
- 26 "If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, aye and his own life,
- he cannot be a disciple of mine;
- 27 whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me,
- he cannot be a disciple of mine.
- 28 For which of you wants to build a tower and does not first sit down to calculate the expense, to see if he has enough
- 29 money to complete it?—in case, after he has laid the foundation and then is unable to finish the building, all
- 30 the spectators start to make fun of him, saying, 'This
- 31 fellow started to build but he could not finish it.' Or what king sets out to fight against another king without first sitting down to deliberate whether with ten thousand men he can encounter the king who is attacking him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, when the other is still at a distance he will send an embassy to do homage to him.

So with everyone of you who will not part with all his goods—

he cannot be a disciple of mine.

Salt is excellent indeed: but if salt becomes insipid, what will restore its flavour? It is no use for either soil or dunghill, it is flung out. He who has an ear let him listen to this."

15 Now the taxgatherers and sinners were all approaching him to listen to him, but the Pharisees and the scribes complained, "He welcomes sinners and eats along with them!" So he told them this parable, "Which of you with a hundred sheep, if he loses one, does not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one till he finds it? When he finds it he puts it on his shoulders with joy, and when he gets home he gathers his friends and neighbours: 'Rejoice with me,' he says to them, 'for I have found the sheep I lost.' So, I tell you, there will be joy in heaven over a single sinner who repents, more than over ninety-nine good people who do not need to repent. Or again, suppose a woman has ten shillings. If she loses one of them, does she not light a lamp and scour the house and search carefully till she finds it? And when she finds it she gathers her women-friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the shilling I lost.' So, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over a single sinner who repents."

He also said: "There was a man who had two sons, and the younger said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.' So he divided his means among them. Not many days later, the younger son sold off everything and went abroad to a distant land, where he squandered his means in loose living. After he had spent his all, a severe famine set in throughout that land, and he began to feel in want; so he went and attached himself to a citizen of that land, who sent him to his fields to feed swine. And he was fain to fill his belly with the pods the swine were eating; no one gave him anything. But when he came to his senses he said, 'How many hired men of my father have more than enough to eat, and here am I perishing of hunger! I will be up and off to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I don't deserve to be called your son any more; only make me like one of your hired men." So he got up and went off to his father. But when he was still far away his father saw him and felt pity for him and ran to fall upon his neck and kiss him. The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I don't deserve to be called your son any more.' But the father said to his servants, 'Quick, bring the best robe and put it on him, give him a ring for his hand and sandals for his feet, and bring the fatted calf, kill it, and let us eat and be merry; for my son here was dead and he has come to life, he was lost and he is found.' So they began to make merry. Now his elder son was out in the field, and as he came near the house he heard music and dancing; so, summoning one of the servants, he asked what this meant. The servant told him, 'Your brother has arrived, and your father has killed the fatted calf because he has got him back safe and sound.' This angered him, and he would not go in. His father came out and tried to appease him, but he replied, 'Look at all the years I have been serving you! I have never neglected any of your orders, and yet you have never given me so much as a kid, to let me make merry with my friends. But as soon as this son of yours arrives, after having wasted your means with harlots, you kill the fatted calf for him!' The father said to him, 'My son, you and I are always together, all I have is yours. We could not but make merry and rejoice, for your brother here was dead and has come to life again, he was lost but he has been found.' "

16 HE also said to the disciples: "There was a rich man who had a factor, and this factor, he found, was accused of misapplying his property. So he summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Hand in your accounts; you cannot be factor any longer.' The factor said to himself, 'What am I to do now that my master is taking the factorship away from me? I am too weak to dig, I am ashamed to beg. Ah, I know what I will do, so that people will welcome me to their houses when I am deposed from the factorship.' So he summoned every single one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much are you owing to my master?' 'A hundred barrels of oil,' he said. The factor told him, 'Here is your bill; sit down at once and enter fifty barrels.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' 'A hundred quarters of wheat,' he said. 'Here is your bill,' said the factor, 'just enter eighty.' Well, the master praised the dishonest factor for looking ahead; for the children of this world look further ahead in dealing with their own genera-

- 9 tion than the children of Light. And I tell you, use mammon, dishonest as it is, to make friends for yourselves, so that when you die* they may welcome you to the eternal abodes.
- 10 He who is faithful with a trifle is also faithful with a large trust, and he who is dishonest with a trifle is also dishonest with a large trust.
- 11 So if you are not faithful with dishonest mammon, how can you ever be trusted with true Riches?
- 12 And if you are not faithful with what belongs to another, how can you ever be given what is your own?
- 13 No servant can serve two masters:
either he will hate the one and love the other,
or else he will stand by the one and despise the other—
you cannot serve both God and Mammon.”
- 14 Now the Pharisees who were fond of money heard all 15 this, and they sneered at him. So he told them, “You are the people who get men to think you are good, but God knows what your hearts are! What is lofty in the view of man is loathsome in the eyes of God.
- 16 The Law and the prophets lasted till John; since then the good news of the Realm of God is preached, and anyone 17 presses in. Yet it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for an iota of the Law to lapse.
- 18 Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.
- 19 There was a rich man, clad in purple and fine linen, who 20 lived sumptuously every day. Outside his door lay a poor 21 man called Lazarus; he was a mass of ulcers, and fain to eat up the crumbs that fell from the rich man’s table. (The 22 very dogs used to come and lick his ulcers.) Now it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried by the angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man died too, and was 23 buried. And as he was being tortured in Hades he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus in his 24 bosom; so he called out, ‘Father Abraham, take pity on me, send Lazarus to dip his fingertip in water and cool my tongue, 25 for I am in anguish in these flames.’ But Abraham said, ‘Remember, my son, you got all the bliss when you were alive, just as Lazarus got the ills of life; he is in comfort 26 now, and you are in anguish. Besides all that, a great gulf yawns between us and you, to keep back those who want to cross from us to you and also those who want to pass

27 from you to us.' Then he said, 'Well, father, I beg you to 28 send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers; let him bear testimony to them, that they may not come to 29 this place of torture as well.' 'They have got Moses and the 30 prophets,' said Abraham, 'they can listen to them.' 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone only goes to them 31 from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced, not even if one rose from the dead.'

17 To his disciples he said, "It is inevitable that hin-2 drances should come, but woe to the man by whom they 3 come; it would be well for him to have a millstone hung 4 round his neck and be flung into the sea, rather than prove 5 a hindrance to one of these little ones! Take heed to 6 yourselves. If your brother sins, check him, and if he 7 repents forgive him. Even if he sins against you seven 8 times in one day and turns to you seven times saying, 'I 9 repent,' you must forgive him." The apostles said to the 10 Lord, "Give us more faith!" The Lord said, "If you had faith the size of a grain of mustard-seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the 11 sea,' and it would obey you. Which of you, with a servant out ploughing or shepherding, will say to him when he comes in from the field, 'Come at once and take your place 12 at table'? Will the man not rather say to him, 'Get some-13 thing ready for my supper; gird yourself and wait on me till I eat and drink; then you can eat and drink yourself'?
 14 Does he thank the servant for doing his bidding? Well, 15 it is the same with you; when you have done all you are bidden, say, 'We are but servants;* we have only done our 16 duty.'"

17 Now it happened in the course of his journey to Jeru-18 salem that he passed between Samaria and Galilee. On entering one village he was met by ten lepers who stood at 19 a distance and lifted up their voice, saying, "Jesus, master, 20 have pity on us." Noticing them he said, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went away they 21 were cleansed. Now one of them turned back when he saw 22 he was cured, glorifying God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man 23 was a Samaritan. So Jesus said, "Were all the ten not 24 cleansed? Where are the other nine? Was there no one to return and give glory to God except this foreigner?"

- 19 And he said to him, "Get up and go, your faith has made you well."
- 20 On being asked by the Pharisees when the Reign of God was coming, he answered them, "The Reign of God is not
- 21 coming as you hope to catch sight of it; no one will say, 'Here it is' or 'There it is,' for the Reign of God is now in
- 22 your midst." To his disciples he said, "There will come days when you will long and long in vain to have even one
- 23 day of the Son of man. Men will say, 'See, here he is!' 'See, there he is!' but do not go out or run after them,
- 24 for like lightning that flashes from one side of the sky to the other, so will the Son of man be on his own day.
- 25 But he must first endure great suffering and be rejected
- 26 by the present generation. And just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of man;
- 27 they were eating, drinking, marrying and being married, till the day Noah entered the ark—then came the deluge
- 28 and destroyed them all. Or just as it was in the days of Lot; they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting
- 29 and building, but on the day that Lot left Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.
- 30 So will it be on the day the Son of man is revealed.
- 31 On that day, if a man is on the housetop and his goods inside the house, he must not go down to fetch them out;
- 32 nor must a man in the field turn back (remember Lot's wife).
- 33 Whoever tries to secure his life will lose it, and whoever loses it will preserve it.
- 34 On that night, I tell you, there will be two men in the one bed,
the one will be taken and the other left;
- 35 two women will be grinding together,
the one will be taken and the other left."
- 37 They asked him, "Where, Lord?"
And he said to them,
"Where the body is lying, there the vultures will gather."

- 2 18 HE also told them a parable about the need of always praying and never losing heart. "In a certain town," he said, "there was a judge who had no reverence for God
- 3 and no respect even for man. And in that town there was a widow who used to go and appeal to him for 'Justice
- 4 against my opponent!' For a while he would not, but afterwards he said to himself, 'Though I have no reverence for
- 5 God and no respect even for man, still, as this widow is bothering me, I will see justice done to her—not to have

6 her for ever coming and pestering me.' Listen," said the 7 Lord, "to what this unjust judge says! And will not God see justice done to his elect who cry to him by day and 8 night? Will he be tolerant to their opponents? I tell you, he will quickly see justice done to his elect! And yet, when the Son of man does come, will he find faith on earth?"

9 He also told the following parable to certain persons who were sure of their own goodness and looked down upon 10 everybody else. "Two men went up to pray in the temple; 11 one was a Pharisee and the other was a taxgatherer. The Pharisee stood up and prayed by himself as follows; 'I thank thee, O God, I am not like the rest of men, thieves, 12 rogues, and immoral, or even like yon taxgatherer. Twice 13 a week I fast; on all my income I pay tithes.' But the tax-gatherer stood far away and would not lift even his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'O God, have mercy on 14 me for my sins!' I tell you, he went home accepted by God rather than the other man;

for everyone who uplifts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be uplifted."

15 Now people even brought their infants for him to touch them; when the disciples noticed it they checked them, 16 but Jesus called for the infants. "Let the children come to me," he said, "do not stop them: the Realm of God be-17 longs to such as these. I tell you truly, whoever will not submit to the Reign of God like a child will never get into it at all."

18 Then a ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what am I to do 19 to inherit life eternal?" Jesus said to him, "Why call me 20 'good'? No one is good, no one but God. You know the commands: do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honour your father and mother."

21 He said, "I have observed all these commands from my 22 youth." When Jesus heard this he said to him, "You lack one thing more; sell all you have, distribute the money among the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then 23 come and follow me." But when he heard that, he was 24 vexed, for he was extremely rich. So Jesus looked at him and said, "How difficult it is for those who have money 25 to enter the Realm of God! Why, it is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye than for a rich man to get 26 into the Realm of God." His hearers said, "Then whoever 27 can be saved?" He said, "What is impossible for men is 28 possible for God." Peter said, "Well, we have left our 29 homes and followed you!" He said to them, "I tell you truly, no one has left home or wife or brothers or parents 30 or children for the sake of the Realm of God, who does not receive ever so much more in this present world, and in the 31 world to come life eternal." Then he took the twelve aside and told them, "We are going up to Jerusalem, and all the predictions of the prophets regarding the Son of man will 32 be fulfilled; he will be betrayed to the gentiles, mocked, 33 illtreated, and spat on; they will scourge him and kill him, 34 but he will rise again on the third day." However, they did not understand a word of this; indeed the saying was hidden from them, and they did not know what he meant.

35 As he approached Jericho, it chanced that a blind man 36 was seated beside the road begging. When he heard the 37 crowd passing he inquired what was the matter, and they 38 told him that Jesus the Nazarene was going by. So he 39 shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" The people in front checked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me!" 40 So Jesus stopped and ordered them to bring him, and asked 41 him when he approached, "What do you want me to do for you?" "Lord," he said, "I want to regain my sight." 42 And Jesus said to him, "Regain your sight, your faith has 43 made you well." Instantly he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And all the people gave praise to God when they saw this.

2 19 THEN he entered Jericho. And as he passed through it, there was a man called Zacchaeus, the head of the 3 taxgatherers, a wealthy man, who tried to see what Jesus was like; but he could not, on account of the crowd—4 for he was small of stature. So he ran forward and climbed into a sycomore tree to get a sight of him, as he 5 was to pass that road. But when Jesus reached the spot he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down at 6 once, for I must stay at your house to-day." He came down 7 at once and welcomed him gladly. But when they saw this, everyone began to mutter that he had gone to be 8 the guest of a sinner. So Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, "I will give the half of all I have, Lord, to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will give him back 9 four times as much." And Jesus said of him, "To-day salvation has come to this house, since Zacchaeus here is a 10 son of Abraham. For the Son of man has come to seek 11 and save the lost." He went on to tell a parable in their hearing, as he was approaching Jerusalem and as they 12 imagined God's Reign would instantly come into view. "A nobleman," he said, "went abroad to obtain royal power 13 for himself and then return. He first called his ten servants, giving them each a five-pound note, and telling them, 14 'Trade with this till I come back.' Now his people hated him and sent envoys after him to say, 'We object to him

15 having royal power over us.' However he secured the royal power and came home. Then he ordered the servants to be called who had been given the money, that he 16 might find out what business they had done. The first came up saying, 'Your five pounds has made other fifty, sir.' 17 'Capital,' he said, 'you excellent servant! because you have proved trustworthy in a trifle, you are placed over ten 18 towns.' Then the second came and said, 'Your five pounds 19 has made twenty-five, sir.' To him he said, 'And you are 20 set over five towns.' Then the next came and said, 'Here is 21 your five pounds, sir; I kept it safe in a napkin, for I was afraid of you, you are such a hard man—picking up what you never put down, and reaping what you never sowed.' 22 He replied, 'You rascal of a servant, I will convict you by what you have said yourself. You knew, did you, that I was a hard man, picking up what I never put down, and 23 reaping what I never sowed! Why then did you not put my money into the bank, so that I could have got it with 24 interest when I came back?' Then he said to the bystanders, 'Take the five pounds from him and give it to the 25 man with fifty.' 'Sir,' they said, 'he has fifty already!' 26 'I tell you, to everyone who has shall more be given,

but from him who has nothing, even what he has shall be taken.

27 And now for these enemies of mine who objected to me reigning over them—bring them here and slay them in my presence.'" 28 With these words he went forward on his way up to 29 Jerusalem. When he was near Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Olive-Orchard, he despatched two of his 30 disciples, saying, "Go to the village in front, and on entering it you will find a colt tethered on which no one ever 31 has sat; untether it and bring it. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untethering it?' this is what you will say, 32 'The Lord needs it.'"
 The messengers went off and found 33 the colt exactly as he had told them. As they were untethering it, the owners said to them, "Why are you un-34 tethering the colt?" And they said, "Because the Lord 35 needs it." So they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their 36 clothes on the colt they mounted Jesus upon it. As he went forward they spread their clothes under him on the road; 37 and as he was now close to the descent from the Hill of Olives, all the multitude of the disciples started joyfully to praise God with a loud voice for all * they had seen, 38 saying,

* Omitting δυνάμεων with the old Syriac version, which preserves the original text περὶ πάντων εἶδον λέγοντες.

"Blessed be the king who comes in the Lord's name!

Peace in heaven and glory in the High places!"

39 Some Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Check your 40 disciples, teacher." But he replied, "I tell you, if they were 41 to keep quiet, the very stones would shout." And when he 42 saw the city, as he approached, he wept over it, saying, 43 "Would that you too knew even to-day on what your peace 44 depends! But no, it is hidden from you! A time is coming 45 for you when your enemies will throw up ramparts round 46 you and encircle you and besiege you on every side and 47 raze you and your children within you to the ground, leaving 48 not one stone upon another within you—and all because 49 you would not understand when God was visiting you." 50 Then he went into the temple and proceeded to drive out 51 those who were selling. "It is written," he told them, 52 "my house shall be a house of prayer, but you have made 53 it a den of robbers."

54 Day after day he taught within the temple. The high 55 priests and scribes tried to have him put to death, and so 56 did the leaders of the people, but they could not discover 57 what was to be done, for the whole of the people hung upon 58 his lips.

20 ONE day, when he was teaching the people in the 2 temple and preaching the gospel, up came the priests 3 and scribes along with the elders. "Tell us," they said, 4 "what authority you have for acting in this way? Who 5 was it that gave you this authority?" He answered them, 6 "Well, I will ask you a question. Tell me, did the baptism of 7 John come from heaven or from men?" Now they rea-8 soned to themselves, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will 9 ask, 'Why did you not believe him?' And if we say, 'From 10 men,' the whole of the people will stone us, for they are 11 convinced John was a prophet." So they answered that 12 they did not know where it came from. Jesus said to them, 13 "No more will I tell you what authority I have for acting 14 as I do."

15 Then he proceeded to tell the people the following 16 parable. "A man planted a vineyard, leased it to vine-17 dressers, and went abroad for some time. When the season 18 came round he sent a servant to the vinedressers to receive 19 part of the produce of the vineyard, but the vinedressers 20 flogged him and sent him off with nothing. He proceeded 21 to send another servant, and they flogged him too, insulted 22 him and sent him off with nothing. Then he sent still a 23 third, but this one they wounded and threw outside.
24 Said the owner of the vineyard, 'What shall I do? I will 25 send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.' But when the vinedressers saw him, they argued to themselves, 'Here is the heir, let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours.' And they threw him outside the vineyard and killed him. Now what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and kill these vinedressers and give the vineyard to others." When they heard that, they said, "God forbid!" But he looked at them and said, "Then what does this scripture mean?—

*The stone that the builders rejected
is the chief stone now of the corner.*

Everyone who falls on that stone will be shattered, and whoever it falls upon will be crushed."

At that hour the scribes and high priests tried to lay hands on him, but they were afraid of the people. They knew he had meant this parable for them. So watching their chance they sent spies who pretended to be honest persons, in order to seize on what he said and get him handed over to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor. They put this question to him, "Teacher, we know you are straight in what you say and teach, you do not look to human favour but teach the Way of God honestly. Is it right for us to pay tribute to Caesar or not?" But he noted their knavery and said to them, "Show me a shilling. Whose likeness and inscription does it bear?" "Caesar's," they replied. "Well then," he said to them, "give Caesar what belongs to Caesar, give God what belongs to God." So they could not seize on what he said before the people, and marvelling at his reply they said nothing.

Some of the Sadducees came up, who deny any resurrection, and put a question to him. "Teacher," they said, "Moses has written this law for us, that if a man's married brother dies and is childless, his brother is to take the woman and raise offspring for his brother. Well, there were seven brothers. The first married a wife and died childless. The second and the third took her, as indeed all the seven did, dying and leaving no children. Afterwards the woman died too. Now at the resurrection whose wife will she be? She was wife to the seven of them."

Jesus said to them, "People in this world marry and are married, but those who are considered worthy to attain yonder world and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are married, for they cannot die any more; they are equal to angels and by sharing in the resurrection they are sons of God. And that the dead are raised has been indicated by Moses in the passage on the Bush, when he calls the Lord 'God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob'. God is not a God of dead people but of living, for all live to him." Some of the scribes declared, "Teacher, 40 that was a fine answer!" They no longer dared to put any 41 question to him. But he said to them, "How can people 42 say that the Christ is David's son? Why, David himself says in the book of psalms,

The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, 43 till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.'
44 David then calls him Lord. So how can he be his son?" 45 And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes! They like to walk about in long robes, they are fond of getting saluted in the market-places, of securing the front seats in the synagogues and the best 47 places at banquets; they prey upon the property of widows and offer long unreal prayers. All the heavier will their sentence be!"

21 LOOKING up he saw the rich putting their gifts into 2 the treasury, and noticed a poor widow putting two 3 little coins in. He said, "I tell you plainly, this poor 4 widow has put in more than them all; for these people all contributed out of their surplus, but she has given out of her neediness all her living."

5 Some were speaking of the temple with its ornamenta-6 tion of splendid stones and votive gifts, but he said, "As for what you see, there are days coming when not a stone 7 will be left upon another, without being torn down." So they asked him, "Teacher, and when will this happen?" 8 What will be the sign for this to take place?" He said, "Take care that you are not misled; for many will come in my name saying, 'I am he' and 'the time is near'—do 9 not go after them. And when you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be scared; these have to come first, 10 but the end is not at once." Then he said to them, 11 "Nation will rise against nation, and realm against realm, there will be great earthquakes with famine and pestilence here and there, there will be awful portents and great 12 signs from heaven. But before all that, men will lay hands on you and persecute you, handing you over to synagogues and prisons; you will be dragged before kings and gov-13 ernors for the sake of my name. That will turn out an 14 opportunity for you to bear witness. So resolve to yourselves that you will not rehearse your defence beforehand, 15 for I will give you words and wisdom that not one of your 16 opponents will be able to meet or refute. You will be betrayed by your very parents and brothers and kinsmen 17 and friends, and some of you will be put to death. You 18 will be hated by all on account of my name; but not a 19 hair of your head will perish. Hold out steadfast and you win your souls.

20 But whenever you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, 21 then be sure her desolation is not far away. Then let those who are in Judaea fly to the hills, let those who are in the city escape, and let not those who are in the country 22 come in to the city; for these are the days of the divine Vengeance, in fulfilment of all that is written in scripture.
 23 Woe to women with child and to women who give suck in those days, for sore anguish will come upon the land 24 and Wrath on this people; they will fall by the edge of the sword, they will be carried prisoners to all nations, and Jerusalem will be under the heel of the Gentiles till the 25 period of the Gentiles expires. And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars, while on earth the nations will be in dismay with bewilderment at the roar of sea and 26 waves, men swooning with panic and foreboding of what is to befall the universe. For the orbs of the heavens will 27 be shaken, and then they will see the Son of man coming 28 in a cloud with power and great glory. But when these things begin to happen, look up and raise your heads, for 29 your release is not far distant." And he told them a 30 parable. "Look at the fig tree and indeed all the trees; as soon as they put out their leaves, you can see for yourselves 31 that summer is at hand. So, whenever you see all this happen, be sure the Reign of God is at hand.
 32 I tell you truly, the present generation will not pass 33 away till all this happens. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words never.
 34 Take heed to yourselves in case your hearts get overpowered by dissipation and drunkenness and worldly anxieties, and so that Day catches you suddenly like a 35 trap. For it will come upon all dwellers on the face of all 36 the earth. From hour to hour keep awake, praying that you may succeed in escaping all these dangers to come and in standing before the Son of man." 37 By day he taught in the temple, but at night he went outside the city and passed the night on the hill called 38 the Olive-Orchard. And all the people used to come early in the morning to listen to him in the temple.

2 22 Now the feast of unleavened bread which is called the passover was near. The high priests and scribes 3 were trying how to get him put to death (for they were afraid of the people), and Satan entered Judas called 4 Iscariot, a member of the twelve, who went off to discuss with the high priests and commanders how he could betray 5 him to them. They were delighted and agreed to pay him 6 for it. He assented to this and sought a good opportunity for betraying him to them in the absence of the crowd.

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread when the paschal 8 lamb had to be sacrificed. So Jesus despatched Peter and 9 John, saying, "Go and prepare the passover for us that 10 we may eat it." They asked him, "Where do you want us 11 to prepare it?" He said to them, "When you enter the city 12 you will meet a man carrying a water-jar: follow him to 13 the house he enters, and tell the owner of the house, 'The 14 Teacher asks you, Where is the room in which I can eat 15 the passover with my disciples?' Then he will show you 16 a large room upstairs with couches spread; make your 17 preparations there." They went off and found it was as 18 he had told them. So they prepared the passover, and 19 when the hour came he took his place, with the apostles 20 beside him. He said to them, "I have longed eagerly to 21 eat this passover with you before I suffer, for I tell you I 22 will never eat the passover again till the fulfilment of it in 23 the Reign of God." And he took a cup which was handed 24 to him, gave thanks to God and said, "Take this and dis-25 tribute it among yourselves, for I tell you I will never drink the produce of the vine again till such time as God's Reign comes." Then he took a loaf and after thanking God he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This means my body given up for your sake; do this in memory of me." So too he gave them the cup after supper, saying,
"This cup means the new covenant ratified by my blood shed for your sake. But the hand of my betrayer is on the table beside me! The Son of man moves to his end indeed as it has been decreed, but woe to the man by whom he is betrayed!" And they began to discuss among themselves which of them could possibly be going to do such a thing. A quarrel also rose among them as to which of them could be considered the greatest. But Jesus said to them,

"The kings of the Gentiles rule over them, and their authorities take the name of 'Benefactor':

26 not so with you.

He who is greatest among you must be like the youngest, and he who is chief like a servant.

27 Which is the greatest, guest or servant? Is it not the guest?

But I am among you as a servant.

28 It is you who have stood by me through my trials; 29 so, even as my Father has assigned me royal power, 30 I assign you the right of eating and drinking at my table in my Realm and of sitting on thrones to rule the twelve 31 tribes of Israel. Simon, Simon, Satan has claimed the 32 right to sift you all like wheat, but I have prayed that your own faith may not fail. And you in turn must be a 33 strength to your brothers." "Lord," he said, "I am ready 34 to go with you to prison and to death." Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow to-day before you have 35 three times denied that you know me." And he said to them, "When I sent you out with neither purse nor wallet nor sandals, did you want for anything?" "No," they said, 36 "for nothing." Then he said to them, "But he who has a purse must take it now, and the same with a wallet; and he who has no sword must sell his coat and buy one.

37 For I tell you, this word of scripture must be fulfilled in me: he was classed among criminals. Yes, there is an end 38 to all that refers to me." "Lord," they said, "here are two swords!" "Enough! Enough!" he answered.

39 Then he went outside and made his way to the Hill of Olives, as he was accustomed. The disciples followed him, 40 and when he reached the spot he said to them, "Pray that 41 you may not slip into temptation." He withdrew about a 42 stone's throw and knelt in prayer, saying, "Father, if it please thee, take this cup away from me. But thy will, not 43 mine, be done." [And an angel from heaven appeared to 44 strengthen him; he fell into an agony and prayed with greater intensity, his sweat dropping to the ground like 45 clots of blood.] Then rising from prayer he went to the 46 disciples, only to find them asleep from sheer sorrow. He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray 47 that you may not slip into temptation." While he was still speaking, there came a mob headed by the man called Judas, one of the twelve. He approached in order to kiss 48 Jesus, but Jesus said to him, "Judas! would you betray 49 the Son of man with a kiss?" Now when the supporters of Jesus saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, 50 shall we strike with our swords?" And one of them did strike the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right 51 ear. Jesus said, "Let me do this at least," and cured him 52 by touching his ear. Then he said to the high priests and commanders of the temple and elders who had appeared to take him, "Have you sallied out to arrest me like a 53 robber, with swords and clubs? Day after day I was beside you in the temple, and you never stretched a hand against me. But this is your hour, and the dark Power has its way."

54 Then they arrested him and led him away inside the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance and 55 sat down among some people who had lit a fire in the 56 courtyard and were sitting round it. A maidservant who noticed him sitting by the fire took a long look at him and 57 said, "That fellow was with him too." But he disowned 58 him, saying, "Woman, I know nothing about him." Shortly afterwards another man noticed him and said, "Why, you are one of them!" "Man," said Peter, "I am not." About an hour had passed when another man insisted, "That fellow really was with him. Why, he is a Galilean!" "Man," said Peter, "I do not know what you mean." Instantly, just as he was speaking, the cock crowed; the Lord turned round and looked at Peter, and then Peter remembered what the Lord had told him, that 'Before cock-crow to-day you will disown me three times.' And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Meantime the men who had Jesus in custody flogged him and made fun of him; blindfolding him they would ask him, "Prophecy, tell us who struck you?" And many another insult they uttered against him.

When day broke, the elders of the people all met along with the high priests and scribes, and had him brought before their Sanhedrin. They said to him, "Tell us if you are the Christ." He said to them, "You will not believe me if I tell you, and you will not answer me when I put a question to you. But after this the Son of man will be seated at God's right hand of power." "Are you the Son of God then?" they all said. "Certainly," he replied, "I am." So they said, "What more evidence do we need? We have heard it from his own lips."

23 THEN the whole body of them rose and led him to Pilate. They proceeded to accuse him, saying, "We have discovered this fellow perverting our nation, forbidding tribute being paid to Cæsar, and alleging he is king messiah." Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He replied, "Certainly." And Pilate said to the high priests and the crowds, "I cannot find anything criminal about him." But they insisted, "He stirs up the people by teaching all over Judæa. He started from Galilee and now he is here." When Pilate heard that, he asked if the man was a Galilean, and ascertaining that he came under the jurisdiction of Herod, he remitted him to Herod, who himself was in Jerusalem during those days. Herod was greatly delighted to see Jesus; he had long wanted to see him, because he had heard about him and also because he hoped to see him perform some miracle. But though he put many questions to him, Jesus gave him no answer. Meanwhile the high priests and scribes stood and accused him with might and main. Then Herod and his troops scoffed at him and made fun of him, and after arraying him in a bright robe he remitted him to Pilate. Herod and Pilate, became friends that day—previously they had been at enmity.

13 Then summoning the high priests and rulers and the 14 people, Pilate said to them, "You brought me this man as being an inciter to rebellion among the people. I have examined him before you and found nothing criminal about 15 him, for all your accusations against him. No, nor has Herod, for he has remitted him to us. He has 16 done nothing, you see, that calls for death; so I 18 shall release him with a whipping."* But they shouted one and all, "Away with him! Release Bar-Abbas for us!" 19 (This was a man who had been put into prison on account of a riot which had taken place in the city and also on a 20 charge of murder.) Again Pilate addressed them, for he 21 wanted to release Jesus, but they roared, "To the cross, 22 to the cross with him!" He asked them a third time, "But what crime has he committed? I have found nothing about him that deserves death; so I shall release him with a 23 whipping." But they loudly urged their demand that he should be crucified, and their shouts carried the day.
 24 Pilate gave sentence that their demand was to be carried 25 out; he released the man they wanted, the man who had been imprisoned for riot and murder, and Jesus he handed over to their will.

26 As they led him off they caught hold of Simon a Cyrenian on his way from the country and laid the cross on him to 27 carry after Jesus. He was followed by a large multitude of the people and also of women who beat their breasts and 28 lamented him; but Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me but weep for yourselves 29 and for your children! For there are days coming when the cry will be,

'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never have borne and the breasts that never have suckled!'

30 Then will people say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us.'

31 For if this is what they do when the wood is green, what will they do when the wood is dry?"

32 Two criminals were also led out with him to be executed, 33 and when they came to the place called The Skull they crucified him there with the criminals, one at his right 34 and one at his left. Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they do not know what they are doing." Then they distributed his 35 clothes among themselves by drawing lots. The people stood and looked on, and even the rulers sneered at him, saying, "He saved others, let him save himself, if he is the 36 Christ of God, the Chosen One!" The soldiers made fun 37 of him too by coming up and handing him vinegar, saying, 38 "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself." (For there was an inscription over him in Greek and Latin and Hebrew characters,

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.)

39 One of the criminals who had been hung also abused him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us as 40 well." But the other checked him, saying, "Have you no fear even of God? You are suffering the same punishment 41 as he. And we suffer justly; we are getting what we 42 deserve for our deeds. But he has done no harm." And he added, "Jesus, do not forget me when you come to 43 reign." "I tell you truly," said Jesus, "you will be in paradise with me this very day."

44 By this time it was about twelve o'clock, and darkness 45 covered the whole land till three o'clock, owing to an eclipse of the sun; the curtain in the middle of the temple 46 was torn in two. Then with a loud cry Jesus said, "Father, I trust my spirit to thy hands," and with these words he 47 expired. When the army-captain saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "This man was really innocent." 48 And when all the crowds who had collected for the sight saw what had happened, they turned away beating their 49 breasts. As for his acquaintances, they were all standing at a distance to look on, with the women who had accompanied him from Galilee.

50 Now there was a man called Joseph, a member of 51 council but a good and just man who had not voted for their plan of action; he belonged to Arimathaea, a Jewish town, and he was on the outlook for the Reign of God.
 52 This Joseph went to Pilate and asked him for the body 53 of Jesus. He then took it down, wrapped it in linen, and put it in a tomb cut out of the rock, where no one had yet 54 been buried. It was the day of the Preparation and the 55 sabbath was just dawning. So the women who had accompanied him from Galilee and who had followed Joseph, 56 noted the tomb and the position of the body; then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes.

24 ON the sabbath they rested in obedience to God's command, but on the first day of the week at early dawn they took the spices they had prepared and went to 2 the tomb. The boulder they found rolled away from the 3 tomb, but when they went inside they could not find the 4 body of the Lord Jesus. They were puzzling over this, 5 when two men flashed on them in dazzling raiment. They were terrified and bent their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look among the dead for him who is alive? He is not here, he has risen. Remember how he told you when he was still in Galilee that the Son of man had to be betrayed into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and rise on the third day." Then they remembered what he had said, and turning away from the tomb they reported all this to the eleven and all the others. (It was Mary of Magdala, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James who with the rest of the women told this to the apostles.) But this story of the women seemed in their opinion to be nonsense; they would not believe them. Peter did get up and run to the tomb, but when he looked in he saw nothing except the linen bandages; so he went away home wondering what had happened.

That very day two of them were on their way to a village called Emmaus about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were conversing about all these events, and during their conversation and discussion Jesus himself approached and walked beside them, though they were prevented from recognizing him. He said to them, "What is all this you are debating on your walk?" They stopped, looking down-cast, and one of them, called Cleopas, answered him, "Are you a lone stranger in Jerusalem, not to know what has been happening there?" "What is that?" he said to them. They replied, "All about Jesus of Nazaret! To God and all the people he was a prophet strong in action and utterance, but the high priests and our rulers delivered him up to be sentenced to death and crucified him. Our own hope was that he would be the redeemer of Israel; but he is dead, and that is three days ago! Though some women of our number gave us a surprise; they were at the tomb early in the morning and could not find his body, but they came to tell us they had actually seen a vision of angels who declared he was alive. Some of our company did go to the tomb and found things exactly as the women had said, but they did not see him." He said to them, "O foolish men, with hearts so slow to believe, after all the prophets have declared! Had not the Christ to suffer thus and so enter his glory?" Then he began with Moses and all the prophets and interpreted to them the passages referring to himself throughout the scriptures. Now they approached the village to which they were going. He pretended to be going further on, but they pressed him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is getting towards evening and the day has now declined." So he went in to stay with them. And as he lay at table with them he took the loaf, blessed it, broke it and handed it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "Did not our hearts glow within us when he was talking to us on the road, opening 33 up the scriptures for us?" So they got up and returned that very hour to Jerusalem, where they found the eleven 34 and their friends all gathered, who told them that the Lord had really risen and that he had appeared to Simon.
35 Then they related their own experience on the road and how they had recognized him when he broke the loaf.
36 Just as they were speaking He stood among them [and said 37 to them, "Peace to you!"] They were scared and terrified, 38 imagining it was a ghost they saw; but he said to them,
"Why are you upset? Why do doubts invade your mind?
39 Look at my hands and feet. It is I! Feel me and see; a 40 ghost has not flesh and bones as you see I have." [With 41 these words he showed them his hands and feet.] Even yet they could not believe it for sheer joy; they were lost 42 in wonder. So he said to them, "Have you any food here?" 43 And when they handed him a piece of broiled fish, he took 44 and ate it in their presence. Then he said to them, "When I was still with you, this is what I told you, that whatever is written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets 45 and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their 46 minds to understand the scriptures. "Thus," he said, "it is written that the Christ has to suffer and rise from the 47 dead on the third day, and that repentance and the remission of sins must be preached in his name to all nations, 48 beginning from Jerusalem. To this you must bear testi-49 mony. And I will send down on you what my Father has promised; wait in the city till you are endued with power 50 from on high." He led them out as far as Bethany; then, 51 lifting his hands, he blessed them. And as he blessed them 52 he parted from them [and was carried up to heaven]. They [worshipped him and] returned with great joy to Jeru-53 salem, where they spent all their time within the temple, blessing God.

S. JOHN

- 1 THE Logos existed in the very beginning, the Logos was with God, the Logos was divine.
- 2 He was with God in the very beginning: 3 through him all existence came into being, no existence came into being apart from him.
- 4 In him life lay, and this life was the Light for men: 5 amid the darkness the Light shone, but the darkness did not master it.
- 6 A man appeared, sent by God, whose name was John: 7 he came for the purpose of witnessing, to bear testimony to the Light, so that all men might believe by means of 8 him. He was not the Light; it was to bear testimony to 9 the Light that he appeared. The real Light, which enlightens every man, was coming then into the world:
- 10 he entered the world—the world which existed through him—yet the world did not recognize him;
- 11 he came to what was his own, yet his own folk did not welcome him.
- 12 On those who have accepted him, however, he has conferred the right of being children of God, that is, on those 13 who believe in his Name, who owe this birth of theirs to God, not to human blood, nor to any impulse of the flesh or 14 of man. So the Logos became flesh and tarried among us; we have seen his glory—glory such as an only son enjoys from his father—seen it to be full of grace and reality.
- 15 (John testified to him with the cry, 'This was he of whom I said, my successor has taken precedence of me, for he 16 preceded me.') For we have all been receiving grace after 17 grace from his fulness; while the Law was given through Moses, grace and reality are ours through Jesus Christ.
- 18 Nobody has ever seen God, but God has been unfolded by the divine One, the only Son,* who lies upon the Father's breast.
- 19 Now here is John's testimony. When the Jews of Jerusalem despatched priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" he frankly confessed—he did not deny it, he frankly confessed, "I am not the Christ." They asked him, "Then what are you? Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" "No," he answered. "Then who are you?" they said; "tell us, so that we can give some answer to those who sent us. What have you to say for yourself?"

He said, "I am

'level the way for the Lord'— as the prophet Isaiah said." Now it was some of the Pharisees who had been sent to him; so they asked him, saying, "Then why are you baptizing people, if you are neither the Christ nor Elijah nor the Prophet?" "I am baptizing with water," John replied, "but my successor is among you, One whom you do not recognize, and I am not fit to untie the string of his sandal." This took place at Bethany on the opposite side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Next day he observed Jesus coming towards him and exclaimed, "Look, there is the lamb of God, who is to remove the sin of the world! That is he of whom I said, 'The man who is to succeed me has taken precedence of me, for he preceded me.' I myself did not recognize him; I only came to baptize with water, in order that he might be disclosed to Israel." And John bore this testimony also: "I saw the Spirit descend like a dove from heaven and rest on him. I myself did not recognize him, but He who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descending and resting, that is he who baptizes with the holy Spirit.' Now I did see it, and I testify that he is the Son of God."

Next day again John was standing with two of his disciples; he gazed at Jesus as he walked about, and said, "Look, there is the lamb of God!" The two disciples heard what he said and went after Jesus. Now Jesus turned, and when he observed them coming after him, he asked them, "What do you want?" They replied, "Rabbi" (which may be translated, 'teacher'), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." So they went and saw where he stayed, and stayed with him the rest of that day—it was then about four in the afternoon. One of the two men who heard what John said and went after Jesus was Andrew, the brother of Peter. In the morning* he met his brother Simon and told him, "We have found the 42 messiah" (which may be translated, 'Christ'). He took him to Jesus; Jesus gazed at him and said, "You are Simon, the son of John? Your name is to be Cephas" (meaning 'Peter' or 'rock').

43 Next day Jesus determined to leave for Galilee; there 44 he met Philip and told him, "Follow me." Now Philip belonged to Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and 45 Peter; he met Nathanael and told him, "We have found him whom Moses wrote about in the Law, and also the prophets—it is Jesus, the son of Joseph, who comes from 46 Nazaret." "Nazaret!" said Nathanael, "can anything good 47 come out of Nazaret?" "Come and see," said Philip. Jesus saw Nathanael approaching and said of him, "Here is a 48 genuine Israelite! There is no guile in him." Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered, "When you were under that fig tree, before ever Philip 49 called you, I saw you." "Rabbi," said Nathanael, "you are 50 the Son of God, you are the king of Israel!" Jesus answered, "You believe because I told you I had seen you 51 under that fig tree? You shall see more than that." He said to him, "Truly, truly I tell you all,* you shall see heaven open wide and God's angels ascending and descending upon the Son of man."

2 Two days later a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee; 2 the mother of Jesus was present, and Jesus and his 3 disciples had also been invited to the wedding. As the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They 4 have no wine." "Woman," said Jesus, "what have you to 5 do with me? My time has not come yet." His mother said 6 to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now six stone water-jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of 7 'purification,' each holding about twenty gallons. Jesus said, "Fill up the jars with water." So they filled them to 8 the brim. Then he said, "Now draw some out, and take it 9 to the manager of the feast." They did so; and when the manager of the feast tasted the water which had become wine, not knowing where it had come from (though the 10 servants who had drawn it knew), he called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everybody serves the good wine first, and then the poorer wine after people have drunk 11 freely; you have kept the good wine till now." Jesus performed this, the first of his Signs, at Cana in Galilee, thereby displaying his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
12 After this he travelled down to Capharnahum, with his mother and brothers and his disciples; they stayed there for a few days.*

22 After this Jesus and his disciples went into the country of Judaea, where he spent some time with them baptizing.
 23 John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, as there was plenty of water there, and people came to him and 24 were baptized (John had not yet been thrown into prison).
 25 Now a dispute arose between John's disciples and a Jew over 26 the question of 'purification'; and they came and told John, "Rabbi, the man who was with you on the opposite side of the Jordan, the man to whom you bore testimony—here 27 he is, baptizing, and everybody goes to him!" John answered, "No one can receive anything except as a gift from 28 heaven. You can bear me out, that I said, 'I am not the Christ'; what I said was, 'I have been sent in advance of 29 him.' He who has the bride is the bridegroom; the bridegroom's friend, who stands by and listens to him, is heartily glad at the sound of the bridegroom's voice. Such 30 is my joy, and it is complete. He must wax, I must wane." 13 Now the Jewish passover was near, so Jesus went up 14 to Jerusalem. There he found, seated inside the temple, dealers in cattle, sheep and pigeons, also money-changers.
 15 Making a scourge of cords, he drove them all, sheep and cattle together, out of the temple, scattered the coins of the 16 brokers and upset their tables, and told the pig-on-dealers, "Away with these! My Father's house is not to be turned 17 into a shop!" (His disciples recalled the scripture saying, I am consumed with zeal for thy house.) Then the Jews 18 accosted him with the words, "What sign of authority 19 have you to show us, for acting in this way?" Jesus replied, "Destroy this sanctuary and I will raise it up in 20 three days." "This sanctuary took forty-six years to build," the Jews retorted, "and you are going to raise it up in 21 three days!" He meant the sanctuary of his body, however, and when the disciples recalled what he had said, after he had been raised from the dead, they believed the scripture and the word of Jesus.

23 When he was in Jerusalem at the festival of the passover, many people believed in his name, as they witnessed 24 the Signs which he performed. Jesus, however, would not 25 trust † himself to them; he knew all men, and required no evidence from anyone about human nature; well did he know what was in human nature.

* Transposing iii. 22-30 to its true position between ii. 12 and ii. 13.

† The Vulgate is able to preserve the assonance of the word 'trust' here and 'believe' in ver. 23: "multi crediderunt in nomine eius. . . . Iesus non credebat semet ipsum eis."

2 3 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, who 3 belonged to the Jewish authorities; he came one night 4 to Jesus and said, "Rabbi, we know you have come from 5 God to teach us, for no one could perform these Signs of 6 yours unless God were with him." Jesus replied, "Truly, 7 truly I tell you, no one can see God's Realm unless he is 8 born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can a 9 man be born when he is old? Can he enter his mother's 10 womb over again and be born?" Jesus replied, "Truly, truly I 11 tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he 12 cannot enter God's Realm. What is born of the flesh is 13 flesh: what is born of the Spirit is Spirit. Do not wonder 14 at me telling you, 'You must all be born from above.' The 15 wind blows where it wills; you can hear its sound, but 16 you never know where it has come from or where it goes: 17 it is the same with everyone who is born of the Spirit." 18 Nicodemus answered, "How can that be?" Jesus replied, 19 "You do not understand this?—you, a teacher in Israel!
20 Truly, truly I tell you, we are speaking of what we do 21 understand, we testify to what we have actually seen—and 22 yet you refuse our testimony. If you will not believe when 23 I speak to you about things on earth, how will you believe 24 if I speak to you about things in heaven? And yet the 25 Son of man, descended from heaven, is the only one who 26 has ever ascended into heaven. Indeed the Son of man 27 must be lifted on high, just as Moses lifted up the serpent 28 in the desert, that everyone who believes in him may have 29 eternal life. For God loved the world so dearly that he 30 gave up his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him 31 may have eternal life, instead of perishing. God did not 32 send his Son into the world to pass sentence on it, but 33 to save the world by him. He who believes in him is not 34 sentenced; he who will not believe is sentenced already, for having refused to believe in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the sentence of condemnation, that the Light has entered the world and yet men have preferred darkness to light. It is because their actions have been evil; for anyone whose practices are corrupt loathes the light and will not come out into it, in case his actions are exposed, whereas anyone whose life is true comes out into the light, to make it plain that his actions have been divinely prompted.

31 He who comes from above is far above all others; he who 32 springs from earth belongs to earth and speaks of earth; 33 he who comes from heaven [is far above all others. He] 34 is testifying to what he has seen and heard, and yet no one accepts his testimony. Whoever does accept it, certifies to the truth of God. For he whom God has sent utters the words of God—God gives him the Spirit in no sparing measure; the Father loves the Son and has given him control over everything. He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who disobeys the Son shall not see life—God's anger broods over him."

4 Now when the Lord learned that the Pharisees had heard of Jesus gaining and baptizing more disciples than John (though Jesus himself did not baptize, it was his disciples), he left Judaea and went back to Galilee. He had to pass through Samaria, and in so doing he arrived at a Samaritan town called Sychar; it lay near the territory which Jacob had given to his son Joseph, and Jacob's spring was there. Jesus, exhausted by the journey, sat down at the spring, just as he was. It was about noon, and a Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink" (his disciples had gone to the town to buy some food). The Samaritan woman said, "What? You* are a Jew, and you ask me for a drink—me, a Samaritan!" (Jews do not associate with Samaritans.) Jesus answered, "If you knew what is the free gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him instead, and he would have given you 'living' water." "Sir," said the woman, "you have nothing to draw water with, and it is a deep well; where do you get your 'living' water? Are you a greater man than Jacob, our ancestor? He gave us this well, and he drank from it, with his sons and his cattle." Jesus answered, "Anyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but anyone who drinks the water I shall give him will never thirst any more; the water I shall give him will turn into a spring of water welling up to eternal life." "Ah, sir," said the woman, "give me this water, so that I need not thirst or come all this road to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go and call your husband, then come back here." The woman replied, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You were right in saying, 'I have no husband'; you have had five husbands, and he whom you have now espoused is not your husband. That was a true word." "Sir," said the woman, "I see you are a prophet. Now our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, whereas you Jews declare the proper place for worship is at Jerusalem." "Woman," said Jesus, "believe me, the time is coming when you will be worshipping the Father neither on this mountain nor at Jerusalem. You are worshipping something you do not know; we are worshipping what we do know—for salvation comes from the Jews. But the time is coming, it has come already, when the real worshippers will worship the Father in Spirit and in reality; for these are the worshippers that the Father wants. God is Spirit, and his worshippers must worship him in Spirit and in reality.” The woman said to him, “Well, I know messiah (which means Christ) is coming. When he arrives, he will explain it all to us.” “I am messiah,” said Jesus, “I who am talking to you.”

At this point his disciples came up; they were surprised that he was talking to a woman, but none of them said, “What is it?” or, “Why are you talking to her?” Then the woman left her water-pot, and going off to the town told the people, “Come here, look at a man who has told me everything I ever did! Can he be the Christ?” They set out from the town on their way to him. Meanwhile the disciples pressed him, saying, “Rabbi, eat something.” But he said to them, “I have food, of which you know nothing.” So the disciples asked each other, “Can anyone have brought him something to eat?” Jesus said, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. You have a saying, have you not, ‘Four months yet, then harvest’? Look round, I tell you; see, the fields are white for harvesting! The reaper is already getting his wages and harvesting for eternal life, so that the sower shares the reaper’s joy. That proverb, ‘One sows and another reaps,’ holds true here: I sent you to reap a crop for which you did not toil; other men have toiled, and you reap the profit of their toil.” Now many Samaritans belonging to that town believed in him on account of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I ever did.”

So when the Samaritans arrived, they pressed him to stay with them; he did stay there two days, and far more of them believed on account of what he said himself. As they told the woman, “We no longer believe on account of what you said; we have heard for ourselves, we know that he is really the Saviour of the world.”

When the two days were over, he left for Galilee (for Jesus himself testified that a prophet enjoys no honour in his own country); on reaching Galilee, he was welcomed by the Galileans, who had seen all he did at the festival in Jerusalem—for they too had gone to the festival.

Once more he came to Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a royal official, whose son was lying ill at Capernaum; when he heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judaea, he went to him and begged him to come down and cure his 48 son, who was at the point of death. Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you never 49 will believe." The official said, "Come down, sir, before 50 my boy is dead." Jesus told him, "Go yourself, your son is alive." The man believed what Jesus told him, and 51 started on his journey. And on the road his servants met 52 him with the news that his boy was alive. So he asked them at what hour he had begun to improve; they told 53 him, "Yesterday at one o'clock the fever left him." Then the father realized that it had left him at the very time when Jesus had said to him, "Your son is alive"; and he 54 became a believer with all his household. This was the second Sign which Jesus performed again after leaving Judaea for Galilee.

5 AFTER this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus 2 went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem there is a bath beside the sheep-pool, which is called in Hebrew Beth-3 zatha; it has five porticoes, where a crowd of invalids used to lie, the blind, the lame, and folk with shrivelled limbs 4 [waiting for the water to bubble. For an angel used to descend from time to time into the bath, and disturb the water; whereupon the first person who stepped in after the water was disturbed was restored to health, no matter 5 what disease he had been afflicted with].* Now one man was there, whose illness had lasted thirty-eight years.
6 Jesus saw him lying, and knowing he had been ill for a long while he said to him, "Do you want your health 7 restored?" The invalid replied, "Sir, I have nobody to put me into the bath, when the water is disturbed; and while I am getting down myself, someone else gets in before 8 me." Jesus said to him, "Get up, lift your mat, and walk." 9 And instantly the man got well, lifted his mat, and started to walk.

10 Now it was the sabbath on that day. So the Jews said to the man who had been cured, "This is the sabbath, you 11 have no right to be carrying your mat." He replied, "But the man who healed me, he told me, 'Lift your mat and 12 walk'." They questioned him, "Who was it that told you, 13 'Lift it and walk'?" Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for (owing to the crowd on the 14 spot) Jesus had slipped away. Later on Jesus met him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you are well and strong; commit no more sins, in case something worse befalls you." 15 Off went the man and told the Jews it was Jesus who had 16 healed him. And this was why the Jews persecuted Jesus, 17 because he did things like this on the sabbath. The reply of Jesus was, "As my Father has continued working to 18 this hour, so I work too." But this only made the Jews more eager to kill him, because he not merely broke the sabbath but actually spoke of God as his own Father, 19 thereby making himself equal to God. So Jesus made this answer to them: "Truly, truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, nothing but what he sees the Father doing; for whatever he does, the Son also does the 20 same. The Father loves the Son and shows him all that he is doing himself. He will show him still greater deeds 21 than these, to make you wonder; for as the Father raises the dead and makes them live, so the Son makes anyone 22 live whom he chooses. Indeed the Father passes judgment on no one; he has committed the judgment which deter-23 mines life or death entirely to the Son, that all men may honour the Son as they honour the Father. (He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent 24 him.) Truly, truly I tell you, he who listens to my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life; he will incur no sentence of judgment, he has already passed from 25 death across to life. Truly, truly I tell you, the time is coming, it has come already, when the dead will listen to the voice of the Son of God, and those who listen will 26 live; for as the Father has life in himself, so too he has 27 granted the Son to have life in himself, and also granted 28 him authority to act as judge, since he is Son of man. Do not wonder at this; for there is a time coming when all 29 who are in the tombs will listen to his voice and come out, the doers of good to be raised to life, ill-doers to be raised for the sentence of judgment.

30 I can do nothing of my own accord; I pass judgment on men as I am taught by God, and my judgment is just, because my aim is not my own will but the will of him 31 who sent me. If I testify to myself, then my evidence is 32 not valid; I have Another to bear testimony to me, and I 33 know the evidence he bears for me is valid. You sent to 34 John, and he bore testimony to the truth (though I accept no testimony from man—I only speak of this testimony, 35 that you may be saved); he was a burning and a shining lamp, and you chose to rejoice for a while in his light.
36 But I possess a testimony greater than that of John, for the deeds which the Father has granted me to accomplish, the very deeds on which I am engaged, are my testimony 37 that the Father has sent me. The Father who sent me has also borne testimony to me himself; but his voice you have 38 never heard, his form you have never seen, his word you have not kept with you, because you do not believe him whom he sent. You search the scriptures, imagining you possess eternal life in their pages—and they do testify to me—but you refuse to come to me for life. I accept no credit from men, but I know there is no love to God in you; here am I, come in the name of my Father, and you will not accept me: let someone else come in his own name, and you will accept him! How can you believe, you who accept credit from one another instead of aiming at the credit which comes from the only God? Do not imagine I am going to accuse you to the Father; Moses is your accuser, Moses who is your hope! For if you believed Moses you would believe me, since it was of me that he wrote. But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you ever believe what I say?"

The Jews were amazed, saying, "How can this uneducated fellow manage to read?" Jesus told them in reply, "My teaching is not my own but his who sent me; anyone who chooses to do his will, shall understand whether my teaching comes from God or whether I am talking on my own authority. He who talks on his own authority aims at his own credit, but he who aims at the credit of the person who sent him, he is sincere, and there is no dishonesty in him. Did not Moses give you the Law?—and yet none of you honestly obeys the Law. Else, why do you want to kill me?" The crowd replied, "You are mad. Who wants to kill you?" Jesus answered them, "I have only performed one deed, and yet you are all amazed at it. Moses gave you the rite of circumcision (not that it came from Moses, it came from your ancestors), and you will circumcise a man upon the sabbath. Well, if a man gets circumcised upon the sabbath, to avoid breaking the Law of Moses, are you enraged at me for curing, not cutting, the entire body of a man upon the sabbath? Give over judging by appearances; be just."*

6 AFTER this Jesus went off to the opposite side of the sea of Galilee (the lake of Tiberias), followed by a large crowd on account of the Signs which they had seen him perform on sick folk. Now Jesus went up the hill and sat down there with his disciples. (The passover, the Jewish festival, was at hand.) On looking up and seeing a large crowd approaching, he said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for all these people to eat?" (He said this to test Philip, for he knew what he was going to do himself.) Philip answered, "Seven pounds' worth of bread would not be enough for them, for everybody to get even a morsel." One of his disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a servant here, with five barley-cakes and a couple of fish; but what is that among so many?" Jesus said, "Get the people to lie down." Now there was plenty of grass at the spot, so the men lay down, numbering about five thousand. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks to God, and distributed them to those who were reclining; so too with the fish, as much as they wanted. And when they were satisfied, he said to the disciples, "Gather up the pieces left over, so that nothing may be wasted." They gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with pieces of the five loaves left over from the meal. Now when the people saw the Sign he had performed, they said, "This really is the Prophet who is to come into the world!" Whereupon Jesus perceived they meant to come and seize him to make a king of him; so he withdrew by himself to the hill again.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, and embarking in a boat they started across the sea for Capharnahum. By this time it was dark, Jesus had not reached them yet, and the sea was getting up under a strong wind. After rowing about three or four miles they saw Jesus walking on the sea and nearing the boat. They were terrified, but he said to them, "It is I, have no fear"; so they agreed to take him on board, and the boat instantly reached the land they were making for.

Next day the crowd which had been left standing on the other side of the sea bethought them that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not gone aboard with his disciples, who had left by themselves. So, as some boats from Tiberias had put in near the spot where they had eaten bread after the Lord's thanksgiving, and as the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they embarked in the boats themselves and made for Capharnahum in search of Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said, "Rabbi, when did you get here?" Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly I tell you, it is not because you saw Signs that you are in quest of me, but because you ate these loaves and had your fill. Work for no perishing food, but for that lasting food which means eternal life; the Son of man will give you that, for the Father, God, has certified him." Then they asked him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" Jesus replied to them, "This is the work of God, to believe in him whom God has sent." "Well then," they said, "what is the Sign you perform, that we may see it and believe you? What work have you to show? Our ancestors ate man in the desert: as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat." Then said Jesus, "What Moses gave you was not the bread from heaven; it is my Father who gives you the real bread from heaven—for the bread of God is what comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." "Ah, sir," they said to him, "give us that bread always." Jesus said, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to me will never be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty again. But, as I told you, though you have seen me, you do not believe. All those will come to me who are the Father's gift to me, and never will I reject one of them; for I have come down from heaven not to carry out my own will but the will of him who sent me, and the will of him who sent me is that I lose none of those who are his gift to me, but that I raise them all up on the last day. It is the will of my Father that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him should possess eternal life, and that I should raise him up on the last day."

Now the Jews murmured at him for saying, "I am the bread which has come down from heaven." They said, "Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph? We know his father and mother. How can he claim now, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus replied to them, "Stop murmuring to yourselves. No one is able to come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me (and I will raise him up on the last day). In the prophets it is written, and they will be all instructed by God; everyone who has listened to the Father and learned from him, comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father—he only, who is from God, he has seen the Father. Truly, truly I tell you, the believer has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, but they died; the bread that comes down from heaven is such that one eats of it and never dies. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and more, the bread I will give is my flesh, given for the life of the world."

The Jews then wrangled with one another, saying, "How can he give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life within you. He who feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood possesses eternal life (and I will raise him up on the last day), for my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood remains within me, as I remain within him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live by the Father, so he who feeds on me

- 58 will also live by me. Such is the bread which has come down from heaven: your ancestors ate their bread and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live for ever.”
- 59 This he said as he taught in the synagogue at Capharnahum.
- 60 Now many of his disciples, on hearing it, said, “This is hard to take in! Who can listen to talk like this?”
- 61 Jesus, inwardly conscious that his disciples were murmuring at it, said to them, “So this upsets you? Then what if you were to see the Son of man ascending to where he formerly existed? What gives life is the Spirit: flesh is of no avail at all. The words I have uttered to you are spirit and life. And yet there are some of you who do not believe” (for Jesus knew from the very first who the unbelieving were, and who was to betray him; that was why* he said ‘I tell you that no one is able to come to me unless he is allowed by the Father’).
- 66 After that, many of his disciples drew back and would not associate with him any longer. So Jesus said to the twelve, “You do not want to go, too?” Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, who are we to go to? You have got words of eternal life, and we believe, we are certain, that you are the holy One of God.” Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve? And yet one of you is a devil!”
- 71 (He meant Judas the son of Simon Iscariot; for Judas was to betray him—and he was one of the twelve.)

7 AFTER this Jesus moved about in Galilee; he would not move in Judaea, because the Jews were trying to kill him.

- 6 Jesus said to them, “My time has not come yet, but your time is always at hand; the world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that its deeds are evil. Go up to the festival yourselves; I am not going up to this festival, for my time has not arrived yet.” So saying he stayed on in Galilee. But after his brothers had gone up to the festival, he went up too, not publicly but as it were privately. At the festival the Jews were in quest of him,

* Reading διὰ τοῦτο ἔλεγεν, with e (so Blass and Merx), instead of ἔλεγεν διὰ τοῦτο.

12 saying, "Where is he?" And the crowd disputed about him hotly; some said, "He is a good man," but others said, 13 "No, he is misleading the people." For fear of the Jews, however, nobody spoke of him in public.

14 When the festival was half over, Jesus went up to the 25 temple and began to teach.* Then said some of the Jeru-26 salemites, "Is this not the man they want to kill? Yet here he is, opening his lips in public, and they say nothing to him! Can the authorities have really discovered that 27 he is the Christ? No, we know where this man comes from; but when the Christ does come, no one will know 28 where he comes from." So Jesus cried aloud, as he was teaching in the temple, "You know me? you know where I come from? But I have not come on my own initiative; I am sent, and sent by Him who is real. You do not 29 know Him, but I know Him, because I have come from 30 Him and He sent me." So they tried to arrest him; but no one laid hands on him, because his time had not come 31 yet. Indeed many of the people believed in him, saying,
"When the Christ does come, will he perform more Signs 32 than this man?" The Pharisees heard the people discussing Jesus in this way, so the high priests and the Pharisees 33 despatched attendants to arrest him. Then said Jesus, "I will be with you a little longer, then I go to Him who 34 sent me; you will search for me but you will not find me, 35 and where I go, you cannot come." The Jews said to themselves, "Where is he going, that we will not find him?
Is he off to the Dispersion among the Greeks, to teach the 36 Greeks? What does he mean by saying, 'You will search for me but you will not find me, and where I go, you cannot come'?"

37 Now on the last day, the great day, of the festival, Jesus stood and cried aloud, "If anyone is athirst, let him come 38 to me and drink; he who believes in me—out of his body, 39 as scripture says, streams of living water will flow" (he meant by this the Spirit which those who believed in him were to receive:—as yet there was no Spirit, because 40 Jesus had not been glorified yet). On hearing this some of the people said, "This really is the Prophet"; others 41 said, "He is the Christ"; but others said, "No, surely the 42 Christ does not come from Galilee? Does not scripture say it is from the offspring of David, from David's village 43 of Bethlehem, that the Christ is to come?" So the people 44 were divided over him; some wanted to arrest him, but 45 no one laid hands on him. Then the attendants went back to the high priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why [* See note, p. 145.

46 have you not brought him with you?" The attendants 47 replied, "No man ever spoke as he does." The Pharisees 48 retorted, "Are you misled as well? Have any of the au-49 thorities or of the Pharisees believed in him? As for this 50 mob, with its ignorance of the Law—it is accursed!" Nicodemus, one of their number (the same who had come to 51 him before), said to them, "But surely our Law does not 52 condemn the accused before hearing what he has to say and ascertaining his offence?" They answered him, "And are you from Galilee, too? Search and you will see that no prophet ever springs from Galilee."

53 8 [And every one of them went home, but Jesus went to 2 the Hill of Olives. Early in the morning he returned to the temple, the people all came to him, and he sat down 3 and taught them. The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of committing 4 adultery, and making her stand forward they said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of com-5 mitting adultery. Now Moses has commanded us in the 6 Law to stone such creatures; but what do you say?" (They said this to test him, in order to get a charge against him.) Jesus stooped down, and began to write with his finger 7 on the ground; but as they persisted with their question, he raised himself and said to them, "Let the innocent 8 among you throw the first stone at her"; then he 9 stooped down again and wrote on the ground. And on hearing what he said, they went away one by one, beginning with the older men, till Jesus was left alone with the 10 woman standing before him. Looking up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned 11 you?" She said, "No one, sir." Jesus said, "Neither do I; be off, and never sin again."]* 12 Then Jesus again addressed them, saying, "I am the light of the world: he who follows me will not walk in 13 darkness, he will enjoy the light of life." So the Pharisees said to him, "You are testifying to yourself; your evidence 14 is not valid." Jesus replied to them, "Though I do testify to myself, my evidence is valid, because I know where I have come from and where I am going to—whereas you do not know where I have come from or where I am going to.
 15 You judge by the outside. I judge no one; and though 16 I do judge, my judgment is true, because I am not by my-17 self—there is myself and the Father who sent me. Why, it is written in your own Law that the evidence of two 18 persons is valid: I testify to myself, and the Father who

* It is uncertain to which, if any, of the canonical gospels this fragment of primitive tradition originally belonged.

19 sent me also testifies to me." "Where is your Father?" they said. Jesus replied, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you had known me you would have known my Father also." These words he spoke in the treasury, as he was teaching in the temple, but no one arrested him, because his time had not come yet.

21 Then he said to them again, "I go away, and you will search for me, but you will die in your sin; where I go, you cannot come." So the Jews said, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you cannot come'?"

23 He said to them, "You are from the world below, I am from the world above: you belong to this world, I do not belong to this world. So I told you, you would die in your sins; for unless you believe who I am, you will die in your sins." They said, "Who are you?" Jesus replied, "Why should I talk to you at all? I have a great deal to say about you and many a judgment to pass upon you; but he who sent me is true, and so I tell the world what I have learned from him." They did not understand he was speaking to them about the Father; so Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of man, you will know then who I am, and that I do nothing of my own accord, but speak as the Father has taught me. He who sent me is at my side; he has not left me alone; for I always do what pleases him." As he said this, a number believed in him.

31 So Jesus addressed the Jews who had believed him, saying, "If you abide by what I say, you are really disciples of mine: you will understand the truth, and the truth will set you free." "We are Abraham's offspring," they retorted, "we have never been slaves to anybody. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be free'?" Jesus replied, "Truly, truly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave.* Now the slave does not remain in the household for all time; the son of the house does. So, if the Son sets you free, you will be really free. I know you are Abraham's offspring! Yet you want to kill me, since my word makes no headway among you! I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you act as you have learned from your father." They answered him, "Abraham is our father." "If you are Abraham's children," said Jesus, "then do as Abraham did; but now you want to kill me—to kill a man who has told you the truth, the truth I have learned from God. Abraham did not do that. You do the deeds of your father." They said to him, "We are no bastards: we have one father, even God." Said Jesus, "If God were your father, you would love me, for I came here from God; I did not come of my 43 own accord, I was sent by him. Why do you not understand my speech? Because you are unable to listen to 44 what I am saying. You belong to your father the devil, and you want to do what your father desires; he was a slayer of men from the very beginning, and he has no place in the truth because there is no truth in him: when he tells a lie, he is expressing his own nature, for he is a 45 liar and the father of lies. It is because I tell the truth, 46 that you do not believe me. Which of you can convict me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?

 47 He who belongs to God listens to the words of God; you do not listen to them, because you do not belong to 48 God." The Jews retorted, "Are we not right in saying you 49 are a Samaritan, you are mad?" Jesus replied, "I am not 50 mad: I honour my Father and you dishonour me. However, I do not aim at my own credit; there is One who 51 cares for my credit, and he is judge. Truly, truly I tell you, if anyone holds to what I say, he will never see death." 52 The Jews said to him, "Now we are sure you are mad.
 Abraham is dead, and so are all the prophets; and you declare, 'If anyone holds to what I say, he will never taste 53 death!' Are you greater than our father Abraham? He is dead," and the prophets are dead. Who do you claim 54 to be?" Jesus replied, "Were I to glorify myself, my glory would be nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me; you 55 say 'He is our God,' but you do not understand him. I know him. Were I to say, 'I do not know him,' I would be a liar like yourselves; but I do know him and I hold to 56 his word. Your father Abraham exulted that he was to 57 see my Day: he did see it and he rejoiced." Then said the Jews to him, "You are not fifty years old, and Abraham 58 has seen you?"* "Truly, truly I tell you," said Jesus, "I 59 have existed before Abraham was born." At this they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus concealed himself and made his way out of the temple.

9 As he passed along he saw a man who had been blind 2 from his birth; and his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, for whose sin—for his own or for his parents'—was he born 3 blind?" Jesus replied, "Neither for his own sin nor for his parents'—it was to let the work of God be illustrated in 4 him. While daylight lasts, we must be busy with the work 5 of God: night comes, when no one can do any work. When 6 I am in the world, I am light for the world." With these words he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, which he smeared on the man's eyes, saying, "Go and wash them in the pool of Siloam" (Siloam meaning 'sent'). So off he went and washed them, and went home seeing. Whereupon the neighbours and those to whom he had been a familiar sight as a beggar, said, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is"; others said, "No, but it is like him." He said, "I am the man." So they asked him, "How were your eyes opened?" He replied, "The man they call Jesus made some clay and smeared my eyes with it and told me, 'Go and wash them in Siloam'; so I went and washed them, and I got my sight." "Where is he?" they asked; he answered, "I do not know." They brought him before the Pharisees, this man who had once been blind. Now it was on the sabbath day that Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes. So the Pharisees asked him again how he had regained his sight, and he told them, "He smeared some clay on my eyes, and I washed them, and now I can see." Then said some of the Pharisees, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the sabbath"; others said, "How can a sinner perform such Signs?" They were divided on this. So they asked the blind man once more, "What have you to say about him, for opening your eyes?" The man replied, "I say he is a prophet." Now the Jews would not believe he had been born blind and had regained his sight, till they summoned the parents of the man who had regained his sight and asked them, "Is this your son, the son you declare was born blind? How is it that he can see now?" His parents answered, "This is our son, and he was born blind; we know that. But how he can see to-day, we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask himself; he is of age, he can speak for himself." (His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed him to be Christ should be excommunicated. That was why the man's parents said, "He is of age, ask himself.") So the man born blind was summoned a second time, and told, "Now give God the praise; this man, we know quite well, is only a sinner." To which he replied, "I do not know whether he is a sinner; one thing I do know, that once I was blind and now I can see." "What did he do to you?" they repeated; "How did he open your eyes?" He retorted, "I have told you that already, and you would not listen to me. Why do you want to hear it over again? Do you want to be disciples of his?" Then they stormed at him: "You are his disciple, we are disciples of 29 Moses! We know God spoke to Moses, but we do not know 30 where this fellow comes from." The man replied to them, "Well, this is astonishing! You do not know where he 31 comes from, and yet he has opened my eyes! God, we know, does not listen to sinners; he listens to anyone who 32 is devout and who obeys his will. It is unheard of, since the world began, that anyone should open a blind man's 33 eyes. If this man were not from God, he could do noth-34 ing." They retorted, "And so you would teach us—you, 35 born in utter depravity!" Then they expelled him. Jesus heard that they had expelled him, and on meeting him he 36 said, "You believe in the Son of man?" * "Who is that, sir?" said the man, "tell me, that I may believe in him." 37 "You have seen him," Jesus said, "he is talking to you." 38 He said, "I do believe, Lord"—and he worshipped him.

 39 Then said Jesus, "It is for judgment that I have come into this world, to make the sightless see, to make the seeing 40 blind." On hearing this the Pharisees who were beside 41 him asked, "And are we blind?" Jesus replied, "If you were blind, you would not be guilty; but, as it is, you 19 claim to have sight—and so your sin remains." † 20 The Jews were again divided over these words. A num-21 ber of them said, "He is mad. Why listen to him?" Others said, "These are not a madman's words. Can a madman open the eyes of the blind?"

22 Then came the festival of Dedication at Jerusalem; it 23 was winter, and Jesus used to walk inside the temple, in 24 the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered round him and asked, "How long are you going to keep us in sus-25 pense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." Jesus replied, "I have told you, but you do not believe; the deeds 26 I do in the name of my Father testify to me, but you do 27 not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My 28 sheep listen to my voice, and I know them and they follow me; and I give them eternal life; they will never perish, 29 and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father who ‡ gave me them is stronger than all, and no one can snatch anything out of the Father's hand.

10 Truly, truly I tell you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs up somewhere else, 2 he is a thief and a robber; he who enters by the gate is 3 the shepherd of the sheep. The gate-keeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice; he calls his 4 sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought all his sheep outside, he goes in front of them, and the 5 sheep follow him because they know his voice; they will not follow a stranger, they will run from him, because they 6 do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus told them this allegory, but they did not understand what he was saying 7 to them; so he said to them again, "Truly, truly I tell you, 8 I am the shepherd * of the sheep; all who ever came before me have been thieves and robbers—but the sheep 9 would not listen to them. (I am the Gate; whoever enters by me will be saved, he will go in and out and find pas-10 ture.) The thief only comes to steal, to slay, and to destroy: I have come that they may have life and have it to 11 the full. I am the good shepherd; a good shepherd lays 12 down his own life for the sheep. The hired man, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, deserts them when he sees the wolf coming; he runs away, leaving the 13 wolf to tear and scatter them, just because he is a hired 14 man, who has no interest in the sheep. I am the good 15 shepherd, I know my sheep and my sheep know me (just as the Father knows me and I know the Father,) and I 16 lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep, too, which do not belong to this fold; I must bring them also,

 and they will listen to my voice; so it will be one flock, 17 one shepherd. This is why my Father loves me, because 18 I lay down my life to take it up again. No one takes it from me, I lay it down of my own accord: I have power to lay it down and also power to take it up again; I have 30 my Father's orders for this. I and my Father are one—." 31 The Jews again caught up stones to stone him. Jesus 32 replied, "I have let you see many a good deed of God; for 33 which of them do you mean to stone me?" The Jews retort, "We mean to stone you, not for a good deed, but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, make yourself God." 34 Jesus answered, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I said, 35 you are gods?' If the Law said they were gods, to whom the word of God came—and scripture cannot be broken—36 do you mean to tell me, whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 37 'I am God's Son'? If I am not doing the deeds of my 38 Father, do not believe me; but if I am, then believe the deeds, though you will not believe me—that you may learn and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the 39 Father." Once more they tried to arrest him, but he 40 escaped their hands and went across the Jordan, back to 41 the spot where John had baptized at first. There he stayed; and many came to him, saying, "John did not perform any Sign, but all he ever said about this man was 42 true." And many believed in him there.

11 Now there was a man ill, Lazarus of Bethany—the vii-2 lage of Mary and her sister Martha. (The Mary whose brother Lazarus was ill was the Mary who anointed the Lord 5 with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair.) Jesus loved 3 Martha and her sister and Lazarus;* so the sisters sent to 4 him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." When Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness is not to end in death; the end of it is the glory of God, that the Son of God may be 6 glorified thereby." So, when he heard of the illness, he 7 stayed where he was for two days; then, after that, he said 8 to the disciples, "Let us go back to Judaea." "Rabbi," said the disciples, "the Jews were trying to stone you only 9 the other day; are you going back there?" Jesus replied, "Are there not twelve hours in the day?"

If one walks during the day he does not stumble, for he sees the light of this world: 10 but if one walks during the night he does stumble, for the light is not in him." 11 This he said, then added, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen 12 asleep; I am going to waken him." "Lord," said the dis-13 ciples, "if he has fallen asleep, he will get better." Jesus, however, had been speaking of his death; but as they 14 imagined he meant natural sleep, he then told them plainly, 15 "Lazarus is dead; and for your sakes I am glad I was not there, that you may believe. Come now, let us go to him." 16 Whereupon Thomas (called 'the Twin') said to his fellow-disciples, "Let us go too, let us die along with him!" 17 Now when Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had 20 been buried for four days.† Then Martha, hearing of the arrival of Jesus, went out to meet him, while Mary sat at 21 home. Said Martha to Jesus, "Had you been here, Lord, 22 my brother would not have died. But now—well, I know 23 whatever you ask God for, he will grant you." Jesus said 24 to her, "Your brother will rise again." "I know," said Martha, "he will rise at the resurrection, on the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am myself resurrection and life:

he who believes in me will live, even if he dies, 26 and no one who lives and believes in me will ever die.
27 You believe that?" "Yes, Lord," she said, "I do believe you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the 28 world"—and with these words she went off to call her sister Mary, telling her secretly, "The Teacher is here, 29 and he is calling for you." So, on hearing this, Mary rose 30 hurriedly and went to him. Jesus had not entered the village yet, he was still at the spot where Martha had 18 met him. Now as Bethany is not far from Jerusalem, only 19 about two miles away, a number of Jews had gone to con-31 dole with Martha and Mary about their brother; and when the Jews who were condoling with her inside the house noticed her rise hurriedly and go out, they followed her, 32 as they imagined she was going to wail at the tomb. But when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she dropped at his feet, crying, "Had you been here, Lord, 33 my brother would not have died." Now when Jesus saw her wailing and saw the Jews who accompanied her wail-34 ing, he chafed in spirit and was disquieted. "Where have you laid him?" he asked. They answered, "Come and 35 see, sir." Jesus burst into tears. Whereupon the Jews 36 said, "See how he loved him!"—though some of them 37 asked, "Could he not have prevented him from dying, when 38 he could open a blind man's eyes?" This made Jesus chafe afresh, so he went to the tomb; it was a cave with a boulder 39 to close it. Jesus said, "Remove the boulder." "Lord," said Martha, the dead man's sister, "he will be stinking 40 by this time; he has been dead four days." "Did I not tell you," said Jesus, "if you will only believe, you shall see 41 the glory of God?" Then they removed the boulder, and Jesus, lifting his eyes to heaven, said, "Father, I thank 42 thee for listening to me. (I knew thou wouldst always listen to me, but I spoke on account of the crowd around, 43 that they might believe thou hast sent me.)" So saying, 44 he exclaimed with a loud cry, "Lazarus, come out!" Out came the dead man, his feet and hands swathed in bandages, and his face tied up with a towel. Jesus said, "Untie him, and let him move."
45 Now a number of the Jews who had come to visit Mary 46 and who witnessed what he had done, believed in him. But some of them went off to the Pharisees and told them what 47 Jesus had done; whereupon the high priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. "Whatever is to be done?" they said. "The fellow is performing a 48 number of Signs. If we let him alone, like this, everybody will believe in him, and then the Romans will come 49 and suppress our holy Place and our nation." But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said, "You know nothing about it—you do not understand it is in your own interests that one man should die for the People, instead of the whole nation being destroyed." (He did not say this simply of his own accord; he was high priest that year, and his words were a prophecy that Jesus was to die for the nation, and not merely for the nation but to gather into one the scattered children of God.) So from that day their plan was to kill him. Accordingly Jesus no longer appeared in public among the Jews, but withdrew to the country adjoining the desert, to a town called Ephraim; there he stayed with the disciples.

Now the passover of the Jews was near, and many people went up from the country to Jerusalem, to purify themselves before the passover. They looked out for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple they said to one another, "What do you think? Do you think he will not come up to the festival?" (The high priests and the Pharisees had given orders that they were to be informed, if anyone found out where he was, so that they might arrest him.)

12 Six days before the festival, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus stayed (whom Jesus had raised from the dead). They gave a supper for him there; Martha waited on him, and Lazarus was among those who reclined at table beside him. Then Mary, taking a pound of expensive perfume, real nard, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair, till the house was filled with the scent of the perfume. One of his disciples, Judas Iscariot (who was to betray him), said, "Why was not this perfume sold for ten pounds, and the money given to the poor?" (Not that he cared for the poor; he said this because he was a thief, and because he carried the money-box and pilfered what was put in.) Then said Jesus, "Let her alone, let her keep what she has for the day of my burial. You have always the poor beside you, but you have not always me."

Now the great mass of the Jews learned he was there, and they came not only on account of Jesus but to see Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead. So the high priests planned to kill Lazarus as well, since it was owing to him that a number of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

Next day the great mass of people who had come up for the festival heard that Jesus was entering Jerusalem, and taking palm-branches they went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!"

Blessed be he who comes in the Lord's name, the king of Israel!"

14 And Jesus came across a young ass and seated himself on it; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion; here is your king coming, seated on an ass's colt.

16 (His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered this had been 17 written of him and had happened to him.) Now the people who were with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead, testified to it; 18 and that was why the crowd went out to meet him, because 19 they heard he had performed this Sign. Then said the Pharisees to one another, "You see, you can do nothing! Look, the world has gone after him."

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who had come 21 up to worship at the festival; they came to Philip of Bethsaida in Galilee and appealed to him, saying, "Sir, we want 22 to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew and 23 Philip went and told Jesus. And Jesus answered, "The 24 hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified. Truly, truly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains a single grain; but if it dies, it bears 25 rich fruit. He who loves his life loses it, and he who cares not for his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life.

26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall my servant be also:
if anyone serves me, my Father will honour him.

27 My soul is now disquieted. What am I to say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? Nay, it is something else that 28 has brought me to this hour: I will say, 'Father, glorify thy name.'" Then came a voice from heaven, "I have 29 glorified it, and I will glorify it again." When they heard the sound, the people standing by said it had thundered; 30 others said, "An angel spoke to him." Jesus answered, 31 "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is this world to be judged; now the Prince of this world 32 will be expelled. But I, when I am lifted up from the 33 earth, will draw all men to myself." (By this he indicated 34 the kind of death he was to die.) So the people answered, "We have learned from the Law that the Christ is to remain for ever; what do you mean by saying that the Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?" 35 Then Jesus said to them, "The Light will shine among you for a little longer yet; walk while you have the Light, that the darkness may not overtake you. He who walks 36 in the dark does not know where he is going. While you have the Light, believe in the Light, that you may be sons 44 of the Light." * And Jesus cried aloud, "He who believes 45 in me believes not in me but in him who sent me, and he 46 who beholds me beholds him who sent me. I have come as light into the world, that no one who believes in me 47 may remain in the dark. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, it is not I who judge him; for I have 48 not come to judge the world but to save the world. He who rejects me and will not receive my words has indeed a judge: the word I have spoken will judge him on the 49 last day, for I have not spoken of my own accord—the Father who sent me, he it was who ordered me what to say 50 and what to speak. And I know his orders mean eternal life. Therefore when I speak, I speak as the Father has 36 told me." With these words Jesus went away and hid from them.

37 Now for all the Signs he had performed before them, 38 they did not believe in him—that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

Lord, who has believed what they heard from us?

And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 This was why they could not believe; for Isaiah again said,

40 He has blinded their eyes and made their hearts insensible, to prevent them seeing with their eyes and understanding with their hearts and turning for me to cure them.

41 (Isaiah said this because he saw his glory and spoke of 42 him.) Still, a number even of the authorities believed in him, though they would not confess it on account of the 43 Pharisees, in case of being excommunicated; they preferred the approval of men to the approval of God.

13 Now before the passover festival Jesus knew the time had come for him to pass from this world to the Father. He had loved his own in this world and he loved 2 them to the end; so at supper, knowing that though the devil had suggested to Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to 3 betray him, the Father had put everything into his hands —knowing that he had come from God and was going to 4 God, he rose from table, laid aside his robe, and tied a 5 towel round him, then poured water into a basin, and began to wash the feet of the disciples, wiping them with 6 the towel he had tied round him. He came to Simon 7 Peter. "Lord," said he, "you to wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "You do not understand just now what I am 8 doing, but you will understand it later on." Said Peter, "You will never wash my feet, never!" "Unless I wash 9 you," Jesus replied, "you will not share my lot." "Lord," said Simon Peter, "then wash not only my feet but my 10 hands and head." Jesus said, "He who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed; he is clean all over. And 11 you are clean—but not all of you" (he knew the traitor; that was why he said, "You are not all clean"). Then, after washing their feet and putting on his robe, he lay down again. "Do you know," he said to them, "what I 13 have been doing to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right: that is what I am. Well, if I have washed your feet, I who am your Lord and Teacher, you 15 are bound to wash one another's feet; for I have been setting you an example, that you should do what I have 16 done to you. Truly, truly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than 17 he who sent him. If you know all this, blessed are you if you really do it. When I say 'you,' I do not mean you all; I know the men of my choice, and I made my choice that 19 this scripture might be fulfilled, he who eats my bread has lifted up his heel against me. I am telling you this now, before it occurs, so that when it has occurred you may 20 believe who I am. (Truly, truly I tell you, he who receives anyone I send receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me.)" 21 On saying this Jesus was disquieted in spirit: he testified and said, "Truly, truly I tell you, one of you will betray me." The disciples looked at each other, at a loss to know 23 which of them he meant. As one of his disciples was reclining on his breast—he was the favourite of Jesus—24 Peter nodded to him, saying, "Tell us who he means." The disciple just leant back on the breast of Jesus and said, 26 "Lord, who is it?" Jesus answered, "The man I am going to give this piece of bread to, when I dip it in the dish." Then he took the piece of bread, dipped it, and gave it to 27 Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot; and when he took the bread, at that moment Satan entered him. Then Jesus told him, "Be quick with what you have to do." (None of 29 those at table understood why he said this to him; some of them thought that as Judas kept the money-box, Jesus told him to buy what they needed for the festival or to 30 give something to the poor.) So Judas went out immediately after taking the bread. And it was night.

31 When he had gone out, Jesus said,*

21 15 "I AM the real Vine, and my Father is the vine-2 dresser; he cuts away any branch on me which is not 3 bearing fruit, and cleans every branch which does bear 4 fruit, to make it bear richer fruit. You are already clean, 5 by the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, as I 6 remain in you: just as a branch cannot bear fruit 7 by itself, without remaining on the vine, neither 8 can you, unless you remain in me. I am the vine, 9 you are the branches. He who remains in me, as I in him, 10 bears rich fruit (because apart from me you can do nothing).
 11 If anyone does not remain in me he is thrown aside 12 like a branch and he withers up; then the branches are 13 gathered and thrown into the fire to be burned. If you 14 remain in me and my words remain in you, then ask what-15 ever you like and you shall have it. As you bear rich fruit 16 and prove yourselves my disciples, my Father is glorified.
 17 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; remain 18 within my love. If you keep my commands you will 19 remain within my love, just as I have kept my Father's 20 commands and remain within his love.

21 I have told you this, that my joy may be within you and 22 your joy complete. This is my command: you are to love one another as I have loved you. To lay life down for his friends, man has no greater love than that. You are my friends—if you do what I command you; I call you servants no longer, because a servant does not know what his master is doing: I call you friends, because I have imparted to you all that I have learned from my Father. You have not chosen me, it is I who have chosen you, appointing you to go and bear fruit—fruit that lasts, so that the Father may grant you whatever you ask in my name.
 This is what I command you, to love one another.

If the world hates you, remember it hated me first.
 If you belonged to the world, the world would love what it owned; it is because you do not belong to the world, because I have chosen you from the world, that the world hates you. Remember what I told you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.'

If they persecuted me, they will persecute you;

if they hold to my word, they will hold to yours.

21 They will do all this to you on account of my name, 22 because they know not him who sent me. They would not be guilty, if I had not come and spoken to them; but,

* Chapters xv. and xvi. are restored to their original position in the middle of ver. 31.

23 as it is, they have no excuse for their sin—he who hates 24 me hates my Father also. They would not be guilty, if I had not done deeds among them such as no one has ever done; but, as it is, they have seen—and they have hated—25 both me and my Father. It is that the word written in their Law may be fulfilled: they hated me for no cause.

26 When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth which issues from the 27 Father, he will bear witness to me; and you too are witnesses, for you have been with me from the very beginning.

2 16 I have told you all this, to keep you from being 3 repelled. They will excommunicate you; indeed the time is coming when anyone who kills you will imagine he 3 is performing a service to God. This they will do to you, because they have not known the Father nor me.

4 I have told you all this, so that when the time for it arrives, you may remember what I said to you. I did not tell you about this at the beginning, because I was with 5 you then; but now I am going to him who sent me. And 6 yet not one of you asks, 'Where are you going?' No, your 7 heart is full of sorrow at what I have told you. Yet—I am telling you the truth—my going is for your good. If I do not depart, the Helper will not come to you; whereas if I 8 go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will convict the world, convincing men of sin, of righteousness, 9 and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in 10 me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father and you 11 see me no more; of judgment, because the Prince of this 12 world has been judged. I have still much to say to you, 13 but you cannot bear it just now. However, when the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you into all the truth; for he will not speak of his own accord, he will say whatever he 14 is told, and he will disclose to you what is to come. He will glorify me, for he will draw upon what is mine and 15 disclose it to you. All that the Father has is mine; that is why I say, 'he will draw upon what is mine and disclose it to you.'

16 In a little while, you will behold me no longer; then, 17 after a little, you shall see me." So some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by telling us,
'In a little while, you shall behold me no longer; then, after a little, you shall see me'? and, 'I go to the Father'?" 18 They said, "What is the meaning of 'In a little'? We do 19 not understand what he is saying." Jesus knew they wanted to ask him; so he said to them, "Is this what you are discussing together, why I said, 'In a little while, you will not see me: then, after a little, you shall see me'?"

- 20 Truly, truly, I tell you, you will be wailing and lamenting while the world is rejoicing; you will be sorrowful, but
- 21 then your sorrow will be changed into joy. When a woman is in labour she is sorry, for her time has come; but when the child is born she remembers her anguish no longer, for joy that a human being has been born into the world.
- 22 So with you. Just now you are in sorrow, but I shall see you again and your heart will rejoice—with a joy that no one can take from you.
- 23 And on that day you will not ask me any questions. Truly, truly I tell you, whatever you ask the Father, he
- 24 will give you in my name; hitherto you have asked nothing in my name; ask and you will receive, that your joy
- 25 may be full. I have told you this in figures, but the time is coming when I shall speak to you in figures no longer;
- 26 I shall let you know plainly about the Father. On that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you I
- 27 will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father loves you himself, because you have loved me and believed that
- 28 I came forth from God. From the Father I came and I entered the world; again, I leave the world and I go to
- 29 the Father.” His disciples said, “Now, you are talking
- 30 plainly at last, not speaking in figures. Now we are sure you know everything, and need no one to put questions to you. This makes us believe you have come forth from
- 31 God.” Jesus replied, “You believe it, at last? Behold, the
- 32 time is coming, it has come already, when you will be scattered to your homes, every one of you, leaving me alone. But I am not alone, for the Father is with me.
- 33 I have said all this to you that in me you may have peace; in the world you have trouble, but courage! I have conquered the world.*
- 31 “Now at last the Son of man is glorified, and in him
- 32 God is glorified: [if God is glorified in him,] God will
- 33 glorify him in Himself and glorify him at once. My dear children, I am only to be with you a little longer; then you will look for me, and, as I told the Jews I tell you now,
- 34 where I go you cannot come. I give you a new command, to love one another—as I have loved you, you are to love one
- 35 another. By this everyone will recognize that you are my
- 36 disciples, if you have love one for another.” “Lord,” said Simon Peter, “where are you going?” Jesus replied, “I am going where you cannot follow me at present; later on you
- 37 will follow me.” “Lord,” said Peter, “why cannot I follow
- 38 you just now? I will lay down my life for you.” Jesus replied, “Lay down your life for me? Truly, truly I tell you, before the cock crows, you will have disowned me thrice over.

14 LET not your hearts be disquieted; you believe—2 believe in God and also in me. In my Father's house 3 there are many abodes; were it not so, would I have told 4 you I was going to prepare a place for you? And when I 5 go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take 6 you to be with me, so that you may be where I am. And 7 you know the way to where I am going." "Lord," said 8 Thomas, "we do not know where you are going, and how 9 are we to know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the 10 real and living way: no one comes to the Father except 11 by means of me. If you knew me, you would know my 12 Father too. You know him now and you have seen him." 13 "Lord," said Philip, "let us see the Father; that is all we 14 want." Jesus said to him, "Philip, have I been with you 15 all this time, and yet you do not understand me? He who 16 has seen me has seen the Father. What do you mean by 17 saying, 'Let us see the Father'? Do you not believe I am 18 in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak 19 to you all I do not speak of my own accord; it is the Father 20 who remains ever in me, who is performing his own deeds.
21 Believe me, I am in the Father and the Father is in me:— 22 or else, believe because of the deeds themselves. Truly, truly 23 I tell you, he who believes in me will do the very deeds I 24 do, and still greater deeds than these. For I am going to 25 the Father, and I will do whatever you ask in my name, 26 that the Father may be glorified in the Son; I will do what-27 ever you ask me in my name. If you love me you will 28 keep my commands, and I will ask the Father to give you 29 another Helper to be with you for ever, even the Spirit of 30 truth: the world cannot receive him, because it neither 31 sees nor knows him, but you know him, because he remains 32 with you and will be within you. I will not leave you 33 forlorn; I am coming to you. A little while longer and 34 the world will see me no more; but you will see me 35 because I am living and you will be living too. You will 36 understand, on that day, that I am in my Father and you 37 are in me and I am in you. He who possesses my com-38 mands and obeys them is he who loves me, and he who 39 loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him 40 and appear to him." "Lord," said Judas (not Judas Is-41 cariot), "why is it that you are to appear to us, and not to 42 the world?" Jesus answered, "If anyone loves me he will 43 obey my word, and my Father will love him, and we will 44 come to him and take up our abode with him. He who 45 does not love me does not obey my word; and what you hear me say is not my word but the word of the Father who sent me.

- 25 I have told you all this while I am still with you, 26 but the Helper, the holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and recall to you 27 everything I have said. Peace I leave to you, my peace
I give to you; I give it not as the world gives its 'Peace!' 28 Let not your hearts be disquieted or timid. You heard me tell you I was going away and coming back to you; if you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father —for the Father is greater than I am.
29 I tell you this now, before it occurs, so that, when it does 30 occur, you may believe. I will no longer talk much with you, for the Prince of this world is coming. He has no 31 hold on me; his coming will only serve to let the world see that I love the Father and that I am acting as the Father ordered. Rise, let us be going."

- 17 So Jesus spoke; then, lifting his eyes to heaven, he said: "Father, the time has now come; glorify thy Son 2 that thy Son may glorify thee, since thou hast granted him power over all flesh to give eternal life to all whom thou 3 hast given to him. And this is eternal life, that they know thee, the only real God, and him whom thou hast sent, even 4 Jesus Christ. I have glorified thee on earth by accom-5 plishing the work thou gavest me to do; now, Father, glorify me in thy presence with the glory which I enjoyed 6 in thy presence before the world began. I have made thy Name known to the men whom thou hast given to me from the world (thine they were, and thou gavest them 7 to me), and they have held to thy word. They know now 8 that whatever thou hast given me comes from thee, for I have given them the words thou gavest me and they have received them; they are now sure that I came from thee and believe that thou didst send me.
9 I pray for them—not for the world but for those whom 10 thou hast given me do I pray; for they are thine (all mine is thine and thine is mine), and I am glorified in them.
11 I am to be in the world no longer, but they are to be in the world; I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them by the power of thy Name which thou hast given me, that they 12 may be one as we are one. When I was with them, I kept them by the power of thy Name which thou hast given me; I guarded them, and not one of them perished—only the son of perdition, that the 13 scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to thee (I speak thus in the world that they may have my joy com-14 plete within them). I have given them thy word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the 15 world any more than I belong to the world. I pray not that thou wilt take them out of the world, but that thou 16 wilt keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to 17 the world any more than I belong to the world. Con-18 secrate them by thy truth: thy word is truth. As thou hast sent me into the world, so have I sent them into the 19 world, and for their sake I consecrate myself that they may be consecrated by the truth.

20 Nor do I pray for them alone, but for all who believe in 21 me by their spoken word; may they all be one! As thou, Father, art in me and I in thee, so may they be in us—22 that the world may believe thou hast sent me. Yea, I have given them the glory thou gavest me, that they may 23 be one as we are one—I in them and thou in me—that they may be made perfectly one, so that the world may recognize that thou hast sent me and hast loved them as 24 thou hast loved me. Father, it is my will that these, thy gift to me, may be beside me where I am, to behold my glory which thou hast given me, because thou lovedst me 25 before the foundation of the world. O just Father, though the world has not known thee, I have known* thee, and 26 they have known that thou hast sent me; so have I declared, so will I declare, thy Name to them, that the love with which thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18 HAVING said this, Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron ravine to an orchard, which he 2 entered in the company of his disciples. Judas the traitor also knew the spot, for Jesus and his disciples often met 3 there. So after procuring troops and some attendants belonging to the high priests and the Pharisees, Judas went 4 there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, who knew everything that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them, "Who are you looking for?" 5 "Jesus the Nazarene," they replied. Jesus said, "I am he." 6 (And Judas the traitor was standing beside them.) When he said, "I am he," they fell back and dropped to the 7 ground; so he asked them once more, "Who are you looking 8 for?" And when they replied, "Jesus the Nazarene," he answered, "I told you that I am he; if it is me you are 9 looking for, let these men get away" (this was to fulfil his own word: 'I did not lose a single one of those whom

* The English perfect is the least inadequate rendering of the Greek aorist here. Luther, however, prefers the present. "Ich kenne Dich, und diese erkennen. . . ."

10 thou didst give me'). Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off 11 his right ear (the servant's name was Malchus); whereupon Jesus said to Peter, "Sheathe your sword. Am I not to drink the cup which the Father has handed me?"

12 So the troops and their commander and the Jewish 13 attendants seized Jesus, bound him, and brought him first of all to Annas (for Annas was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year—the Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it was for their interests that 14 one man should die for the people).^{*} Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his 15 teaching. Jesus answered, "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in the synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews gather; I have said nothing in 16 secret. Why ask me? Ask my hearers what I have said to them; they know what I said." As he said this, one of the attendants who stood by gave him a blow, saying, "Is 17 that how you answer the high priest?" "If I have said anything wrong," replied Jesus, "prove it; if I said what 18 was true, why strike me?" Then Annas had him bound and sent him to Caiaphas the high priest. Simon Peter followed Jesus along with another disciple; and as this 19 disciple was an acquaintance of the high priest, he passed into the courtyard of the high priest with Jesus, while 20 Peter stood outside at the door. Then this other disciple, who was an acquaintance of the high priest, came out and spoke to the woman at the door, and brought Peter inside.
 21 The maidservant at the door then said to Peter, "Are you not one of this fellow's disciples?" He said, "No." Now the servants and the attendants were standing and warming 22 themselves at a charcoal fire which they had lit (for it was cold), and Peter also stood beside them and warmed 23 himself. They asked him, "Are you not one of his disciples?" He denied it, saying, "No." Said one of the high 24 priest's servants, a kinsman of the man whose ear had been cut off by Peter, "Did I not see you with him in the 25 orchard?" Again Peter denied it. And at that very moment the cock crowed.

26 Then from the house of Caiaphas they took Jesus to the praetorium. (It was early morning.) They would not enter the praetorium themselves, in case of being ceremonially defiled, for they wanted to eat the passover; so 27 Pilate came outside to them and asked, "What charge do you bring against this man?" They retorted, "If he had not been a criminal, we would not have handed him over 31 to you." Then said Pilate, "Take him yourselves, and sentence him according to your own Law." The Jews said, 32 "We have no right to put anyone to death" (that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, by which he had indicated the 33 kind of death he was to die). So Pilate went back inside the praetorium and called Jesus, saying, "Then you are 34 king of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "Are you saying this of your own accord, or did other people tell you about me?" 35 "Am I a Jew?" said Pilate. "Your own nation and the high priests have handed you over to me. What have 36 you done?" Jesus replied, "My realm does not belong to this world; if my realm did belong to this world, my men would have fought to prevent me being handed over to 37 the Jews. No, my realm lies elsewhere." "So you are a king?" said Pilate, "you!" "Certainly," said Jesus, "I am a king. This is why I was born, this is why I came into the world, to bear testimony to the truth. Everyone who 38 belongs to the truth listens to my voice." "Truth!" said Pilate, "what is truth!" With these words he went outside to the Jews again and told them, "I cannot find anything 39 wrong about him. But it is your custom that I should release a prisoner for you at the passover. Is it your will 40 that I release you the king of the Jews?" Again they yelled, "No, not him! Bar-Abbas!" Now Bar-Abbas was a robber.

2 19 THEN Pilate took Jesus and had him scourged. And 3 the soldiers twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple robe, marching up to him and shouting, "Hail, king of the Jews!"—and 4 striking him. Again Pilate went out and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you. Understand, I cannot find anything wrong about him." So out came Jesus, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe; and 6 Pilate said, "Here the man* is!" Now when the high priests and their attendants saw him, they yelled, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said, "Take him and crucify 7 him yourselves! I find nothing wrong about him." The Jews retorted, "But we have a Law, and by [our] Law he is bound to die, because he has made himself out to be 8 God's Son." Now when Pilate heard that, he was still 9 more afraid; he went inside the praetorium again and asked Jesus, "Where do you come from?" Jesus made no 10 reply. Then Pilate said, "You will not speak to me? Do you not know it is in my power to release you or to crucify

* The unconscious force of Pilate's words, it has been suggested, might be brought out by rendering either "Here is the man!" or, "Here is the Man!"

11 you?" Jesus answered, "You would have no power over me, unless it had been granted you from above. So you 12 are less guilty than he who betrayed me to you." This made Pilate anxious to release him, but the Jews yelled, "If you release him, you are no friend of Caesar's! Any-13 one who makes himself a king is against Caesar!" On hearing this, Pilate brought Jesus out and seated him on the tribunal at a spot called the 'mosaic pavement'—the 14 Hebrew name is Gabbatha (it was the day of Preparation for the passover, about noon). "There is your king!" he 15 said to the Jews. Then they yelled, "Off with him! Off with him! Crucify him!" "Crucify your king?" said Pilate. The high priests retorted, "We have no king but 16 Caesar!" Then Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.

17 So they took Jesus, and he went away, carrying the cross by himself, to the spot called the 'place of the 18 skull'—the Hebrew name is Golgotha; there they crucified him, along with two others, one on each side and Jesus 19 in the middle. Pilate had written an inscription to be put on the cross; what he wrote was, JESUS THE NAZARENE, 20 THE KING OF THE JEWS. Now many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus had been crucified was close to the city; besides, the inscription was in 21 Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. So the Jewish high priests said to Pilate, "Do not write, THE KING OF THE JEWS; write, 22 HE SAID I AM THE KING OF THE JEWS." Pilate replied, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Now when the soldiers crucified Jesus they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. But as the tunic was seamless, woven right down 24 in a single piece, they said to themselves, "Don't let us tear it. Let us draw lots to see who gets it" (that the scripture might be fulfilled, they distributed my clothes among them, and drew lots for my raiment).

This was what the soldiers did.

25 Now beside the cross of Jesus stood his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of 26 Magdala. So when Jesus saw his mother and his favourite disciple standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, 27 there is your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Son, there is your mother!" And from that hour the disciple 28 took her to his home. After that, as Jesus knew that everything was now finished and fulfilled, he said (to fulfil the 29 scripture), "I am thirsty." A jug full of vinegar was lying there; so they put a sponge full of vinegar on a spear and 30 held it to his lips. And when Jesus took the vinegar, he said, "It is finished," bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

- 31 Now, as it was the day of Preparation, in order to prevent the bodies remaining on the cross during the sabbath (for that sabbath-day was a great day), the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies removed.
- 32 So the soldiers went and broke the legs of the first man and
- 33 of the other man who had been crucified along with him; but when they came to Jesus and saw he was dead already,
- 34 they did not break his legs; only, one of the soldiers pricked his side with a lance, and out came blood and
- 35 water in a moment. He who saw it has borne witness (his witness is true; God knows he is telling the truth),
- 36 that you may believe. For this took place that the scripture might be fulfilled,

Not a bone of him will be broken.

- 37 And another scripture also says,

They shall look on him whom they have impaled.

- 38 After this, Joseph of Arimathaea, a disciple of Jesus but a secret disciple—for fear of the Jews—asked Pilate for permission to remove the body of Jesus. And Pilate
- 39 allowed him. So he went and removed the body, accompanied by Nicodemus (he who had first come to Jesus by night) who brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about
- 40 a hundred pounds of it; they took and wrapped up the body of Jesus in the spices and in bandages, according to
- 41 the Jewish custom of burial. Now at the spot where he had been crucified there was an orchard, and in the orchard
- 42 a new tomb where no one had yet been laid; so they put Jesus there, since it was the Jewish day of Preparation, seeing that the tomb was close by.

- 20 ON the first day of the week Mary of Magdala went early to the tomb, when it was still dark; but as she
- 2 saw the boulder had been removed from the tomb, she ran off to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the favourite of Jesus, telling them, "They have taken the master out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put
- 3 him!" So Peter and the other disciple set out for the
- 4 tomb; they both started to run, but the other disciple ran
- 5 ahead, faster than Peter, and got to the tomb first. He glanced in and saw the bandages lying on the ground,
- 6 but he did not go inside. Then Simon Peter came after him, and went inside the tomb; he noticed not only that
- 7 the bandages were lying on the ground but that the napkin which had been round his head was folded up by itself,
- 8 instead of lying beside the other bandages. Upon this the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, went inside

9 too, and when he saw for himself he was convinced. (For 10 as yet they did not understand the Scripture that he must 11 rise from the dead.) Then the disciples returned home; 12 but Mary stood sobbing outside the tomb. As she sobbed, 13 she glanced inside the tomb and noticed two angels in 14 white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the 15 head and one at the feet. "Woman," they said to her, 16 "why are you sobbing?" She said, "Because they have 17 taken away my master, and I do not know where they 18 have put him!" With these words she turned round and 19 noticed Jesus standing—though she did not know it was 20 Jesus. "Woman," said Jesus, "why are you sobbing? Who 21 are you looking for?" Supposing he was the gardener, she 22 said, "Oh, sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you 23 put him, and I will remove him." "Mary!" said Jesus.
24 She started round and said, "Rabboni!" (a Hebrew word 25 meaning 'teacher'). Jesus said, "Cease clinging to me. I 26 have not ascended yet to the Father, but go to my brothers 27 and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and yours, 28 to my God and yours.'" Away went Mary of Magdala to 29 the disciples with the news, "I have seen the Lord!"— telling them what he had said to her.

19 On the evening of that same day—the first day of the 20 week—though the disciples had gathered within closed 21 doors for fear of the Jews, Jesus entered and stood among 22 them, saying, "Peace be with you!" So saying he showed 23 them his hands and his side; and when the disciples saw 24 the Lord, they rejoiced. Jesus then repeated, "Peace be 25 with you! As the Father sent me forth, I am sending 26 you forth." And with these words he breathed on them, 27 and added, "Receive the holy Spirit! If you remit the 28 sins of any, they are remitted: if you retain them, they are 29 retained."

24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who was called 'the 25 Twin,' was not with them when Jesus came; and when the 26 rest of the disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord," 27 he said, "Unless I see his hands with the mark of the 28 nails, and put my finger where the nails were, and put my 29 hand into his side, I refuse to believe it." Eight days afterwards his disciples were together again, and Thomas with them. Though the doors were closed, Jesus entered and stood among them, saying, "Peace be with you!" Then he said to Thomas, "Look at my hands, put your finger here; and put your hand here into my side; cease your unbelief and believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "You believe because you have seen me? Blessed be those who believe though they have never seen me."

30 Many another Sign did Jesus perform in presence of his 31 disciples, which is not recorded in this book; but these Signs are recorded so that you may believe Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and believing may have life through his Name.

21 AFTER that, Jesus disclosed himself once more to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. It was in this way.
2 Simon Peter, Thomas (who was called 'the Twin'), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the two sons of Zebedaeus, 3 and two other disciples of his, were all together. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going to fish." They said, "We are coming with you too." Off they went and embarked 4 in the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Now at break of day Jesus was standing on the beach (though the 5 disciples did not know it was Jesus). "Lads," said Jesus, 6 "have you got anything?" "No," they answered. So he told them, "Throw your net on the right of the boat, and you will have a take." At this they threw the net, and 7 now they could not haul it in for the mass of fish. So the disciple who was Jesus' favourite said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Hearing it was the Lord, Simon Peter threw on his blouse (he was stripped for work) and jumped into the 8 water, while the rest of the disciples came ashore in the punt (they were not far from land, only about a hundred 9 yards), dragging their netful of fish. When they got to land, they saw a charcoal fire burning, with fish cooking 10 on it, and some bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some 11 of the fish you have just caught." So Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty three of them; but for all their number the net 12 was not torn. Jesus said, "Come and breakfast." (Not one of the disciples dared to ask him who he was; they 13 knew it was the Lord.) Jesus went and took the bread 14 and gave it to them, and the fish too. This was the third time, now, that Jesus appeared to the disciples after rising from the dead.
15 Then after breakfast Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than the others do?"
"Why, Lord," he said, "you know I love you." "Then feed 16 my lambs," said Jesus. Again he asked him, for the second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" "Why, Lord," he said, "you know I love you." "Then be a shepherd to 17 my sheep," said Jesus. For the third time he asked him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Now Peter was vexed at being asked a third time, "Do you love me?" So he replied; "Lord, you know everything, you can see I 18 love you." Jesus said, "Then feed my sheep. Truly, truly

- I tell you, you put on your own girdle and went wherever you wanted, when you were young; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands for someone to gird you, and you will be taken where you have no wish to go"
- 19 (he said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter 20 would glorify God); then he added, "Follow me." Peter turned round and saw that the favourite disciple of Jesus was following, the disciple who had leant on his breast at supper and put the question, "Lord, who is to betray you?"
- 21 So, on catching sight of him, Peter said to Jesus, "And 22 what about him, Lord?" Jesus replied, "If I choose that he should survive till I come back, what does that matter to 23 you? Follow me yourself." This started the report among the brotherhood that the said disciple was not to die. Jesus, however, did not say he was not to die; what he said was, "If I choose that he should survive till I come back, what does that matter to you?"
- 24 This was the disciple who bears testimony to these facts and who wrote them down; his testimony, we know, is true.
- 25 Now there is much else that Jesus did—so much, that if it were written down in detail, I do not suppose the world itself could hold the written records.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

IN my former volume, Theophilus, I treated all that 2 I Jesus began by doing and teaching down to the day when, after issuing his orders by the holy Spirit to the disciples 3 whom he had chosen, he was taken up to heaven. After his sufferings he had shown them that he was alive by 4 a number of proofs, revealing himself to them for forty days and discussing the affairs of God's Realm. Also, as he ate with them, he charged them not to leave Jerusalem but to wait for what the Father promised—"for what 5 you have heard me speak of," said he; "for John baptized with water, but not many days after this you shall be 6 baptized with the holy Spirit." Now when they met, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time you are going to restore 7 the Realm to Israel?" But he told them, "It is not for you to know the course and periods of time that the Father 8 has fixed by his own authority. You will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses at Jerusalem, throughout all Judaea and Samaria, 9 and to the end of the earth." On saying this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him out of sight.
10 As he went up, their eyes were fixed on heaven; but just 11 then two men stood beside them dressed in white, who said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up to heaven? This Jesus who has been taken from you into heaven will come back, just as you have seen him depart 12 to heaven." Then they made their way back to Jerusalem from the hill called 'The Olive-Orchard'; it is close to 13 Jerusalem, only a sabbath day's journey from it. On entering the city they went to the upper room where they were in the habit of meeting; there were Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James (the son of Alphaeus) and Simon who had been a 14 Zealot, with Judas the son of James. All these men resorted with one mind to prayer, together with the women, with Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.
15 Now during these days Peter stood up among the brothers (there was a crowd of about a hundred and 16 twenty persons all together). "My brothers," said he, "it had to be fulfilled, that scripture which the holy Spirit uttered beforehand by the lips of David with regard to Judas who acted as guide to those who arrested Jesus.
17 Judas did enter our number, he did get his allotted share 18 of this our ministry. With the money paid him for his crime he purchased an estate; but swelling up he burst in 19 two, and all his bowels poured out—a fact which became known to all the residents in Jerusalem, so that the estate got the name, in their language, of Akeldamach or The 20 Ground of Blood. Now it is written in the book of psalms, Desolate be his residence, may no one dwell in it:

also,

let another man take over his charge.

21 Well then, of the men who have been associated with us all the time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 from the baptism of John down to the day when he was taken up from us—of these men one must join us as a 23 witness to his resurrection.” So they brought forward two men, Joseph called Bar-Sabbas (surnamed Justus) and 24 Matthias; and they prayed, “O Lord, who readest the hearts of all, do thou single out from these two men him whom 25 thou hast chosen to fill the place in this apostolic ministry 26 which Judas left in order to go to his own place.” Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, who was assigned his position with the eleven apostles.

2 2 DURING the course of the day of Pentecost they were all together, when suddenly there came a sound from heaven like a violent blast of wind, which filled the whole house 3 where they were seated. They saw tongues like flames dis-4 tributing themselves, one resting on the head of each, and they were all filled with the holy Spirit—they began to speak in foreign tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to 5 express themselves. Now there were devout Jews from 6 every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. So when this sound was heard, the multitude gathered in bewilderment, for each heard them speaking in his own language.
 7 All were amazed and astonished. “Are these not all 8 Galileans,” they said, “who are speaking? Then how is it 9 that each of us hears them in his own native tongue? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, residents in Mesopotamia, in 10 Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the districts of Libya round 11 Cyrene, visitors from Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear these men talking of the triumphs 12 of God in our own languages!” They were all amazed and quite at a loss. “What can it mean?” they said to one an-13 other. Some others sneered, “They are brim-full of new 14 wine!” But Peter stood up along with the eleven, and raising his voice he addressed them thus: “Men of Judaea and residents in Jerusalem, let every one of you understand

- 15 this—attend to what I say: these men are not drunk, as 16 you imagine. Why, it is only nine in the morning! No, this is what was predicted by the prophet Joel—
- 17 In the last days, saith God, then will I pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions, your old men shall dream dreams:
- 18 on my very slaves and slave-girls in those days will I pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy.
- 19 And I will display wonders in heaven above and signs on earth below, blood and fire and vapour of smoke:
- 20 the sun shall be changed into darkness and the moon into blood, ere the great, open Day of the Lord arrives.
- 21 And everyone who invokes the name of the Lord shall be saved.
- 22 Men of Israel, listen to my words. Jesus the Nazarene, a man accredited to you by God through miracles, wonders, and signs which God performed by him among you (as 23 you yourselves know), this Jesus, betrayed in the predestined course of God's deliberate purpose, you got wicked 24 men to nail to the cross and murder; but God raised him by checking the pangs of death. Death could not hold 25 him. For David says of him,
I saw the Lord before me evermore; lest I be shaken, he is at my right hand.
- 26 *My heart is glad,
 my tongue exults,
 my very flesh will rest in hope,*
- 27 because thou wilt not forsake my soul in the grave, nor let thy holy one suffer decay.
- 28 Thou hast made known to me the paths of life, thou wilt fill me with delight in thy presence.
- 29 Brothers, I can speak quite plainly to you about the patriarch David; he died and was buried and his tomb re-30 mains with us to this day. (He was a prophet; he knew God had sworn an oath to him that he would seat one of 31 his descendants on his throne;* so he spoke with a prevision of the resurrection of the Christ, when he said that he was not forsaken in the grave nor did his flesh suffer 32 decay. This Jesus God raised, as we can all bear witness.
 33 Uplifted then by God's right hand, and receiving from the Father the long-promised holy Spirit, he has poured on us

* Omitting [τὸ κατὰ σάρκα ἀναστήσειν τὸν Χριστὸν].

34 what you now see and hear.) For it was not David who ascended to heaven; David says, 35 The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'.

36 So let all the house of Israel understand beyond a doubt that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this very 37 Jesus whom you have crucified." When they heard this, it went straight to their hearts; they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what are we to do?"
38 "Repent," said Peter, "let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins; then 39 you will receive the gift of the holy Spirit. For the promise is meant for you and for your children and for all who are far off, for anyone whom the Lord our God 40 may call to himself." And with many another appeal he urged and entreated them. "Save yourselves," he cried, 41 "from this crooked generation!" So those who accepted what he said were baptized; about three thousand souls 42 were brought in, that day. They devoted themselves to the instruction given by the apostles and to fellowship, 43 breaking bread and praying together. Awe fell on everyone, and many wonders and signs were performed by the 44 apostles [in Jerusalem]. The believers* all kept together; they shared all they had with one another, they would 45 sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds among all, as anyone might be in need. Day after day 46 they resorted with one accord to the temple and broke bread together in their own homes; they ate with a glad 47 and simple heart, praising God and looked on with favour by all the people. Meantime the Lord added the saved daily to their number. †

2 3 PETER and John were on their way up to the temple for the hour of prayer at three in the afternoon, when a man lame from birth was carried past, who used to be laid every day at what was called the 'Beautiful Gate' of the temple, to ask alms from those who entered the temple.
3 When he noticed that Peter and John meant to go into 4 the temple, he asked them for alms. Peter looked at him 5 steadily, as did John, and said, "Look at us." The man 6 attended, expecting to get something from them. But Peter said, "I have no silver or gold, but I will give you what I do have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, 7 [get up and] walk!" And catching him by the right hand he raised him. Instantly his feet and ankles grew strong, 8 he leapt to his feet, started to walk, and accompanied them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God.

 9 When all the people saw him walking and praising God, 10 and when they recognized this was the very man who used to sit and beg at the Gate Beautiful, they were lost in awe 11 and amazement at what had happened to him. As he clung to Peter and John, all the people rushed awestruck to 12 them in what was called Solomon's portico. But when Peter saw this, he said to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you surprised at this? Why do you stare at us, as if we had made him walk by any power or piety of ours?
 13 The God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers has glorified Jesus his servant, whom you delivered up and repudiated before 14 Pilate. Pilate had decided to release him, but you re- pudiated the Holy and Just One; the boon you asked was 15 a murderer, and you killed the pioneer of Life. But God 16 raised him from the dead, as we can bear witness. (He it is who has given strength to this man whom you see and know, by faith in His name; it is the faith He inspires which has made the man thus hale and whole before you 17 all.) Now I know, brothers, that you acted in ignorance, 18 like your rulers—though this was how God fulfilled what he had announced beforehand by the lips of all the 19 prophets, namely the sufferings of his Christ. Repent then, and turn to have your sins blotted out, so that a breathing-20 space may be vouchsafed you, and that the Lord may send 21 Jesus your long-decreed Christ, who must be kept in heaven till the period of the great Restoration. Ages ago 22 God spoke of this by the lips of his holy prophets; for Moses said,

The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brotherhood, as he raised me:

you must listen to whatever he may tell you.

23 Any soul that will not listen to this prophet shall be exterminated from the People;

24 and all the prophets who have spoken since Samuel and 25 his successors have also announced these days. Now you are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with your fathers when he said to Abraham, all families on earth shall be blessed in your offspring.
 26 It was for you first that God raised up his Servant, and sent him to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

4 While they were speaking to the people, they were surprised by the priests, the commander of the temple, 2 and the Sadducees, who were annoyed at them teaching the people and proclaiming Jesus as an instance of resurrection from the dead. They laid hands on them and, as it was now evening, put them in custody till next morning. (A number of those who heard them speak believed, bringing up their numbers to [about] five thousand.)

Next morning a meeting was held in Jerusalem of their rulers, elders and scribes, which was attended by the high priest Annas, by Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and all the members of the high priest's family. They made the men stand before them and inquired, "By what authority, in whose name, have you* done this?" Then Peter, filled with the holy Spirit, said to them: "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel, if we are being cross-examined to-day upon a benefit rendered to a cripple, upon how this man got better, you and the people of Israel must all understand that he stands before you strong and well, thanks to the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead. He is the stone despised by you builders, which has become head of the corner.

There is no salvation by anyone else, nor even a second Name under heaven appointed for us men and our salvation." They were astonished to notice how outspoken Peter and John were, and to discover that they were uncultured persons and mere outsiders; they recognized them as having been companions of Jesus, but as they saw the man who had been healed standing beside them, they could say nothing. Ordering them to withdraw from the Sanhedrin, they proceeded to hold a consultation. "What are we to do with these men?" they said. "It is plain to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem that a miracle has admittedly been worked by them. That we cannot deny. However, to keep things from going any further with the people, we had better threaten them that they are not to tell anyone in future about this Name." So they called the men in and ordered them not to speak or teach a single sentence about the Name of Jesus. But Peter and John replied, "Decide for yourselves whether it is right before God to obey you rather than God. Certainly we cannot give up speaking of what we have seen and heard." Then they threatened them still further and let them go; on account of the people they found themselves unable to find any means of punishing them, for everybody was glorifying God over what had happened (the man on whom this miracle of healing had been performed, being more than forty years old). On being released they went to their friends and related

* With a touch of superciliousness ('men like you!'), which is perhaps better expressed in reading aloud than by any verbal periphrasis.

24 what the high priests and elders had said; and on hearing this the entire company raised their cry to God, "O Sovereign Lord, thou art he * who made heaven, earth, and 25 sea, and all that in them is, who said to our fathers † by the holy Spirit through the lips of thy servant David,

Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples vainly conspire?

26 The kings of the earth stood ready, the rulers mustered together against the Lord and his Christ.

27 In this very city they actually mustered against thy holy Servant Jesus, whom thou didst consecrate—Herod and Pontius Pilate, together with the Gentiles and the peoples 28 of Israel, mustering to carry out what thy hand had traced, 29 thy purpose had decreed. So now, O Lord, consider the threats of these men, and grant that thy servants may be 30 perfectly fearless in speaking thy word, when thy hand is stretched out to heal and to perform miracles and wonders 31 by the name of thy holy Servant Jesus." At their prayer the place of meeting was shaken, and they were all filled 33 with the holy Spirit, speaking God's word fearlessly; the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and great grace was upon them all.‡

32 Now there was but one heart and soul among the multitude of the believers; not one of them considered anything his personal property, they shared all they had with one 34 another. There was not a needy person among them, for those who owned land or houses would sell them and bring 35 the proceeds of the sale, laying the money before the feet of the apostles; it was then distributed according to each 36 individual's need. Thus Joseph, who was surnamed Barnabas or (as it may be translated) 'Son of Encouragement' 37 by the apostles, a Levite of Cypriote birth, sold a farm belonging to him and brought the money, which he placed before the feet of the apostles.

5 But a man called Ananias, who with his wife Sapphira 2 had sold some property, appropriated some of the purchase-money with the connivance of his wife; he only brought part of it to lay before the feet of the apostles.
 3 "Ananias," said Peter, "why has Satan filled your heart and made you cheat the holy Spirit by appropriating some 4 of the money paid for the land? When it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And even after the sale, was the money not yours to do as you pleased about it?

 How could you think of doing a thing like this? You 5 have not defrauded men but God." When Ananias heard this, he fell down and expired. (Great awe came over all 6 who heard of it.) And the younger men rose, wrapped 7 the body up and carried it away to be buried. After an interval of about three hours his wife happened to come 8 in, quite unconscious of what had occurred. "Tell me," said Peter, "did you only sell the land for such and such a 9 sum?" "Yes," she said, "that was all we sold it for." Peter said to her, "How could you arrange to put the Lord's Spirit to the proof? Listen, there are the footsteps of the men who have buried your husband! They are at the 10 door, and they will carry you out as well." Instantly she fell down at their feet and expired. The younger men came in to find her dead; they carried her out and buried 11 her beside her husband. Great awe came over the whole church and over all who heard about this.
 12 Now they all without exception met in the portico of 13 Solomon. Though the people extolled them, not a soul 14 from the outside dared to join them. On the other hand, crowds of men and women who believed in the Lord were 12 brought in. Many miracles and wonders were performed 15 among the people by the apostles.* In fact, invalids were actually carried into the streets and laid on beds and mattresses, so that, when Peter passed, his shadow at any-16 rate might fall on one or other of them. Crowds gathered even from the towns round Jerusalem, bringing invalids and people troubled with unclean spirits, all of whom were healed.
 17 This filled the high priest Annas† and his allies, the 18 Sadducean party, with bitter jealousy; they laid hands on 19 the apostles and put them into the public prison, but an angel of the Lord opened the prison-doors during the night 20 and brought them out, saying, "Go and stand in the temple, 21 telling the people all about this Life." With these orders they went into the temple about dawn and proceeded to teach. Meantime the high priest and his allies met, called the Sanhedrin together and the council of seniors belonging to the sons of Israel, and then sent to prison for the men.
 22 But as the attendants did not find them when they got to 23 the prison, they came back to report, "We found the prison safely locked up, with the sentries posted at the doors, 24 but on opening the doors we found no one inside!" On hearing this the commander of the temple and the high priests were quite at a loss to know what to make of it.

25 However, someone came and reported to them, "Here are the very men you put in prison, standing in the temple and 26 teaching the people!" At this the commander went off with the attendants and fetched them—but without using violence, for fear that the people would pelt them with stones.
27 They conducted them before the Sanhedrin, and the high 28 priest asked them, "We strictly forbade you to teach about this Name, did we not? And here you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine! You want to make us respon-29 sible for this man's death!" Peter and the apostles an-30 swered, "One must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus whom you murdered by hang- 31 ing him on a gibbet. God lifted him up to his right hand as our pioneer and saviour, in order to grant repentance 32 and remission of sins to Israel. To these facts we bear witness, with the holy Spirit which God has given to those 33 who obey him." When they heard this, they were so furious 34 that they determined to make away with the apostles. But a Pharisee in the Sanhedrin called Gamaliel, a doctor of the Law who was highly respected by all the people, got up and ordered the apostles to be removed for a few 35 moments. Then he said, "Men of Israel, take care what you 36 do about these men. In days gone by Theudas started up, claiming to be a person of importance; a number of men, about four hundred of them, rallied to him, but he was slain, and all his followers were dispersed and wiped out.
37 After him Judas the Galilean started up at the time of the census, and got people to deser. to him; but he perished 38 too, and all his followers were scattered. So I advise you to-day to leave these men to themselves. Let them alone.
If this project or enterprise springs from men, it will 39 collapse; whereas, if it really springs from God, you will be unable to put them down. You may even find yourselves 40 fighting God!" They gave in to him, and after summoning the apostles and giving them a flogging, they released them with instructions that they were not to speak about 41 the name of Jesus. The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been considered worthy of suffering 42 dishonour for the sake of the Name; not for a single day did they cease to teach and preach the gospel of Jesus the Christ in the temple and at home.

6 DURING these days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists began to complain against the Hebrews, on the ground that their widows were being over-

- 2 looked in the daily distribution of food. So the twelve summoned the main body of the disciples and said: "It is not desirable that we should drop preaching the word of 3 God and attend to meals. Brothers, look out seven of your own number, men of good reputation who are full of the Spirit and of wisdom. We will appoint them to this duty, 4 but we will continue to devote ourselves to prayer and 5 the ministry of the word." This plan commended itself to the whole body, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nikanor, Timon, Parmenas and Nikolaos a proselyte from Antioch; 6 these men they presented to the apostles, who, after prayer, laid their hands upon them.
7 And the word of God spread; the number of the disciples in Jerusalem greatly increased, and a host of priests became obedient to the faith.
8 Now Stephen, who was full of grace and power, performed great wonders and miracles among the people.
9 Some of those who belonged to the so-called synagogue of the Libyans,* the Cyrenians, and the Alexandrians, as well as to that of the Cilicians and Asiatics, started a dispute 10 with Stephen, but they could not meet the wisdom and the 11 Spirit with which he spoke. They then instigated people to say, "We have heard him talking blasphemy against 12 Moses and God." In this way they excited the people, the elders, and the scribes, who rushed on him, dragged him 13 away, and took him before the Sanhedrin. They also brought forward false witnesses to say, "This fellow is never done talking against this holy Place and the Law!
14 Why, we have heard him say that Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this Place and change the customs handed down to us by Moses!"
15 Then all who were seated in the Sanhedrin fixed their eyes on him, and saw that his face shone like the face of an angel.

- 2 7 SAID the high priest, "Is this true?" "Listen, brothers and fathers," said Stephen. "The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was still in Mesopotamia, before ever he stayed in Haran, and said to him, 'Leave your land and your countrymen and come to whatever † land I show you.' Then he left the land of the Chaldeans † Omitting [τῇν].

and stayed in Haran. From Haran God shifted him, after 5 his father's death, to this land which you now inhabit. But he did not give him any inheritance in it, not even a foot of the land. All he did was to promise he would give it as a possession to him and to his offspring after him (he 6 at the time being childless). What God said was this:
'His offspring will sojourn in a foreign land, where they will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.
 7 But,' said God, 'I will pass sentence on the nation that has made them slaves, and then they will get away to* 8 worship me in this Place.' God also gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, 9 whom he circumcised on the eighth day, Isaac was the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs. Out of jealousy the patriarchs sold Joseph into Egypt; but God 10 was with him, rescuing him from all his troubles and allowing him to find favour for his wisdom with Pharaoh king of Egypt, who appointed him viceroy over Egypt and 11 over all his own household. Now a famine came over the whole of Egypt and Canaan, attended with great misery, so that our ancestors could not find provender.
 12 But, hearing there was food in Egypt, Jacob sent our an-13 cestors on their first visit to that country; at their second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and 14 Pharaoh was informed of Joseph's lineage. Then Joseph sent for his father Jacob and all his kinsfolk, amounting 15 to seventy-five souls; and Jacob went south to Egypt.
 16 When he and our ancestors died, they were carried across to Shechem and laid in the tomb which Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in 17 Shechem. As the time approached for the promise God 18 had made to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, till another king arose to rule Egypt who knew 19 nothing of Joseph. He took a cunning method with our race; he oppressed our ancestors by forcing them to expose 20 their infants, to prevent them from surviving. It was at this period that Moses was born, a divinely beautiful child.
 For three months he was brought up in his father's house;
 21 then he was exposed, but Pharaoh's daughter adopted him 22 and brought him up as her own son. So Moses was educated in all the culture of the Egyptians; he was a strong 23 man in speech and action. When he had completed his fortieth year, it occurred to him to visit his brothers, the 24 sons of Israel. He saw one of them being badly treated,

* The 'I' is emphatic. When the New Testament is read aloud, as it was originally meant to be, such stresses can be brought out. They often interpret the inner meaning of the text.

so he defended him, struck down the Egyptian, and thus 25 avenged the man who had been wronged. (He thought his brothers would understand God was going to bring them deliverance by means of him, but they did not under-26 stand.) Next day he came upon two of them fighting and tried to pacify them. "You are brothers!" he said, "why 27 injure one another?" But the man who was injuring his neighbour pushed him aside. "Who made you ruler and 28 umpire over us?" he asked. "Do you want to kill me, as 29 you killed the Egyptian yesterday?" At that Moses fled;
he became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he had 30 two sons born to him. At the close of forty years an angel [of the Lord] appeared to him in the flames of a burning 31 thorn-bush, in the desert of mount Sinai. When Moses saw this, he marvelled at the sight; and as he went up 32 to look at it, the voice of the Lord said, 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.' Moses was so terrified that he did not dare to look at the 33 bush. But the Lord said to him, 'Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is sacred ground.
34 I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt,
I have heard their groans, and I have come down to rescue 35 them. Come now, I will send you back to Egypt.' The Moses they refused, when they said, 'Who made you ruler and umpire?'—that was the very man whom God sent to rule and to redeem them, by aid of the angel who had 36 appeared to him in the bush. He it was who led them forth, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, 37 at the Red Sea, and in the desert during forty years. (This was the Moses who told the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brotherhood, as he 38 raised me.') This was the man who at the assembly in the desert intervened between the angel who spoke to him on mount Sinai and our fathers; he received living Words 39 to be given to us. But our fathers would not submit to him; they pushed him aside and hankered secretly after 40 Egypt. They told Aaron, 'Make gods that will march in front of us! As for this Moses who led us out of Egypt, 41 we don't know what has happened to him!' They actually made a calf in those days, offered sacrifice to this idol, and grew festive over what their own hands had manufactured.
42 So God turned from them, abandoning them to the worship of the starry Host—as it is written in the book of the prophets, Did you offer me victims and sacrifices during 43 the forty years in the desert, O house of Israel? No, it was the tent of Moloch and the star-symbol of Rephan your god that you carried, figures that you manufactured for worship. So now I will transport you beyond Babylon!

44 In the desert our fathers had the tent of witness as 45 arranged by Him who told Moses to make it after the pattern he had seen. It was passed on and borne in by our fathers as with Joshua they took possession of the territory of the nations whom God drove out before our fathers. So it remained down to the days of David.
 46 He found favour with God and asked permission to devise 47 a dwelling for the God of Jacob. It was Solomon, how-48 ever, who built him a house. And yet the most High does not dwell in houses made by hands. As the prophet says,

49 *Heaven is my throne, the earth is a footstool for my feet!
 What house would you build me? saith the Lord.
 On what spot could I settle?*

50 Did not my hand make all this?

51 Stiff-necked, uncircumcised in heart and ear, you are always resisting the holy Spirit! As with your fathers, 52 so with you! Which of the prophets did your fathers fail to persecute? They killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Just One. And here you have 53 betrayed him, murdered him!—you who got the Law that angels transmitted, and have not obeyed it!"

54 When they heard this, they were furious and gnashed 55 their teeth at him. He, full of the holy Spirit, gazed up at heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing 56 at God's right hand. "Look," he said, "I see heaven open 57 and the Son of man standing at God's right hand!" With a loud shriek they shut their ears and rushed at him like one 58 man. Putting him outside the city, they proceeded to stone him (the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a youth 59 called Saul). So they stoned Stephen, who called on the Lord, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" Then he 60 knelt down and cried aloud, "Lord, let not this sin stand against them!" With these words he slept the sleep of 8 death. (Saul quite approved of his murder.)

That day a severe persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and everyone, with the exception of the apostles, was scattered over Judaea and Samaria.

2 Devout men buried Stephen and made loud lamentation 3 over him, but Saul made havoc of the church by entering one house after another, dragging off men and women, and consigning them to prison.

4 Now those who were scattered went through the land 5 preaching the gospel. Philip travelled down to a town in 6 Samaria, where he preached Christ to the people. And the crowds attended like one man to what was said by Philip, listening to him and watching the miracles he performed.

7 For unclean spirits came screaming and shrieking out of many who had been possessed, and many paralytics and 8 lame people were healed. So there was great rejoicing in that 9 town. Now for some time previous a man called Simon had been practising magic arts in the town, to the utter astonishment of the Samaritan nation; he made himself 10 out to be a great person, and all sorts and conditions of people attached themselves to him, declaring he was that 11 Power of God which is known as 'the Great Power.' They attached themselves to him because he had dazzled them 12 with his skill in magic for a considerable time. But when they believed Philip, who preached the gospel of the Reign of God and the name of Jesus, they had themselves bap-13 tized, both men and women; indeed Simon himself believed, and after his baptism kept close to Philip, utterly astonished to see the signs and striking miracles which were taking place.

14 When the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they despatched Peter and John, 15 who came down and prayed that the Samaritans might receive the holy Spirit. (As yet it had not fallen upon 16 any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then they laid their hands on them, 17 and they received the holy Spirit. Now Simon noticed that the holy Spirit was conferred by the laying on of the 18 apostles' hands; so he brought them money, saying, "Let 19 me share this power too, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the holy Spirit." Peter said to 20 him, "Death to you and your money, for dreaming you could buy the gift of God! You come in for no share or lot 21 in this religion. Your heart is all wrong in the sight of God. So repent of this wickedness of yours, and ask God 22 whether you cannot be forgiven for your heart's purpose. For I see you are a bitter poison and a pack of evil." 23 Simon replied, "Beseech the Lord for me! Pray that nothing you have said may befall me!"

25 After bearing their testimony to the word of the Lord and preaching it, the apostles went back to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel to a number of the Samaritan 26 villages; but an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go south, along the road from Jerusalem to Gaza" (the 27 desert-route). So he got up and went on his way. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a high official of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians (he was her chief treasurer), 28 who had come to Jerusalem for worship and was on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot, reading the 29 prophet Isaiah. The Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join 30 that chariot." When Philip ran up, he heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. "Do you really understand * what you 31 are reading?" he asked. "Why, how can I possibly understand it," said the eunuch, "unless some one puts me on the right track?" And he begged Philip to get up and sit 32 beside him. Now the passage of scripture which he was reading was as follows:—

he was led like a sheep to be slaughtered, and as a lamb is dumb before the shearer, so he opens not his lips.

33 *By humbling himself he had his doom removed.
 Who can tell his family?*

For his life is cut off from the earth.

34 So the eunuch said to Philip, "Pray, who is the prophet 35 speaking about? Is it himself or someone else?" Then Philip opened his lips, and starting from this scripture 36 preached the gospel of Jesus to him. As they travelled on, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Here is 38 water! What is to prevent me being baptized?" So he ordered the chariot to stop. Both of them stepped into the 39 water, and Philip baptized the eunuch. When they came up from the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch lost sight of him. He went on his 40 way rejoicing, while Philip found himself at Azotus, where he passed on, preaching the gospel in every town, till he reached Caesarea.

9 MEANWHILE Saul still breathed threats of murder against the disciples of the Lord. He went to the high 2 priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus empowering him to put any man or woman in chains whom he could find belonging to the Way, and 3 bring them to Jerusalem. As he neared Damascus in the course of his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed 4 round him; he dropped to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" 5 "Who are you?" † he asked. "I am Jesus," he said, "and 6 you persecute me. Get up and go into the city. There 7 you will be told what you have to do." His fellow-travellers stood speechless, for they heard the voice but they 8 could not see anyone. Saul got up from the ground, but though his eyes were open he could see nothing; so they

- 9 took his hand and led him to Damascus. For three days he remained sightless, he neither ate nor drank.
- 10 Now there was a disciple called Ananias in Damascus.
- 11 The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He said, "I am here, Lord." And the Lord said to him, "Go away to the street called 'The Straight Street,' and ask at the house of Judas for a man of Tarsus called Saul. He is
- 12 praying at this very moment, and he has seen a man called Ananias enter and lay his hands upon him to bring back
- 13 his sight." "But, Lord," Ananias answered, "many people have told me about all the mischief this man has done to
- 14 thy saints at Jerusalem! And in this city too he has authority from the high priests to put anyone in chains
- 15 who invokes thy Name!" But the Lord said to him, "Go; I have chosen him to be the means of bringing my Name
- 16 before the Gentiles and their kings as well as before the sons of Israel. I will show him all he has to suffer for the
- 17 sake of my Name." So Ananias went off and entered the house, laying his hands on him with these words, "Saul, my brother, I have been sent by the Lord, by Jesus who
- 18 appeared to you on the road, to let you regain your sight and be filled with the holy Spirit." In a moment something like scales fell from his eyes, he regained his sight,
- 19 got up and was baptized. Then he took some food and felt strong again. For several days he stayed at Damascus
- 20 with the disciples. He lost no time in preaching throughout the synagogues that Jesus was the Son of God—to the
- 21 amazement of all his hearers, who said, "Is this not the man who in Jerusalem harried those who invoke this Name, the man who came here for the express purpose of carrying them all in chains to the high priests?"
- 22 Saul became more and more vigorous. He put the Jewish residents in Damascus to confusion by his proof that
- 23 Jesus was the Christ; and the Jews, after a number of
- 24 days had elapsed, conspired to make away with him. But their plot came to the ears of Saul, and, although they kept
- 25 watch on the gates day and night in order to make away with him, his disciples managed one night to let him down
- 26 over the wall by lowering him in a basket. He got to Jerusalem and tried to join the disciples, but they were all
- 27 afraid of him, unable to believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, got hold of him and brought him to the
- 28 apostles. To them he related how he had seen the Lord upon the road, how He had spoken to him, and how he
- 29 had spoken freely in the name of Jesus at Damascus. He then went in and out among them at Jerusalem, speaking freely in the name of the Lord; he also held conversations and debates with the Hellenists. But when the brothers learned that the Hellenists were attempting to make 30 away with him, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

31 Now, all over Judaea, Galilee, and Samaria, the church enjoyed peace; it was consolidated, inspired by reverence for the Lord and by its invocation of the holy Spirit, and 32 so increased in numbers. Peter moved here and there among them all, and it happened that in the course of his tours he came down to visit the saints who stayed at 33 Lydda. There he found a man called Æneas who had 34 been bed-ridden for eight years with paralysis. "Æneas," said Peter, "Jesus the Christ cures you! Get up and make 35 your bed!" He got up at once. And all the inhabitants of Lydda and Saron saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36 At Joppa there was a disciple called Tabitha (which may be translated Dorcas, or 'Gazelle'), a woman whose life 37 was full of good actions and of charitable practices. She happened to take ill and die at this time, and after wash-38 ing her body they laid it in an upper room. When the disciples heard that Peter was at Lydda (for Joppa is not far from Lydda), they sent two men to beg him to "Come 39 on to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they took him up to the room, where all the widows stood beside him crying as they showed him the garments and dresses that Dorcas used to 40 make when she was with them. Peter put them all outside; then he knelt down and prayed, and turning to the body said, "Tabitha, rise." She opened her eyes, and on 41 seeing Peter she sat up. Then he gave her his hand, raised her, and, after calling the saints and the widows he pre-42 sented her to them alive. This became known all over Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 In Joppa Peter stayed for some time, at the house of 10 Simon a tanner. Now in Caesarea there was a man called Cornelius, a captain in the Italian regiment, 2 a religious man, who revered God with all his household, who was liberal in his alms to the People, and who 3 constantly prayed to God. About three o'clock in the afternoon he distinctly saw in a vision an angel of God entering 4 and saying to him, "Cornelius." He stared at the angel in terror, saying, "What is it?" He replied, "Your prayers and your alms have risen before God as a sacrifice to be 5 remembered. You must now send some men to Joppa for 6 a certain Simon who is surnamed Peter; he is staying with 7 Simon a tanner, whose house stands by the sea." When the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his menservants and a religiously minded soldier who be-

8 longed to his personal retinue, and after describing all the 9 vision to them, he sent them to Joppa. Next day they were still on the road and not far from the town, when Peter went up to the roof of the house about noon to pray.
10 He became very hungry and longed for some food. But as they were getting the meal ready, a trance came over 11 him. He saw heaven open and a vessel coming down, like a huge sheet lowered by the four corners to the earth, 12 which contained all quadrupeds and creeping things of the 13 earth and wild birds. A voice came to him, "Rise, Peter, 14 kill and eat." But Peter said, "No, no, my Lord; I have 15 never eaten anything common or unclean." A second time the voice came back to him, "What God has cleansed, you 16 must not regard as common." This happened three times; 17 then the vessel was at once raised to heaven. Peter was quite at a loss to know the meaning of the vision he had seen; but just then, the messengers of Cornelius, who had made inquiries for the house of Simon, stood at the door 18 and called out to ask if Simon, surnamed Peter, was stay-19 ing there. So the Spirit said to Peter, who was pondering over the vision, "There are three men looking for you!
20 Come, get up and go down, and have no hesitation about accompanying them, for it is I who have sent them." 21 Then Peter went down to the men, saying, "I am the man you are looking for. What is your reason for coming?" 22 They said, "Cornelius, a captain, a good man who reverences God and enjoys a good reputation among the whole Jewish nation, was instructed by a holy angel to send for you to his house and to listen to what you had to say." 23 So he invited them in and entertained them. Next day he was up and off with them, accompanied by some of the 24 brothers from Joppa; and on the next day he reached 25 Caesarea. Peter was just going into the house when Cornelius met him, fell at his feet, and worshipped him; 26 but Peter raised him, saying, "Get up, I am only a man 27 myself." Then talking to him he entered the house, to 28 find a large company assembled. (For Cornelius had been expecting him and had called his kinsfolk and intimate 28 friends together.)* To them Peter said, "You know yourselves it is illegal for a Jew to join or accost anyone belonging to another nation; but God has shown me that I must 29 not call any man common or unclean, and so I have come without any demur when I was sent for. Now I want to 30 know why you sent for me?" "Three days ago," said Cornelius, "at this very hour I was praying in my house at three o'clock in the afternoon, when a man stood before

31 me in shining dress, saying, 'Cornelius, your prayer has 32 been heard, your alms are remembered by God. You must send to Joppa and summon Simon who is surnamed Peter; he is staying in the house of Simon a tanner beside the 33 sea.' So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Well now, here we are all present before God to listen to what the Lord has commanded you to 34 say." Then Peter opened his lips and said, "I see quite 35 plainly that God has no favourites, but that he who reverences Him and lives a good life in any nation is wel-36 comed by Him. You know the message he sent to the sons of Israel when he preached the gospel of peace by Jesus 37 Christ (who is Lord of all); you know how it spread over the whole of Judaea, starting from Galilee after the bap-38 tism preached by John—how God consecrated Jesus of Nazaret with the holy Spirit and power, and how he went about doing good and curing all who were harassed by the 39 devil; for God was with him. As for what he did in the land of the Jews and of Jerusalem, we can testify to that.
40 They slew him by hanging him on a gibbet, but God raised 41 him on the third day, and allowed him to be seen not by all the People but by witnesses whom God had previously 42 selected, by us who ate and drank with him after his resurrection from the dead, when he enjoined us to preach to the People, testifying that this was he whom God has 43 appointed to be judge of the living and of the dead. All the prophets testify that everyone who believes in him is 44 to receive remission of sins through his Name." While Peter was still speaking, the holy Spirit fell upon all who 45 listened to what he said. Now the Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were amazed that the gift of the holy Spirit had actually been poured out on the Gentiles—46 for they heard them speak with 'tongues' and magnify God.
47 At this Peter asked, "Can any one refuse water for the baptism of these people—people who have received the 48 holy Spirit just as we ourselves have?" And he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they begged him to remain for some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers in Judaea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.
2 So when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the circumcision 3 party fell foul of him. "You went into the houses of the uncircumcised," they said, "and you ate with them!" 4 Then Peter proceeded to put the facts before them.
5 "I was in the town of Joppa at prayer," he said, "and in a trance I saw a vision—a vessel coming down like a huge sheet lowered from heaven by the four corners. It came 6 down to me, and when I looked steadily at it, I noted the 7 quadrupeds of the earth, the wild beasts, the creeping 8 things and the wild birds. Also I heard a voice saying to 9 me, 'Rise, Peter, kill and eat.' I said, 'No, no, my Lord;* 10 nothing common or unclean has ever passed my lips.' 11 But a voice answered me for the second time out of 12 heaven, 'What God has cleansed, you must not regard as 13 common.' This happened three times, and then the whole 14 thing was drawn back into heaven. At that very moment 15 three men reached the house where I was living, sent to me 16 from Caesarea. The Spirit told me to have no hesitation in 17 accompanying them; these six brothers went with me as 18 well, and we entered the man's house. He related to us 19 how he had seen the angel standing in his house and say-20 ing, 'Send to Joppa for Simon who is surnamed Peter; 21 he will tell you how you and all your household are to be 22 saved.' Now just as I began to speak, the holy Spirit fell 23 upon them as upon us at the beginning; and I remem-24 bered the saying of the Lord, that 'John baptized with 25 water, but you shall be baptized with the holy Spirit.' 26 Well then, if God has given them exactly the same gift as 27 he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who 28 was I—how could I try—to thwart God?" On hearing this 29 they desisted and glorified God, saying, "So God has actu-30 ally allowed the Gentiles to repent and live!"

31 Now those who had been scattered by the trouble which 32 arose over Stephen made their way as far as Phœnicia and 33 Cyprus and Antioch, but they preached the word to none 34 except Jews. Some of them, however, were Cypriotes and 35 Cyrenians, who on reaching Antioch told the Greeks † also 36 the gospel of the Lord Jesus; the strong hand of the 37 Lord was with them, and a large number believed and 38 turned to the Lord. The news of this reached the church 39 in Jerusalem, and they despatched Barnabas to Antioch.
 40 When he came and saw the grace of God he rejoiced, and 41 encouraged them all to hold by the Lord with heartfelt 42 purpose (for he was a good man, full of the holy Spirit and 43 faith). Considerable numbers of people were brought in 44 for the Lord. So Barnabas went off to Tarsus to look for 45 Saul, and on finding him he brought him to Antioch, where 46 for a whole year they were guests of the church and taught 47 considerable numbers. It was at Antioch too that the 48 disciples were originally called "Christians."

49 During these days some prophets came down from Jeru-

* Here, as in x. 14, κύριε is translated. Peter was a Christian, and the connexion of the Voice with the Spirit is evident from the context.

28 salem to Antioch, one of whom, named Agabus, showed by the Spirit that a severe famine was about to visit the whole world (the famine which occurred in the reign of 29 Claudius). So the disciples put aside money, as each of them was able to afford it, for a contribution to be sent to 30 the brothers in Judaea. This they carried out, sending their contribution to the presbyters by Barnabas and Saul.

12 It was about that time that king Herod laid hands 2 of violence on some members of the church. James 3 the brother of John he slew with the sword, and when he saw this pleased the Jews, he went on to seize Peter.
4 (This was during the days of unleavened bread.) After arresting him he put him in prison, handing him over to a guard of sixteen soldiers, with the intention of producing 5 him to the People after the passover. So Peter was closely guarded in prison, while earnest prayer for him was offered 6 to God by the church. The very night before Herod meant to have him produced, Peter lay asleep between two soldiers; he was fastened by two chains, and sentries in 7 front of the door guarded the prison. But an angel of the Lord flashed on him, and a light shone in the cell; striking Peter on the side he woke him, saying, "Quick, get up!" 8 The fetters dropped from his hands, and the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." He did so.
Then said the angel, "Put on your coat and follow me." 9 And he followed him out, not realizing that what the angel did was real, but imagining that he saw a vision.
10 When they had passed the first guard and the second they came to the iron gate leading into the city, which opened to them of its own accord; they passed out, and after they had gone through one street, the angel immediately left 11 him. Then Peter came to his senses and said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the 12 Jewish people were anticipating." When he grasped the situation, he went to the house of Mary; the mother of John who was surnamed Mark, where a number had met 13 for prayer. When he knocked at the door of the porch, 14 a maidservant called Rhoda came to answer it; but as soon as she recognized Peter's voice, instead of opening the door she ran inside from sheer joy and announced that 15 Peter was standing in front of the porch. "You are mad," they said. But she insisted it was true. "It is his angel," 16 they said. But Peter kept on knocking, and when they 17 opened the door they were amazed to see him. He beckoned to them to keep quiet and then described to them how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Report this to James," he said, "and to the brothers." And off he 18 went to another place. Now when day broke there was a great commotion among the soldiers over what could have 19 become of Peter. Herod made inquiries for him but could not find him; so, after cross-examining the guards, he ordered them off to death. He then went down from 20 Judaea to Caesarea, where he spent some time. As there was a bitter feud between him and the inhabitants of Tyre and Sidon, they waited on him unanimously and after conciliating the royal chamberlain Blastus they made overtures for peace, as their country depended for its food-21 supply upon the royal territory. On a stated day Herod arrayed himself in royal robes, took his seat on the dais, 22 and proceeded to harangue them. The populace shouted, 23 "It is a god's voice, not a man's!" and in a moment an angel of the Lord struck him, because he had not given due glory to God; he was eaten up by worms and so expired.

24 The word of God spread and multiplied.
25 After fulfilling their commission, Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, bringing with them John who is surnamed Mark.

13 Now in the local church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Symeon (called Niger) and Lucius the Cyrenian, besides Manaen (a foster-2 brother of Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. As they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the holy Spirit said, "Come! set me apart Barnabas and Saul for the work to 3 which I have called them." Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and let them go.
4 Sent out thus by the holy Spirit, they went down to 5 Seleucia and from there they sailed to Cyprus. On reaching Salamis they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish 6 synagogues, with John as their assistant. They covered the whole island as far as Paphos, where they fell in with a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet called Bar-Jesus; 7 he belonged to the suite of the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man who called for Barnabas and Saul and 8 demanded to hear the word of God. But the sorcerer Elymas (for that is the translation of his name) tried to 9 divert the proconsul from the faith. So Saul (who is also called Paul), filled with the holy Spirit, looked steadily 10 at him and said, "You son of the devil, you enemy of all good, full of all craft and all cunning, will you never stop 11 diverting the straight paths of the Lord? See here, the Lord's hand will fall on you, and you will be blind, unable for a time to see the sun." In a moment a dark mist fell upon him, and he groped about for someone to take him 12 by the hand. Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had happened; he was astounded at the doctrine of the Lord.

- 13 Setting sail from Paphos, Paul and his companions 14 reached Perga in Pamphylia; John left them and went 15 back to Jerusalem, but they passed on from Perga and 16 arrived at Pisidian Antioch. On the sabbath they went 17 into the synagogue and sat down; and, after the reading 18 of the Law and the prophets, the presidents of the syna-19 gogue sent to tell them, "Brothers, if you have any word 20 of counsel for the people, say it." So Paul stood up and 21 motioning with his hand said, "Listen, men of Israel and 22 you who reverence God. The God of this People Israel 23 chose our fathers; he multiplied the people as they 24 sojourned in the land of Egypt and with arm uplifted led 25 them out of it. For about forty years he bore with them 26 in the desert, and after destroying seven nations in the 27 land of Canaan he gave them their land as an inheritance 28 for about four hundred and fifty years. After that he gave 29 them judges, down to the prophet Samuel. Then it was 30 that they begged for a king, and God gave them forty 31 years of Saul, the son of Kish, who belonged to the tribe 32 of Benjamin. After deposing him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he bore this testimony that 'In 23 David, the son of Jessai, I have found a man after my 24 own heart, who will obey all my will.' From his offspring 25 God brought to Israel, as he had promised, a saviour in 26 Jesus, before whose coming John had already preached a 27 baptism of repentance for all the people of Israel. And as 28 John was closing his career he said, 'What do you take me 29 for? I am not He; no, he is coming after me, and I am not 30 fit to untie the sandals on his feet!' Brothers, sons of 31 Abraham's race and all among you who reverence God, 32 the message of this salvation has been sent to us. The inhabitants of Jerusalem and their rulers, by condemning him * in their ignorance, fulfilled the words of the prophets 28 which are read every sabbath; though they could find him 29 guilty of no crime that deserved death they begged Pilate 30 to have him put to death, and, after carrying out all that 31 had been predicted of him in scripture, they lowered him 32 from the gibbet and laid him in a tomb. But God raised him from the dead. For many days he was seen by those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem; they are now his witnesses to the People. So we now preach to you the glad news that the promise made to the

* The Greek text is difficult. I prefer, as the least radical treatment, Lachmann's proposal to read κρίναντες immediately after ἀγνοήσαντες καὶ which at anyrate yields a fair sense.

33 fathers has been fulfilled by God for us their children, when he raised Jesus. As it is written in the second psalm,

thou art my son,

to-day have I become thy father.

34 And as a proof that he has raised him from the dead, never to return to decay, he has said this: I will give you the 35 holiness of David that fails not. Hence in another psalm he says, thou wilt not let thy holy One suffer decay.

36 Of course David, after serving God's purpose in his own generation, died and was laid beside his fathers; he suffered decay, but He whom God raised did not suffer decay.
37 So you must understand, my brothers, that remission of 38 sins is proclaimed to you through him, and that by him 39 everyone who believes is absolved from all that the law of 40 Moses never could absolve you from. Beware then in case the prophetic saying applies to you:

41 Look, you disdainful folk, wonder at this and perish— for in your days I do a deed, a deed you will never believe, not though one were to explain it to you."

42 As Paul and Barnabas went out, the people begged to have 43 all this repeated to them on the following sabbath. After the synagogue broke up, a number of the Jews and the devout proselytes followed them; Paul and Barnabas talked to them and encouraged them to hold by the grace of God.
44 And on the next sabbath nearly all the town gathered to 45 hear the word of the Lord. But when the Jews saw the crowds they were filled with jealousy; they began to contradict what Paul said and to abuse him. So Paul and 46 Barnabas spoke out fearlessly. "The word of God," they said, "had to be spoken to you in the first instance; but as you push it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, well, here we turn to the Gentiles! For these are 47 the Lord's orders to us:

I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the end of the earth."

48 When the Gentiles heard this they rejoiced and glorified the word of the Lord and believed, that is, all who had 49 been ordained to eternal life; and the word of the Lord 50 went far and wide over the whole country. But the Jews incited the devout women of high rank and the leading men in the town, who stirred up persecution against Paul 51 and Barnabas and drove them out of their territory. They shook the dust off their feet as a protest and went to 52 Iconium. As for the disciples, they were filled with joy and the holy Spirit.

- 14 At Iconium the same thing happened. They went into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way that a great body both of Jews and Greeks believed.
- 3 Here they spent a considerable time, speaking fearlessly about the Lord, who attested the word of his grace by allowing signs and wonders to be performed by them.* But the refractory Jews stirred up and exasperated the feeling of the
- 4 Gentiles against the brothers. The populace of the town was divided; some sided with the Jews, some with the apostles.
- 5 But, when the Gentiles and Jews along with their rulers
- 6 made a hostile movement to insult and stone them, the apostles grasped the situation and escaped to the Lycaonian towns of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding
- 7 country; there they continued to preach the gospel.
- 8 At Lystra there was a man sitting, who was powerless in his feet, a lame man unable to walk ever since he was
- 9 born. He heard Paul speaking, and Paul, gazing steadily at him and noticing that he had faith enough to make him
- 10 better, said in a loud voice, "Stand erect on your feet."
- 11 Up he jumped and began to walk. Now when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human
- 12 form!" Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul Hermes,
- 13 since he was the chief spokesman. Indeed the priest of the temple of Zeus in front of the town brought oxen and garlands to the gates, intending to offer sacrifice along
- 14 with the crowds. But when the apostles, Paul and Barnabas, heard this they rent their clothes and sprang out
- 15 among the crowd, shouting, "Men, what is this you are doing? We are but human, with natures like your own! The gospel we are preaching to you is to turn from such futile ways to the living God who made the heaven, the
- 16 earth, the sea, and all that in them is. In bygone ages
- 17 he allowed all nations to go their own ways, though as the bountiful Giver he did not leave himself without a witness, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, giving
- 18 you food and joy to your heart's content." Even by saying this it was all they could do to keep the crowds from sacrificing to them.
- 19 But Jews from Antioch and Iconium arrived, who won over the crowds, and after pelting Paul with stones they dragged him outside the town, thinking he was dead.
- 20 However, as the disciples gathered round him, he got up and went into the town.
- 21 Next day he went off with Barnabas to Derbe, and after

- preaching the gospel to that town and making a number of disciples, they turned back to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to hold by the faith, and telling them that "we have to get into the Realm of God through many a trouble."
- They chose presbyters for them in every church, and with prayer and fasting entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had believed. Then they came through Pisidia to Pamphylia, and after speaking the word of the Lord in Perga they went down to Attaleia; thence they sailed for Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. On their arrival they gathered the church together and reported how God had been with them, what he had done, and how he had opened a door into faith for the Gentiles.
- They spent a considerable time with the disciples there.
- 15 But certain individuals came down from Jerusalem and taught the brothers that "unless you get circumcised after the custom of Moses you cannot be saved." As a sharp dispute and controversy sprang up between them and Paul and Barnabas, it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas, along with some others of their number, should go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and presbyters at Jerusalem about this question. The church sped them on their journey, and they passed through both Phœnicia and Syria informing the brothers, to the great joy of all, that the Gentiles were turning to God. On arriving at Jerusalem they were received by the church, the apostles and the presbyters, and they reported how God had been with them and what he had done. But some of the believers who belonged to the Pharisaic party got up and said, "Gentiles must be circumcised and told to observe the law of Moses."
- The apostles and the presbyters met to investigate this question, and a keen controversy sprang up; but Peter rose and said to them, "Brothers, you are well aware that from the earliest days God chose that of you all I should be the one by whom the Gentiles were to hear the word of the gospel and believe it. The God who reads the hearts of all attested this by giving them the holy Spirit just as he gave it to us; in cleansing their hearts by faith he made not the slightest distinction between us and them. Well now, why are you trying * to impose a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we ourselves could bear? No, it is by the grace of the Lord Jesus that we believe and are saved, in the same way as they are." So the whole meeting was quieted and listened to Barnabas and Paul recounting the signs and wonders 13 God had performed by them among the Gentiles. When they had finished speaking, James spoke. "Brothers," he 14 said, "listen to me. Symeon has explained how it was God's original concern to secure a People from among the 15 Gentiles to bear his Name. This agrees with the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 After this I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent, its ruins I will rebuild and erect it anew, 17 that the rest of men may seek for the Lord, even all the Gentiles who are called by my name, 18 saith the Lord, who makes this known from of old. Hence, 19 in my opinion, we ought not to put fresh difficulties in the way of those who are turning to God from among the 20 Gentiles, but write them injunctions to abstain from whatever is contaminated by idols, from sexual vice, from the flesh of animals that have been strangled, and from tasting 21 blood; for Moses has had his preachers from the earliest ages in every town, where he is read aloud in the syna-22 gogues every sabbath." Then the apostles and the presbyters, together with the whole church, decided to select some of their number and send them with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. The men selected were Judas (called Bar-Sabbas) and Silas, prominent members of the brother-23 hood. They conveyed the following letter. "The apostles and the presbyters of the brotherhood to the brothers who belong to the Gentiles throughout Antioch and Syria and 24 Cilicia: greeting. Having learned that some of our number,* quite unauthorized by us, have unsettled you 25 with their teaching and upset your souls, we have decided unanimously to select some of our number and send them 26 to you along with our beloved Paul and Barnabas who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus 27 Christ. We therefore send Judas and Silas with the following message, which they will also give to you orally.

 28 The holy Spirit and we have decided not to impose any extra burden on you, apart from these essential require-29 ments: abstain from food that has been offered to idols, from tasting blood, from the flesh of animals that have been strangled, and from sexual vice. Keep clear of all 30 this and you will prosper. Goodbye." When the messengers were despatched, they went down to Antioch and after gathering the whole body they handed them the 31 letter. On reading it the people rejoiced at the encourage-32 ment it brought; and as Judas and Silas were themselves prophets, they encouraged and strengthened the brothers

33 with many a counsel. Then after some time had passed the brothers let them go with a greeting of peace to those who 35 had sent them. Paul and Barnabas, however, stayed on in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord along with a number of others.

36 Some days later, Paul said to Barnabas, "Come and let us go back to visit the brothers in every town where we have proclaimed the word of the Lord. Let us see how 37 they are doing." But while Barnabas wanted to take 38 John (who was called Mark) along with them, Paul held they should not take a man with them who had deserted them in Pamphylia, instead of accompanying them on 39 active service. So in irritation they parted company, Barnabas taking Mark with him and sailing for Cyprus, while 40 Paul selected Silas and went off, commended by the 41 brothers to the grace of the Lord. He made his way through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 He also came down to Derbe and Lystra, where there was a disciple called Timotheus, the son of a believ-2 ing Jewess and a Greek father. He had a good reputation 3 among the brothers at Lystra and Iconium; so, as Paul wished him to go abroad with him, he took and circumcised him on account of the local Jews, all of whom knew his 4 father had been a Greek. As they travelled on from town to town, they handed over to the people the resolutions which the apostles and the presbyters in Jerusalem had 5 decided were to be obeyed; and the churches were strengthened in the faith and increased in numbers day 6 by day. They crossed Phrygia and the country of Galatia, the holy Spirit having stopped them from preaching the 7 word in Asia; when they got as far as Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow 8 them, and so they passed Mysia by and went down to 9 Troas. A vision appeared to Paul by night, the vision of a Macedonian standing and appealing to him with the 10 words, "Cross to Macedonia and help us." As soon as he saw the vision, we made efforts to start for Macedonia, inferring that God had called us to preach the gospel to 11 them. Setting sail then from Troas we ran straight to 12 Samothrace and on the following day to Neapolis. We then came to the Roman colony of Philippi, which is the foremost town of the district of Macedonia. In this town 13 we spent some days. On the sabbath we went outside the gate to the bank of the river, where as usual there was a place of prayer; we sat down and talked to the women who 14 had gathered. Among the listeners there was a woman called Lydia, a dealer in purple who belonged to the town of Thyatira. She revered God, and the Lord opened 15 her heart to attend to what Paul said. When she was baptized, along with her household, she begged us, saying, "If you are convinced I am a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my house." She compelled us to come.

16 Now it happened as we went to the place of prayer that a slave-girl met us, possessed by a spirit of ventriloquism, and a source of great profit to her owners by her power

17 of fortune-telling. She followed Paul and the rest of us, shrieking, "These men are servants of the Most High God,

18 they proclaim to you the way of salvation!" She did this for a number of days. Then Paul turned in annoyance and told the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I order you

19 out of her!" And it left her that very moment. But when her owners saw their chance of profit was gone, they caught hold of Paul and Silas and dragged them before the magistrates in the forum. Bringing them before the praetors

20 they declared, "These fellows are Jews who are making an agitation in our town; they are proclaiming customs which as Romans we are not allowed to accept or observe!"

21 The crowd also joined in the attack upon them, while the praetors, after having them stripped and after ordering

22 them to be flogged with rods, had many lashes inflicted on them and put them into prison, charging the jailer to

23 keep them safe. On receiving so strict a charge, he put them into the inner prison and secured their feet in the 24 stocks. But about midnight, as Paul and Silas were praying and singing to God, while the prisoners listened,

25 all of a sudden there was a great earthquake which shook the very foundations of the prison; the doors all flew open in an instant and the fetters of all the prisoners were un-

26 fastened. When the jailer started from his sleep and saw the prison-doors open, he drew his sword and was on the point of killing himself, supposing the prisoners had made

27 their escape; but Paul shouted aloud, "Do not harm yourself, we are all here!" So calling for lights he rushed in,

28 fell in terror before Paul and Silas, and brought them out (after securing the other prisoners).* "Sirs," he said,

29 "what must I do to be saved?" "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ," they said, "and then you will be saved, you and 30 your household as well." And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all in his house. Then he took them

31 at that very hour of the night and washed their wounds and got baptized instantly, he and all his family. He took 32 them up to his house and put food before them, overjoyed like all his household at having believed in God. When day broke, the praetors sent the lictors with the message, 36 "Release these men." The jailer repeated this to Paul.

"The praetors," he said, "have sent to release you. So 37 come out and go in peace?" But Paul replied, "They flogged us in public and without a trial, flogged Roman citizens!
They put us in prison, and now they are going to get rid of us secretly! No indeed! Let them come here them-38 selves and take us out!" The lictors reported this to the praetors, who, on hearing the men were Roman citizens, 39 became alarmed; they went to appease them and after taking them out of prison begged them to leave the town.
40 So they left the prison and went to Lydia's house, where they saw the brothers and encouraged them; then they departed.

17 Travelling on through Amphipolis and Apollonia they reached Thessalonica. Here there was a Jewish 2 synagogue, and Paul as usual went in; for three sabbaths 3 he argued with them on the scriptures, explaining and quoting passages to prove that the messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead, and that "the Jesus I proclaim to 4 you is the messiah." Some were persuaded and threw in their lot with Paul and Silas, including a host of devout 5 Greeks and a large number of the leading women. But the Jews were aroused to jealousy; they got hold of some idle rascals to form a mob and set the town in an uproar; they 6 attacked Jason's house in the endeavour to bring them out before the populace, but as they failed to find Paul and Silas they haled Jason and some of the brothers before the politarchs, yelling, "These upsetters of the whole world 7 have come here too! Jason has welcomed them! They all violate the decrees of Caesar by declaring someone else 8 called Jesus is king." Both the crowd and the politarchs 9 were disturbed when they heard this; however, they let Jason and the others go, after binding them over to keep 10 the peace. Then the brothers at once sent off Paul and Silas by night to Berea. When they arrived there, they 11 betook themselves to the Jewish synagogue, where the people were more amenable than at Thessalonica; they were perfectly ready to receive the Word and made a daily study of the scriptures to see if it was really as Paul said.
12 Many of them believed, together with a large number of 13 prominent Greeks, both women and men. But when the Jews of Thessalonica heard that Paul was proclaiming the word of God at Berea as well, they came to create a dis-14 turbance and a riot among the crowds at Berea too. The brothers then sent off Paul at once on his way to the sea, while Silas and Timotheus remained where they were.
15 Paul's escort brought him as far as Athens and left with instructions that Silas and Timotheus were to join him as soon as possible.

- 16 While Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his soul was irritated at the sight of the idols that filled the city.
- 17 He argued in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout proselytes and also in the marketplace daily with those
- 18 who chanced to be present. Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also came across him. Some said, "Whatever does the fellow mean with his scraps of learning?" Others said, "He looks like a herald of foreign deities" (this was because he preached 'Jesus' and 'the
- 19 Resurrection'). Then taking him to the Areopagus they asked, "May we know what is this novel teaching of yours?
- 20 You talk of some things that sound strange to us; so we
- 21 want to know what they mean." (For all the Athenians and the foreign visitors to Athens occupied themselves with nothing else than repeating or listening to the latest
- 22 novelty.) So Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I observe at every turn that you
- 23 are a most religious people. Why, as I passed along and scanned your objects of worship, I actually came upon an altar with the inscription

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.

- Well, I proclaim to you what you worship in your ignorance.
- 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, he, as Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in shrines that
- 25 are made by human hands; he is not served by human hands as if he needed anything, for it is he who gives life
- 26 and breath and all things to all men. All nations he has created from a common origin, to dwell all over the earth, fixing their allotted periods and the boundaries of their
- 27 abodes, meaning them to seek for God on the chance of finding him in their groping for him. Though indeed he
- 28 is close to each one of us, for it is in him that we live and move and exist—as some of your own poets have said,
- 'We too belong to His race.'
- 29 Well, as the race of God, we ought not to imagine that the divine nature resembles gold or silver or stone, the product
- 30 of human art and invention. Such ages of ignorance God overlooked, but he now charges men that they are all
- 31 everywhere to repent, inasmuch as he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world justly by a man whom he has destined for this. And he has given proof of this to
- 32 all by raising him from the dead." But on hearing of a 'resurrection of dead men,' some sneered, while others said,
- 33 "We will hear you again on that subject." So Paul with-
- 34 drew from them. Some men, however, did join him and believe, including Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman called Damaris, and some others.

- 18 AFTER this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.
 2 There he came across a Jew called Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife Priscilla, as Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave 3 Rome. Paul accosted them, and as he belonged to the same trade he stayed with them and they all worked 4 together. (They were workers in leather by trade.) Every sabbath he argued in the synagogue, persuading both Jews 5 and Greeks. By the time Silas and Timotheus came south from Macedonia, Paul was engrossed in this preaching of the word, arguing to the Jews that the messiah was Jesus.
 6 But as they opposed and abused him, he shook out his garments in protest, saying, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am not responsible! After this I will go to the 7 Gentiles." Then he removed to the house of a devout proselyte called Titus Justus, which adjoined the syna-8 gogue. But Crispus the president of the synagogue believed in the Lord, as did all his household, and many of the 9 Corinthians listened, believed, and were baptized. And the Lord said to Paul in a vision by night, "Have no fear, speak 10 on and never stop, for I am with you, and no one shall attack and injure you; I have many people in this city." 11 So he settled there for a year and six months, teaching them the word of God.
 12 But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia the Jews without exception rose against Paul and brought him up be-13 fore the tribunal, crying, "This fellow incites men to 14 worship God contrary to the Law." Paul was just on the point of opening his lips to reply, when Gallio said to the Jews, "If it had been a misdemeanour or wicked crime, there would be some reason in me listening to you, O Jews 15 But as these are merely questions of words and persons and your own Law, you can attend to them for yourselves. I decline to adjudicate upon matters like that." 16 And he drove them from the tribunal. Then all [the 17 Greeks] caught hold of Sosthenes the president of the synagogue and beat him in front of the tribunal; but Gallio took no notice.
 18 After waiting on for a number of days Paul said goodbye to the brothers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. (As the latter was under a vow, 19 he had his head shaved at Cenchreæ.) When they reached Ephesus, Paul left them there. He went to the synagogue 20 and argued with the Jews, who asked him to stay for a 21 while. But he would not consent; he said goodbye to them, telling them, "I will come back to you, if it is the will of 22 God." Then, sailing from Ephesus, he reached Caesarea, went up to the capital to salute the church, and travelled 23 down to Antioch. After spending some time there he went off on a journey right through the country of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening the disciples.

 24 There came to Ephesus a Jew called Apollos, who was a native of Alexandria, a man of culture, strong in his 25 knowledge of the scriptures. He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord and he preached and taught about Jesus with ardour and accuracy, though all the baptism he 26 knew was that of John. In the synagogue he was very outspoken at first; but when Aquila and Priscilla listened to him, they took him home and explained more accurately 27 to him what the Way of God really meant. As he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers wrote and urged the disciples there to give him a welcome. And on his arrival he proved of great service to those who by God's grace had 28 believed, for he publicly refuted the Jews with might and main, showing from the scriptures that the messiah was Jesus.

19 It was when Apollos was in Corinth that Paul, after passing through the inland districts, came down to 2 Ephesus. There he found some disciples, whom he asked,
 "Did you receive the holy Spirit when you believed?"
 "No," they said, "we never even heard of its existence." 3 "Then," said he, "what were you baptized in?" "In John's 4 baptism," they replied. "John," said Paul, "baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in Him who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus." 5 When they heard this, they had themselves baptized in 6 the name of the Lord Jesus, and after Paul laid his hands on them the holy Spirit came upon them, they spoke with 7 'tongues' and prophesied. They numbered all together about twelve men.
 8 Then Paul entered the synagogue and for three months spoke out fearlessly, arguing and persuading people about 9 the Reign of God. But as some grew stubborn and disobedient, decrying the Way in presence of the multitude, he left them, withdrew the disciples, and continued his argument every day from eleven to four* in the lecture-10 room of Tyrannus. This went on for two years, so that all the inhabitants of Asia, Jews as well as Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.
 11 God also worked no ordinary miracles by means of Paul;

* The words ἀπὸ ὥρας πέμπτης ἕως δεκάτης (D, etc.) are probably original.

12 people even carried away towels or aprons he had used, and at their touch sick folk were freed from their diseases 13 and evil spirits came out of them. Some strolling Jewish exorcists also undertook to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure 14 you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches!" The seven sons 15 of Sceuas, a Jewish high priest, used to do this. But the evil spirit retorted, "Jesus I know and Paul I know, but 16 you—who are you?" And the man in whom the evil spirit resided leapt at them, overpowered them all, and belaboured them, till they rushed out of the house stripped 17 and wounded. This came to the ears of all the inhabitants of Ephesus, Jews as well as Greeks; awe fell on them all, 18 and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Many believers would also come to confess and disclose their magic 19 spells; and numbers who had practised magic arts collected their books and burned them in the presence of all. On adding up the value of them, it was found that they were worth two thousand pounds.

20 Thus did the word of the Lord increase and prevail mightily.

21 After these events Paul resolved in the Spirit to travel through Macedonia and Achaia on his way to Jerusalem.
"After I get there," he said, "I must also visit Rome." 22 So he despatched two of his assistants to Macedonia, Timotheus and Erastus, while he himself stayed on awhile 23 in Asia. It was about that time that a great commotion 24 arose over the Way. This was how it happened. By making silver shrines of Artemis a silversmith called Demetrius 25 was the means of bringing rich profit to his workmen. So he got them together, along with the workmen who belonged to similar trades, and said to them: "My men, you 26 know this trade is the source of our wealth. You also see and hear that not only at Ephesus but almost all over Asia this fellow Paul has drawn off a considerable number of people by his persuasions. He declares that hand-made 27 gods are not gods at all. Now the danger is not only that we will have our trade discredited but that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will fall into contempt and that she will be degraded from her majestic glory, she 28 whom all Asia and the wide world worship." When they heard this they were filled with rage and raised the cry, 29 "Great is Artemis of Ephesus!" So the city was filled with confusion. They rushed like one man into the amphitheatre, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedo-30 nians who were travelling with Paul. (Paul wanted to enter the popular assembly, but the disciples would not allow 31 him. Some of the Asiarchs, who were friends of his, also sent to beg him not to venture into the amphitheatre.) 32 Some were shouting one thing, some another; for the assembly was in confusion, and the majority had no idea 33 why they had met. Some of the mob concluded it must be Alexander, as the Jews pushed him to the front. So Alexander, motioning with his hand, wanted to defend himself 34 before the people; but when they discovered he was a Jew, a roar broke from them all, and for about two hours they shouted, "Great is Artemis of Ephesus! Great is Artemis 35 of Ephesus!" The secretary of state then got the mob calmed down, and said to them, "Men of Ephesus, who on earth does not know that the city of Ephesus is Warden of the temple of the great Artemis and of the statue that 36 fell from heaven? All this is beyond question. So you should keep calm and do nothing reckless. Instead of that, 37 you have brought these men here who are guilty neither of sacrilege nor of blasphemy against our goddess. If Demetrius and his fellow tradesmen have a grievance against 38 anybody, let both parties state their charges; assizes are held and there are always the proconsuls. Any wider claim 39 must be settled in the legal assembly of the citizens.

Indeed there is a danger of our being charged with riot 40 over to-day's meeting; there is not a single reason we can 41 give for this disorderly gathering." With these words he dismissed the assembly.

20 WHEN the tumult had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples and encouraged them; he then took leave of 2 them and went his way to Macedonia. After passing through the districts of Macedonia and encouraging the 3 people at length, he came to Greece, where he spent three months. Just as he was on the point of sailing for Syria, the Jews laid a plot against him. He therefore resolved to 4 return through Macedonia. His company as far as Asia consisted of Sopater of Berea (the son of Pyrrhus), Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius of Derbe, Timotheus, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.
5 They went on to wait for us at Troas, while we sailed 6 from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and joined them five days later at Troas. There we spent 7 seven days. On the first day of the week we met for the breaking of bread; Paul addressed them, as he was to leave 8 next day, and he prolonged his address till midnight (there were plenty of lamps in the upper room where we met).
9 In the window sat a young man called Eutychus, and as Paul's address went on and on, he got overcome with drowsiness, went fast asleep, and fell from the third 10 storey. He was picked up a corpse, but Paul went downstairs, threw himself upon him, and embraced him. "Do 11 not lament," he said, "the life is still in him." Then he 12 went upstairs, broke bread, and ate; finally, after convers-13 ing awhile with them till the dawn, he went away. As for the lad, they took him away alive, much to their relief.

13 Now we had gone on beforehand to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there. This was his own arrangement, for he intended to travel by land.
14 So when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and 15 got to Mitylene. Sailing thence on the following day we arrived off Chios; next day we crossed over to Samos, and [after stopping at Trogyllium] we went on next day to 16 Miletus. This was because Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, to avoid any loss of time in Asia; he wanted to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.
17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus for the presbyters of 18 the church. When they came to him, he said, "You know quite well how I lived among you all the time ever since 19 I set foot in Asia, how I served the Lord in all humility, with many a tear and many a trial which I encountered 20 owing to the plots of the Jews, how I never shrank from letting you know anything for your good, or from teaching 21 you alike in public and from house to house, bearing my testimony, both to Jews and Greeks, of repentance before 22 God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. Now here I go to Jerusalem under the binding force of the Spirit. What 23 will befall me there, I do not know. Only, I know this, that in town after town the holy Spirit testifies to me that 24 bonds and troubles are awaiting me. But then, I set no value on my own life as compared with the joy of finishing my course and fulfilling the commission I received from the Lord Jesus to attest the gospel of the grace of 25 God. I know to-day that not one of you will ever see my face again—not one of you among whom I moved as I 26 preached the Reign. Therefore do I protest before you this day that I am not responsible for the blood of any 27 of you; I never shrank from letting you know the entire 28 purpose of God. Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock of which the holy Spirit has appointed you guardians; shepherd the church of the Lord which he has purchased 29 with his own blood. I know that when I am gone, fierce wolves will get in among you, and they will not spare the 30 flock; yes, and men of your own number will arise with perversions of the truth to draw the disciples after them.
31 So be on the alert, remember how for three whole years I never ceased night and day to watch over each one of 32 you with tears. And now I entrust you to God and the word of his grace; he is able to upbuild you and give you 33 your inheritance among all the consecrated. Silver, gold, 34 or apparel I never coveted; you know yourselves how these hands of mine provided everything for my own needs and 35 for my companions. I showed you how this was the way to work hard and succour the needy, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, who said, 'To give is happier than 36 to get.'" With these words he knelt down and prayed be-37 side them all. They all broke into loud lamentation and 38 falling upon the neck of Paul kissed him fondly, sorrowing chiefly because he told them they would never see his face again. Then they escorted him to the ship.

21 WHEN we had torn ourselves away from them and set sail, we made a straight run to Cos, next day to 2 Rhodes, and thence to Patara; as we found a ship there 3 bound for Phœnicia, we went on board and set sail. After sighting Cyprus and leaving it on our left, we sailed for Syria, landing at Tyre, where the ship was to unload her 4 cargo. We found out the local disciples and stayed there for seven days. These disciples told Paul by the Spirit 5 not to set foot in Jerusalem; but, when our time was up, we started on our journey, escorted by them, women and children and all, till we got outside the town. Then, 6 kneeling on the beach, we prayed and said goodbye to one 7 another. We went on board and they went home. By sailing from Tyre to Ptolemais we completed our voyage; 8 we saluted the brothers, spent a day with them, and started next morning for Caesarea, where we entered the house of 9 Philip the evangelist (he belonged to the Seven, and had four unmarried daughters who prophesied). We stayed 10 with him. While we remained there for a number of days, 11 a prophet called Agabus came down from Judaea. He came to us, took Paul's girdle and bound his own feet and hands, saying, "Here is the word of the holy Spirit: 'So shall the Jews bind the owner of this girdle at Jerusalem 12 and hand him over to the Gentiles.'" Now when we heard this, we and the local disciples besought Paul not to go up 13 to Jerusalem. Then Paul replied, "What do you mean by weeping and disheartening me? I am ready not only to be bound but also to die at Jerusalem for the sake of the 14 Lord Jesus." As he would not be persuaded, we acquiesced, saying, "The will of the Lord be done." 15 After these days we packed up and started for Jerusalem, 16 accompanied by some of the disciples from Caesarea, who conducted us to the house of Mnason, a Cypriote, with whom we were to lodge. He was a disciple of old standing.
17 The brothers welcomed us gladly on our arrival at Jeru-18 salem. Next day we accompanied Paul to James; all the 19 presbyters were present, and after saluting them Paul described in detail what God had done by means of his 20 ministry among the Gentiles. They glorified God when they heard it. Then they said to him, "Brother, you see how many thousands of believers there are among the 21 Jews, all of them ardent upholders of the law. Now, they have heard that you teach all Jews who live among Gentiles to break away from Moses and not to circumcise their 22 children, nor to follow the old customs. What is to be done? They will be sure to hear you have arrived.* So do as we 23 tell you. We have four men here under a vow; associate 24 yourself with them, purify yourself with them, pay their expenses so that they may be free to have their heads shaved, and then everybody will understand there is nothing in these stories about you, but that, on the contrary, 25 you are guided by obedience to the Law. As for Gentile believers, we have issued our decision that they must avoid food that has been offered to idols, the taste of blood, flesh of animals that have been strangled, and sexual vice."

 26 Then Paul associated himself with the men next day; he had himself purified along with them and went into the temple to give notice of the time when the days of purification would be completed—the time, that is to say, when the sacrifice could be offered for each one of them.
 27 The seven days were almost over when the Asiatic Jews, catching sight of him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd 28 and laid hands on him, shouting, "To the rescue, men of Israel! Here is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against the People and the Law and this Place! And he has actually brought Greeks inside the temple and defiled 29 this holy Place!" (They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian along with him in the city, and they supposed Paul had taken him inside the temple.) The whole 30 city was thrown into turmoil. The people rushed together, seized Paul and dragged him outside the temple; where-31 upon the doors were immediately shut. They were attempting to kill him, when word reached the commander of the garrison that the whole of Jerusalem was in confusion.
 32 Taking some soldiers and officers, he at once rushed down to them, and when they saw the commander and the 33 soldiers they stopped beating Paul. Then the commander came up and seized him; he ordered him to be bound with a couple of chains, and asked "Who is he?" and "What has 34 he done?" Some of the crowd roared one thing, some another, and as he could not learn the facts owing to the 35 uproar, he ordered Paul to be taken to the barracks. By the time he reached the steps, he had actually to be carried by the soldiers on account of the violence of the crowd, for the whole mass of the people followed shouting, "Away with him!" Just as he was being taken into the barracks, Paul said to the commander, "May I say a word to you?" "You know Greek!" said the commander. "Then you are not the Egyptian who in days gone by raised the four thousand assassins and led them out into the desert?" Paul said, "I am a Jew, a native of Tarsus in Cilicia, the citizen of a famous town. Pray let me speak to the people." As he gave permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people. A great hush came over them, and he addressed them as follows in Hebrew.

22 "BROTHERS and fathers, listen to the defence I now make before you." When they heard him addressing them in Hebrew they were all the more quiet. So he went on. "I am a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated at the feet of Gamaliel in all the strictness of our ancestral Law, ardent for God as you all are to-day. I persecuted this Way of religion to the death, chaining and imprisoning both men and women, as the high priest and all the council of elders can testify. It was from them that I got letters to the brotherhood at Damascus and then journeyed thither to bind those who had gathered there and bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment. Now as I neared Damascus on my journey, suddenly about noon a brilliant light from heaven flashed round me. I dropped to the earth and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you?' I asked. He said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, and you are persecuting me.' (My companions saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of him who talked to me.) I said, 'What am I to do?' And the Lord said to me, 'Get up and make your way into Damascus; there you shall be told about all you are destined to do.' As I could not see owing to the dazzling glare of that light, my companions took my hand and so I reached Damascus. Then a certain Ananias, a devout man in the Law, who had a good reputation among all the Jewish inhabitants, came to me and standing beside me said, 'Saul, my brother, regain your sight!' The same moment I regained my sight and looked up at him. Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, to see the Just One, and to hear him speak with his own lips. For you are to be a witness for him before all men, a witness of what you have seen and heard. And now, why do you wait?

Get up and be baptized and wash away your sins, invoking his name.'

17 When I returned to Jerusalem, it happened that while I 18 was praying in the temple I fell into a trance and saw 19 Him saying to me, 'Make haste, leave Jerusalem quickly, 20 for they will not accept your evidence about me.' 'But, 21 Lord,' I said, 'they surely know it was I who imprisoned 22 and flogged those who believed in you throughout the syna-23 gogues, and that I stood and approved when the blood of 24 your martyr Stephen was being shed, taking charge of 25 the clothes of his murderers!' But he said to me, 'Go; 26 I will send you afar to the Gentiles——' " Till he said that, 27 they had listened to him. But at that they shouted, "Away 28 with such a creature from the earth! He is not fit to live!" 29 They yelled and threw their clothes into the air and flung 30 dust about, till the commander ordered him to be taken 31 inside the barracks and examined under the lash, so as to 32 find out why the people shouted at him in this way.
33 They had strapped him up, when Paul said to the officer 34 who was standing by, "Are you allowed to scourge a Roman 35 citizen—and to scourge him without a trial?" When the 36 officer heard this, he went to the commander and said to 37 him, "What are you going to do? This man is a Roman 38 citizen." So the commander went to him and said, "Tell 39 me, are you a Roman citizen?" "Yes," he said. The 40 commander replied, "I had to pay a large sum for this 41 citizenship." "But I was born a citizen," said Paul. Then 42 those who were to have examined him left him at once 43 alone; even the commander was alarmed to find that Paul 44 was a Roman citizen and that he had bound him.

30 Next day, as he was anxious to find out the real reason why the Jews accused him, he unbound him, ordered the high priests and all the Sanhedrin to meet, and brought 23 Paul down, placing him in front of them. With a steady look at the Sanhedrin Paul said, "Brothers, I have lived with a perfectly good conscience before God 2 down to the present day." Then the high priest Ananias ordered those who were standing next Paul to strike him 3 on the mouth. At this Paul said to him, "You white-washed wall, God will strike you! You sit there to judge 4 me by the Law, do you? And you break the Law by 5 ordering me to be struck!" The bystanders said, "What!
6 would you rail at God's high priest?" "Brothers," said Paul, "I did not know he was high priest" (for it is written, You must not speak evil of any ruler of your people).
7 Then, finding half the Sanhedrin were Sadducees and the other half Pharisees, Paul shouted to them, "I am a Pharisee, brothers, the son of Pharisees! It is for the hope of 7 the resurrection from the dead that I am on trial!" When^{*} he said this, a quarrel broke out between the Pharisees and 8 the Sadducees; the meeting was divided. For while the Sadducees declare there is no such thing as resurrection, 9 angels, or spirits, the Pharisees affirm them all. Thus a loud clamour broke out. Some of the scribes who belonged to the Pharisaic party got up and contended, "We find nothing wrong about this man. What if some spirit or 10 angel has spoken to him?" The quarrel then became so violent that the commander was afraid they would tear Paul in pieces; he therefore ordered the troops to march down and take him from them by force, bringing him 11 inside the barracks. On the following night the Lord stood by Paul and said, "Courage! As you have testified to me at Jerusalem, so you must testify at Rome."

12 When day broke, the Jews formed a conspiracy, taking a solemn oath neither to eat nor to drink till they had 13 killed Paul. There were more than forty of them in this 14 plot. They then went to the high priests and elders, saying, "We have taken a solemn oath to taste no food till we 15 have killed Paul. Now you and the Sanhedrin must inform the commander that you propose to investigate this case in detail, so that he may have Paul brought down to you. We will be all ready to kill him on the way down."

16 Now Paul's nephew heard about their treacherous ambush; 17 so he got admission to the barracks and told Paul. Paul summoned one of the officers and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has some news to give him."

18 So the officer took him to the commander, saying, "The prisoner Paul has summoned me to ask if I would bring this young man to you, as he has something to tell you."

19 The commander then took him by the hand aside and asked 20 him in private, "What is the news you have for me?" He answered, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to-morrow to the Sanhedrin, on the plea that they* 21 propose to examine his case in detail. Now do not let them persuade you. More than forty of them are lying in ambush for him, and they have taken a solemn oath neither to eat nor to drink till they have murdered him. They are 22 all ready at this moment, awaiting your consent." Then the commander dismissed the youth, bidding him "Tell 23 nobody that you have informed me of this." He summoned two of the officers and said, "Get ready by nine o'clock tonight two hundred infantry to march as far as Caesarea, 24 also seventy troopers, and two hundred spearmen." Horses were also to be provided, on which they were to mount 25 Paul and carry him safe to Felix the governor. He then 26 wrote a letter in the following terms. "Claudius Lysias, 27 to his excellency the governor Felix: greeting. This man had been seized by the Jews and was on the point of being murdered by them, when I came on them with the troops and rescued him, as I had ascertained that he was a Roman 28 citizen. Anxious to find out why they accused him, I took 29 him down to their Sanhedrin, where I found he was accused of matters relating to their Law but not impeached for 30 any crime that deserved death or imprisonment. I am informed a plot is to be laid against him, so I am sending him to you at once,* telling his accusers that they must 31 impeach him before you. Farewell." The soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him by 32 night to Antipatris. Next day the infantry returned to 33 their barracks, leaving the troopers to ride on with him.

 They reached Caesarea, presented the letter to the governor, 34 and also handed Paul over to him. On reading the letter he asked what province he belonged to, and finding 35 it was Cilicia he said, "I will go into your case whenever your accusers arrive," giving orders that he was to be kept in the praetorium of Herod.

24 FIVE days later down came the high priest Ananias with some elders and a barrister called Tertullus.
 They laid information before the governor against Paul.
 2 So Paul was summoned, and then Tertullus proceeded to accuse him. "Your excellency," he said to Felix, "as it is owing to you that we enjoy unbroken peace, and as it is owing to your wise care that the state of this nation has 3 been improved in every way and everywhere, we acknowl-4 edge all this with profound gratitude. I have no wish to weary you, but I beg of you to grant us in your courtesy 5 a brief hearing. The fact is, we have found this man is a perfect pest; he stirs up sedition among the Jews all over the world and he is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect.
 6 He actually tried to desecrate the temple, but we got hold 8 of him. Examine him for yourself and you will be able to find out about all these charges of ours against him." 9 The Jews joined in the attack, declaring that such were 10 the facts of the case. Then at a nod from the governor Paul made his reply. "As I know you have administered justice in this nation for a number of years," he said, "I 11 feel encouraged to make my defence, because it is not more than twelve days, as you can easily ascertain, since I went

* Reading ἐξ αὐτῆς instead of ἐξ αὐτῶν.

12 up to worship at Jerusalem. They never found me arguing with anyone in the temple or causing a riot either in the 13 synagogues or in the city; they cannot furnish you with 14 any proof of their present charges against me. I certainly admit to you that I worship our fathers' God according to the methods of what they call a 'sect'; but I believe all 15 that is written in the Law and in the prophets, and I cherish the same hope in God as they accept, namely that there is to be a resurrection of the just and the unjust.
 16 Hence I too endeavour to have a clear conscience before 17 God and men all the time. After a lapse of several years 18 I came up with alms and offerings for my nation,* and it was in presenting these that I was found within the temple.
 I was ceremonially pure, I was not mixed up in any mob or riot; no, the trouble was caused by some Jews from 19 Asia, who ought to have been here before you with any 20 charge they may have against me. Failing them, let these men yonder tell what fault they found with my appear-21 ance before the Sanhedrin!—unless it was with the single sentence I uttered, when I stood and said, 'It is for the resurrection of the dead that I am on my trial to-day 22 before you.'" As Felix had a pretty accurate knowledge of the Way, he remanded Paul, telling the Jews, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your 23 case." He gave orders to the officer to have Paul kept in custody but to allow him some freedom and not to prevent any of his own people from rendering him any service.
 24 Some days later Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and heard what he 25 had to say about faith in Christ Jesus; but when he argued about morality, self-mastery, and the future judgment, Felix grew uneasy. "You may go for the present," he said; "when I can find a moment, I will send for you" 26 (though at the same time he hoped Paul would give him a bribe). So he did send for him pretty frequently 27 and conversed with him. But when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and as Felix wanted to ingratiate himself with the Jews, he left Paul still in custody.

2 25 THREE days after Festus entered his province, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. The high priests and the Jewish leaders laid information before him against

* It is hardly possible to make sense of the following Greek text, and none of the various readings or of the emendations that have been proposed is entirely satisfactory. All one can do is to reproduce the general drift of the passage.

3 Paul, and begged him, as a special favour, to send for him to Jerusalem, meaning to lay an ambush for him and 4 murder him on the road. Festus replied that Paul would be kept in custody at Caesarea, but that he himself meant 5 to leave for Caesarea before long—"when," he added, "your competent authorities can come down with me and charge 6 the man with whatever crime he has committed." After staying not more than eight or ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea. Next day he took his seat on the 7 tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought before him. When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem surrounded him and brought a number of serious charges 8 against him, none of which they were able to prove. Paul's defence was, "I have committed no offence against the Law 9 of the Jews, against the temple, or against Caesar." As Festus wanted to ingratiate himself with the Jews, he asked Paul, "Will you go up to Jerusalem and be tried 10 there by me upon these charges?" Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's tribunal; that is where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong whatever to the Jews—11 you know that perfectly well. If I am a criminal, if I have done anything that deserves death, I do not object to die; but if there is nothing in any of their charges against me, then no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"
12 Then, after conferring with the council, Festus answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? Very well, you must go to Caesar!" 13 Some days had passed, when king Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. As they were spending several days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king. "There is a man," he said, "who was 14 left in prison by Felix. When I was at Jerusalem, the high priests and elders of the Jews informed me about 15 him and demanded his condemnation. I told them Romans were not in the habit of giving up any man until the accused met the accusers face to face and had a chance of 16 defending himself against the impeachment. Well, the day after they came here along with me, I took my seat on the tribunal without any loss of time. I ordered the man to 17 be brought in, but when his accusers stood up they did not charge him with any of the crimes that I had expected.
18 The questions at issue referred to their own religion and to a certain Jesus who had died. Paul said he was alive. As I felt at a loss about the method of inquiry into such topics, 19 I asked if he would go to Jerusalem and be tried there on 20 these charges. But Paul entered an appeal for his case to be reserved for the decision of the emperor; so I ordered him to be detained till I could remit him to Caesar."

22 "I should like to hear the man myself," said Agrippa to Festus. "You shall hear him to-morrow," said Festus.

23 So next day Agrippa and Bernice proceeded with great pomp to the hall of audience, accompanied by the military commanders and the prominent civilians of the town.

24 Festus then ordered Paul to be brought in. "King Agrippa and all here present," said Festus, "you see before you a man of whom the entire body of the Jews at Jerusalem and also here have complained to me. They loudly insist

25 he ought not to live any longer. I could not find he had done anything that deserved death, so I decided to send

26 him, on his own appeal, to the emperor. Only, I have nothing definite to write to the sovereign about him. So I have brought him up before you all, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, in order that I may have something 27 to write as the result of your cross-examination. For it seems absurd to me to forward a prisoner without notifying the particulars of his charge." Then Agrippa

26 said to Paul, "You have our permission to speak upon your own behalf." At this Paul stretched out his hand and began his defence. "I consider myself fortunate, king Agrippa, in being able to defend myself to-day before you

3 against all that the Jews charge me with; for you are well acquainted with all Jewish customs and questions. Pray

4 listen to me then with patience. How I lived from my youth up among my own nation and at Jerusalem, all that

5 early career of mine, is known to all the Jews. They know me of old. They know, if they chose to admit it, that as a Pharisee I lived by the principles of the strictest party in

6 our religion. To-day I am standing my trial for hoping

7 in the promise made by God to our fathers, a promise which our twelve tribes hope to gain by serving God earnestly both night and day. And I am actually impeached by 9 Jews for this hope, O king! I once believed it my duty indeed actively to oppose the name of Jesus the Nazarene. I did so in Jerusalem. I shut up many of the saints in prison, armed with authority from the high priests; when they

11 were put to death, I voted against them; there was not a synagogue where I did not often punish them and force them to blaspheme; and in my frantic fury I persecuted

12 them even to foreign towns. I was travelling to Damascus on this business, with authority and a commission from 13 the high priests, when at mid-day on the road, O king, I saw a light from heaven, more dazzling than the sun,

14 flash round me and my fellow-travellers. We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You hurt yourself by 15 kicking at the goad.' 'Who are you?' I asked. And the 16 Lord said, 'I am Jesus, and you are persecuting me. Now get up and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you in order to appoint you to my service as a witness to what you have seen and to the visions you shall have of me.

 17 I will rescue you from the People and also from the 18 Gentiles—to whom I send you, that their eyes may be opened and that they may turn from darkness to light, from the power of Satan to God, to get remission of their sins and an inheritance among those who are consecrated 19 by faith in me.' Upon this, O king Agrippa, I did not dis-20 obey the heavenly vision; I announced to those at Damascus and at Jerusalem in the first instance, then all over the land of Judaea, and also to the Gentiles, that they were to repent and turn to God by acting up to their repentance.
 21 This is why the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to 22 assassinate me. To this day I have had the help of God in standing, as I now do, to testify alike to low and high, never uttering a single syllable beyond what the prophets 8 and Moses predicted was to take place. Why should you 23 consider it incredible that God raises the dead,* that the Christ is capable of suffering, and that he should be the first to rise from the dead and bring the message of light 24 to the People and to the Gentiles?" When he brought this forward in his defence, Festus called out, "Paul, you are quite mad! Your great learning is driving you insane." 25 "Your excellency," said Paul to Festus, "I am not mad, I 26 am speaking the sober truth. Why, the king is well aware of this! To the king I can speak without the slightest hesitation. I do not believe any of it has escaped his 27 notice, for this was not done in a corner. King Agrippa, you 28 believe the prophets? I know you do." "At this rate," Agrippa remarked, "it won't be long before you believe you 29 have made a Christian of me!" "Long or short," said Paul, "I would to God that not only you but all my hearers 30 to-day could be what I am—barring these chains! Then the king rose, with the governor and Bernice and those who had 31 been seated beside them. They retired to discuss the affair, and agreed that "this man has done nothing to deserve 32 death or imprisonment." "He might have been released," said Agrippa to Festus, "if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27 WHEN it was decided we were to sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to an 2 officer of the Imperial regiment called Julius. Embarking in an Andramyttian ship which was bound for the Asiatic seaports, we set sail, accompanied by a Macedonian from

* Restoring ver. 8 to its original position at the beginning of ver. 23.

3 Thessalonica called Aristarchus. Next day we put in at Sidon, where Julius very kindly allowed Paul to visit his 4 friends and be looked after. Putting to sea from there, we had to sail under the lee of Cyprus, as the wind was 5 against us; then, sailing over the Cilician and Pamphylian 6 waters, we came to Myra in Lycia. There the officer found an Alexandrian ship bound for Italy, and put us on board 7 of her. For a number of days we made a slow passage and had great difficulty in arriving off Cnidus; then, as the wind checked our progress, we sailed under the lee of 8 Crete off Cape Salmonê, and coasting along it with great difficulty we reached a place called Fair Havens, not far 9 from the town of Lasea. By this time it was far on in the season and sailing had become dangerous (for the 10 autumn Fast was past), so Paul warned them thus: "Men," said he, "I see this voyage is going to be attended with hardship and serious loss not only to the cargo and the 11 ship but also to our own lives." However the officer let himself be persuaded by the captain and the owner rather 12 than by anything Paul could say, and, as the harbour was badly placed for wintering in, the majority proposed to set sail and try if they could reach Phœnix and winter there (Phœnix is a Cretan harbour facing S.W. and N.W.).
 13 When a moderate southerly breeze sprang up, they thought they had secured their object, and after weighing anchor they sailed along the coast of Crete, close inshore.
 14 Presently down rushed a hurricane of a wind called Euro-15 clydon; the ship was caught and unable to face the wind, 16 so we gave up and let her drive along. Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we managed with 17 great difficulty to get the boat hauled in; once it was hoisted aboard, they used ropes* to undergird the ship, and in fear of being stranded on the Syrtis they lowered 18 the sail and lay to. As we were being terribly battered by 19 the storm, they had to jettison the cargo next day, while two days later they threw the ship's gear overboard with 20 their own hands; for many days neither sun nor stars could be seen, the storm raged heavily, and at last we 21 had to give up all hope of being saved. When they had gone without food for a long time, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and spared yourselves this hardship and loss by refusing to set 22 sail from Crete. I now bid you cheer up. There will be 23 no loss of life, only of the ship. For last night an angel of 24 the God I belong to and serve, stood before me, saying, 'Have no fear, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And

* Naber's conjecture βοελας for the βοηθetaς of the MSS. yields this excellent sense.

God has granted you the lives of all your fellow-voyagers.' 25 Cheer up, men! I believe God, I believe it will turn out 26 just as I have been told. However, we are to be stranded on an island."

27 When the fourteenth night arrived, we were drifting about in the sea of Adria, when the sailors about midnight 28 suspected land was near. On taking soundings they found twenty fathoms, and a little further on, when they sounded 29 again, they found fifteen. Then, afraid of being stranded on the rocks, they let go four anchors from the stern and 30 longed for daylight. The sailors tried to escape from the ship. They had even lowered the boat into the sea, pretending they were going to lay out anchors from the bow, 31 when Paul said to the officer and the soldiers, "You cannot 32 be saved unless these men stay by the ship." Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and let her fall 33 off. Just before daybreak Paul begged them all to take some food. "For fourteen days," he said, "you have been 34 on the watch all the time, without a proper meal. Take some food then, I beg of you; it will keep you alive. You are going to be saved! Not a hair of your heads will 35 perish." With these words he took a loaf and after thanking God, in presence of them all, broke it and began to eat.
 36 Then they all cheered up and took food for themselves 37 (there were about* seventy-six souls of us on board, all 38 told); and when they had eaten their fill, they lightened 39 the ship by throwing the wheat into the sea. When day broke, they could not recognize what land it was; however, they noticed a creek with a sandy beach, and resolved to 40 see if they could run the ship ashore there. So the anchors were cut away and left in the sea, while the crew unlashed the ropes that tied the rudders, hoisted the foresail to 41 the breeze, and headed for the beach. Striking a reef, they drove the ship aground; the prow jammed fast, but the stern began to break up under the beating of the waves.
 42 Now the soldiers resolved to kill the prisoners, in case 43 any of them swam off and escaped; but as the officer wanted to save Paul, he put a stop to their plan, ordering those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to 44 land, while the rest were to manage with planks or pieces of wreckage. In this way it turned out that the whole company got safe to land.

2 28 It was only after our escape that we found out the island was called Malta. The natives showed us uncommon kindness, for they lit a fire and welcomed us all

* Reading ὡς (B and Sahidic version) for διακόσται.

- 3 to it, as the rain had come on and it was chilly. Now Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, when a viper crawled out with the heat and fastened 4 on his hand. When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer! He has escaped the sea, but Justice will 5 not let him live." However, he shook off the creature into the fire and was not a whit the worse. The natives waited 6 for him to swell up or drop down dead in a moment, but after waiting a long while and observing that no harm had befallen him, they changed their minds and declared he was a god.
- 7 There was an estate in the neighbourhood which belonged to a man called Publius, the governor of the island; he welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for 8 three days. His father, it so happened, was laid up with fever and dysentery, but Paul went in to see him and after 9 prayer laid his hands on him and cured him. When this had happened, the rest of the sick folk in the island also 10 came and got cured; they made us rich presents and furnished us, when we set sail, with all we needed.
- 11 We set sail, after three months, in an Alexandrian ship, with the Dioscuri on her figure-head, which had wintered at the island. We put in at Syracuse and stayed for three 12 days. Then tacking round we reached Rhegium; next day a south wind sprang up which brought us in a day to 13 Puteoli, where we came across some of the brotherhood, who invited us to stay a week with them.
- 14 In this way we reached Rome. As the local brothers had heard about us, they came out to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Tres Tabernae, and when Paul saw them he 15 thanked God and took courage. When we did reach Rome, Paul got permission* to live by himself, with a soldier to 16 guard him. Three days later, he called the leading Jews together, and when they met he said to them, "Brothers, although I have done nothing against the People or our ancestral customs, I was handed over to the Romans as 17 a prisoner from Jerusalem. They meant to release me after examination, as I was innocent of any crime that 18 deserved death. But the Jews objected, and so I was obliged to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to 19 bring against my own nation. This is my reason for asking to see you and have a word with you. I am wearing this 20 chain because I share Israel's hope." They replied, "We have had no letters about you from Judaea, and no brother

* Omitting [ὁ ἐκατόνταρχος παρέδωκεν τοὺς δεσμίους τῷ στρατοπεδάρχῳ] and [δὲ].

- has come here with any bad report or story about you.
22 We think it only right to let you tell your own story; but as regards this sect, we are well aware that there are 23 objections to it on all hands." So they fixed a day and came to him at his quarters in large numbers. From morning to evening he explained the Reign of God to them from personal testimony, and tried to convince them about Jesus 24 from the law of Moses and the prophets. Some were convinced by what he said, but the others would not believe.
25 As they could not agree among themselves, they were turning to go away, when Paul added this one word: "It was an apt word that the holy Spirit spoke by the prophet 26 Isaiah to your fathers, when he said,

Go and tell this people,

*'You will hear and hear but never understand,
you will see and see but never perceive.'*

- 27 *For the heart of this people is obtuse,
their ears are heavy of hearing,
their eyes they have closed,
lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears, lest they understand with their heart and turn again, and I cure them.*

- 28 Be sure of this, then, that this salvation of God has been 30 sent to the Gentiles; they will listen to it." For two full years he remained in his private lodging, welcoming any-31 one who came to visit him; he preached the Reign of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ quite openly and unmolested.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

1 PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, 2 set apart for the gospel of God (which he promised of 3 old by his prophets in the holy scriptures) concerning 4 his Son, who was born of David's offspring by natural 5 descent and installed as Son of God with power by the 6 Spirit of holiness when he was raised from the dead—con-7 cerning Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom I have re-8 ceived the favour of my commission to promote obedience 9 to the faith for his sake among all the Gentiles, including 10 yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ: to all 11 in Rome who are beloved by God, called to be saints, grace 12 and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus 13 Christ.

14 First of all, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for 15 you all, because the report of your faith is over all the 16 world. God is my witness, the God whom I serve with 17 my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I 18 always mention you in my prayers, asking if I may at last 19 be sped upon my way to you by God's will. For I do yearn 20 to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift 21 for your strengthening—or, in other words, that I may be 22 encouraged by meeting you, I by your faith and you by 23 mine. Brothers, I would like you to understand that I 24 have often purposed to come to you (though up till now I 25 have been prevented) so as to have some results among 26 you as well as among the rest of the Gentiles. To Greeks 27 and to barbarians, to wise and to foolish alike, I owe a duty.
28 Hence my eagerness to preach the gospel to you in Rome 29 as well. For I am proud of the gospel; it is God's saving 30 power for everyone who has faith, for the Jew first and for 31 the Greek as well. God's righteousness is revealed in it by 32 faith and for faith—as it is written, Now by faith shall the 33 righteous live. But God's anger is revealed from heaven 34 against all the impiety and wickedness of those who hinder 35 the Truth by their wickedness. For whatever is to be 36 known of God is plain to them; God himself has made it 37 plain—for ever since the world was created, his invisible 38 nature, his everlasting power and divine being, have been quite perceptible in what he has made. So they have no 21 excuse. Though they knew God, they have not glorified him as God nor given thanks to him; they have turned to futile speculations till their ignorant minds grew dark.

 22 They claimed to be wise, but they have become fools; 23 they have exchanged the glory of the immortal God for the semblance of the likeness of mortal man, of birds, of 24 quadrupeds, and of reptiles. So God has given them up, in their heart's lust, to sexual vice, to the dishonouring of 25 their own bodies,—since they have exchanged the truth of God for an untruth, worshipping and serving the creature rather than the Creator who is blessed for ever: Amen.
 26 That is why God has given them up to vile passions; their women have exchanged the natural function of sex for 27 what is unnatural, and in the same way the males have abandoned the natural use of women and flamed out in lust for one another, men perpetrating shameless acts with their own sex and getting in their own persons the due recom-28 pense of their perversity. Yes, as they disdained to acknowledge God any longer, God has given them up to a reprobate instinct for the perpetration of what is im-29 proper, till they are filled with all manner of wickedness, depravity, lust, and viciousness, filled to the brim with 30 envy, murder, quarrels, intrigues, and malignity—slanderers, defamers, loathed by God, outrageous, haughty, boastful, inventive in evil, disobedient to parents, devoid of con-31 science, false to their word, callous, merciless; though they 32 know God's decree that people who practise such vice deserve death, they not only do it themselves but applaud those who practise it.

2 THEREFORE you are inexcusable, whoever you are, if you pose as a judge, for in judging another you condemn yourself; you, the judge, do the very same things 2 yourself. 'We know the doom of God falls justly upon 3 those who practise such vices.' Very well; and do you imagine you will escape God's doom, O man, you who judge those who practise such vices and do the same yourself?
 4 Or are you slighting all his wealth of kindness, forbearance, and patience? Do you not know his kindness is 5 meant to make you repent? In your stubbornness and impenitence of heart you are simply storing up anger for yourself on the Day of anger, when the just doom of God 6 is revealed. For he will render to everyone according to 7 what he has done, eternal life to those who by patiently 8 doing good aim at glory, honour, and immortality, but anger and wrath to those who are wilful, who disobey the Truth 9 and obey wickedness—anguish and calamity for every human soul that perpetrates evil, for the Jew first and for the Greek as well, but glory, honour, and peace for everyone who does good, for the Jew first and for the Greek as well. There is no partiality about God.

All who sin outside the Law will perish outside the Law, and all who sin under the Law will be condemned by the Law.

For it is not the hearers of the Law who are just in the eyes of God, it is those who obey the Law who will be acquitted, on the day when God judges the secret things of men, as my gospel holds, by Jesus Christ. (When Gentiles who have no law obey instinctively the Law's requirements, they are a law to themselves, even though they have no law; they exhibit the effect of the Law written on their hearts, their conscience bears them witness, as their moral convictions accuse or it may be defend them.)*

If you bear the name of 'Jew,' relying on the Law, priding yourself on God, understanding his will, and with a sense of what is vital in religion; if you are instructed by the Law and are persuaded you are a guide to the blind, a light to darkened souls, a tutor for the foolish, a teacher of the simple, because in the Law you have the embodiment of knowledge and truth—well then, do you ever teach yourself, you teacher of other people? You preach against stealing; do you steal? You forbid adultery; do you commit adultery? You detest idols; do you rob temples? You pride yourself on the Law; do you dishonour God by your breaches of the Law? Why, it is owing to you that the name of God is maligned among the Gentiles, as scripture says! Circumcision is certainly of use; provided you keep the Law; but if you are a breaker of the Law, then your circumcision is turned into uncircumcision. (If then the uncircumcised observe the requirements of the Law, shall not their uncircumcision be reckoned equivalent to circumcision? And shall not those who are physically uncircumcised and who fulfil the Law, judge you who are a breaker of the Law for all your written code and circumcision?)

He is no Jew who is merely a Jew outwardly, nor is circumcision something outward in the flesh;
he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, spiritual not literal—praised by God, not by man.

* Ver. 16 is the sequel to the first clause of ver. 14. The rest of ver. 14 and the whole of ver. 15 form a short paragraph which is either a marginal note or an awkward insertion. To preserve the sequence of thought I have re-arranged the verses as above.

- 2 3 THEN what is the Jew's superiority? What is the good of circumcision? Much in every way. This to begin with—Jews were entrusted with the scriptures of God.
 3 Even supposing some of them have proved untrustworthy, is their faithlessness to cancel the faithfulness of God?
 4 Never! Let God be true to his word, though every man be perfidious—as it is written, That thou mayest be vindicated in thy pleadings, and triumph in thy trial.
 5 But if our iniquity thus serves to bring out the justice of God, what are we to infer? That it is unfair of God to inflict his anger on us? (I speak in a merely human way.) 6 Never! In that case, how could he judge the world? You 7 say, "If my perfidy serves to make the truthfulness of God redound to his glory, why am I to be judged as a sinner?" 8 Why should we not do evil that good may come out of it?" (which is the calumny attributed to me—the very thing some people declare I say). Such arguments are rightly condemned.
 9 Well now, are we Jews in a better position? Not at all.
 I have already charged all, Jews as well as Greeks, with 10 being under sin—as it is written, None is righteous, no, not one;
 11 no one understands, no one seeks for God.
 12 All have swerved, one and all have gone wrong, no one does good, not a single one.
 13 Their throat is an open grave, they are treacherous with their tongues, the venom of an asp lies under their lips.
 14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
 15 their feet are swift for bloodshed, 16 their ways bring destruction and calamity, 17 they know nothing of the way of peace;
 18 there is no reverence for God before their eyes.
 19 Whatever the Law says, we know, it says to those who are inside the Law, that every mouth may be shut and 20 all the world made answerable to God; for no person will be acquitted in his sight on the score of obedience to law.
 21 What the Law imparts is the consciousness of sin. But now we have a righteousness of God disclosed apart from law altogether; it is attested by the Law and the prophets, 22 but it is a righteousness of God which comes by believing in Jesus Christ. And it is meant for all who have faith.
 23 No distinctions are drawn. All have sinned, all come short 24 of the glory of God, but they are justified for nothing by his grace through the ransom provided in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God put forward as the means of propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to demonstrate the justice of God in view of the fact that sins previously committed during the time of God's forbearance had been 26 passed over; it was to demonstrate his justice at the present epoch, showing that God is just himself and that he justifies man on the score of faith in Jesus.

27 Then what becomes of our boasting? It is ruled out absolutely. On what principle? On the principle of doing 28 deeds? No, on the principle of faith. We hold a man is justified by faith apart from deeds of the Law altogether.
 29 Or is God only the God of Jews? Is he not the God of the 30 Gentiles as well? Surely he is. Well then, there is one God, a God who will justify the circumcised as they believe 31 and the uncircumcised on the score of faith. Then 'by this faith' we 'cancel the Law'? Not for one moment! We uphold the Law.

4 BUT if so, what can we say about Abraham,* our fore-2 father by natural descent? This, that if 'Abraham was justified on the score of what he did,' he has something to be proud of. But not to be proud of before God.
 3 For what does scripture say? Abraham believed God and 4 this was counted to him as righteousness. Now a worker has his wage counted to him as a due, not as a favour;
 5 but a man who instead of 'working' believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, has his faith counted as righteous-6 ness. Just as David himself describes the bliss of the man who has righteousness counted to him by God apart from what he does—

7 Blessed are they whose breaches of the Law are forgiven, whose sins are covered!

8 Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will not count to him.

9 Now is that description of bliss meant for the circumcised, or for the uncircumcised as well? Abraham's faith, 10 I repeat, was counted to him as righteousness. In what way? When he was a circumcised man or an uncircumcised man? Not when he was circumcised, but when he 11 was uncircumcised. He only got circumcision as a sign or seal of the righteousness which belonged to his faith as an uncircumcised man. The object of this was to make him the father of all who believe as uncircumcised persons 12 and thus have righteousness counted to them, as well as a father of those circumcised persons who not only share circumcision but walk in the steps of the faith which our father Abraham had as an uncircumcised man.

13 The promise made to Abraham and his offspring that he should inherit the world, did not reach him through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is adherents of the Law who are heirs, then faith is empty of all meaning and the promise is void. (What the Law produces is the Wrath, not the promise of God; where there is no law, there is no transgression either.) That is why all turns upon faith; it is to make the promise a matter of favour, to make it secure for all the offspring, not simply for those who are adherents of the Law but also for those who share the faith of Abraham—of Abraham who is the father of us all (as it is written, I have made you a father of many nations). Such a faith implies the presence of the God in whom he believed, a God who makes the dead live and calls into being what does not exist. For Abraham, when hope was gone, hoped on in faith, and thus became the father of many nations—even as he was told, So numberless shall your offspring be. His faith never quailed even when he noted the utter impotence of his own body (for he was about a hundred years old) or the impotence of Sara's womb; no unbelief made him waver about God's promise; his faith won strength as he gave glory to God and felt convinced that He was able to do what He had promised. Hence his faith was counted to him as righteousness. And these words counted to him have not been written for him alone but for our sakes as well; faith will be counted to us as we believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, Jesus who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised that we might be justified.

5 As we are justified by faith, then, let us enjoy the peace we have with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Through him we have got access* to this grace where we have our standing, and triumph in the hope of God's glory. 3 Not only so, but we triumph even in our troubles, knowing 4 that trouble produces endurance, endurance produces character, and character produces hope—a hope which never disappoints us, since God's love floods our hearts through 6 the holy Spirit which has been given to us. For when we were still in weakness, Christ died in due time for the 7 ungodly. For the ungodly! Why, a man will hardly die for the just—though one might bring oneself to die, if need 8 be, for a good man. But God proves his love for us by this, that Christ died for us when we were still sinners. 9 Much more then, now that we are justified by his blood, 10 shall we be saved by him from Wrath. If we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son when we were enemies, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved 11 by his life. Not only so, but we triumph in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we now enjoy our reconciliation.

12 Thus, then, sin came into the world by one man, and death came in by sin; and so death spread to all men, inas-13 much as all men sinned. Sin was indeed in the world before the Law, but sin is never counted in the absence 14 of law. Nevertheless, from Adam to Moses death reigned even over those whose sins were not like Adam's trans-15 gression. Adam prefigured Him who was to come, but the gift is very different from the trespass. For while the rest of men died by the trespass of one man, the grace of God and the free gift which comes by the grace of the one man Jesus Christ overflowed far more richly upon the rest 16 of men. Nor is the free gift like the effect of the one man's sin; for while the sentence ensuing on a single sin resulted in doom, the free gift ensuing on many trespasses issues 17 in acquittal. For if the trespass of one man allowed death to reign through that one man, much more shall those who receive the overflowing grace and free gift of righteousness 18 reign in life through One, through Jesus Christ. Well then, as one man's trespass issued in doom for all, so one man's act of redress issues in acquittal and life for all.

19 Just as one man's disobedience made all the rest sinners, so one man's obedience will make all the rest righteous.
 20 Law slipped in to aggravate the trespass; sin increased, 21 but grace surpassed it far, so that, while sin had reigned the reign of death, grace might also reign with a righteousness that ends in life eternal through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 Now what are we to infer from this? That we are to 2 'remain on in sin, so that there may be all the more 3 grace'? Never! How can we live in sin any longer when 3 we died to sin? Surely you know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into his 4 death! Our baptism in his death made us share his burial, so that, as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live and move in the new sphere of Life.
 5 For if we have grown into him by a death like his, we shall 6 grow into him by a resurrection like his, knowing as we do that our old self has been crucified with him in order to crush the sinful body and free us from any further 7 slavery to sin (for once dead, a man is absolved from the 8 claims of sin). We believe that as we have died with 9 Christ we shall also live with him; for we know that 10 Christ never dies after his resurrection from the dead—11 death has no more hold over him; the death he died was 12 for sin, once for all, but the life he lives is for God. So you 13 must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in 14 Christ Jesus our Lord. Sin is not to reign, then, over your 15 mortal bodies and make you obey their passions; you must 16 not let sin have your members for the service of vice, you 17 must dedicate yourselves to God as men who have been 18 brought from death to life, dedicating your members to 19 God for the service of righteousness. Sin must have no 20 hold over you, for you live under grace, not under law.

 21 What follows, then? Are we 'to sin, because we live 22 under grace, not under law'? Never! Do you not know 23 you are the servants of the master you obey, of the master 24 to whom you yield yourselves obedient, whether it is Sin, 25 whose service ends in death, or Obedience, whose service 26 ends in righteousness? Thank God, though you did serve 27 sin, you have rendered whole-hearted obedience to what 28 you were taught under the rule of faith; set free from sin, 29 you have passed into the service of righteousness. (I use 30 this human analogy to bring the truth home to your weak 31 nature.) As you once dedicated your members to the 32 service of vice and lawlessness,* so now dedicate them to 33 the service of righteousness that means consecration.
 34 When you served sin, you were free of righteousness.
 35 Well, what did you gain then by it all? Nothing but what 36 you are now ashamed of! The end of all that is death; 37 but now that you are set free from sin, now that you have 38 passed into the service of God, your gain is consecration, 39 and the end of that is life eternal. Sin's wage is death, but 40 God's gift is life eternal in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 SURELY you know, my brothers—for I am speaking to 8 men who know what law means—that the law has hold 9 over a person only during his lifetime! Thus a married 10 woman is bound by law to her husband while he is alive; 11 but if the husband dies, she is done with the law of 'the 12 husband.' Accordingly, she will be termed an adulteress 13 if she becomes another man's while her husband is alive; 14 but if her husband dies, she is freed from the law 15 of 'the husband,' so that she is no adulteress if she becomes 16 another man's. It is the same in your case, my brothers.
 17 The crucified body of Christ made you dead to the Law,

* Omitting εἰς τὴν ἀνομίαν, which Hort brackets, as a gloss introduced to complete the parallel of εἰς ἁγιασμόν.

so that you might belong to another, to him who was raised 5 from the dead that we might be fruitful to God. For when we were unspiritual, the sinful cravings excited by the Law were active in our members and made us fruitful to Death; 6 but now we are done with the Law, we have died to what once held us, so that we can serve in a new way, not under the written code as of old but in the Spirit.
 7 What follows then? That 'the Law is equivalent to sin'?
 Never! Why, had it not been for the Law, I would never have known what sin meant! Thus I would never have known what it is to covet, unless the Law had said, You 8 must not covet. The command gave an impulse to sin, and sin resulted for me in all manner of covetous desire—for 9 sin, apart from law, is lifeless. I lived at one time without law myself, but when the command came home to me, 10 sin sprang to life and I died; the command that meant life 11 proved death for me. The command gave an impulse to sin, sin beguiled me and used the command to kill me.
 12 So the Law at any rate is holy, the command is holy, just, 13 and for our good. Then did what was meant for my good prove fatal to me? Never! It was sin; sin resulted in death for me by making use of this good thing. This was how sin was to be revealed in its true nature; it was to use 14 the command to become sinful in the extreme. The Law is spiritual; we know that. But then I am a creature of the 15 flesh, in the thralldom of sin. I cannot understand my own actions; I do not act as I want to act; on the contrary, 16 I do what I detest. Now, when I act against my wishes, 17 that means I agree that the Law is right. That being so, it is not I who do the deed but sin that dwells within me.
 18 For in me (that is, in my flesh) no good dwells, I know; the wish is there, but not the power of doing what is right.
 19 I cannot be good as I want to be, and I do wrong against 20 my wishes. Well, if I act against my wishes, it is not I 21 who do the deed but sin that dwells within me. So this is my experience of the Law: I want to do what is right, 22 but wrong is all I can manage; I cordially agree with God's 23 law, so far as my inner self is concerned, but then I find quite another law in my members which conflicts with the law of my mind and makes me a prisoner to sin's law that 25 resides in my members. (Thus, left to myself, I serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the 24 law of sin.)* Miserable wretch that I am! Who will 25 rescue me from this body of death? God will! Thanks be to him through Jesus Christ our Lord!

* Restoring the second part of ver. 25 to what seems its original and logical position before the climax of ver. 24.

- 8 THUS there is no doom now for those who are in Christ 2 Jesus; the law of the Spirit brings the life which is in 3 Christ Jesus, and that law has set me free from the law of 4 sin and death. For God has done what the Law, weakened 5 here by the flesh, could not do; by sending his own Son in 6 the guise of sinful flesh, to deal with sin, he condemned 7 sin in the flesh, in order to secure the fulfilment of the 8 Law's requirements in our lives, as we live and move not 9 by the flesh but by the Spirit.
- 10 For those who follow the flesh have their interests in 11 the flesh, 12 and those who follow the Spirit have their interests in 13 the Spirit.
- 14 The interests of the flesh mean death, 15 the interests of the Spirit mean life and peace.
- 16 For the interests of the flesh are hostile to God; they do 17 not yield to the law of God (indeed they cannot). Those 18 who are in the flesh cannot satisfy God. But you are not 19 in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God 20 dwells within you. Anyone who does not possess the Spirit 21 of Christ does not belong to Him. On the other hand, 22 if Christ is within you, though the body is a dead thing 23 owing to Adam's sin, the spirit is living as the result of righteousness. And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells within you, then He who raised Christ from the dead will also make your mortal bodies live by his indwelling Spirit in your lives.
- 24 Well then, my brothers, we owe a duty—but it is not to 25 the flesh! It is not to live by the flesh! If you live by 26 the flesh, you are on the road to death; but if by the Spirit 27 you put the actions of the body to death, you will live.
 28 For the sons of God are those who are guided by the Spirit 29 of God. You have received no slavish spirit that would 30 make you relapse into fear; you have received the Spirit 31 of sonship. And when we cry, "Abba! Father!", it is this 32 Spirit testifying along with our own spirit that we are 33 children of God; and if children, heirs as well, heirs of God, heirs along with Christ—for we share his sufferings in order to share his glory.
- 34 Present suffering, I hold, is a mere nothing compared 35 to the glory that we are to have revealed. Even the crea-36 tion waits with eager longing for the sons of God to be 37 revealed. For creation was not rendered futile by its own 38 choice, but by the will of Him who thus made it subject, 39 the hope being that creation as well as man would one 40 day be freed from its thralldom to decay and gain the 41 glorious freedom of the children of God. To this day, we 42 know, the entire creation sighs and throbs with pain; and not only so, but even we ourselves, who have the Spirit as a foretaste of the future, even we sigh to ourselves as we wait for the redemption of the body that means our full sonship. We were saved with this hope in view. Now when an object of hope is seen, there is no further need to hope. Who ever hopes for what he sees already? But if we hope for something that we do not see, we wait for it patiently.

So too the Spirit assists us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray aright, but the Spirit pleads for us with sighs that are beyond words, and He who searches the human heart knows what is in the mind of the Spirit, since the Spirit pleads before God for the saints.

We know also that those who love God, those who have been called in terms of his purpose, have his aid and interest in everything. For he decreed of old that those whom he predestined should share the likeness of his Son—that he might be the firstborn of a great brotherhood. Then he calls those whom he has thus decreed; then he justifies those whom he has called; then he glorifies those whom he has justified.

Now what follows from all this? If God is for us, who can be against us? The God who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, surely He will give us everything besides! Who is to accuse the elect of God? When God acquits, who shall condemn? Will Christ?—the Christ who died, yes and rose from the dead! the Christ who is at God's right hand, who actually pleads for us!

What can ever part us from Christ's love? Can anguish or calamity or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or the sword? (Because, as it is written,

For thy sake we are being killed all the day long, we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.)

No, in all this we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am certain neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, no powers of the Height or of the Depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to part us from God's love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

I AM telling the truth in Christ—it is no lie, my conscience bears me out in the holy Spirit when I say that I am in sore pain. I suffer endless anguish of heart. I could have wished myself accursed and banished from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my natural kinsmen; for they are Israelites, theirs is the Sonship, the Glory, the covenants, the divine legislation, the Worship, and the promises; the patriarchs are theirs, and theirs too (so far as natural descent goes) is the Christ. (Blessed for evermore be the God who is over all! Amen.)

6 It is not, of course, as if God's word had failed! Far from it! 'Israel' does not mean everyone who belongs to 7 Israel; they are not all children of Abraham because they are descended from Abraham. No, it is through Isaac 8 that your offspring shall be reckoned—meaning that instead of God's children being the children born to him by natural descent, it is the children of the Promise who are 9 reckoned as his true offspring. For when God said, I will come about this time and Sara shall have a son, that was 10 a word of promise. And further, when Rebecca became pregnant by our father Isaac, though one man was the 11 father of both children, and though the children were still unborn and had done nothing either good or bad (to confirm the divine purpose in election which depends upon 12 the call of God, not on anything man does), she was told 13 that the elder will serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob I loved but Esau I hated.

14 Then are we to infer that there is injustice in God?
15 Never! God says to Moses,
I will have mercy on whom I choose to have mercy,
I will have compassion on whom I choose to have compassion.

16 You see, it is not a question of human will or effort but 17 of the divine mercy. Why, scripture says to Pharaoh, It was for this that I raised you up, to display my power in you, and to spread news of my name over all the earth.

18 Thus God has mercy on anyone just as he pleases, and he makes anyone stubborn just as he pleases.
19 "Then," you will retort, "why does He go on finding 20 fault? Who can oppose his will?" But who are you, my man, to speak back to God? Is something a man has moulded to ask him who has moulded it, "Why did you 21 make me like this?" What! has the potter no right over the clay? Has he no right to make out of the same lump one vessel for a noble purpose and another for a menial?
22 What if God, though desirous to display his anger and show his might, has tolerated most patiently the objects 23 of his anger, ripe and ready to be destroyed? What if he means to show the wealth that lies in his glory for the objects of his mercy, whom he has made ready before-24 hand to receive glory—that is, for us whom he has called 25 from among the Gentiles as well as the Jews? As indeed he says in Hosea,

Those who were no people of mine, I will call 'my People,'

- and her 'beloved' who was not beloved; 26 on the very spot where they were told, 'You are no people of mine,' there shall they be called 'sons of the living God.'
- 27 And Isaiah exclaims, with regard to Israel, Though the number of the sons of Israel be like the sand of the sea, 28 only a remnant of them shall be saved; for the Lord will carry out his sentence on earth with rigour and despatch.
- 29 Indeed, as Isaiah foretold, Had not the Lord of hosts left us with some descendants, we would have fared like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorra.
- 30 What are we to conclude, then? That Gentiles who never aimed at righteousness have attained righteousness, that 31 is, righteousness by faith; whereas Israel who did aim at the law of righteousness have failed to reach that law.
- 32 And why? Simply because Israel has relied not on faith but on what they could do. They have stumbled over the 33 stone that makes men stumble—as it is written, Here I lay a stone in Sion that will make men stumble, even a rock to trip them up;
but he who believes in Him will never be disappointed.

- 2 10 OH for their salvation, brothers! That is my heart's desire and prayer to God! I can vouch for their zeal 3 for God; only, it is not zeal with knowledge. They would not surrender to the righteousness of God, because they were ignorant of his righteousness and therefore essayed 4 to set up a righteousness of their own. Now Christ is an end to law, so as to let every believer have righteousness.
- 5 Moses writes of law-righteousness, Anyone who can perform it, shall live by it. But here is what faith-righteousness says:—Say not in your heart, 'Who will go up to heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down). Or, 'who will go down to the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ from the 8 dead). No, what it does say is this:—The word is close to you, in your very mouth and in your heart (that is, the 9 word of faith which we preach). Confess with your mouth that 'Jesus is Lord,' believe in your heart that God raised 10 him from the dead, and you will be saved; for with his heart man believes and is justified, with his mouth he confesses and is saved.
- 11 No one who believes in him, the scripture says, will ever 12 be disappointed. No one—for there is no distinction of Jew and Greek, the same Lord is Lord of them all, with 13 ample for all who invoke him. Everyone who invokes the name of the Lord shall be saved. But how are they to 14 invoke One in whom they do not believe? And how are

- they to believe in One of whom they have never heard?
 15 And how are they ever to hear, without a preacher? And how can men preach unless they are sent?—as it is written, How pleasant is the coming of men with glad, good news!
 16 But they have not all given in to the gospel of glad news? No, Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what they 17 heard from us? (You see, faith must come from what is heard, and what is heard comes from word of Christ.) 18 But, I ask, “Have they never heard?” Indeed they have.

Their voice carried over all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

- 19 Then, I ask, “Did Israel not understand?” Why, first of all Moses declares,

*I will make you jealous of a nation that is no nation,
 I will provoke you to anger over a nation devoid of understanding.*

- 20 And then Isaiah dares to say,

I have been found by those who never sought me, I have shown myself to those who never inquired of me.

- 21 He also says of Israel, All the day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people.

11 Then, I ask, has God repudiated his People? Never!

- Why, I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin! God has not repudiated his People, his predestined People! Surely you know what scripture says in the passage called ‘Elijah’?
 3 You know how he pleads with God against Israel: Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have demolished thine
 4 altars; I alone am left, and they seek my life. Yet what is the divine answer? I have left myself seven thousand
 5 men who have not knelt to Baal. Well, at the present 6 day there is also a remnant, selected by grace. Selected by grace, and therefore not for anything they have done; otherwise grace would cease to be grace.*

- 7 Now what are we to infer from this? That Israel has failed to secure the object of its quest; the elect have secured it, and the rest of men have been rendered insens-8 sible to it—as it is written,

God has given them a spirit of torpor, eyes that see not, ears that hear not—

- 9 down to this very day. And David says, Let their table prove a snare and a trap, a pitfall and a retribution for them;

- 10 let their eyes be darkened, that they cannot see, bow down their backs for ever.

* Omitting [εἰ δὲ ἐξ ἔργων, οὐκέτι ἐστὶν χάρις, ἐπεὶ τὸ ἔργον οὐκέτι ἐστὶν ἔργον] with the Latin version and most MSS.

11 Now I ask, have they stumbled to their ruin? Never!
The truth is, that by their lapse salvation has passed to 12 the Gentiles, so as to make them jealous. Well, if their lapse has enriched the world, if their defection is the gain of the Gentiles, what will it mean when they all come in?
13 I tell you this, you Gentiles, that as an apostle to the 14 Gentiles I lay great stress on my office, in the hope of being able to make my fellow-Jews jealous and of manag-15 ing thus to save some of them. For if their exclusion means that the world is reconciled to God, what will their admission mean? Why, it will be life from the dead!

16 If the first handful of dough is consecrated, so is the rest of the lump;

if the root is consecrated, so are the branches.

17 Supposing some of the branches have been broken off, while you have been grafted in like a shoot of wild olive 18 to share the rich growth of the olive-stem, do not pride yourself at the expense of these branches. Remember, in 19 your pride, the stem supports you, not you the stem. You will say, "But branches were broken off to let me be 20 grafted in!" Granted. They were broken off—for their lack of faith. And you owe your position to your faith.
21 You should feel awed instead of being uplifted. For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare 22 you either. Consider both the kindness and the severity of God; those who fall come under his severity, but you come under the divine kindness, provided you adhere to that kindness. Otherwise, you will be cut away too.
23 And even the others will be grafted in, if they do not adhere to their unbelief; God can graft them in again.
24 For if you have been cut from an olive which is naturally wild, and grafted, contrary to nature, upon a garden olive, how much more will the natural branches be grafted into their proper olive?

25 To prevent you from being self-conceited, brothers, I would like you to understand this secret: it is only a partial insensibility that has come over Israel, until the full 26 number of the Gentiles come in. This done, all Israel will be saved—as it is written,

The deliverer will come from Sion, he will banish all godlessness from Jacob:

27 this is my covenant with them, when I take their sins away.

28 So far as the gospel goes, they are enemies of God—which is to your advantage; but so far as election goes, they are 29 beloved for their father's sake. For God never goes back upon his gifts and call.

30 Once you disobeyed God,

- and now you enjoy his mercy thanks to their disobedience;
 in the same way they at present are disobedient, 31 so that they in turn may enjoy the same mercy as yourselves.
 32 For God has consigned all men to disobedience, that he may have mercy upon all.
 33 What a fathomless wealth lies in the wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable his judgments! How mysterious his methods!
 34 Whoever understood the thoughts of the Lord? Who has ever been his counsellor?
 35 Who has first given to him and has to be repaid? All comes from him, all lives by him, all ends in him. Glory to him for ever, Amen!

- 12 WELL then, my brothers, I appeal to you by all the mercy of God to dedicate your bodies as a living sacrifice, consecrated and acceptable to God; that is your 2 cult, a spiritual rite. Instead of being moulded to this world, have your mind renewed, and so be transformed in nature, able to make out what the will of God is, namely, what is good and acceptable to him and perfect.
 3 In virtue of my office, I tell everyone of your number who is self-important,* that he is not to think more of himself than he ought to think; he must take a sane view of himself, corresponding to the degree of faith which 4 God has assigned to each. In our one body we have a number of members, and the members have not all the 5 same function; so too, for all our numbers, we form one Body in Christ and we are severally members one of 6 another. Our talents differ with the grace that is given us; if the talent is that of prophecy, let us employ it in 7 proportion to our faith; if it is practical service, let us mind our service; the teacher must mind his teaching, 8 the speaker his words of counsel; the contributor must be liberal, the superintendent must be in earnest, the sick 9 visitor must be cheerful. Let your love be a real thing, with a loathing for evil and a bent for what is good.
 10 Put affection into your love for the brotherhood; be forward to honour one another; never let your zeal flag; 12 maintain the spiritual glow; serve the Lord; let your hope 13 be a joy to you; be steadfast in trouble, attend to prayer, contribute to needy saints, make a practice of hospitality.
 14 Bless those who make a practice of persecuting you; bless 15 them instead of cursing them. Rejoice with those who

* I accept the ingenious conjecture that $\tau\epsilon$ has fallen out after $\delta\upsilon\tau\epsilon$.

- 16 rejoice, and weep with those who weep. Keep in harmony with one another; instead of being ambitious, associate 17 with humble folk; never be self-conceited. Never pay back evil for evil to anyone; aim to be above reproach in the 18 eyes of all; be at peace with all men, if possible, so far 19 as that depends on you. Never revenge yourselves, beloved, but let the Wrath of God have its way; for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will exact a requital—the Lord has said it. No, 20 if your enemy is hungry, feed him, if he is thirsty, give him drink; for in this way you will make him feel a burning sense of shame.
 21 Do not let evil get the better of you; get the better of evil by doing good.

- 13 EVERY subject must obey the government-authorities, for no authority exists apart from God; the existing 2 authorities have been constituted by God. Hence anyone who resists authority is opposing the divine order, and 3 the opposition will bring judgment on themselves. Magistrates are no terror to an honest man,* though they are to a bad man. If you want to avoid being alarmed at the government-authorities, lead an honest life and you will be 4 commended for it; the magistrate is God's servant for your benefit. But if you do wrong, you may well be alarmed; a magistrate does not wield the power of the sword for nothing, he is God's servant for the infliction of 5 divine vengeance upon evil-doers. You must be obedient, therefore, not only to avoid the divine vengeance but as 6 a matter of conscience, for the same reason as you pay taxes—since magistrates are God's officers, bent upon the 7 maintenance of order and authority. Pay them all their respective dues, tribute to one, taxes to another, respect 8 to this man, honour to that. Be in debt to no man—apart from the debt of love one to another. He who loves his 9 fellow-man has fulfilled the law. You must not commit adultery, you must not kill, you must not steal, you must not covet—these and any other command are summed up in a single word, You must love your neighbour as yourself.
 10 Love never wrongs a neighbour; that is why love is the fulfilment of the law.
 11 And then you know what this Crisis means, you know it is high time to waken up; for Salvation is nearer to us

* Reading ἀγαθοεργῶ, Patrick Young's attractive conjecture (confirmed by the Ethiopic version). As Hort points out, "the apparent antithesis to τῷ κακῷ could hardly fail to introduce τῷ ἀγαθῷ."

12 now than when we first believed. It is far on in the night, the day is almost here; so let us drop the deeds of dark-13 ness and put on the armour of the light; let us live decorously as in the open light of day—no revelry or bouts of drinking, no debauchery or sensuality, no quarrelling or 14 jealousy. No, put on the character of the Lord Jesus Christ, and never think how to gratify the cravings of the flesh.

2 14 WELCOME a man of weak faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgment on his scruples. While one man has enough confidence to eat any food, the man of 3 weak faith only eats vegetables. The eater must not look down upon the non-eater, and the non-eater must not 4 criticize the eater, for God has welcomed him. Who are you to criticize the servant of Another? It is for his Master to say whether he stands or falls; and stand he 5 will, for the Master has power to make him stand. Then again, this man rates one day above another, while that man rates all days alike. Well, everyone must be convinced 6 in his own mind; the man who values a particular day does so to the Lord.*

The eater eats to the Lord, since he thanks God for his food;
 the non-eater abstains to the Lord, and he too thanks God.

7 For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself; 8 if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord.
 9 Thus we are the Lord's whether we live or die; it was for this that Christ died and rose and came to life, to be Lord 10 both of the dead and of the living. So why do you criticize your brother? And you, why do you look down upon your brother? All of us have to stand before the tribunal of 11 God—for it is written,

As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bend before me, every tongue shall offer praise to God.

12 Each of us then will have to answer for himself to God.
 13 So let us stop criticizing one another; rather make up your mind never to put any stumbling-block or hindrance 14 in your brother's way. I know, I am certain in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is in itself unclean; only, anything is 15 unclean for a man who considers it unclean. If your brother is being injured because you eat a certain food,

* Omitting [καὶ ὁ μὴ φρονῶν τὴν ἡμέραν κυρίῳ οὐ φρονεῖ] with the Latin version and most manuscripts.

then you are no longer living by the rule of love. Do not let that food of yours ruin the man for whom Christ died.
 16 Your rights must not get a bad name. The Reign of God 17 is not a matter of eating and drinking, it means right-18 ousness, joy, and peace in the holy Spirit; he who serves Christ on these lines, is acceptable to God and esteemed 19 by men. Peace, then, and the building up of each other, 20 these are what we must aim at. You must not break down God's work for the mere sake of food! Everything may be clean, but it is wrong for a man to prove a stumbling-21 block by what he eats; the right course is to abstain from flesh or wine or indeed anything that your brother feels 22 to be a stumbling-block.* Certainly keep your own conviction on the matter, as between yourself and God; he is a fortunate man who has no misgivings about what he 23 allows himself to eat. But if anyone has doubts about eating and then eats, that condemns him at once; it was not faith that induced him to eat, and any action that is not based on faith is a sin.

15 We who are strong ought to bear the burdens that the weak make for themselves and us. We are not to please ourselves. Each of us must please his neighbour, 3 doing him good by building up his faith. Christ certainly did not please himself, but, as it is written, The reproaches of those who denounced Thee have fallen upon me.— 4 All such words were written of old for our instruction, that by remaining stedfast and drawing encouragement 5 from the scriptures we may cherish hope. May the God who inspires stedfastness and encouragement grant you 6 such harmony with one another, after Christ Jesus, that you may unite in a chorus of praise and glory to the God 7 and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! Welcome one another, then, as Christ has welcomed yourselves, for the 8 glory of God. Christ, I mean, became a servant to the circumcised in order to prove God's honesty by fulfilling 9 His promises to the fathers, and also in order that the Gentiles should glorify God for His mercy—as it is written, Therefore will I offer praise to Thee among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name;

10 or again,
Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his People;

11 or again,
Extol the Lord, all Gentiles, let all the peoples praise him;

12 or again, as Isaiah says,

* Omitting [ἡ σκανδαλίζεται ἡ ἀσθενεί] with N* A C, Origen, the Peshitto, etc., as a homiletic gloss.

Then shall the Scion of Jessai live, he who rises to rule the Gentiles; on him shall the Gentiles set their hope.

13 May the God of your hope so fill you with all joy and peace in your faith, that you may be overflowing with hope by the power of the holy Spirit!

14 Personally I am quite certain, my brothers, that even as it is you have ample goodness of heart, you are filled with knowledge of every kind, and you are well able to give 15 advice to one another. Still, by way of refreshing your memory, I have written you with a certain freedom, in 16 virtue of my divine commission as a priest of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the service of God's gospel. My aim is to make the Gentiles an acceptable offering, consecrated 17 by the holy Spirit. Now in Christ Jesus I can be proud 18 of my work for God. I will not make free to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished by me in the way of securing the obedience of the Gentiles, by my words 19 and by my deeds, by the force of miracles and marvels, by the power of the Spirit of God. Thus from Jerusalem right round to Illyricum, I have been able to complete the 20 preaching of the gospel of Christ—my ambition always being to preach it only in places where there had been no mention of Christ's name, that I might not build on founda-21 tions laid by others, but that (as it is written)

They should see who never had learned about him, and they who had never heard of him should understand.

22 This is why I have been so often prevented from visiting 23 you. But now, as I have no further scope for work in these parts, and as for a number of years I have had a longing 24 to visit you whenever I went to Spain, I am hoping to see you on my way there, and to be sped forward by you 25 after I have enjoyed your company for a while. At the moment I am off to Jerusalem on an errand to the saints.
26 For Macedonia and Achaia have decided to make a contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem. Such 27 was their decision; and yet this is a debt they owe to these people, for if the Gentiles have shared their spiritual blessings, they owe them a debt of aid in material blessings.
28 Well, once I finish this business by putting the proceeds of the collection safely in their hands, I will start for 29 Spain and take you on the way. When I do come to you, I know I will bring a full blessing from Christ.

30 Brothers, I beg of you, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love that the Spirit inspires, rally round me by pray-31 ing to God for me; pray that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judaea, and also that my mission to Jeru-

- 32 salem may prove acceptable to the saints. Then, by God's will, I shall gladly come to you and rest beside you.
- 33 The God of peace be with you all! Amen.

- 2 16 LET me introduce our sister Phoebe, a deaconess of the church at Cenchreae; receive her in the Lord as saints should receive one another, and give her any help she may require. She has been a help herself to many people, including myself.
- 3 Salute Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ
- 4 Jesus, who have risked their lives for me; I thank them,
- 5 and not only I but all the Gentile churches as well. Also, salute the church that meets in their house. Salute my beloved Epaenetus, the first in Asia to be reaped for
- 6 Christ. Salute Mary, who has worked hard for you.
- 7 Salute Andronicus and Junias, fellow-countrymen and fellow-prisoners of mine; they are men of note among the apostles, and they have been in Christ longer than I have.
- 8 Salute Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. Salute Urbanus,
- 9 our fellow-worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.
- 10 Salute that tried Christian, Apelles. Salute those who
- 11 belong to the household of Aristobulus. Salute my fellow-countryman Herodion. Salute such members of the
- 12 household of Narcissus as are in the Lord. Salute Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who work hard in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis; she has worked very hard in the Lord.
- 13 Salute that choice Christian, Rufus; also his mother, who
- 14 has been a mother to me. Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers of their company. Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister,
- 15 Olympas too, and all the saints in their company. Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ
- 16 salute you.
- 17 Brothers, I beg of you to keep your eye on those who stir up dissensions and put hindrances in your way, contrary to the doctrine which you have been taught. Avoid
- 18 them. Such creatures are no servants of Christ our Lord, they are slaves of their own base desires; with their plausible and pious talk they beguile the hearts of unsuspecting
- 19 people. But surely not of you! Everyone has heard of your loyalty to the gospel; it makes me rejoice over you. Still, I want you to be experts in good and innocents in
- 20 evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet!
- The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
- 21 Timotheus my fellow-worker salutes you; so do my fellow-countrymen Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater.
- 22 I Tertius, who write the letter, salute you in the Lord.

- 23 Gaius, my host and the host of the church at large, salutes you. Erastus the city-treasurer salutes you; so does brother Quartus.
- 25 [Now to Him who can strengthen you by my gospel, by the preaching of Jesus Christ, by revealing the secret
- 26 purpose which after the silence of long ages has now been disclosed and made known on the basis of the prophetic scriptures (by command of the eternal God) to all the
- 27 Gentiles for their obedience to the faith—to the only wise God be glory through Jesus Christ for ever and ever: Amen.]

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

1 PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will 2 of God, with brother Sosthenes, to the church of God at Corinth, to those who are consecrated in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, as well as to all who, wherever they may be, invoke the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their 3 Lord no less than ours: grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I always thank my God for the grace of God that has 5 been bestowed on you in Christ Jesus; in him you have received a wealth of all blessing, full power to speak of 6 your faith and full insight into its meaning, all of which verifies the testimony we bore to Christ when we were 7 with you. Thus you lack no spiritual endowment during these days of waiting till our Lord Jesus Christ is revealed; 8 and to the very end he will guarantee that you are vin-9 dicated on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is the God who called you to this fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
10 Brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ I beg of you all to drop these party-cries. There must be no cliques among you; you must regain your common temper 11 and attitude. For Chloe's people inform me that you are 12 quarrelling. By 'quarrelling' I mean that each of you has his party-cry, "I belong to Paul," "And I to Apollos," "And 13 I to Cephas," "And I to Christ." Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul who was crucified for you? Was it in 14 Paul's name that you were baptized? I am thankful now that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one can say you were baptized in my name.
16 (Well, I did baptize the household of Stephanas, but no one 17 else, as far as I remember.) Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel.

And to preach it with no fine rhetoric, lest the cross of 18 Christ should lose its power! Those who are doomed to perish find the story of the cross 'sheer folly,' but it 19 means the power of God for those whom he saves. It is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the sages, 20 I will confound the insight of the wise. Sage, scribe,

- critic of this world, where are they all? Has not God 21 stultified the wisdom of the world? For when the world with all its wisdom failed to know God in his wisdom, God resolved to save believers by the 'sheer folly' of the Chris-22 tian message. Jews demand miracles and Greeks want 23 wisdom, but our message is Christ the crucified—a stum-24 bling-block to the Jews, 'sheer folly' to the Gentiles, but for those who are called, whether Jews or Greeks, a Christ who is the power of God and the wisdom of God.
 25 For the 'foolishness' of God is wiser than men, and the 'weakness' of God is stronger than men.
 26 Why, look at your own ranks, my brothers; not many wise men (that is, judged by human standards), not many leading men, not many of good birth, have been called!
 27 No,
 God has chosen what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; 28 God has chosen what is weak in the world to shame what is strong; God has chosen what is mean and despised in the world—things which are not, to put down things that are; 29 that no person may boast in the sight of God. This is the 30 God to whom you owe your being in Christ Jesus, whom God has made our 'Wisdom,' that is, our righteousness 31 and consecration and redemption; so that, as it is written, let him who boasts boast of the Lord.

- 2 THUS when I came to you, my brothers, I did not come to proclaim to you God's secret purpose* with any elab-2 orate words or wisdom. I determined among you to be ignorant of everything except Jesus Christ, and Jesus 3 Christ the crucified. It was in weakness and fear and 4 with great trembling that I visited you; what I said, what I preached, did not rest on the plausible arguments of 'wisdom' but on the proof supplied by the Spirit and its 5 power, so that your faith might not rest on any human 'wisdom' but on the power of God.
 6 We do discuss 'wisdom' with those who are mature; only it is not the wisdom of this world or of the dethroned 7 Powers who rule this world, it is the mysterious Wisdom of God that we discuss, that hidden wisdom which God 8 decreed from all eternity for our glory. None of the Powers of this world understands it (if they had, they would never 9 have crucified the Lord of glory). No, as it is written,

* The textual evidence for μαρτύριον is slightly stronger, but I incline upon the whole to regard it as a secondary reading, due to i. 6, and to adopt μυστήριον.

what no eye has ever seen, what no ear has ever heard, what never entered the mind of man, God has prepared all that for those who love him.

10 And God has revealed it to us by the Spirit, for the Spirit fathoms everything, even the depths of God.

11 What human being can understand the thoughts of a man, except the man's own inner spirit?
 So too no one understands the thoughts of God, except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received the Spirit—not the spirit of the world but the Spirit that comes from God, that we may 13 understand what God bestows upon us. And this is what we discuss, using language taught by no human wisdom but by the Spirit. We interpret what is spiritual in spiritual language. The unspiritual man rejects these truths 14 of the Spirit of God; to him they are 'sheer folly,' he cannot understand them. And the reason is, that they 15 must be read with the spiritual eye. The spiritual man, again, can read the meaning of everything; and yet no one 16 can read what he is. For who ever understood the thoughts of the Lord, so as to give him instruction? No one. Well, our thoughts are Christ's thoughts.

3 BUT I could not discuss things with you, my brothers, as spiritual persons; I had to address you as worldlings, 2 as mere babes in Christ. I fed you with milk, not with solid food. You were not able for solid food, and you are 3 not able even now; you are still worldly. For with jealousy and quarrels in your midst, are you not worldly, 4 are you not behaving like ordinary men? When one cries, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," 5 what are you but men of the world? Who is Apollos? Who is Paul? They are simply used by God to give you faith, each as the Lord assigns his task.

6 I did the planting, Apollos did the watering, but it was God who made the seed grow.
 7 So neither planter nor waterer counts, but God alone who makes the seed grow.
 8 Still, though planter and waterer are on the same level, each will get his own wage for the special work that he has done.

9 We work together in God's service; you are God's 10 field to be planted, God's house to be built. In virtue of my commission from God, I laid the foundation of the house like an expert master-builder. It remains for another to build on this foundation. Whoever he is, let him be

- 11 careful how he builds. The foundation is laid, namely 12 Jesus Christ, and no one can lay any other. On that foundation anyone may build gold, silver, precious stones, 13 wood, hay, or straw, but in every case the nature of his work will come out; the Day will show what it is, for the Day breaks in fire, and the fire will test the work of each, no matter what that work may be.
- 14 If the structure raised by any man survives, he will be rewarded; 15 if a man's work is burnt up, he will be a loser—and though he will be saved himself, he will be snatched from the very flames.
- 16 Do you not know you are God's temple and that God's 17 Spirit dwells within you? God will destroy anyone who would destroy God's temple, for God's temple is sacred—and that is what you are.
- 18 Let no one deceive himself about this; whoever of you imagines he is wise with this world's wisdom must become 19 a 'fool,' if he is really to be wise. For God ranks this world's wisdom as 'sheer folly.' It is written, He seizes 20 the wise in their craftiness, and again, The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise is futile.
- 21 So you must not boast about men. For all belongs to 22 you; Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life, death, the 23 present and the future—all belongs to you; and you belong to Christ, and Christ to God.

- 2 4 THIS is how you are to look upon us, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's secret truths. Now in this matter of stewards your first requirement is that they 3 must be trustworthy. It matters very little to me that you or any human court should cross-question me on this point.
 4 I do not even cross-question myself; for, although I am not conscious of having anything against me, that does not clear me. It is the Lord who cross-questions me on the 5 matter. So do not criticize at all; the hour of reckoning has still to come, when the Lord will come to bring dark secrets to the light and to reveal life's inner aims and motives. Then each of us will get his meed of praise from God.
- 6 Now I have applied what has been said above to myself and Apollos, to teach you . . . *that you are not to be puffed up with rivalry over one teacher as against another.

* The text and the meaning of the phrase between μάθητε and ἵνα μὴ are beyond recovery.

7 Who singles you out, my brother? What do you possess that has not been given you? And if it was given you, why do you boast as if it had been gained, not given?

8 You Corinthians have your heart's desire already, have you? You have heaven's rich bliss already! You have come into your kingdom without us! I wish indeed you had come into your kingdom, so that we could share it

9 with you! For it seems to me that God means us apostles to come in at the very end, like the doomed gladiators in the arena! We are made a spectacle to the world, to 10 angels and to men! We, for Christ's sake, are 'fools'; you in Christ are sensible. We are weak, you are strong; you are honoured, we are in disrepute. To this very hour we hunger and thirst, we are ill-clad and knocked about,

12 we are waifs, we work hard for our living; when reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we put up with it; when defamed, we try to conciliate. To this hour we are treated as the scum of the earth, the very refuse of the world!

14 I do not write this to make you feel ashamed, but to instruct you as beloved children of mine. You may have thousands to superintend you in Christ, but you have not more than one father. It was I who in Christ Jesus became

16 your father by means of the gospel. Then imitate me, I beg of you. To ensure this, I am sending you Timotheus, my beloved and trustworthy son in the Lord; he will remind you of those methods in Christ Jesus which I

18 teach everywhere in every church. Certain individuals have got puffed up, have they, as if I were not coming myself? I will come to you before long, if the Lord wills, and then I will find out from these puffed up creatures not 20 what their talk but what their power amounts to. For God's Reign does not show itself in talk but in power. Which is it to be? Am I to come to you with a rod of discipline or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and immorality such as is unknown even among

2 pagans—that a man has taken his father's wife! And yet you are puffed up! You ought much rather to be mourning the loss of a member! Expel the perpetrator of such a

3 crime! For my part, present with you in spirit though absent in body, I have already, as in your presence, passed

4 sentence on such an offender as this, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ; I have met with you in spirit and 5 by the power of our Lord Jesus I have consigned that individual to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, in order that his spirit may be saved on the Day of the Lord Jesus.

- 6 Your boasting is no credit to you. Do you not know that 7 a morsel of dough will leaven the whole lump? Clean out the old dough that you may be a fresh lump. For you are free from the old leaven; Christ our paschal lamb has been 8 sacrificed. So let us celebrate our festival, not with any old leaven, not with vice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of innocence and integrity.
- 9 In my letter I wrote that you were not to associate with 10 the immoral. I did not mean you were literally to avoid contact with the immoral in this world, with the lustful and the thievish, or with idolaters; in that case you would 11 have to leave the world altogether. What I now write is that you are not to associate with any so-called brother who is immoral or lustful or idolatrous or given to abuse or drink or robbery. Associate with him! Do not even 12 eat with him! Outsiders it is no business of mine to judge.
 No, you must judge those who are inside the church, for 13 yourselves; as for outsiders, God will judge them. Expel the wicked from your company.

- 6 WHEN any of you has a grievance against his neighbour, do you dare to go to law in a sinful pagan court, 2 instead of laying the case before the saints? Do you not know the saints are to manage the world? If the world is to come under your jurisdiction, are you incompetent to 3 adjudicate upon trifles? Do you not know we are to manage 4 angels, let alone mundane issues? And yet, when you have mundane issues to settle, you refer them to the judgment of men who from the point of view of the church are 5 of no account! I say this to put you to shame. Has it come to this, that there is not a single wise man among you who could decide a dispute between members of the 6 brotherhood, instead of one brother going to law with 7 another—and before unbelievers too! Even to have lawsuits with one another is in itself evidence of defeat.
 Why not rather let yourselves be wronged? Why not 8 rather let yourselves be defrauded? But instead of that you inflict wrong and practise frauds—and that upon 9 members of the brotherhood! What! do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the Realm of God? Make no mistake about it; neither the immoral nor idolaters nor 10 adulterers nor catamites nor sodomites nor thieves nor the lustful nor the drunken nor the abusive nor robbers 11 will inherit the Realm of God. Some of you were once like that; but you washed yourselves clean, you were consecrated, you were justified in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

12 'All things are lawful for me'?

Yes, but not all are good for me.

'All things are lawful for me'?

Yes, but I am not going to let anything master me.

13 'Food is meant for the stomach, and the stomach for food'?

Yes, and God will do away with the one and the other.

The body is not meant for immorality but for the Lord, 14 and the Lord is for the body; and the God who raised the 15 Lord will also raise us by his power. Do you not know your bodies are members of Christ? Am I to take Christ's 16 members and devote them to a harlot? Never! Do you not know that he who joins himself to a harlot is one with her in body

(for the pair, it is said, shall become one flesh),

17 while he who joins himself to the Lord is one with him in spirit.

18 Shun immorality! Any other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his 19 body. Do you not know your body is the temple of the holy Spirit within you—the Spirit you have received from 20 God? You are not your own, you were bought for a price; then glorify God with your body.

7 Now about the questions in your letter.

It is an excellent thing for a man to have no intercourse 2 with a woman; but there is so much immorality that every man had better have a wife of his own and every woman a husband of her own.

3 The husband must give the wife her conjugal dues, and the wife in the same way must give her husband his;

4 the wife cannot do as she pleases with her body—her husband has power, and in the same way the husband cannot do as he pleases with his body—his wife has power.

5 Do not withhold sexual intercourse from one another, unless you agree to do so for a time in order to devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again. You 6 must not let Satan tempt you through incontinence. But what I have just said is by way of concession, not com-7 mand. I would like all men to be as I am. However, everyone is endowed by God in his own way; he has a gift for the one life or the other.

8 To the unmarried and to widows I would say this: it is an excellent thing if like me they remain as they are.

- 9 Still, if they cannot restrain themselves, let them marry. Better marry than be aflame with passion!
- 10 For married people these are my instructions (and they are the Lord's, not mine). A wife is not to separate from
- 11 her husband—if she has separated, she must either remain single or be reconciled to him—and a husband must not put away his wife.
- 12 To other people I would say (not the Lord):—
if any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and if she consents to live with him, he must not put her away;
- 13 and if any wife has a husband who is not a believer, and if he consents to live with her, she must not put her husband away.
- 14 For the unbelieving husband is consecrated in the person of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is consecrated in the person of the Christian brother she has married; otherwise, of course, your children would be unholy instead
- 15 of being consecrated to God. (Should the unbelieving partner be determined to separate, however, separation let it be; in such cases the Christian brother or sister is not tied to marriage.) It is to a life of peace that God has
- 16 called us.* O wife, how do you know you may not save your husband? O husband, how do you know you may not save your wife?
- 17 Only, everyone must lead the lot assigned him by the Lord; he must go on living the life in which God's call came to him. (Such is the rule I lay down for all the churches).
- 18 Was a man circumcised at the time he was called?
Then he is not to efface the marks of it.
Has any man been called when he was uncircumcised?
Then he is not to get circumcised.
- 19 Circumcision counts for nothing, uncircumcision counts for nothing; obedience to God's commands is everything.
- 20 Everyone must remain in the condition of life where he
- 21 was called. You were a slave when you were called? Never mind. Of course, if you do find it possible to get
- 22 free, you had better avail yourself of the opportunity. But a slave who is called to be in the Lord is a freedman of the Lord. Just as a free man who is called is a slave of
- 23 Christ (for you were bought for a price; you must not
- 24 turn slaves to any man). Brothers, everyone must remain with God in the condition of life where he was called.

* Reading ἡμᾶς with B D G, the Latin version, Origen, Chrysostom, etc., instead of ὁμᾶς.

- 25 I have no orders from the Lord for unmarried women, but I will give you the opinion of one whom you can trust, 26 after all the Lord's mercy to him. Well, what I think is this: that, considering the imminent distress in these days, it would be an excellent plan for you to remain just as you are.
- 27 Are you tied to a wife? Never try to untie the knot.
Are you free? Never try to get married.
- 28 Of course, if you are actually married, there is no sin in that;
and if a maid marries, there is no sin in that.
(At the same time those who marry will have outward 29 trouble—and I would spare you that.) I mean, brothers,— the interval has been shortened;
so let those who have wives live as if they had none, 30 let mourners live as if they were not mourning, let the joyful live as if they had no joy, let buyers live as if they had no hold on their goods, 31 let those who mix in the world live as if they were not engrossed in it, for the present phase of things is passing away.
- 32 I want you to be free from all anxieties.
The unmarried man is anxious about the Lord's affairs, how best to satisfy the Lord; 33 the married man is anxious about worldly affairs, 34 how best to satisfy his wife—so he is torn in two directions.
The unmarried woman or the maid* is also anxious about the Lord's affairs, how to be consecrated, body and spirit;
once married, she is anxious about worldly affairs, how best to satisfy her husband.
- 35 I am saying this in your own interests. Not that I want to restrict your freedom. It is only to secure decorum and concentration upon a life of devotion to the Lord.
- 36 At the same time, if any man considers he is not behaving properly to the maid who is his spiritual bride, if his passions are strong and if it must be so, then let him do what he wants—let them be married; it is no sin for him.
- 37 But the man of firm purpose who has made up his mind, who, instead of being forced against his will, has determined to himself to keep his maid a spiritual bride—that 38 man will be doing the right thing. Thus both are right alike in marrying and in refraining from marriage, but he who does not marry will be found to have done better.
- 39 A woman is bound to her husband during his lifetime;

* Reading ἡ γυνὴ ἡ ἀγαμος καὶ ἡ παρθένος with p¹⁵ B P, the Vulgate, etc.

but if he dies, she is free to marry anyone she pleases—40 only, it must be a Christian. However, she is happier if she remains as she is; that is my opinion—and I suppose I have the Spirit of God as well as other people!

8 WITH regard to food that has been offered to idols.
 Here, of course, 'we all possess knowledge'! Knowledge 2 puffs up, love builds up. Whoever imagines he has attained to some degree of knowledge, does not possess the true 3 knowledge yet; but if anyone loves God, he is known by 4 Him. Well then, with regard to food that has been offered to idols, I am quite aware that 'there is no such thing as an idol in the world' and that 'there is only the one 5 God.' (So-called gods there may be, in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are plenty of them, both gods and 'lords'— 6 but for us

there is one God, the Father, from whom all comes,
 and for whom we exist;
 one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom all exists, and by whom we exist.)

7 But remember, it is not everyone who has this 'knowledge.' Some who have hitherto been accustomed to idols eat the food as food which has been really offered to an idol, and 8 so their weaker conscience is contaminated. Now mere food will not bring us any nearer to God; if we abstain we do not lose anything, and if we eat we do not gain anything.
 9 But see that the exercise of your right does not prove any 10 stumbling-block to the weak. Suppose anyone sees you, a person of enlightened mind, reclining at meat inside an idol's temple; will that really 'fortify his weak conscience'?
 Will it not embolden him to violate his scruples of conscience by eating food that has been offered to idols?
 11 He is ruined, this weak man, ruined by your 'enlightened 12 mind,' this brother for whose sake Christ died! By sinning against the brotherhood in this way and wounding their weaker consciences, you are sinning against Christ.
 13 Therefore if food is any hindrance to my brother's welfare, sooner than injure him I will never eat flesh as long as I live, never!

9 AM I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not the work I have accom-2 plished in the Lord? To other people I may be no apostle, but to you I am, for you are the seal set upon my apostle-

- 3 ship in the Lord. Here is my reply to my inquisitors.
 4 Have we no right to eat and drink at the expense of the 5 churches? Have we no right to travel with a Christian wife, like the rest of the apostles, like the brothers of the 6 Lord, like Cephas himself? What! are we the only ones, myself and Barnabas, who are denied the right of abstain-7 ing from work for our living? Does a soldier provide his own supplies? Does a man plant a vineyard without eating its produce? Does a shepherd get no drink from the milk 8 of the flock? Human arguments, you say? But does not 9 Scripture urge the very same? It is written in the law of Moses, You must not muzzle an ox when he is treading 10 the grain. Is God thinking here about cattle? Or is he speaking purely for our sakes? Assuredly for our sakes.
 This word was written for us, because the ploughman needs to plough in hope, and the thresher to thresh in the hope of 11 getting a share in the crop. If we sowed you the seeds of spiritual good, is it a great matter if we reap your 12 worldly goods? If others share this right over you, why not we all the more? We did not avail ourselves of it, you say? No, we do not mind any privations if we can only avoid putting any obstacle in the way of the gospel 13 of Christ. Do you not know that as men who perform temple-rites get their food from the temple, and as attend-14 ants at the altar get their share of the sacrifices, so the Lord's instructions were that those who proclaim the 15 gospel are to get their living by the gospel? Only, I have not availed myself of any of these rights, and I am not writing in order to secure any such provision for myself.
 I would die sooner than let anyone deprive me of this, my 16 source of pride. What I am proud of is not the mere preaching of the gospel; that I am constrained to do.
 17 Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! I get a reward if I do it of my own accord, whereas to do it otherwise is no more than for a steward to discharge his trust.
 18 And my reward? This, that I can preach the gospel free of charge, that I can refrain from insisting on all my rights 19 as a preacher of the gospel. Why, free as I am from all, I have made myself the slave of all, to win over as many as I could.
 20 To Jews I have become like a Jew, to win over Jews;
 to those under the Law I have become as one of themselves—
 though I am not under the Law myself—to win over those under the Law; 21 to those outside the Law I have become like one of themselves—

- though I am under Christ's law, not outside God's Law—to win over those outside the Law; 22 to the weak I have become as weak myself, to win over the weak.
 To all men I have become all things, to save some by all and every means.
 23 And I do it all for the sake of the gospel, to secure my 24 own share in it. Do you not know that in a race, though all run, only one man gains the prize? Run so as to win 25 the prize. Every athlete practices self-restraint all round; but while they do it to win a fading wreath, we do it for 26 an unfading. Well, I run without swerving; I do not plant 27 my blows upon the empty air—no, I maul and master my body, in case, after preaching to other people, I am disqualified myself.

- 10 FOR I would have you know this, my brothers, that while our fathers all lived under the cloud, all crossed 2 through the sea, all were baptized into Moses by the cloud 3 and by the sea, all ate the same supernatural food, and all 4 drank the same supernatural drink (drinking from the 5 supernatural Rock which accompanied them—and that Rock was Christ), still with most of them God was not 6 satisfied; they were laid low in the desert. Now this took place as a warning for us, to keep us from craving for evil 7 as they craved. And you must not be idolaters, like some of them; as it is written, the people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to make sport.
 8 Nor must we commit immorality, as some of them did—and in a single day twenty-three thousand of them fell.
 9 Nor must we presume upon the Lord as some of them did 10 —only to be destroyed by serpents. And you must not murmur, as some of them did—only to be destroyed by the 11 Destroying angel. It all happened to them by way of warning for others, and it was written down for the purpose of instructing us whose lot has been cast in the closing 12 hours of the world. So let anyone who thinks he stands 13 secure, take care in case he falls. No temptation has waylaid you that is beyond man's power; trust God, he will never let you be tempted beyond what you can stand, but when temptation comes, he will provide the way out of it, so that you can bear up under it.
 14 Shun idolatry, then, my beloved. I am speaking to sen-15 sible people; weigh my words for yourselves.
 16 The cup of blessing, which we bless, is that not participating in the blood of Christ?

The bread we break, is that not participating in the body of Christ?

17 (for many as we are, we are one Bread, one Body, since 18 we all partake of the one Bread). Look at the rites of Israel. Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in 19 the altar? Do I imply, you ask, that 'food offered to an idol has any meaning, or that an idol itself means any-20 thing'? No, what I imply is that anything people sacrifice is sacrificed to daemons, not to God. And I do not want 21 you to participate in daemons! You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and also the cup of daemons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and also of the table of 22 daemons. What! do we intend to rouse the Lord's jealousy? Are we stronger than he is?

23 'All things are lawful'?

Yes, but not all are good for us.

'All things are lawful'?

Yes, but not all are edifying.

24 Each of us must consult his neighbour's interests, not his 25 own. Eat any food that has been sold in the market, instead of letting scruples of conscience oblige you to 26 ask any questions about it; the earth and all its contents 27 belong to the Lord. When an unbeliever invites you to dinner and you agree to go, eat whatever is put before you, instead of letting scruples of conscience induce you 28 to ask any questions about it. But if someone tells you, 'This was sacrificial meat,' then do not eat it; you must consider the man who told you, and also take conscience 29 into account—his conscience, I mean, not your own; for why should one's own freedom be called in question by 30 someone else's conscience? If one partakes of food after saying a blessing over it, why should one be denounced 31 for eating what one has given thanks to God for? So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, let it be all 32 done for the glory of God. Put no stumbling-block in the 33 way of Jews or Greeks or the church of God. Such is my own rule, to satisfy all men in all points, aiming not at my own advantage but at the advantage of the greater number—at their salvation. Copy me, as I copy Christ.

2 11 I commend you for always bearing me in mind and for maintaining the traditions I passed on to you.
3 But I would like you to understand this: Christ is the head of every man, man is the head of woman, and 4 God is the head of Christ. Any man who prays or proph-5 esies with a veil on his head dishonours his head, while any woman who prays or prophesies without a veil on her head dishonours her head; she is no better than a shaven 6 woman. If a woman will not veil herself, she should cut off her hair as well. But she ought to veil herself; for it is disgraceful that a woman should have her hair cut off or be shaven. Man does not require to have a veil on his head, for he represents the likeness and supremacy of God; but woman represents the supremacy of man. (Man was not made from woman, woman was made from man; and man was not created for woman, but woman for man.) Therefore, in view of the angels, woman must wear a symbol of subjection on her head. (Of course, in the Lord, woman does not exist apart from man, any more than man apart from woman; for as woman was made from man, so man is now made from woman, while both, like all things, come from God.) Judge for yourselves; is it proper for an unveiled woman to pray to God? Surely nature herself teaches you that while long hair is disgraceful for a man, for a woman long hair is a glory? Her hair is given her as a covering. If anyone presumes to raise objections on this point—well, I acknowledge no other mode of worship, and neither do the churches of God.

But in giving you the following injunction I cannot commend you; for you are the worse, not the better, for assembling together. First of all, in your church-meetings I am told that cliques prevail. And I partly believe it. There must be parties among you, if genuine Christians are to be recognized. But this makes it impossible for you to eat the 'Lord's' supper when you hold your gatherings. As you eat, everyone takes his own supper; one goes hungry while another gets drunk. What! have you no houses to eat and drink in? Do you think you can show disrespect to the church of God and put the poor to shame? What can I say to you? Commend you? Not for this. I passed on to you what I received from the Lord himself, namely, that on the night he was betrayed the Lord Jesus took a loaf, and after thanking God he broke it, saying, 'This means my body broken* for you; do this in memory of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup means the new covenant ratified by my blood; as often as you drink it, do it in memory of me.' For as often as you eat this loaf and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. Hence anyone who eats the loaf or drinks the cup of the Lord carelessly, will have to answer for a sin against the body and the blood of the Lord. Let a man test him-

* Von Soden brackets κλώμενον, but it must be read with \aleph^c C³, two correctors of D (which originally read θρυπτόμενον), G, the Old Latin and Syriac Vulgate, Chrysostom, etc. If it is a gloss, it is a correct one, unless the Lucan διδόμενον be preferred.

- self; then he can eat from the loaf and drink from the cup.
29 For he who eats and drinks without a proper sense of the 30 Body, eats and drinks to his own condemnation. That is why many of you are ill and infirm, and a number even 31 dead. If we only judged our own lives truly, we would 32 not come under the Lord's judgment. As it is, we are chastened when we are judged by him, so that we may not be condemned along with the world.
33 Well then, my brothers, when you gather for a meal, wait 34 for one another; and if anyone is hungry let him eat at home. You must not gather, only to incur condemnation.
I will give you my instructions upon the other matters when I come.

- 12 BUT I want you to understand about spiritual gifts, brothers. You know when you were pagans, how 3 your impulses led you to dumb idols; so I tell you now, that no one is speaking in the Spirit of God when he cries, 'Cursed be Jesus,' and that no one can say, 'Jesus is Lord,' except in the holy Spirit.
4 There are varieties of talents, but the same Spirit; 5 varieties of service, but the same Lord; 6 varieties of effects, but the same God who effects everything in everyone.
7 Each receives his manifestation of the Spirit for the 8 common good. One man is granted words of wisdom by the Spirit, another words of knowledge by the same Spirit; 9 one man in the same Spirit has the gift of faith, another 10 in the one Spirit has gifts of healing; one has prophecy, another the gift of distinguishing spirits, another the gift of 'tongues' in their variety, another the gift of interpreting 11 'tongues.' But all these effects are produced by one and the same Spirit, apportioning them severally to each individual as he pleases.
12 As the human body is one and has many members, all the members of the body forming one body for all their 13 number, so is it with Christ. For by one Spirit we have all been baptized into one Body, Jews or Greeks, slaves or 14 freemen; we have all been imbued with one Spirit. Why, even the body consists not of one member but of many.
15 If the foot were to say, 'Because I am not the hand, I do not belong to the body,' that does not make it no part of 16 the body. If the ear were to say, 'Because I am not the eye, I do not belong to the body,' that does not make it 17 no part of the body. If the body were all eye, where would hearing be? If the body were all ear, where would 18 smell be? As it is, God has set the members in the body, 19 each as it pleased him. If they all made up one member, 20 what would become of the body? As it is, there are many 21 members and one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I 22 have no need of you.' Quite the contrary. We cannot do 23 without those very members of the body which are considered rather delicate, just as the parts we consider rather dishonourable are the very parts we invest with special honour; our indecorous parts get a special care and atten-24 tion which does not need to be paid to our more decorous parts. Yes, God has tempered the body together, with a 25 special dignity for the inferior parts, so that there may be no disunion in the body, but that the various members 26 should have a common concern for one another. Thus if one member suffers, all the members share its suffering;

 if one member is honoured, all the members share its honour.

27 Now you are Christ's Body, and severally members of it.
 28 That is to say, God has set people within the church to be first of all apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then workers of miracles, then healers, helpers, administra-29 tors, and speakers in 'tongues' of various kinds. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all 30 workers of miracles? Are all endowed with the gifts of healing? Are all able to speak in 'tongues'? Are all able to interpret?

31 Set your hearts on the higher talents. And yet I will go on to show you a still higher path. Thus, 13 I may speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but if I have no love,

I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal; ·

2 I may prophesy, fathom all mysteries and secret lore, I may have such absolute faith that I can move hills from their place,
 but if I have no love,

I count for nothing;

3 I may distribute all I possess in charity, I may give up my body to be burnt,
 but if I have no love,

I make nothing of it.

4 Love is very patient, very kind. Love knows no jealousy; 5 love makes no parade, gives itself no airs, is never rude, 6 never selfish, never irritated, never resentful; love is never glad when others go wrong, love is gladdened by good-7 ness, always slow to expose, always eager to believe the 8 best, always hopeful, always patient. Love never dis-

- appears. As for prophesying, it will be superseded; as for 'tongues,' they will cease; as for knowledge, it will be superseded. For we only know bit by bit, and we only prophesy bit by bit; but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will be superseded. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I argued like a child; now that I am a man, I am done with childish ways.
- At present we only see the baffling reflections in a mirror, but then it will be face to face;
at present I am learning bit by bit, but then I shall understand, as all along I have myself been understood.
- Thus 'faith and hope and love last on, these three,' but the greatest of all is love. 14 Make love your aim, and then set your heart on the spiritual gifts—especially upon prophecy. For he who speaks in a 'tongue' addresses God not men; no one understands him; he is talking of divine secrets in the Spirit. On the other hand, he who prophesies addresses men in words that edify, encourage, and console them. He who speaks in a 'tongue' edifies himself, whereas he who prophesies edifies the church. Now I would like you all to speak with 'tongues,' but I would prefer you to prophecy. The man who prophesies is higher than the man who speaks with 'tongues'—unless indeed the latter interprets, so that the church may get edification. Suppose now I were to come to you speaking with 'tongues,' my brothers; what good could I do you, unless I had some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching to lay before you? Inanimate instruments, such as the flute or the harp, may give a sound, but if no intervals occur in their music, how can one make out the air that is being played either on flute or on harp? If the trumpet sounds indistinct, who will get ready for the fray? Well, it is the same with yourselves. Unless your tongue utters language that is readily understood, how can people make out what you say? You will be pouring words into the empty air! There are ever so many kinds of language in the world, every one of them meaning something. Well, unless I understand the meaning of what is said to me, I shall appear to the speaker to be talking gibberish, and to my mind he will be talking gibberish himself. So with yourselves; since your heart is set on possessing 'spirits,' make the edification of the church your aim in this desire to excel. Thus a man who speaks in a 'tongue' must pray for the gift of interpreting it. For if I pray with a 'tongue,' my spirit prays, no doubt, but my mind is no use to anyone. Very well then, I will pray in the Spirit, but I will also pray with my mind; I will sing praise in the

- 16 Spirit, but I will also sing praise with my mind. Otherwise, suppose you are blessing God in the Spirit, how is the outsider to say 'Amen' to your thanksgiving? The man 17 does not understand what you are saying! Your thanksgiving may be all right, but then—the other man is not 18 edified! Thank God, I speak in 'tongues' more than any 19 of you; but in church I would rather say five words with my own mind for the instruction of other people than ten thousand words in a 'tongue.'
- 20 Brothers, do not be children in the sphere of intelligence; in evil be mere infants, but be mature in your intelligence.
 21 It is written in the Law, By men of alien tongues and by the lips of aliens I will speak to this People; but even so, 22 they will not listen to me, saith the Lord. Thus 'tongues' are intended as a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; whereas prophesying is meant for believers, not for unbelievers.
 23 Hence if at a gathering of the whole church everybody speaks with 'tongues,' and if outsiders or unbelievers come in, will they not say you are insane?
 24 Whereas, if everybody prophesies, and some unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is exposed by all, brought to book by 25 all; the secrets of his heart are brought to light, and so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring, 'God is really among you.'
- 26 Very well then, brothers; when you meet together, each contributes something—a song of praise, a lesson, a revelation, a 'tongue,' an interpretation? Good, but let every-27 thing be for edification. As for speaking in a 'tongue,' let only two or at most three speak at one meeting, and that 28 in turn. Also, let someone interpret; if there is no interpreter, let the speaker keep quiet in church and address 29 himself and God. Let only two or three prophets speak, while the rest exercise their judgment upon what is said.
 30 Should a revelation come to one who is seated, the first 31 speaker must be quiet. You can all prophesy quite well, one after another, so as to let all learn and all be en-32 couraged. Prophets can control their own prophetic spirits, 33 for God is a God not of disorder but of harmony.*
 37 If anyone considers himself a prophet or gifted with the Spirit, let him understand that what I write to you is a 38 command of the Lord. Anyone who disregards this will be himself disregarded.
- 39 To sum up, my brothers. Set your heart on the prophetic gift, and do not put any check upon speaking in

* Transposing vers. 33b-36 to the end of the chapter, in order to preserve the sequence of thought. There is some early textual evidence for reading 34-35 after 40.

40 'tongues'; but let everything be done decorously and in order.

33 As is the rule in all churches of the saints, women must 34 keep quiet at gatherings of the church. They are not allowed to speak; they must take a subordinate place, as 35 the Law enjoins. If they want any information, let them ask their husbands at home; it is disgraceful for a woman 36 to speak in church. You challenge this rule? Pray, did God's word start from you? Are you the only people it has reached?

15 Now, brothers, I would have you know the gospel I once preached to you, the gospel you received, the 2 gospel in which you have your footing, the gospel by which you are saved—provided you adhere to my statement of it—unless indeed your faith was all haphazard.

3 First and foremost, I passed on to you what I had myself received, namely, that Christ died for our sins as the 4 scriptures had said, that he was buried, that he rose on the 5 third day as the scriptures had said, and that he was seen 6 by Cephas, then by the twelve; after that, he was seen by over five hundred brothers all at once, the majority 7 of whom survive to this day, though some have died; after 8 that, he was seen by James, then by all the apostles, and finally he was seen by myself, by this so-called 'abortion' 9 of an apostle. For I am the very least of the apostles, unfit to bear the name of apostle, since I persecuted the church 10 of God. But by God's grace I am what I am. The grace he showed me did not go for nothing; no, I have done far more work than all of them—though it was not I but God's 11 grace at my side. At any rate, whether I or they have done most, such is what we preach, such is what you believed.

12 Now if we preach that Christ rose from the dead, how can certain individuals among you assert that 'there is no such 13 thing as a resurrection of the dead'? If 'there is no such thing as a resurrection from the dead,' then even Christ 14 did not rise; and if Christ did not rise, then our preaching has gone for nothing, and your faith has gone for nothing 15 too. Besides, we are detected bearing false witness to God by affirming of him that he raised Christ—whom he did not 16 raise, if after all dead men never rise. For if dead men 17 never rise, Christ did not rise either; and if Christ did not 18 rise, your faith is futile, you are still in your sins. More than that: those who have slept the sleep of death in 19 Christ have perished after all. Ah, if in this life we have nothing but a mere hope in Christ, we are of all men to be pitied most!

- 20 But it is not so! Christ did rise from the dead, he was the first to be reaped of those who sleep in death.
- 21 For since death came by man, by man came also resurrection from the dead; 22 as all die in Adam, so shall all be made alive in Christ.
- 23 But each in his own division:—Christ the first to be reaped; after that, all who belong to Christ, at his arrival.
- 24 Then comes the end, when he hands over his royal power to God the Father, after putting down all other rulers, all 25 other authorities and powers. For he must reign until all his 26 foes are put under his feet. (Death is the last foe to be 27 put down.) For God has put everything under his feet. When it is said that everything has been put under him, plainly that excludes Him who put everything under him; 28 and when everything is put under him, then the Son himself will be put under Him who put everything under him, so that God may be everything to everyone.
- 29 Otherwise, if there is no such thing as a resurrection, what is the meaning of people getting baptized on behalf of their dead? If dead men do not rise at all, why do people get baptized on their behalf? Yes, and why am I myself in danger every hour? (Not a day but I am at 31 death's door! I swear it by my pride in you, brothers, 32 through Christ Jesus our Lord.) What would it avail me that, humanly speaking, I 'fought with wild beasts' at Ephesus? If dead men do not rise, let us eat and drink, for we will be dead to-morrow!
- 33 Make no mistake about this: 'bad company is the ruin 34 of good character.' Get back to your sober senses and avoid sin, for some of you—and I say this to your shame—some of you are insensible to God.
- 35 But, someone will ask, 'how do the dead rise? What kind 36 of body have they when they come?' Foolish man! What 37 you sow never comes to life unless it dies. And what you sow is not the body that is to be; it is a mere grain of 38 wheat, for example, or some other seed. God gives it a body as he pleases, gives each kind of seed a body of its 39 own. Flesh is not all the same; there is human flesh, there is flesh of beasts, flesh of birds, and flesh of fish.
40 There are heavenly bodies and also earthly bodies, but the splendour of the heavenly is one thing and the splendour 41 of the earthly is another. There is a splendour of the sun and a splendour of the moon and a splendour of the 42 stars—for one star differs from another in splendour. So with the resurrection of the dead:
what is sown is mortal, what rises is immortal;

- 43 sown inglorious, it rises in glory;
sown in weakness, it rises in power;
- 44 sown an animate body,
it rises a spiritual body.
As there is an animate body, so there is a spiritual body.
- 45 Thus it is written,
'The first man, Adam, became an animate being, the last Adam a life-giving Spirit';
- 46 but the animate, not the spiritual, comes first, and only then the spiritual.
- 47 Man the first is from the earth, material;
Man the second is from heaven.
- 48 As Man the material is, so are the material;
as Man the heavenly is, so are the heavenly.
- 49 Thus, as we have borne the likeness of material Man, so we are to bear * the likeness of the heavenly Man.
- 50 I tell you this, my brothers, flesh and blood cannot inherit the Realm of God, nor can the perishing inherit the im-
- 51 perishable. Here is a secret truth for you: not all of us 52 are to die, but all of us are to be changed—changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet-
- 53 call. The trumpet will sound, the dead will rise imperish-
- 54 able, and we shall be changed. For this perishing body must be invested with the imperishable, and this mortal 54 body invested with immortality; and when this mortal body has been invested with immortality,† then the saying of Scripture will be realized, Death is swallowed up in victory.
- 55 O Death, where is your victory?
O Death, where is your sting? ‡
- 57 The victory is ours, thank God! He makes it ours by our 58 Lord Jesus Christ. Well then, my beloved brothers, hold your ground, immovable; abound in work for the Lord at all times, for you may be sure that in the Lord your labour is never thrown away.

16 WITH regard to the collection for the saints, you must carry out the same arrangements as I made for the 2 churches of Galatia. On the first day of the week let each completing the parallel.

strength of sin is the Law" have been added either as a gloss by some editor or perhaps as a marginal note by Paul himself.

of you put aside a sum from his weekly gains, so that the 3 money may not have to be collected when I come. On my arrival I will furnish credentials for those whom you select, and send them to convey your bounty to Jerusalem; 4 if the sum makes it worth my while to go too, they shall accompany me.

5 I mean to visit you after my tour in Macedonia, for I am 6 going to make a tour through Macedonia. The chances are, I shall spend some time with you, possibly even pass the winter with you, so that you may speed me forward on 7 any journey that lies before me. I do not care about seeing you at this moment merely in the by-going; my hope is to stay among you for some time, with the Lord's permis-8 sion. I am staying on for the present at Ephesus till 9 Pentecost, for I have wide opportunities here for active service—and there are many to thwart me.

10 If Timotheus arrives, see that you make him feel quite at home with you; he carries on the work of the Lord as I 11 do. So let no one disparage him. When he leaves to rejoin me, speed him cordially on his journey, for I am expecting him along with the other brothers.

12 As for our brother Apollos, I urged him to accompany the other brothers on a visit to you; he will come as soon as he has time, but for the present it is not the will of God that he should visit you.

13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, play the man, be strong!
 14 Let all you do be done in love.

15 I ask this favour of you, my brothers. The household of Stephanas, you know, was the first to be reaped in Achaia, and they have laid themselves out to serve the saints.
 16 Well, I want you to put yourselves under people like that, under everyone who sets his hand to the work.

17 I am glad that Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus have arrived, for they have made up for your absence.
 18 They refresh my spirit as they do your own. You should appreciate men like that.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Prisca, with the church that meets in their house, salute you 20 warmly in the Lord. All the brotherhood salutes you.
 Salute one another with a holy kiss.

21 I Paul write this salutation with my own hand. 'If any-22 one has no love for the Lord, God's curse be on him! Maran 23 atha!* The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. My 24 love be with you all in Christ Jesus.' [Amen.]

* An Aramaic phrase, probably meaning "Lord, come" (see Rev. xxii. 20).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

- 1 PAUL an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and brother Timotheus, to the church of God at Corinth as well as to all the saints throughout the whole of Achaia:
- 2 grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort,
- 4 who comforts me in all my distress, so that I am able to comfort people who are in any distress by the comfort with
- 5 which I myself am comforted by God. For as the sufferings of Christ are abundant in my case, so my comfort is
- 6 also abundant through Christ. If I am in distress, it is in the interests of your comfort and salvation; if I am comforted, it is in the interests of your comfort, which is effective as it nerves you to endure the same sufferings as I
- 7 suffer myself. Hence my hope for you is well-founded, since I know that as you share the sufferings you share the comfort also.
- 8 Now I would like you to know about the distress which befell me in Asia, brothers. I was crushed, crushed far more than I could stand, so much so that I despaired even
- 9 of life; in fact I told myself it was the sentence of death. But that was to make me rely not on myself but on the
- 10 God who raises the dead; he rescued me from so terrible a death, he rescues still, and I rely upon him for the hope
- 11 that he will continue to rescue me. Let me have your co-operation in prayer, so that many a soul may render thanks to him on my behalf for the boon which many have been the means of him bestowing on myself.
- 12 My proud boast is the testimony of my conscience that holiness and godly sincerity, not worldly cunning but the grace of God, have marked my conduct in the outside world
- 13 and in particular my relations with you. You don't have to read between the lines of my letters; you can understand them. Yes, I trust you will understand the full
- 14 meaning of my letters as you have partly understood the meaning of my life, namely that I am your source of pride (as you are mine) on the Day of our Lord Jesus.

15 Relying on this I meant to visit you first, to let you have 16 a double delight; I intended to take you on my way to Macedonia, and to visit you again on my way back from Macedonia, so as to be sped by you on my journey to 17 Judaea. Such was my intention. Now, have I shown myself 'fickle'? When I propose some plan, do I propose it in a worldly way, ready to mean 'no' as well as 'yes'?
 18 By the good faith of God, my word to you was not 'yes' 19 and no'; for the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was proclaimed among you by us (by myself and Silvanus and Timotheus) was not 'yes and no'—the divine 'yes' has at 20 last sounded in him, for in him is the 'yes' that affirms all the promises of God. Hence it is through him that we 21 affirm our 'amen' in worship, to the glory of God. And it is God who confirms me along with you in Christ, who con-22 secrated me, who stamped me with his seal and gave me 23 the Spirit as a pledge in my heart. I call God to witness against my soul, it was to spare you that I refrained from 24 revisiting Corinth. (Not that we lord it over your faith—no, we co-operate for your joy: you have a standing of 2 your own in the faith.) I decided I would not pay you 2 another painful visit. For if I pain you, then who is to give me pleasure? None but the very people I am 3 paining! So the very reason I wrote was that I might not come only to be pained by those who ought to give me joy; I relied on you all, I felt sure that my joy would be 4 a joy for every one of you. For I wrote you in sore distress and misery of heart, with many a tear—not to pain you but to convince you of my love, my special love for you.
 5 If a certain individual has been causing pain, he has been causing pain not so much to me as to all of you—at any-rate (for I am not going to overstate the case) to a section 6 of you. This censure from the majority is severe enough 7 for the individual in question, so that instead of censuring you should now forgive him and comfort him, in case the 8 man is overwhelmed by excessive remorse. So I beg you 9 to reinstate him in your love. For my aim in writing was simply to test you, to see if you were absolutely obedient.
 10 If you forgive the man, I forgive him too; anything I had to forgive him has been forgiven in the presence of Christ 11 for your sakes, in case Satan should take advantage of our position—for I know his manœuvres!
 12 Well, when I reached Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, though I had a wide opportunity in the Lord, 13 my spirit could not rest, because I did not find Titus my brother there; so I said goodbye and went off to Mace-14 donia. Wherever I go, thank God, he makes my life a constant pageant of triumph in Christ, diffusing the perfume

15 of his knowledge everywhere by me. I live for God as the 16 fragrance of Christ breathed alike on those who are being 17 saved and on those who are perishing, to the one a deadly fragrance that makes for death, to the other a vital fragrance that makes for life. And who is qualified for this career? I am, for I am not like most, adulterating the word of God; like a man of sincerity, like a man of God, I speak the word in Christ before the very presence of God.

3 AM I beginning again to 'commend' myself? Do I need, like some people, to be commended by written certificates either to you or from you? Why, you are my certificate yourselves, written on my heart, recognized and read by all men; you make it obvious that you are a letter of Christ which I have been employed to inscribe, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on 4 tablets of stone but on tablets of the human heart. Such is the confidence I possess through Christ in my service of 5 God. It is not that I am personally qualified to form any judgment by myself; my qualifications come from God, 6 and he has further qualified me to be the minister of a new covenant—a covenant not of written law but of spirit;
7 for the written law kills but the Spirit makes alive. Now if the administration of death which was engraved in letters of stone, was invested with glory—so much so, that the children of Israel could not gaze at the face of Moses on account of the dazzling glory that was fading from his 8 face; surely the administration of the Spirit must be invested with still greater glory. If there was glory in the administration that condemned, then the administration 10 that acquits abounds far more in glory (indeed, in view of the transcendent glory, what was glorious has thus no 11 glory at all); if what faded had its glory, then what lasts will be invested with far greater glory. Such being my 12 hope then, I am quite frank and open—not like Moses, who used to hang a veil over his face to keep the children of Israel from gazing at the last rays of a fading glory.
14 Besides, their minds were dulled, for to this very day, when the Old Testament is read aloud, the same veil hangs. Veiled from them the fact that the glory fades in Christ!
15 Yes, down to this day, whenever Moses is read aloud, the 16 veil rests on their heart; though whenever they turn to 17 the Lord, the veil is removed. (The Lord means the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is open 18 freedom.) But we all mirror the glory of the Lord with face unveiled, and so we are being transformed into the same likeness as himself, passing from one glory to

- 4 another—for this comes of the Lord the Spirit. Hence, 2 as I hold this ministry by God's mercy to me, I never 2 lose heart in it; I disown those practices which very shame conceals from view; I do not go about it craftily; I do not falsify the word of God; I state the truth openly and so commend myself to every man's conscience before God.
 3 Even if my gospel is veiled, it is only veiled in the case 4 of the perishing; there the god of this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, to prevent them seeing the light thrown by the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the 5 likeness of God. (It is Christ Jesus as Lord, not myself, that I proclaim; I am simply a servant of yours for Jesus' 6 sake.) For God who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness," has shone within my heart to illuminate men with the knowledge of God's glory in the face of Christ.
 7 But I possess this treasure in a frail vessel of earth, to show that the transcending power belongs to God, not to 8 myself; on every side I am harried but not hemmed in, 9 perplexed but not despairing, persecuted but not abandoned, struck down but not destroyed—10 wherever I go, I am being killed in the body as Jesus was,
 so that the life of Jesus may come out in my body: 11 every day of my life I am being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may come out within my mortal flesh.
 12 In me then death is active, in you life. But since our 13 spirit of faith is the same, therefore—as it is written I 14 believed and so I spoke—I too believe and so I speak, sure that He who raised the Lord Jesus will raise me too with 15 Jesus and set me at your side in his presence. It is all in your interests, so that the more grace abounds, the more thanksgiving may rise and redound to the glory of God.
 16 Hence I never lose heart; though my outward man decays, 17 my inner man is renewed day after day. The slight trouble of the passing hour* results in a solid glory past all com-18 parison, for those of us whose eyes are on the unseen, not on the seen; for the seen is transient, the unseen eternal.
 5 I know that if this earthly tent of mine is taken down,
 I get a home from God, made by no human hands, 2 eternal in the heavens. It makes me sigh indeed, this yearning to be under the cover of my heavenly habitation, 3 since I am sure that once so covered I shall not be 'naked' 4 at the hour of death. I do sigh within this tent of mine with heavy anxiety—not that I want to be stripped, no,

* Omitting ἡμῶν.

but to be under the cover of the other, to have my mortal 5 element absorbed by life. I am prepared for this change by God, who has given me the Spirit as its pledge and 6 instalment. Come what may, then, I am confident; I know that while I reside in the body I am away from the Lord 7 (for I have to lead my life in faith, without seeing him): 8 and in this confidence I would fain get away from the body 9 and reside with the Lord. Hence also I am eager to 10 satisfy him, whether in the body or away from it; for we have all to appear without disguise before the tribunal of Christ, each to be requited for what he has done with his body, well or ill.

11 If I 'appeal to the interests of men,' then, it is with the fear of the Lord before my mind. What I am is plain to God without disguise, plain also, I trust, to your own con-12 science. This is not 'recommending myself to you again'; it is giving you an incentive to be proud of me, which you can use against men who are proud of externals instead 13 of the inward reality. 'I am beside myself,' am I? Well, that is between myself and God. I am 'sane,' am I?
 14 Well, that is in your interests; for I am controlled by the love of Christ, convinced that as One has died for all, 15 then all have died, and that he died for all in order to have the living live no longer for themselves but for him who 16 died and rose for them. Once convinced of this, then, I estimate no one by what is external; even though I once estimated Christ by what is external, I no longer estimate 17 him thus. There is a new creation whenever a man comes to be in Christ; what is old is gone, the new has come.
 18 It is all the doing of the God who has reconciled me to himself through Christ and has permitted me to be a 19 minister of his reconciliation. For in Christ God reconciled the world to himself instead of counting men's trespasses against them; and he entrusted me with the message of 20 his reconciliation. So I am an envoy for Christ, God appealing by me, as it were—be reconciled to God, I entreat 21 you on behalf of Christ. For our sakes He made him to be sin who himself knew nothing of sin, so that in him we 6 might become the righteousness of God. I appeal to you too, as a worker with God, do not receive the grace 2 of God in vain. (He saith,

I have heard you in the time of favour, and helped you on the day of salvation.

Well, here is the time of favour, here is the day of salva- 3 tion.) I put no obstacle in the path of any, so that my 4 ministry may not be discredited; I prove myself at all points a true minister of God, by great endurance, by suf-5 fering, by troubles, by calamities, by lashes, by imprison-

6 ment; mobbed, toiling, sleepless, starving; with innocence, insight, patience, kindness, the holy Spirit, unaffected love, 7 true words, the power of God; with the weapons of integrity for attack or for defence, amid honour and dishonour, amid evil report and good report, an 'impostor' but honest, 9 'unknown' but well-known, dying but here I am alive, 10 chastened but not killed, grieved but always glad, a 'pauper', but the means of wealth to many, without a penny but possessed of all.

11 O Corinthians, I am keeping nothing back from you; 12 my heart is wide open for you. 'Restraint'?—that lies 13 with you, not me. A fair exchange now, as the children say! Open your hearts wide to me.

14 [Keep out of all incongruous ties with unbelievers.

What have righteousness and iniquity in common, or how can light associate with darkness?

15 What harmony can there be between Christ and Beliar, or what business has a believer with an unbeliever?

16 What compact can there be between God's temple and idols?

For we are the temple of the living God—as God has said,

I will dwell and move among them,

I will be their God and they shall be my people.

17 Therefore come away from them, separate, saith the Lord, touch not what is unclean;

then I will receive you,

18 I will be a Father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord almighty.

7 As these great promises are ours, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates either flesh or spirit; let us be fully consecrated by reverence for God].*

2 Make a place for me in your hearts; I have wronged no one, ruined no one, taken advantage of no one.

3 I am not saying this to condemn you. Condemn you?

Why, I repeat, you are in my very heart, and you will be 4 there in death and life alike. I have absolute confidence in you, I am indeed proud of you, you are a perfect comfort to me, I am overflowing with delight, for all the 5 trouble I have to bear. For I got no relief from the strain of things, even when I reached Macedonia; it was trouble

6 mind. But the God who comforts the dejected comforted

* This bracketed paragraph (vi. 14–vii. 1) belongs to some other part of Paul's correspondence with the Corinthian church.

7 me by the arrival of Titus. Yes, and by more than his arrival, by the comfort which you had been to him; for he gave me such a report of how you longed for me, how sorry you were, and how eagerly you took my part, that 8 it added to my delight. In fact, if I did pain you by that letter, I do not regret it. I did regret it when I discovered* that my letter had pained you even for the time 9 being, but I am glad now—not glad that you were pained but glad that your pain induced you to repent. For you were pained as God meant you to be pained, and so you got 10 no harm from what I did; the pain God is allowed to guide ends in a saving repentance never to be regretted, whereas 11 the world's pain ends in death. See what this pain divine has done for you, how serious it has made you, how keen to clear yourselves, how indignant, how alarmed, how eager for me, how determined, how relentless! You have shown 12 in every way that you were honest in the business. So my letter was written to you, not on account of the offender nor for the sake of the injured party, but in order to let you realize before God how seriously you do care for me.

13 That is what comforts me.

And over and above my personal comfort, I was specially delighted at the delight of Titus. You have all set his 14 mind at rest. I told him of my pride in you, and I have not been disappointed. No, just as all I have had to say to you has been true, so all I said about you to Titus, all 15 my pride in you, has also proved true. His own heart goes out to you all the more when he remembers how you all obeyed him, and how you received him with reverence 16 and trembling. I am glad to have full confidence in you.

8 Now, brothers, I have to tell you about the grace God 2 has given to the churches of Macedonia. Amid a severe ordeal of trouble, their overflowing joy and their deep poverty together have poured out a flood of rich generosity;
 3 I can testify that up to their means, aye and beyond their means, they have given—begging me of their own accord, most urgently, for the favour of contributing to the sup-5 port of the saints. They have done more than I expected; they gave themselves to the Lord, to begin with, and then (for so God willed it) they put themselves at my disposal.
 6 This has led me to ask Titus to complete the arrangements for the same gracious contribution among yourselves, as it 7 was he who started it. Now then, you are to the front in

* Reading βλέπων with the Vulgate, which "alone has preserved the true reading, ὦ being read as ω" (Hort).

everything, in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all zeal, and in love for us*—do come to the front in this gracious enterprise as well. I am not issuing any orders, only using the zeal of others to prove how sterling your own love is. (You know how gracious our Lord Jesus Christ was; rich though he was, he became poor for the sake of you, that by his poverty you might be rich.) But I will tell you what I think about it; it is to your interest to go on with this enterprise, for you started it last year, you were the first not merely to do anything but to want to do anything. Now, carry it through, so that your readiness to take it up may be equalled by the way you carry it through—so far as your means allow. If only one is ready to give, according to his means, it is acceptable; he is not asked to give what he has not got. This does not mean that other people are to be relieved and you to suffer: it is a matter of give and take; at the present moment your surplus goes to make up what they lack, in order that their surplus may go to make up what you lack. Thus it is to give and take—as it is written,

He who got much had nothing over, and he who got little had not too little.

Thanks be to God who has inspired Titus with an interest in you equal to my own; he has indeed responded to my request, but he is off to you by his own choice, so keen is his interest in you. Along with him I am sending that brother whose services to the gospel are praised by all the churches; besides, he has been appointed by the churches to travel with me on the business of administering this fund to the glory of the Lord. His appointment has my full consent, for I want to take precautions against any risk of suspicion in connection with the administration of this charity; I aim at being above reproach not only from God but also from men. Along with them I am also sending our brother: I have had ample proof of his keen interest on many occasions, and it is specially keen on this occasion, as he has absolute confidence in you. Titus is my colleague, he shares my work for you, and these brothers of mine are apostles of the church, a credit to Christ. So let them have proof of how you can love, and of my reasons for being proud of you; it will be a proof read by the churches. Indeed it is quite superfluous for me to be writing to you about this charitable service to the saints; I know how willing you are, I am proud of it, I have boasted of you to the Macedonians:

* Reading $\epsilon\lambda\ \upsilon\mu\omega\nu\ \epsilon\nu\ \eta\mu\acute{\iota}\nu$ with \aleph C D G, almost all the evidence of the Latin and Syriac versions, etc.

"Achaia," I tell them, "was all ready last year." And your 3 zeal has been a stimulus to the majority of them. At the same time I am sending these brothers just in case my pride in you should prove an empty boast in this particular instance; I want you to be "all ready," as I have been tell-4 ing them that you would be, in case any Macedonians accompany me and find you are not ready—which would make me (not to speak of yourselves) ashamed of having 5 been so sure. That is why I have thought it necessary to ask these brothers to go on in advance and get your promised contribution ready in good time. I want it to be forthcoming as a generous gift, not as money wrung out 6 of you. Mark this: he who sows sparingly will reap sparingly, and he who sows generously will reap a generous 7 harvest. Everyone is to give what he has made up his mind to give; there is to be no grudging or compulsion about it, for God loves the giver who gives cheerfully.
 8 God is able to bless you with ample means, so that you may always have quite enough for any emergency of your 9 own and ample besides for any kind act to others; as it is written,

He scatters his gifts to the poor broadcast, his charity lasts for ever.

10 He who furnishes the sower with seed and with bread to eat will supply seed for you and multiply it; he will 11 increase the crop of your charities—you will be enriched on all hands, so that you can be generous on all occasions, and your generosity, of which I am the agent, will make 12 men give thanks to God; for the service rendered by this fund does more than supply the wants of the saints, it 13 overflows with many a cry of thanks to God. This service shows what you are, it makes men praise God for the way you have come under the gospel of Christ which you con-14 fess, and for the generosity of your contributions to themselves and to all; they are drawn to you and pray for you, on account of the surpassing grace which God has shown 15 to you. Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

10 I APPEAL to you myself by the gentleness and consideration of Christ—the Paul who is 'humble enough to your face when he is with you, but outspoken enough when 2 he gets away from you.' I beg of you that when I do come I may not have to speak out and be peremptory; but my mind is made up to tackle certain people who have made up their minds that I move on the low level of the flesh.
 3 I do live in the flesh, but I do not make war as the flesh 4 does; the weapons of my warfare are not weapons of the 5 flesh, but divinely strong to demolish fortresses—I demolish theories and any rampart thrown up to resist the knowledge of God, I take every project prisoner to make it obey Christ, I am prepared to court-martial anyone who remains insubordinate, once your submission is complete.

7 Look at this obvious fact. So-and-so is perfectly sure he 'belongs to Christ'? Well then, let him understand, on second thoughts, that I 'belong to Christ' as much as he does. Even supposing I were to boast somewhat freely of my authority (and the Lord gave it to me for building you up, not for demolishing you), I would feel quite justified.

9 But I am not going to seem as if I were 'overawing you with a letter,' so to speak. My opponent says, 'Paul's letters are weighty and telling, but his personality is weak and his delivery is beneath contempt.' Let him understand that I will act when I arrive, as forcibly as I express myself by letter when I am absent. I do not venture to class myself or to compare myself with certain exalted individuals! They belong to the class of self-praisers; while I limit myself to my own sphere,* I compare myself with my own standard, and so my boasting never goes beyond the limit—it is determined by the limits of the sphere marked out for me by God. That sphere stretches to include yourselves; I am not overstepping the limit, as if you lay beyond my sphere; I was the very first to reach you with the gospel of Christ. I do not boast beyond my limits in a sphere where other men have done the work; my hope rather is that the growth of your faith will allow me to enlarge the range of my appointed sphere and preach the gospel in the lands that lie beyond you, instead of boasting within another's province over work that is already done. However, let him who boasts boast of the Lord; for it is not the self-praiser with his own recommendations who is accepted, it is the man whom the Lord recommends.

11 I WISH you would put up with a little 'folly' from me. Do put up with me, for I feel a divine jealousy on your behalf; I betrothed you as a chaste maiden to present you to your one husband Christ, but I am afraid of your thoughts getting seduced from a single devotion to Christ, just as the serpent beguiled Eve with his cunning.

4 You put up with it all right, when some interloper preaches a second Jesus (not the Jesus I preached), or when you are treated to a Spirit different from the Spirit you once received, and to a different gospel from what I gave you!

5 Why not put up with me? I hold I am not one whit in-

* Omitting οὐ συνιούσιν ἡμεῖς δὲ with D*, etc.

6 ferior to these precious 'apostles'! I am no speaker, perhaps, but knowledge I do possess; I never failed to make myself intelligible to you.

7 But perhaps I did wrong in taking a humble place that you might have a high one—I mean, in preaching the gospel of God to you for nothing! I made a levy on other churches, I took pay from them so as to minister to you; 8 even when I ran short, during my stay with you, I was no encumbrance to anybody, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my wants. Thus I kept myself, as I intend to keep myself, from being a burden to you in any 10 way. By the truth of Christ within me, I am going to make this my pride and boast unchecked throughout the 11 regions of Achaia! Why? Because I do not love you? 12 God knows I do. No, I intend to go on as I am doing, in order to checkmate those who would fain make out that in the apostolate of which they boast they work on the same 13 terms as I do. 'Apostles'? They are spurious apostles, false workmen—they are masquerading as 'apostles of 14 Christ.' No wonder they do, for Satan himself masquerades 15 as an angel of light. So it is no surprise if his ministers also masquerade as ministers of righteousness. Their doom will answer to their deeds.

16 I repeat, no one is to think me a fool; but even so, pray bear with me, fool as I am, that I may have my little boast 17 as well as others! (What I am now going to say is not inspired by the Lord: I am in the rôle of a 'fool,' now, on 18 this business of boasting. Since many boast on the score 19 of the flesh, I will do the same.) You put up with fools so 20 readily, you who know so much! You put up with a man who assumes control of your souls, with a man who spends your money, with a man who dupes you, with a man who 21 gives himself airs, with a man who flies in your face. I am quite ashamed to say I was not equal to that sort of thing! But let them vaunt as they please, I am equal to them 22 (mind, this is the rôle of a fool!). Are they Hebrews? so am I. Israelites? so am I. Descended from Abraham? so am 23 I. Ministers of Christ? yes perhaps, but not as much as I am (I am mad to talk like this!), with all my labours, with all my lashes, with all my time in prison—a record longer far 24 than theirs. I have been often at the point of death; five times have I got forty lashes (all but one) from the Jews, 25 three times I have been beaten by the Romans, once pelted with stones, three times shipwrecked, adrift at sea for a 26 whole night and day; I have been often on my travels, I have been in danger from rivers and robbers, in danger from Jews and Gentiles, through dangers of town and of desert, through dangers on the sea, through dangers among false

27 brothers—through labour and hardship, through many a 28 sleepless night, through hunger and thirst, starving many a 29 time, cold and ill-clad, and all the rest of it. And then there 30 is the pressing business of each day, the care of all the 31 churches. Who is weak, and I do not feel his weakness?
 Whose faith is hurt, and I am not aglow with indignation?
 32 If there is to be any boasting, I will boast of what I am 31 weak enough to suffer! The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, He who is blessed for ever, He knows I am telling the 32 truth! (At Damascus the ethnarch of king Aretas had patrols out in the city of the Damascenes to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket from a loophole in the wall, 12 and so managed to escape his clutches.) There is nothing to be gained by this sort of thing, but as I am obliged to boast, I will go on to visions and revelations of 2 the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. In the body or out of 3 the body? That I do not know: God knows. I simply know 4 that in the body or out of the body (God knows which) this man was caught up to paradise and heard sacred secrets 5 which no human lips can repeat. Of an experience like that I am prepared to boast, but not of myself personally 6 —not except as regards my weaknesses. (If I did care to boast of other things, I would be no 'fool,' for I would have a true tale to tell; however, I abstain from that—I want no one to take me for more than he can see in me or make 7 out from me.) My wealth of visions might have puffed me up, so I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to rack me and keep me from being puffed up; 8 three times over I prayed the Lord to make it leave me, 9 but he told me, "It is enough for you to have my grace: it is in weakness that [my] power is fully felt." So I am proud to boast of all my weakness, and thus to have the 10 power of Christ resting on my life. It makes me satisfied, for Christ's sake, with weakness, insults, trouble, persecution, and calamity; for I am strong just when I am weak.

 11 Now this is playing the fool! But you forced me to it, instead of coming forward yourselves and vouching for me.
 That was what I deserved; for, 'nobody' as I am, I am not 12 one whit inferior to these precious 'apostles.' You had all the miracles that mark an apostle done for you fully and 13 patiently—miracles, wonders, and deeds of power. Where were you inferior to the rest of the churches?—unless in this, that your apostle did not choose to make himself a burden to you. Pray pardon me this terrible wrong!
 14 Here am I all ready to pay you my third visit. And I will not be a burden to you; I want yourselves and not your money. Children have not to put money by for their 15 parents; that is what parents do for their children. And for your souls I will gladly spend my all and be spent myself. Am I to be loved the less because I love you more than others?

16 But let that pass, you say; I was not a burden to you, no, but I was clever enough to dupe you with my tricks?
 17 Was I? Did I make something out of you by any of my 18 messengers? I asked Titus to go, and with him I sent our brother. Titus did not make anything out of you, did he? And did not I act in the same spirit as he did? Did I not take the very same steps?

19 You think all this time I am defending myself to you? No, I am speaking in Christ before the presence of God, and speaking every word, beloved, in order to build you up.
 20 For I am afraid I may perhaps come and find you are not what I could wish, while you may find I am not what you could wish; I am afraid of finding quarrels, jealousy, temper, rivalry, slanders, gossiping, arrogance, and disorder—afraid that when I come back to you, my God may humiliate me before you, and I may have to mourn for many who sinned some time ago and yet have never repented of the impurity, the sexual vice, and the sensuality which they have practised.

13 This will be my third visit to you: every case is to be decided on the evidence of two or of three witnesses.

2 I warned you already, on my second visit, and I warn you now before I come, both you who sinned some time ago and the rest of you as well, that I will spare no one if I 3 come back. That will prove to you that I am indeed a spokesman of Christ. It is no weak Christ you have to do 4 with, but a Christ of power. For though he was crucified in his weakness, he lives by the power of God; and though I am weak as he was weak, you will find I am alive as he 5 is alive by the power of God. Put yourselves to the proof, not me; test yourselves, to see if you are in the faith. Do you not understand that Christ Jesus is within you?
 6 Otherwise you must be failures. But I trust you will find 7 I am no failure, and I pray to God that you may not go wrong—not to prove I am a success, that is not the point, but that you should come right, even if I seemed to be a 8 failure. (Fail or succeed, I cannot work against the truth 9 but for it!) I am glad to be weak if you are strong; 10 mend your ways, that is all I ask. I am writing thus to you in absence, so that when I do come I may not have to deal sharply with you; I have the Lord's authority for that, but he gave it to me for building you up, not for demolishing you.

11 Now brothers, goodbye; mend your ways, listen to what I have told you, live in harmony, keep the peace; then the God of love and peace will be with you.

12 Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the saints salute you.

13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

- 1 PAUL an apostle—not appointed by men nor commissioned by any man but by Jesus Christ and God the 2 Father who raised him from the dead,—with all the brothers who are beside me, to the churches of Galatia;
3 grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord 4 Jesus Christ who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil world—by the will of our God and 5 Father, to whom be glory for ever and ever: Amen.
6 I am astonished you are hastily shifting like this, deserting Him who called you by Christ's grace and going over 7 to another gospel. It simply means that certain individuals are unsettling you; they want to distort the gospel of 8 Christ. Now even though it were myself or some angel from heaven, whoever preaches a gospel that contradicts 9 the gospel I preached to you, God's curse be on him! I have said it before and I now repeat it: whoever preaches a gospel to you that contradicts the gospel you have already received, God's curse be on him!
- 10 Now is that 'appealing to the interests of men' or of God? Trying to 'satisfy men'? Why, if I still tried to give satisfaction to human masters, I would be no servant of 11 Christ. No, brothers, I tell you the gospel that I preach 12 is not a human affair; no man put it into my hands, no man taught me what it meant, I had it by a revelation 13 of Jesus Christ. You know the story of my past career in Judaism; you know how furiously I persecuted the 14 church of God and harried it, and how I outstripped many of my own age and race in my special ardour for the 15 ancestral traditions of my house. But the God who had set me apart from my very birth called me by his grace, 16 and when he chose to reveal his Son to me, that I might preach him to the Gentiles, instead of consulting with any 17 human being, instead of going up to Jerusalem to see those who had been apostles before me, I went off at once to 18 Arabia, and on my return I came back to Damascus. Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to make the acquaintance of Cephas. I stayed a fortnight with him. I saw no other apostle, only James the brother of the Lord.

20 (I am writing you the sheer truth, I swear it before God!) 21 Then I went to the districts of Syria and of Cilicia. Per-22 sonally I was quite unknown to the Christian churches of 23 Judaea; they merely heard that 'our former persecutor is 24 now preaching the faith he once harried,' which made them 2 praise God for me. Then, fourteen years later, I went up to Jerusalem again, accompanied by Barnabas; I 2 took Titus with me also. (It was in consequence of a revelation that I went up at all.) I submitted the gospel I am in the habit of preaching to the Gentiles, submitting it privately to the authorities, to make sure that my course 3 of action would be and had been sound. But even my com-4 panion Titus, Greek though he was, was not obliged to be 5 circumcised. There were traitors of false brothers, who had crept in to spy out the freedom we enjoy in Christ 6 Jesus; they did aim at enslaving us again. But we refused to yield for a single instant to their claims; we were determined that the truth of the gospel should hold good for 7 you. Besides, the so-called 'authorities' (it makes no difference to me what their status used to be—God pays no regard to the externals of men), these 'authorities' had no 8 additions to make to my gospel. On the contrary, when they saw I had been entrusted with the gospel for the benefit of the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been for the 9 circumcised (for He who equipped Peter to be an apostle of the circumcised equipped me as well for the uncircumcised), and when they recognized the grace I had 10 been given, then the so-called 'pillars' of the church, James and Cephas and John, gave myself and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship. Our sphere was to be the 11 Gentiles, theirs the circumcised. Only, we were to 'remember the poor.' I was quite eager to do that myself.
 12 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face. The man stood self-condemned. Before certain emissaries of James arrived, he ate along with the Gentile Christians; but when they arrived, he began to draw back and hold aloof, because he was afraid of the circumcision 13 party. The rest of the Jewish Christians also played false along with him, so much so that even Barnabas was carried 14 away by their false play. But I saw they were swerving from the true line of the gospel; so I said to Cephas in presence of them all, "If you live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, though you are a Jew yourself, why do you 15 oblige the Gentiles to become Jews?"—We may be Jews 16 by birth and not 'Gentile sinners,' but since we know a man is justified simply by faith in Jesus Christ and not by doing what the Law commands, we ourselves have believed in Christ Jesus so as to get justified by faith in Christ and not by doing what the Law commands—for by doing what 17 the law commands no person shall be justified. If it is discovered that in our quest for justification in Christ we are 'sinners' as well as the Gentiles, does that make Christ 18 an agent of sin? Never! I really convict myself of trans-19 gression when I rebuild what I destroyed. For through the 20 Law I died to the Law that I might live for God; I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, Christ lives in me; the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself up 21 for me. I do not annul God's grace; but if righteousness comes by way of the Law, then indeed Christ's death was useless.

3 O SENSELESS Galatians, who has bewitched you—you who had Jesus Christ the crucified placarded before your very 2 eyes? I simply want to ask you one thing: did you receive the Spirit by doing what the Law commands or by believ-3 ing the gospel message? Are you such fools? Did you begin 4 with the spirit only to end now with the flesh? Have you had all that experience for nothing (if it has really gone for 5 nothing)? When He supplies you with the Spirit and works miracles among you, is it because you do what the Law 6 commands or because you believe the gospel message? Why, it is as with Abraham, he had faith in God and that was 7 counted to him as righteousness. Well then, you see that the 8 real sons of Abraham are those who rely on faith. Besides, Scripture anticipated God's justification of the Gentiles by faith when it announced the gospel beforehand to Abraham in these terms: All nations shall be blessed in 9 thee. So that those who rely on faith are blessed along 10 with believing Abraham. Whereas a curse rests on all who rely upon obedience to the Law; for it is written, Cursed is everyone who does not hold by all that is written 11 in the book of the law, to perform it. And because no one is justified on the score of the Law before God (plainly, 12 the just shall live by faith,—and the Law is not based on faith: no, he who performs these things shall live by them), 13 Christ ransomed us from the curse of the Law by becoming accursed for us (for it is written, Cursed is everyone 14 who hangs on a gibbet), that the blessing of Abraham might reach the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promised Spirit.
 15 To take an illustration from human life, my brothers.
 Once a man's will is ratified, no one else annuls it or adds 16 a codicil to it. Now the Promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring; it is not said, 'and to your offsprings' in the plural, but in the singular and to your offspring—

17 which is Christ. My point is this: the Law which arose 18 four hundred and thirty years later does not repeal a will 19 previously ratified by God, so as to cancel the Promise. If the Inheritance is due to law, it ceases to be due to promise. Now it was by a promise that God bestowed it on Abraham. Then what about the Law? Well, it was interpolated for the purpose of producing transgressions till such time as the Offspring arrived to whom the Promise was made; also, it was transmitted by means of angels through the agency of an intermediary (an intermediary implies more than one party, but God is one). Then the Law is contrary to God's Promises? Never! Had there been any law which had the power of producing life, righteousness would really have been due to law, but Scripture has consigned all without exception to the custody of sin, in order that the promise due to faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who have faith.
 Before this faith came, we were confined by the Law and kept in custody, with the prospect of the faith that was to be revealed; the Law thus held us as wards in discipline, till such time as Christ came, that we might be justified by faith. But faith has come, and we are wards no longer; you are all sons of God by your faith in Christ Jesus (for all of you who had yourselves baptized into Christ have taken on the character of Christ). There is no room for Jew or Greek, there is no room for slave or freeman, there is no room for male and female; you are all one in Christ Jesus. Now if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's 4 offspring; in virtue of the Promise, you are heirs. What I mean is this. As long as an heir is under age, there is no difference between him and a servant, though he is 2 lord of all the property; he is under guardians and trustees 3 till the time fixed by his father. So with us. When we were under age, we lived under the thralldom of the 4 Elemental spirits of the world; but when the time had fully expired, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, 5 born under the Law, to ransom those who were under the 6 Law, that we might get our sonship. It is because you are sons that God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into 7 your hearts crying 'Abba! Father!' So you are servant no longer but son, and as son you are also heir, all owing to God.

8 In those days, when you were ignorant of God, you were 9 in servitude to gods who are really no gods at all; but now that you know God—or rather, are known by God—how is it you 'are turning back again to the weakness and poverty of the Elemental spirits? Why do you want to be 10 enslaved all over again by them? You observe days and 11 months and festal seasons and years! Why, you make me afraid I may have spent my labour on you for nothing!

 12 Do take my line, brothers, I beg of you—just as I once 13 took yours. I have no complaint against you; no, although it was because of an illness (you know) that I preached 14 the gospel to you on my former visit, and though my flesh was a trial to you, you did not scoff at me nor spurn me, you welcomed me like an angel of God, like Christ Jesus.
 15 You congratulated yourselves. Now, what has become of all that? (I can bear witness that you would have torn out your very eyes, if you could, and given me them.) 16 Am I your enemy to-day, because I have been honest with 17 you? These men make much of you—yes, but for dishonest ends; they want to debar you from us, so that you 18 may make much of them. Now it is fine for you to be made much of honestly and all the time—not simply when I can 19 be with you. O my dear children, you with whom I am in travail over again till Christ be formed within you, 20 would that I could be with you at this moment, and alter 21 my tone, for I am at my wits' end about you! Tell me, you who are keen to be under the Law, will you not listen to 22 the Law? Surely it is written in the Law that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave-woman and one by the free-23 woman; but while the son of the slave-woman was born by the flesh, the son of the free-woman was born by the 24 promise. Now this is an allegory. The women are two covenants. One comes from mount Sinai, bearing children 25 for servitude; that is Hagar, for mount Sinai * is away in Arabia. She corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for the 26 latter is in servitude with her children. But the Jeru-27 salem on high is free, and she is 'our' mother. For it is written,

Rejoice, O thou barren who bearest not, break into joy, thou who travailest not; for the children of the desolate woman are far more than of the married.

28 Now you are the children of the Promise, brothers, like 29 Isaac; but just as in the old days the son born by the flesh persecuted the son born by the Spirit, so it is still to-day.
 30 However, what does the scripture say? Put away the slave- woman and her son, for the son of the slave-woman shall 31 not be heir along with the son of the free-woman. Hence

5 we are children of no slave-woman, my brothers, but of the free-woman.† with the freedom for which Christ

* Omitting "Αγαρ as a gloss, with the Latin, Sahidic, and Ethiopic versions, N C G, Origen, and many others.

† Whether ᾠ is read after τῇ ἐλευθερίᾳ or instead of τῇ, the opening words of 5¹ must be connected with the closing words of 4³¹. I think set us free. Make a firm stand then, do not slip into any yoke of servitude.

2 Here, listen to Paul! I tell you, if you get circumcised, 3 Christ will be no use to you. I insist on this again to 4 everyone who gets circumcised, that he is obliged to carry 4 out the whole of the Law. You are for justification by the Law? Then you are done with Christ, you have deserted 5 grace, for it is by faith that 'we' wait in the Spirit for the 6 righteousness we hope for; in Christ Jesus circumcision is not valid, neither is uncircumcision, but only faith active 7 in love. You were doing splendidly. Who was it that 8 prevented you from obeying the Truth? That sort of 9 suasion does not come from Him who called you! (A 10 morsel of dough will leaven the whole lump.) I feel persuaded in the Lord that you will not go wrong. But he who unsettles you will have to meet his doom, no matter who 11 he is. I am 'still preaching circumcision myself,' am I?
 Then, brothers, why am I still being persecuted? And so the stumbling-block of the cross has lost its force, for-12 sooth! O that those who are upsetting you would get themselves castrated!

13 Brothers, you were called to be free; only, do not make your freedom an opening for the flesh, but serve one an-14 other in love. For the entire Law is summed up in one word, 15 in You must love your neighbour as yourself (whereas, if you snap at each other and prey upon each other, take care 16 in case you destroy one another). I mean, lead the life of the Spirit; then you will never satisfy the passions of the 17 flesh. For the passion of the flesh is against the Spirit, and the passion of the Spirit against the flesh—the two are at 18 issue, so that you are not free to do as you please. If you are under the sway of the Spirit, you are not under the Law.
 19 Now the deeds of the flesh are quite obvious, such as sexual 20 vice, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, magic, quarrels, dissen-21 sion, jealousy, temper, rivalry, factions, party-spirit, envy, [murder], drinking bouts, revelry, and the like; I tell you beforehand as I have told you already, that people who indulge in such practices will never inherit the Realm of 22 God. But the harvest of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, good 23 temper, kindness, generosity, fidelity, gentleness, self-control:—there is no law against those who practice such 24 things. Now those who belong to Christ* have crucified on the whole that this interpretation of the text, which is advocated by modern editors like Lightfoot and Zahn, has the best claim to be regarded as authentic; it goes back to Marcion and has the powerful support of the Latin version, of G, of Origen, Ambrosiaster, Jerome, and others.

* Omitting Ἰησοῦ with D G, the Latin, Gothic, and Armenian versions, Marcion, Chrysostom, and others.

- 25 the flesh with its emotions and passions. As we live by the 26 Spirit, let us be guided by the Spirit; let us have no vanity, 6 no provoking, no envy of one another. Even if anyone is detected in some trespass, brothers, you are spiritual, you must set the offender right in a spirit of gentleness;
let each of you look to himself, in case he too is tempted.
- 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ
- 3 If anyone imagines he is somebody, he is deceiving him-4 self, for he is nobody; let everyone bring his own work to the test—then he will have something to boast about on his own account, and not in comparison with his fellows.
- 5 For everyone will have to bear his own load of responsibility.
- 6 Those who are taught must share all the blessings of 7 life with those who teach them the Word. Make no mistake—God is not to be mocked—a man will reap just what 8 he sows; he who sows for his flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, and he who sows for the Spirit will reap 9 life eternal from the Spirit. Never let us grow tired of doing what is right, for if we do not faint we shall reap 10 our harvest at the opportune season. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men and in particular to the household of the faith.
- 11 See what big letters I make, when I write you in my own hand!
- 12 These men who are keen upon you getting circumcised are just men who want to make a grand display in the flesh—it is simply to avoid being persecuted for the cross 13 of Christ. Why, even the circumcision party do not observe the Law themselves! They merely want you to get cir-14 cumcised, so as to boast over your flesh! But no boasting for me, none except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me and I crucified 15 to the world. For what counts is neither circumcision nor 16 uncircumcision, it is the new creation. On all who will be guided by this rule, may peace and mercy rest, even upon the Israel of God.
- 17 Let no one interfere with me after this, for I bear branded on my body the owner's stamp of Jesus.
- 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

- 1 PAUL, by the will of God an apostle of Jesus Christ, to 2 the saints who are faithful* in Jesus Christ: grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who in Christ has blessed us with every spiritual blessing!
4 He chose us in him ere the world was founded, to be con-5 secrated and unblemished in his sight, destining us in love 6 to be his sons through Jesus Christ. Such was the purpose of his will, redounding to the praise of his glorious grace 7 bestowed on us in the Beloved, in whom we enjoy our redemption, the forgiveness of our trespasses, by the blood 8 he shed. So richly has God lavished his grace upon us!
9 He has granted us complete insight and understanding of the open secret of his will, showing us how it was the 10 purpose of his design so to order it in the fulness of the ages that all things in heaven and earth alike should be 11 gathered up in Christ—in the Christ in whom we have had our heritage allotted us (as was decreed in the design of him who carries out everything according to the counsel 12 of his will), to make us redound to the praise of his glory 13 by being the first to put our hope in Christ. You also have heard the message of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, and in him you also by your faith have been stamped with the seal of the long-promised holy Spirit 14 which is the pledge and instalment of our common heritage, that we may obtain our divine possession and so redound to the praise of his glory.
- 15 Hence, as I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus 16 and your love for all the saints, I never cease to give 17 thanks for you, when I mention you in my prayers. May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, grant you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation for the knowl-18 edge of himself, illuminating the eyes of your heart so that you can understand the hope to which He calls us, the 19 wealth of his glorious heritage in the saints, and the

* Omitting [ἐν Ἐφέσῳ].

- surpassing greatness of his power over us believers—a 20 power which operates with the strength of the might which he exerted in raising Christ from the dead and seating him 21 at his right hand in the heavenly sphere, above all the angelic Rulers, Authorities, Powers, and Lords, above every Name that is to be named not only in this age but in the 22 age to come—he has put everything under his feet and set him as head over everything for the church, the church 23 which is his Body, filled by him who fills the universe 2 2 entirely. And as with us so with you. You were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you moved as you followed the course of this world, under the sway of the prince of the air—the spirit which is at present active 3 within those sons of disobedience among whom all of us lived, we as well as you, when we obeyed the passions of our flesh, carrying out the dictates of the flesh and its impulses, when we were objects of God's anger by nature, 4 like the rest of men. But, dead in trespasses as we were, 5 God was so rich in mercy that for his great love to us he made us live together with Christ (it is by grace you have 6 been saved); together with Christ he raised and seated 7 us within the heavenly sphere in Christ Jesus, to display throughout ages to come his surpassing wealth of grace 8 and goodness toward us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace you have been saved, as you had faith; it is not your doing 9 but God's gift, not the outcome of what you have done—lest 10 anyone should pride himself on that; God has made us what we are, creating us in Christ Jesus for the good deeds which are prepared beforehand by God as our sphere of action.
- 11 Remember, then, that once upon a time you Gentiles in the flesh, who are called 'the Uncircumcision' by that so-called 'Circumcision' which is itself the product of human 12 hands in the flesh—remember you were in those days outside Christ, aliens to the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the Promise, devoid of hope 13 and God within the world. Whereas now, within Christ Jesus, you who once were far away have been brought near 14 by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who has made both of us a unity and destroyed the barrier which 15 kept us apart; in his own flesh he put an end to the feud of the Law with its code of commands, so as to make peace by the creation of a new Man in himself out of both 16 parties, so as himself to give the death-blow to that feud by reconciling them both to God in one Body through the 17 cross; he came with a gospel of peace for those far away 18 (that is, for you) and for those who were near, for it is through him that we both enjoy our access to the Father

19 in one Spirit. Thus you are strangers and foreigners no longer, you share the membership of the saints, you belong to God's own household, you are a building that rests on the apostles and prophets as its foundation, with Christ Jesus as the cornerstone; in him the whole structure is welded together and rises into a sacred temple in the Lord, and in him you are yourselves built into this to form a habitation for God in the Spirit.

2 3 FOR this reason I Paul, I whom Jesus has made a prisoner for the sake of you Gentiles—for surely you have heard how the grace of God which was vouchsafed me in your interests has ordered it, how the divine secret was disclosed to me by a revelation (if you read what I have already written briefly about this, you can understand my insight into that secret of Christ which was not disclosed to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his sacred apostles and prophets by the Spirit), namely, that in Christ Jesus the Gentiles are co-heirs, companions, and co-partners in the * Promise. Such is the gospel which I was called to serve by the endowment of God's grace which was vouchsafed me, by the energy of his power; less than the least of all saints as I am, this grace was vouchsafed me, that I should bring the Gentiles the gospel of the fathomless wealth of Christ and enlighten all men upon the new order of that divine secret which God the Creator of all concealed from eternity—intending to let the full sweep of the divine wisdom be disclosed now by the church to the angelic Rulers and Authorities in the heavenly sphere, in terms of the eternal purpose which he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, through whom, as we have faith in him, we enjoy our confidence of free access.

13 So I beg of you not to lose heart over what I am suffering on your behalf; my sufferings are an honour to you.

14 For this reason, then, I kneel before the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name and nature, praying Him out of the wealth of his glory to grant you a mighty increase of strength by his Spirit in the inner man. May Christ dwell in your hearts as you have faith! May you be so fixed and founded in love that you can grasp with all the saints what is the meaning of 'the Breadth,' 'the Length,' 'the Depth' and 'the Height,' by knowing the love of Christ which surpasses all knowledge! May you be filled with the entire fulness of God! Now to him who by the action of his power within us can do all things, aye far more than we ever ask or 21 imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations for ever and ever: Amen.

* Omitting [αὐτοῦ].

4 As the Lord's prisoner, then, I beg of you to live a 2 life worthy of your calling, with perfect modesty and gentleness, showing forbearance to one another patiently, 3 zealous in love to preserve the unity of the Spirit by bind-4 ing peace upon yourselves. For there is one Body and one Spirit—as you were called for the one hope that belongs 5 to your call—one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God 6 and Father of all, who is over us all, who pervades us all, 7 who is within us all. But each one of us is granted his own grace, as determined by the full measure of Christ's 8 gift. Thus it is said,

When he ascended on high he led a host captive and granted gifts to men.

9 What does he ascended mean, except that he first de-10 scended to the nether regions of the earth? He who descended is he who ascended above all the heavens to fill 11 the universe; he granted some men to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, some to shepherd and 12 teach, for the equipment of the saints, for the business of the ministry, for the upbuilding of the Body of Christ, 13 till we should all attain the unity of the faith and knowledge of God's Son, reaching maturity, reaching the full measure of development which belongs to the fulness of 14 Christ—instead of remaining immature, blown from our course and swayed by every passing wind of doctrine, by the adroitness of men who are dexterous in devising error; 15 we are to hold by the truth, and by our love to grow up 16 wholly into Him. For He, Christ, is the head and under him, as the entire Body is welded together and com-packed by every joint with which it is supplied, the due activity of each part enables the Body to grow and build itself up in love.

17 Now in the Lord I insist and protest that you must give 18 up living like pagans; for their purposes are futile, their intelligence is darkened, they are estranged from the life of God by the ignorance which their dulness of heart has 19 produced in them—men who have recklessly* abandoned themselves to sensuality, with a lust for the business of 20 impurity in every shape and form. That is not how you 21 have understood the meaning of Christ (for it is Christ whom you have been taught, it is in Christ that you have

* Reading ἀπηνικότες with D G, the Latin version, the Syriac Vulgate, Irenaeus, Victorinus, etc.

- 22 been instructed—the real Christ who is in Jesus); you must lay aside the old nature which belonged to your former course of life, that nature which crumbles to ruin under the passions of moral deceit, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, putting on the new nature, that divine pattern which has been created in the upright and pious character of the Truth. Lay aside falsehood, then, let each tell his neighbour the truth, for we are members one of another. Be angry but do not sin; never let the sun set upon your exasperation, give the devil no chance. Let the thief steal no more; rather let him work and put his hands to an honest task, so as to have something to contribute to the needy. Let no bad word pass your lips, but only such speech as is good for edification, as occasion may require, words that are gracious and a means of grace to those who hear them. And do not vex God's holy Spirit, by whom you have been sealed for the day of redemption. Drop all bitter feeling and passion and anger and clamouring and insults, together with all malice; be kind to each other, be tender-hearted, be generous to each other as God has been generous to you in Christ. Copy God, then, as his beloved children, and lead lives of love, just as Christ loved you and gave himself up for you to be a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.
- 3 Never let any sexual vice or impurity or lust be so much as mentioned by you—that is the proper course for saints to take; no, nor indecent, silly, or scurrilous talk—all that is improper. Rather, voice your thanks to God. Be sure of this, that no one guilty of sexual vice or impurity or lust (that is, an idolater) possesses any inheritance in the realm of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with specious arguments; these are the vices that bring down God's anger on the sons of disobedience. So avoid the company of such men. For while once upon a time you were darkness, now in the Lord you are light; lead the life of those who are children of the light (for the fruit of light consists in all that is good and right and true), verifying what pleases the Lord. Have nothing to do with the fruitless enterprises of the darkness; rather expose them. One is indeed ashamed even to speak about what such men do in secret; still, whatever the light exposes becomes illuminated—for anything that is illuminated turns into light. Thus it is said,
 'Wake up, O sleeper, and rise from the dead;
 so Christ will shine upon you.'
- 15 Be strictly * careful then about the life you lead; act

* Reading ἀκριβῶς πῶς with N*, B, Origen, etc.

16 like sensible men, not like thoughtless; make the very 17 most of your time, for these are evil days. So do not be 18 senseless, but understand what is the Lord's will; and do not get drunk with wine—that means profligacy—but be 19 filled with the Spirit, converse with one another in the music of psalms, in hymns, and in songs of the spiritual life, 20 praise the Lord heartily with words and music, and render thanks to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ at all times and for all things.

21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.
 22 Wives, be subject to your husbands as to the Lord, for the 23 husband is the head of the wife as Christ also (though he 24 is the saviour of the Body) is the head of the church; as the church is subject to Christ, so wives are to be subject 25 to their husbands in every respect. Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up 26 for her to consecrate her by cleansing her in the bath of 27 baptism as she utters her confession, in order to have the church as his very own, standing before him in all her glory, with never a spot or wrinkle or any such flaw, but 28 consecrated and unblemished. So ought husbands to love their wives—to love them as their own bodies (he who loves 29 his wife loves himself). For no one ever hates his flesh; no, he nourishes and cherishes it (just as Christ does the 30 church for we are members of his Body).* Therefore shall 31 a man leave father and mother and cleave to his wife, and 32 the pair shall be one flesh. This is a profound symbol, I 33 mean as regards Christ and the church. However, let every man of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife rever-

6 ence her husband. Children, obey your parents in the 2 Lord, for this is right; honour your father and mother 3 (it is the first command with a promise), that it may be 4 well with you and that you may live long on earth. As for you fathers, do not exasperate your children, but bring them up in the discipline and on the admonitions of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters here below with reverence and trembling, with singleness of 6 heart as to Christ himself; instead of merely working when their eye is on you, like those who court human favour, 7 do God's will from the heart like servants of Christ, by rendering service with goodwill as to the Lord and Master, 8 not to men. Be sure that everyone, slave or free, will be paid back by the Lord and Master for the good he has done.
 9 And as for you masters, act by your servants in the same

* Omitting [ἐκ τῆς σαρκὸς αὐτοῦ καὶ ἐκ τῶν ὀστέων αὐτοῦ] with N*, A B, Origen, etc.

way, and stop threatening them; be sure that they and you have a Lord and Master in heaven, and there is no partiality about him.

10 To conclude. Be strong in the Lord and in the strength 11 of his might; put on God's armour so as to be able to stand 12 against the stratagems of the devil. For we have to struggle, not with blood and flesh but with the angelic Rulers, the angelic Authorities, the potentates of the dark present, the spirit-forces of evil in the heavenly sphere. So take 13 God's armour, that you may be able to make a stand upon the evil day and hold your ground by overcoming all the 14 foe. Hold your ground, tighten the belt of truth about 15 your loins, wear integrity as your coat of mail, and have your feet shod with the stability of the gospel of peace;
16 above all, take faith as your shield, to enable you to quench
17 all the fire-tipped darts flung by the evil one, put on salvation as your helmet, and take the Spirit as your sword 18 (that is, the word of God), praying at all times in the Spirit with all manner of prayer and entreaty—be alive to that, attend to it unceasingly, interceding on behalf of all 19 the saints and on my behalf also, that I may be allowed to speak and open my lips in order to expound fully and 20 freely that open secret of the gospel for the sake of which I am in custody as its envoy. Pray that I may have freedom to declare it as I should.

21 Our beloved brother Tychicus, a faithful minister in the Lord, will give you all information about me, so that you 22 may know how I am; that is why I am sending him to you, to let you know how I am and to encourage your hearts.

23 Peace and love with faith be to the brothers from God 24 the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all who have an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

- 1 PAUL and Timotheus, servants of Christ Jesus, to all 2 the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, as well 3 as to the bishops and deacons: grace and peace to you from 4 God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 5 I thank my God for all your remembrance of me; 6 in all my prayers for you all I always pray with a sense of 7 joy for what you have contributed to the gospel from the 8 very first day down to this moment; of this I am confident, 9 that he who has begun the good work in you will go on 10 completing it until the day of Jesus Christ. It is only 11 natural for me to be thinking of you all in this way, for 12 alike in my prison and as I defend and vindicate the 13 gospel, I bear in mind how you all share with me in the 14 grace divine. God is my witness that I yearn for you all 15 with the affection of Christ Jesus himself! And it is my 16 prayer that your love may be more and more rich in knowl-17 edge and all manner of insight, enabling you to have a 18 sense of what is vital, so that you may be transparent and 19 no harm to anyone in view of the day of Christ, your life covered with that harvest of righteousness which Jesus Christ produces to the glory and the praise of God.
- 20 I would have you understand, my brothers, that my 21 affairs have really tended to advance the gospel; through-22 out the whole of the praetorian guard and everywhere else 23 it is recognized that I am imprisoned on account of my con-24 nexion with Christ, and my imprisonment has given the 25 majority of the brotherhood greater confidence in the Lord 26 to venture on speaking the word of God without being 27 afraid. Some of them, it is true, are actually preaching 28 Christ from envy and rivalry, others from goodwill; the 29 latter do it from love to me, knowing that I am set here 30 to defend the gospel, but the former proclaim Christ for 31 their own ends, with mixed motives, intending to annoy 32 me as I lie in prison. What does it matter? Anyhow, for 33 ulterior ends or honestly, Christ is being proclaimed, and 34 I rejoice over that; yes and I will rejoice over it.
- 35 The outcome of all this, I know, will be my release, as 36 you continue to pray for me, and as I am provided with 20 the Spirit of Jesus Christ—my eager desire and hope being that I may never feel ashamed but that now as ever I may do honour to Christ in my own person by fearless courage. Whether that means life or death, no matter!

 21 As life means Christ to me, so death means gain. But then, 22 if it is to be life here below, that means fruitful work.
 23 So—well, I cannot tell which to choose; I am in a dilemma between the two. My strong desire is to depart and be 24 with Christ, for that is far the best. But for your sakes 25 it is necessary I should live on here below. I am sure it is, and so I know I shall remain alive and serve you all by forwarding your progress and fostering the joy of your 26 faith. Thus you will have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus over me—over my return to you.

27 Only, do lead a life that is worthy of the gospel of Christ. Whether I come and see you or only hear of you in absence, let me know you are standing firm in a common spirit, fighting side by side like one man for the faith of 28 the gospel. Never be scared for a second by your opponents: your fearlessness is a clear omen of ruin for them 29 and of your own salvation—at the hands of God. For on behalf of Christ you have the favour of suffering no less 30 than of believing in him, by waging the same conflict that,

2 as once you saw and now you hear, I wage myself. So by all the stimulus of Christ, by every incentive of love, by all your participation in the Spirit, by all your affectionate tenderness, I pray you to give me the utter joy of knowing you are living in harmony, with the same feelings of love, with one heart and soul, never acting for private ends or from vanity, but humbly considering each other the better man, and each with an eye to the interests of others as well as to his own. Treat one another with the same spirit as you experience in Christ Jesus.
 6 Though he was divine by nature, he did not snatch at equality with God but emptied himself by taking the 8 nature of a servant; born in human guise and appearing in human form, he humbly stooped in his obedience even 9 to die, and to die upon the cross. Therefore God raised him high and conferred on him a Name above all names, 10 so that before the Name of Jesus every knee should bend 11 in heaven, on earth, and underneath the earth, and every tongue confess that 'Jesus Christ is Lord,' to the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have been obedient always and not simply when I was present, so, now that I am absent, work all the more strenuously at your salvation 13 with reverence and trembling, for it is God who in his 14 goodwill enables you to will this and to achieve it. In all

15 that you do, avoid grumbling and disputing, so as to be blameless and innocent, faultless children of God in a crooked and perverse generation where you shine like stars 16 in a dark world; hold fast the word of life, so that I can be proud of you on the Day of Christ, because I have not 17 run or worked for nothing. Even if my life-blood has to be poured as a libation on the sacred sacrifice of faith you 18 are offering to God, I rejoice, I congratulate you all—and you in turn must rejoice and congratulate me.

19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send you Timotheus before 20 long, that I may be heartened by news of you. I have no 21 one like him, for genuine interest in your welfare. Every-22 body is selfish, instead of caring for Jesus Christ. But you know how he has stood the test, how he has served 23 with me in the gospel, like a son helping his father. I hope to send him then, as soon as ever I see how it will go 24 with me—though I am confident in the Lord that I shall 25 be coming myself before long. As for Epaphroditus, however, my brother, my fellow-worker, my fellow-soldier, and your messenger to meet my wants, I think it necessary 26 to send you him at once, for he has been yearning for you all. He has been greatly concerned because you heard he 27 was ill. And he was ill, nearly dead with illness. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me, 28 to save me from having one sorrow upon another. So I am specially eager to send him, that you may be glad when you see him again, and thus my own anxiety may be 29 lightened. Give him a welcome in the Lord, then, with 30 your hearts full of joy. Value men like that, for he nearly died in the service of Christ by risking his life to make up for the services you were not here to render me.

3 WELL then, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. I am repeating this word 'rejoice' in my letter, but that does 2 not tire me and it is the safe course for you.—Beware of these dogs, these wicked workmen, the incision-party!
3 We are the true Circumcision, we who worship God in spirit, we who pride ourselves on Christ Jesus, we who rely 4 upon no outward privilege. Though I could rely on outward privilege, if I chose. Whoever thinks he can rely on 5 that, I can outdo him. I was circumcised on the eighth day after birth; I belonged to the race of Israel, to the tribe of Benjamin; I was the Hebrew son of Hebrew 6 parents, a Pharisee as regards the Law, in point of ardour a persecutor of the church, immaculate by the standard 7 of legal righteousness. But for Christ's sake I have 8 learned to count my former gains a loss; indeed I count anything a loss, compared to the supreme value of know-

- ing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have lost everything (I count it all the veriest refuse) in order to gain 9 Christ and be found at death in him, possessing no legal righteousness of my own but the righteousness of faith in Christ, the divine righteousness that rests on 10 faith. I would know him in the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, with my 11 nature transformed to die as he died, to see if I too can 12 attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already attained this or am already perfect, but I press forward to appropriate it, because I have been appropriated 13 myself by Christ Jesus. Brothers, I for one do not consider myself to have appropriated this; my one thought is, by forgetting what lies behind me and straining to what 14 lies before me, to press on to the goal for the prize of God's 15 high call in Christ Jesus. For all those of our number who are mature, this must be the point of view; God will reveal that to any of you who look at things differently.
16 Only, we must let our steps be guided by such truth as we have attained.
- 17 Copy me, brothers, one and all of you, and notice those 18 who live by the example you get from me. For many—as I have often told you and tell you now with tears—many 19 live as enemies of the cross of Christ. Destruction is their fate, the belly is their god, they glory in their shame, these 20 men of earthly mind! But we are a colony of heaven, and we wait for the Saviour who comes from heaven, the 21 Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform the body that belongs to our low estate till it resembles the body of his Glory, by the same power that enables him to make every-4 thing subject to himself. So then, my brothers, for whom I cherish love and longing, my joy and crown, this is how you must stand firm in the Lord, O my beloved.
- 2 I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the 3 Lord. And you, my true comrade, lend a hand to these women, I beg of you; they have fought at my side in the active service of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.
- 4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again, 'rejoice.' 5 Let your forbearance be known to everyone; the Lord is 6 at hand. Never be anxious, but always make your requests known to God in prayer and supplication with thanks-7 giving; so shall God's peace, that surpasses all our dreams, keep guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.
- 8 Finally, brothers, keep in mind whatever is true, whatever is worthy, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is attractive, whatever is high-toned, all excellence,

- 9 all merit. Practise also what you have learned and received from me, what you heard me say and what you saw me do; then the God of peace will be with you.
- 10 It was a great joy to me in the Lord that your care for me could revive again; for what you lacked was never
- 11 the care but the chance of showing it. Not that I complain of want, for I have learned how to be content
- 12 wherever I am. I know how to live humbly; I also know how to live in prosperity. I have been initiated into the secret for all sorts and conditions of life, for plenty and
- 13 for hunger, for prosperity and for privations. In him who
- 14 strengthens me I am able for anything. But you were
- 15 kind enough to take your share in my trouble. You Philippians are well aware that in the early days of the gospel, when I had left Macedonia, no church but your-
- 16 selves had any financial dealings with me; even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent money more than once for
- 17 my needs. It is not the money I am anxious for; what I am anxious for is the interest that accumulates in this
- 18 way to your divine credit! Your debt to me is fully paid and more than paid! I am amply supplied with what you have sent by Epaphroditus, a fragrant perfume, the sort
- 19 of sacrifice that God approves and welcomes. My God will supply all your own needs from his wealth in Glory in
- 20 Christ Jesus. Glory to God our Father for ever and ever: Amen.
- 21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers beside
- 22 me salute you. All the saints salute you, especially the Imperial slaves.
- 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

1 PAUL, by God's will an apostle of Christ Jesus, and 2 brother Timotheus, to the consecrated and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: grace and peace to you from God our Father.

3 We always thank the God and Father of our Lord Jesus 4 Christ when we pray for you, since we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all the saints, 5 due to the hope which is laid up for you in heaven. You heard of this hope originally in the message of the Truth, 6 in that gospel which has reached you as it spreads over all the world with fruit and increase. Such has been your life from the day you learned to know what God's grace 7 really is. You got that lesson from our beloved fellow-servant Epaphras, a minister of Christ who is faithful to 8 your interests; and it is he who has informed us of your 9 love in the Spirit. Hence, from the day we heard of it, we have never ceased to pray for you, asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom 10 and insight, so that you may lead a life that is worthy of the Lord and give him entire satisfaction. May you be fruitful and increase in the doing of all good, as you thus 11 know God! May his glorious might nerve you with full power to endure and to be patient cheerfully, whatever 12 comes, thanking the Father who has qualified us to share 13 the lot of the saints in the Light, rescuing us from the power of the Darkness and transferring us to the realm of 14 his beloved Son! In him we enjoy our redemption, that 15 is, the forgiveness of sins. He is the likeness of the un-16 seen God, born first before all the creation—for it was by him that all things were created both in heaven and on earth, both the seen and the unseen, including Thrones, angelic Lords, celestial Powers and Rulers; all things have 17 been created by him and for him; he is prior to all, and 18 all coheres in him. Also, he is the head of the Body, that is, of the church, in virtue of his primacy as the first to be born from the dead—that gives him preeminence over 19 all. For it was in him that the divine Fulness willed to 20 settle without limit, and by him it willed to reconcile in

- his own person all on earth and in heaven alike, in a peace 21 made by the blood of his cross. Once you were estranged yourselves, your hearts hostile to him in evil-doing; but now he has reconciled you by dying in his mortal body, 22 so as to set you consecrated and unblemished and irre-23 proachable in his presence—that is, if you adhere to the foundations and stability of the faith, instead of moving away from the hope you have learned in the gospel, that gospel which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I Paul was made a minister.
- 24 I am suffering now on your behalf, but I rejoice in that; I would make up the full sum of all that Christ has to suffer in my person on behalf of the church, his Body; 25 for I am a minister of the church by the divine commission which has been granted me in your interests, to make 26 a full presentation of God's message—of that open secret which, though concealed from ages and generations of old, 27 has now been disclosed to the saints of God. It is His will that they should understand the glorious wealth which this secret holds for the Gentiles, in the fact of Christ's 28 presence among you as your hope of glory. This is the Christ we proclaim; we train everyone and teach everyone the full scope of this knowledge, in order to set everyone 29 before God mature in Christ; I labour for that end, striving for it with the divine energy which is a power within me.
- 2 Striving? Yes, I want you to understand my deep concern for you and for those at Laodicea, for all who 2 have never seen my face. May their hearts be encouraged!
 May they learn the meaning of love! May they have all the wealth of conviction that comes from insight! May they learn to know that open secret of God, the Father of 3 Christ, in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge 4 lie hidden! I say this to prevent you from being deluded 5 by plausible arguments from anybody; for although I am absent in body I am with you in spirit, and it is a joy to note your steadiness and the solid front of your faith in Christ.
- 6 Since you have had the messiah, even Jesus the Lord, 7 brought to you, lead your life in him, fixed and founded in him, confirmed in the faith as you have been taught it, 8 and overflowing with thankfulness to God. Beware of anyone getting hold of you by means of a theosophy which is specious make-believe, on the lines of human tradition, corresponding to the Elemental spirits of the world and not 9 to Christ. It is in Christ that the entire Fulness of deity 10 has settled bodily, it is in him that you reach your full life, and he is the Head of every angelic Ruler and Power; 11 in him you have been circumcised with no material circumcision that cuts flesh from the body, but with Christ's own 12 circumcision, when you were buried with him in your baptism and thereby raised with him as you believed in 13 the power of the God who raised him from the dead. For though you were dead in your trespasses, your flesh uncircumcised, He made you live with Christ, He forgave us all 14 our trespasses, He cancelled the regulations that stood against us—all these obligations he set aside when he 15 nailed them to the cross, when he cut away the angelic Rulers and Powers from us, exposing them to all the 16 world and triumphing over them in the cross. So let no one take you to task on questions of eating and drinking or in connexion with the observance of festivals or new 17 moons or sabbaths. All that is the mere shadow of what is 18 to be; the substance belongs to Christ. Let no one lay down rules for you as he pleases, with regard to fasting and the cult of angels, presuming on his visions and inflated by his 19 sensuous notions, instead of keeping in touch with that Head under whom the entire Body, supplied with joints and sinews and thus compacted, grows with growth divine.

 20 As you died with Christ to the Elemental spirits of the world, why live as if you still belonged to the world? Why 21 submit to rules and regulations like "Hands off this!" 22 "Taste not that!" "Touch not this!"—referring to things that perish by being used? These rules are determined by 23 human precepts and tenets; they get the name of 'wisdom' with their self-imposed dévotions, with their fasting, with their rigorous discipline of the body, but they are of no value, they simply pamper the flesh!

3 Since then you have been raised with Christ, aim at 2 what is above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of 3 God; mind what is above, not what is on earth, for you died 4 and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, appears, then you will appear with him 5 in glory. So put to death those members that are on earth: sexual vice, impurity, appetite, evil desire, and lust (which 6 is idolatry), things that bring down the anger of God on 7 the sons of disobedience. Once you moved among them, 8 when you lived in them; but off with them all now, off 9 with anger, rage, malice, slander, foul talk! Tell no lies to one another; you have stripped off the old nature with 10 its practices, and put on the new nature which is renewed in the likeness of its Creator for the knowledge of him.
 11 In it there is no room for Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, or free man; Christ is everything and everywhere.

12 As God's own chosen, then, as consecrated and beloved, be clothed with compassion, kindness, humility, gentle-13 ness, and good temper—forbear and forgive each other in any case of complaint; as Christ forgave you, so must you 14 forgive. And above all you must be loving, for love is the 15 link of the perfect life. Also, let the peace of Christ be supreme within your hearts—that is why you have been called as members of the one Body. And you must be 16 thankful. Let the inspiration of Christ dwell in your midst with all its wealth of wisdom; teach and train one another with the music of psalms, with hymns, and songs of the spiritual life; praise God with thankful hearts.

 17 Indeed, whatever you say or do, let everything be done in dependence on the Lord Jesus, giving thanks in his name to God the Father.

18 Wives, be subject to your husbands; that is your proper 19 duty in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, do not be 20 harsh to them. Children, obey your parents at every 21 point, for this pleases the Lord right well. Fathers, avoid 22 irritating your children, in case they get dispirited. Servants, obey your masters here below at every point; do not work simply when their eye is on you, like those who court human favour, but serve them with a single heart 23 out of reverence for your Lord and Master. Whatever be your task, work at it heartily, as servants of the Lord and 24 not of men; remember, you will receive from the Lord the inheritance which is your due; serve Christ your Lord and 25 Master, for the wrongdoer will be paid back for his wrong-4 doing—there will be no favour shown. Masters, treat your servants justly and fairly; remember you have a Master of your own in heaven.

2 Attend to your prayers, maintain your zest for prayer 3 by thanksgiving; and pray for me as well, that God may give me an opening for the word, to speak of the open 4 secret of Christ for which I am in custody. Pray that I 5 may unfold it as I should. Let Christian wisdom rule your behaviour to the outside world; make the very most 6 of your time; let your talk always have a saving salt of grace about it, and learn how to answer any question put to you.

7 Tychicus, that beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord, will give you all information 8 about me. The reason why I am sending him to you is that he may ascertain how you are, and encourage your 9 hearts. He is accompanied by that faithful and beloved brother Onesimus, who is one of yourselves. They will inform you of all that goes on here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner salutes you; so does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, about whom you have got in-11 structions (if he comes to you, give him a welcome); and

- so does Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only comrades in the work of God's realm, belonging to the circumcised, who have been any comfort to me. Epaphras, who is one of yourselves, salutes you—a servant of Christ Jesus who is always earnest in prayer for you, that you may stand firm like mature and convinced Christians, whatever be the will of God for you. I can testify to his exertions on your behalf and on behalf of those at Laodicea and Hierapolis. Our beloved Luke, the doctor, salutes you; so does Demas. Salute the brothers at Laodicea, also Nympha and the church which meets at her house. And when this letter has been read to you, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans; also, see that you read the letter that reaches you from Laodicea. And tell Archippus, 'Attend to the ministry you have received in the Lord; see that you fulfil it.'
- 18 This salutation is in my own hand, from Paul. 'Remember I am in prison. Grace be with you.'

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

1 PAUL and Silvanus and Timotheus, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace and peace to you.

2 We always thank God for you all when we mention you 3 constantly in our prayers, as we recall your active faith and labour of love and patient hope in our Lord Jesus 4 Christ, before our God and Father. O brothers beloved by 5 God, we know he has chosen you; for our gospel came to you not with mere words but also with power and with the holy Spirit, with ample conviction on our part (you 6 know what we were to you, for your own good), and you started to copy us and the Lord, welcoming the word, though it brought you heavy trouble, with a joy inspired 7 by the holy Spirit. Thus you became a pattern to all the 8 believers in Macedonia and in Achaia; for the word of the Lord has resounded from you not only through Macedonia and Achaia—no, your faith in God has reached every place.
9 We never need to speak about it. People tell us of their own accord about the visit we paid to you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and a real God 10 and to wait for the coming of his Son from heaven—the Son whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who rescues us from the Wrath to come.

2 BUT you remember yourselves, brothers, that our visit 2 to you was no failure. At Philippi, as you know, we had been ill-treated and insulted, but we took courage and confidence in our God to tell you the gospel of God in spite 3 of all the strain. For the appeal we make does not spring from any delusion or from impure motives—it does not 4 work by cunning; no, God has attested our fitness to be entrusted with the gospel, and so we tell the gospel not to satisfy men but to satisfy the God who tests our hearts.
5 We never resorted to flattery (you know that), nor to any 6 pretext for self-seeking (God is witness to that); we never sought honour from men, from you or from anybody else, though as apostles of Christ we had the power of claiming 7 to be men of weight; no, we behaved gently when we were among you, like a nursing mother cherishing her own 8 children, fain, in our yearning affection for you, to impart not only the gospel of God to you but our very souls as well 9 —you had so won our love. Brothers, you recollect our hard labour and toil, how we worked at our trade night and day, when we preached the gospel to you, so as not 10 to be a burden to any of you. You are witnesses, and so is God, to our behaviour among you believers, how pious and 11 upright and blameless it was, how (as you know) we treated each of you as a father treats his children, beseech-12 ing you, encouraging you, and charging you to lead a life worthy of the God who called you to his own realm and glory.

13 We thank God constantly for this too, that when you received the word of the divine message from us, you took it not as a human word but for what it really is, the word 14 of God. It proves effective in you believers, for you have started, my brothers, to copy the churches of God in Christ Jesus throughout Judaea; you have suffered from your 15 compatriots just as they have suffered from the Jews, who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, who harassed our-16 selves, who offend God and oppose all men by hindering us from speaking words of salvation to the Gentiles. So they would fill up the measure of their sins to the last drop! But the Wrath is on them to the bitter end!

17 Brothers, when we were bereft of you for a little while (out of sight, not out of mind), we were the more eager 18 to see you. We had a keen longing for you. (We did want to reach you—I did, I Paul, more than once—but 19 Satan stopped us.) For who is our hope, our joy, our crown of pride (who but you?) in the presence of our Lord 20 Jesus on his arrival? Why, you, you are our glory and joy!

3 So, unable to bear it any longer, I made up my 2 mind to be left behind at Athens all alone; I sent Timotheus our brother, a minister of God in the gospel of Christ, for your strengthening and encouragement in the 3 faith, to prevent anyone being disturbed by these troubles.
 4 (Troubles are our lot, you know that well; for we told you beforehand, when we were with you, that “we Christians are to have trouble”—and, as you know, it has been 5 so.) Well then, unable to bear it any longer, I sent to find out about your faith, in case the Tempter had tempted you 6 and our labour had been thrown away. But when Timo-theus reached me a moment ago on his return from you, bringing me the good news of your faith and love and of how you always remember me kindly, longing to see me as 7 I long to see you, then, amid all my own distress and trouble, I was cheered—this faith of yours encouraged me.

8 It is life to me now, if you stand firm in the Lord. How can 9 I render thanks enough to God for you, for all the joy 10 you make me feel in the presence of our God? Night and 11 day I pray specially that I may see your faces and sup-12 ply what is defective in your faith. May our God and 13 Father and our Lord Jesus direct my way to you! And may the Lord make you increase and excel in love to one another and to all men (as is my love for you), so as to strengthen your hearts and make them blameless in holiness before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones. [Amen.]

4 FINALLY, brothers, we beg and beseech you in the Lord Jesus to follow our instructions about the way you are to live so as to satisfy God; you are leading that life, but 2 you are to excel in it still further. You remember the instructions we gave you on the authority of the Lord Jesus.
3 It is God's will that you should be consecrated, that you 4 abstain from sexual vice, that each of you should learn to 5 take a wife for himself chastely and honourably, not to gratify sensual passion like the Gentiles in their ignorance 6 of God—no one is to defraud or overreach his brother in this matter, for the Lord avenges all these sins, as we 7 told you already in our solemn protest against them. God 8 did not call us to be impure but to be consecrated; hence, he who disregards this, disregards not man but the God 9 who gave you his holy Spirit. You need no one to write you upon brotherly love, for you are yourselves taught by 10 God to love one another, as indeed is your practice towards all the brothers throughout all Macedonia. We beseech 11 you, brothers, to excel in this more and more; also, endeavour to live quietly, attend to your own business, and 12 —as we charged you—work with your hands, so that your life may be correct in the eyes of the outside world and self-supporting.
13 We would like you, brothers, to understand about those who are asleep in death. You must not grieve for them, 14 like the rest of men who have no hope. Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, then it follows that by means of Jesus God will bring with him those who have 15 fallen asleep. For we tell you, as the Lord has told us, that we the living, who survive till the Lord comes, are by no means to take precedence of those who have fallen 16 asleep. The Lord himself will descend from heaven with a loud summons, when the archangel calls and the trumpet 17 of God sounds; the dead in Christ will rise first; then we the living, who survive, will be caught up along with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall 18 be with the Lord for ever. Now then, encourage one another with these words.

2 5 As regards the course and periods of time, brothers, you 3 have no need of being written to. You know perfectly 4 well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the 5 night; when 'all's well' and 'all is safe' are on the lips of 6 men, then all of a sudden Destruction is upon them, like 7 pangs on a pregnant woman—escape there is none. But, 8 brothers, you are not in the darkness for the Day to sur-9 prise you like thieves;* you are all sons of the Light and 10 sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or the 11 darkness. Well then, we must not sleep like the rest of 12 men, but be wakeful and sober; for sleepers sleep by night 13 and drunkards are drunk by night, but we must be sober, we 14 who belong to the day, clad in faith and love as our coat of 15 mail, with the hope of salvation as our helmet—for God 16 destined us not for Wrath but to gain salvation through 17 our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us that waking in 18 life or sleeping in death we should live together with him.
 19 Encourage one another, therefore, and let each edify the 20 other—as indeed you are doing.

21 Brothers, we beg you to respect those who are working 22 among you, presiding over you in the Lord and maintain-23 ing discipline; hold them in special esteem and affection, 24 for the sake of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.
 25 We beseech you, brothers, keep a check upon loafers, 26 encourage the faint-hearted, sustain weak souls, never lose 27 your temper with anyone; see that none of you pays back 28 evil for evil, but always aim at what is kind to one another 29 and to all the world; rejoice at all times, never give up 30 prayer, thank God for everything—such is his will for you 31 in Christ Jesus; never quench the fire of the Spirit, 32 never disdain prophetic revelations but test them all, 33 retaining what is good and abstaining from whatever kind 34 is evil.

35 May the God of peace consecrate you through and 36 through! Spirit, soul, and body, may you be kept without 37 break or blame till the arrival of our Lord Jesus Christ!
 38 He who calls you is faithful, he will do this.

39 Pray for us too, brothers.

40 Salute every one of the brothers with a holy kiss.
 41 I adjure you by the Lord to have this letter read aloud 42 to all the [holy] brothers.

43 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. [Amen.]

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

- 1 PAUL and Silvanus and Timotheus, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 2 We are bound always to thank God for you, brothers—it is proper that we should, because your faith grows apace and your mutual love, one and all, is increasing. So much so, that throughout the churches of God we are proud of you, proud of the steadfastness and faith you display through all the persecutions and the troubles in which you are involved. They are proof positive of God's equity; you are suffering for the realm of God, and he means to make you worthy of it—since God considers it but just to repay with trouble those who trouble you, and repay you who are troubled (as well as us) with rest and relief, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven together with the angels of his power in flaming fire, to inflict punishment on those who ignore God, even on those who refuse obedience to the gospel of our Lord Jesus,
- 3 men who will pay the penalty of being destroyed eternally from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might,
- 4 when he comes to be glorified in his saints and marvelled at in all believers on that day (for our testimony has found confirmation* in your lives). In view of this we always pray for you, asking our God to make you worthy of his calling and by his power to fulfil every good resolve and every effort of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you (and you glorified in him), by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

* Reading with Markland and Hort ἐπιστάθην (104 469 Ambrosiaster) for the ἐπιστεύθη of most manuscripts and all versions.

- 2 With regard to the arrival of the * Lord Jesus Christ 2 and our muster before him, I beg you, brothers, not to let your minds get easily unsettled or excited by any spirit of prophecy or any declaration or any letter purporting to come from me, to the effect that the Day of the Lord 3 is already here. Let nobody delude you into this belief, whatever he may say. It will not come till the Rebellion takes place first of all, with the revealing of the Lawless † 4 One, the doomed One, the adversary who vaunts himself above and against every so-called god or object of worship, actually seating himself in the temple of God with the proc-5 lamation that he himself is God. Do you not remember 6 I used to tell you this when I was with you? Well, you can recall now what it is that restrains him from being 7 revealed before his appointed time. For the secret force of lawlessness is at work already; only, it cannot be revealed till he who at present restrains it is removed.
 8 Then shall the Lawless One be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will destroy with the breath of his lips
 and quell by his appearing and arrival—9 that One whose arrival is due to Satan's activity, with the full power, the miracles and portents, of falsehood, 10 and with the full deceitfulness of evil for those who are doomed to perish, since they refuse to love the Truth that would save them.
 11 Therefore God visits them with an active delusion, till they put faith in falsehood, 12 so that all may be doomed who refuse faith in the Truth but delight in evil.
 13 Now we are bound always to thank God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you as the first to be reaped for salvation, by the consecration of your 14 spirit and by faith in the Truth; it was for this that he called you by our gospel, to gain the glory of our Lord 15 Jesus Christ. Well, then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the rules which you have learned from us orally or by 16 letter. And may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father who has loved us and given us eternal encour-17 agement and good hope, graciously encourage your hearts and strengthen them for all good in deed and word.

3 FINALLY, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed on and triumph, as in your own case, 2 and that we may be delivered from perverse and evil men

* Omitting ἡμῶν with B Syr^{hkl}.

- 3 —for the faith is not held by all. However, the Lord is faithful; he will be sure to strengthen you and protect you 4 from the Evil one. Now, we rely on you in the Lord, confident that you do and will do what we enjoin. May the 5 Lord direct your hearts towards God's love and towards Christ's patience!
- 6 Brothers, we charge you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to shun any brother who is loafing, instead of following the rule you got * from us. For you know quite 7 well how to copy us; we did not loaf in your midst, we did not take free meals from anyone; no, toiling hard at our 8 trade, we worked night and day, so as not to be a burden to any of you. Not that we have no right to such support; 9 it was simply to give you a pattern to copy. We used to charge you even when we were with you, 'If a man will not 10 work, he shall not eat.' But we are informed that some of your number are loafing, busybodies instead of busy.
11 Now in the Lord Jesus Christ we charge and exhort such persons to keep quiet, to do their work and earn their 12 own living. As for yourselves, brothers, never grow tired of doing what is right. Only, if anyone will not obey 13 our orders in this letter, mark that man, do not associate with him—that will make him feel ashamed! You are not 14 to treat him as an enemy, but to put him under discipline as a brother.
- 15 May the Lord of peace himself grant you peace continually, whatever comes.
- 16 The Lord be with you all.
- 17 The salutation is in my own hand, Paul's; that is a mark in every letter of mine. This is how I write.
- 18 'The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.'

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHEUS

- 1 PAUL an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our 2 Saviour and Christ Jesus our Hope, to Timotheus his lawful son in the faith: grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 3 As I asked you when I was on my way to Macedonia, 4 stay where you are at Ephesus and warn certain individ-5 uals against teaching novelties and studying myths and 6 interminable genealogies; such studies bear upon spec-7 ulations rather than on the divine order which belongs 8 to faith. Whereas the aim of the Christian discipline is 9 the love that springs from a pure heart, from a good con-10 science, and from a sincere faith. Certain individuals have 11 failed here by turning to empty argument; doctors of the 12 Law is what they want to be, but they have no idea either 13 of the meaning of the words they use or of the themes 14 on which they harp. I am quite aware that 'the Law is 15 admirable'—provided that one makes a lawful use of it; 16 he must keep in mind that no law is ever made for honest 17 people but for the lawless and the insubordinate, for the impious and the sinful, for the irreverent and the profane, for parricides and matricides, murderers, immoral persons, sodomites, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine as laid down by that glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted.
- 12 I render thanks to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has made me able for this; he considered me trustworthy and 13 appointed me to the ministry, though I had formerly been a blasphemer and a persecutor and a wanton aggressor.
I obtained mercy because in my unbelief I had acted out 14 of ignorance; and the grace of our Lord flooded my life along with the faith and love that Christ Jesus inspires.
15 It is a sure word, it deserves all praise, that "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"; and though I am the 16 foremost of sinners, I obtained mercy, for the purpose of furnishing Christ Jesus with the chief illustration of his utter patience; I was to be the typical instance of all who 17 were to believe in him and gain eternal life. To the King of eternity, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever: Amen.

- 18 I transmit these instructions to you, Timotheus my son, in accordance with what the prophets said who first directed me to you; fight the good fight on these lines, 19 keeping hold of faith and a good conscience. Certain individuals have scouted the good conscience and thus come 20 to grief over their faith—including Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have made over to Satan. That will teach them to stop their blasphemous ONGOINGS!

- 2 WELL, my very first counsel is that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgiving, are to be offered 2 for all men—for kings and all in authority, that we may 3 lead a tranquil life in all piety and gravity; it is good to 4 pray thus, it is acceptable to our Saviour, to the God who desires all men to be saved and to attain the knowledge 5 of the Truth. For “there is one God” and “one intermediary between God and men, the man Christ Jesus who gave himself as a ransom for all”:—in due time this was 6 attested, and I was appointed to be its herald and apostle (I am not telling a lie, it is quite true), to teach the Gentiles faith and truth.
8 Now I want the men to offer prayer at any meeting of the church; and let the hands they lift to heaven be holy—9 they must be free from anger and dissension. Women in turn are to dress modestly and quietly in seemly garb; they are not to adorn themselves with plaits of hair, with 10 gold or pearls or expensive finery, but with good deeds 11 as befits women who make a religious profession. A woman must listen quietly in church and be perfectly 12 submissive; I allow no woman to teach or dictate to men, she must keep quiet. For Adam was created first, then 13 Eve; and Adam was not deceived, it was Eve who was 14 deceived and who fell into sin. However, women will get safely through childbirth if they continue to be faithful and loving and holy as well as unassuming.

- 3 It is a popular * saying that “whoever aspires to office is set upon an excellent occupation.” Well, for the office of a bishop a man must be above reproach; he must be only married once, he must be temperate, master of himself, unruffled, hospitable, a skilled teacher, not a drunkard or violent, but lenient and conciliatory, not a lover of

* Reading ἀνθρώπινος with D, the Old Latin, Ambrosiaster, and Western codices known to Jerome. It is much more easy to understand how it was altered to πιστός for the sake of uniformity with i. 15, etc., than vice versa.

4 money, able to manage his own household properly and 5 keep his children submissive and perfectly respectful (if a man does not know how to manage his own household, 6 how is he to look after the church of God?); he must not be a new convert, in case he gets conceited and incurs the 7 doom passed on the devil; also, he must have a good reputation among outsiders, in case he incurs slander and is trapped by the devil.

8 Deacons in turn are to be serious men; they are not to 9 be tale-bearers or addicted to drink or pilfering; they must maintain the divine truth of the faith with a pure 10 conscience. They too must be put on probation; after that, if they are above reproach, they can serve as deacons.
 11 Their wives must be serious too; they must not be slanderers but temperate and absolutely trustworthy.
 12 Deacons are only to be married once, and they must manage 13 their children and households properly. For those who do good service as deacons win a good position for themselves as well as great freedom in the faith of Christ Jesus.

14 Though I hope to come to you before long, I am writing 15 to you in this way, in case I am detained, to let you see how people ought to behave within the household of God;
 it is the church of the living God, the pillar and bulwark 16 of the Truth. And who does not admit how profound is the divine truth of our religion?—it is He who was “manifest in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by the angels, preached among the nations, believed on throughout the world, taken up to glory.”

4 But in later days, the Spirit distinctly declares, certain 2 people will rebel against the faith; they will listen to spirits of error and to the doctrines that daemons teach 2 through plausible sophists who are seared in conscience—3 men who prohibit marriage and insist on abstinence from foods which God created for believing men, who under-4 stand the Truth, to partake of with thanksgiving. Anything God has created is good, and nothing is to be tabooed—5 provided it is eaten with thanksgiving, for then it is consecrated by the prayer said over it.

6 Lay this before the brotherhood, and you will be an excellent minister of Christ Jesus, brought up on the truths of the faith and on the lessons of the good doctrine 7 you have already followed. Shut your mind against these profane, drivelling myths; train for the religious life.
 8 The training of the body is of small service, but religion is of service in all directions; it contains the promise of 9 life both for the present and for the future. It is a sure 10 word, it deserves all praise, that "we toil and strive * because our hope is fixed upon the living God, the Saviour of all men"—of believers in particular.

11 Give these orders and teach these lessons. Let no one 12 slight you because you are a youth, but set the believers an example of speech, behaviour, love, faith, and purity.
13 Attend to your Scripture-reading, your preaching, and your 14 teaching, till I come. You have a gift that came to you transmitted by the prophets, when the presbytery laid 15 their hands upon you; do not neglect that gift. Attend to these duties, let them absorb you, so that all men may note 16 your progress. Watch yourself and watch your teaching; stick to your work; if you do that, you will save your hearers as well as yourself.

5 Never censure an older man harshly; appeal to him as 2 a father. Treat younger men like brothers, older women like mothers, younger women like sisters—with perfect propriety.

3 Widows who really need it must be supported from the 4 funds. (When a widow has children or grandchildren, they must learn that the first duty of religion is to their own household, and that they should make some return to those who have brought them up. In God's sight this is 5 an acceptable thing.) The really forlorn widow has her hope fixed on God, night and day she is at her prayers and 6 supplications; whereas the widow who plunges into dissipa-7 tion is dead before ever she dies. So lay down the following rules, to prevent any reproach being incurred.
8 Whoever does not provide for his own relatives and particularly for his own family, has repudiated the faith: he 9 is worse than an infidel. No one under sixty is to be put on the church's list of widows; and she must have been 10 only once married, she must have a reputation for good service, as a woman who has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the feet of the saints, relieved distress, 11 and interested herself in all good works. Refuse to put young widows on the list, for when their wanton desires 12 alienate them from Christ, they want to marry and thus are 13 guilty of breaking their first troth to Him. Besides, they become idle unconsciously† by gadding about from one house to another—and not merely idle but gossips and busybodies, repeating things they have no right to men-

* Reading ἀγωνιζόμεθα with N* A C G K, etc. The context requires an aggressive, active verb. The "sure words" all have a more or less eschatological outlook.

† I accept the conjecture λανθάνουσι for the μανθάνουσι of the canonical text, which makes the grammatical construction very awkward.

14 tion. So I prefer young widows to marry again, to bear children, to look after their households, and not to afford 15 our opponents any chance of reviling us. As it is, some 16 widows have already turned after Satan.—Any believer, man or woman, who has widowed relatives, must give them relief; the church is not to be burdened with them; she has to relieve the widows who really need relief.

17 Presbyters who are efficient presidents are to be considered worthy of ample remuneration, particularly those 18 who have the task of preaching and teaching: Scripture says, You must not muzzle an ox when he is treading the grain, and A workman deserves his wages.

19 Never let any charge be brought against a presbyter, 20 unless it is certified by two or three witnesses. Those who are guilty of sin you must expose in public, to overawe the others.

21 In the presence of God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels, I adjure you to be unprejudiced in carrying out these orders; be absolutely impartial.

22 Never be in a hurry to ordain a presbyter; do not make yourself responsible for the sins of another man—keep 24 your own life pure.* Some people's sins are notorious and call for judgment, but in some cases sin only comes 25 out afterwards. Good works are equally conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot escape notice for ever.

6 Let all servants who are under the yoke of slavery remember that their masters are entitled to perfect respect—otherwise it will be a scandal to the Name of God 2 and to our doctrine. Those who have Christian believers as their masters must not take liberties with them because they are brothers; they must be all the better servants because those who get the good of their service are believers and beloved.

3 This is what you are to teach and preach. Anyone who teaches novelties and refuses to fall in with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the doctrine that 4 tallies with piety, is a conceited, ignorant creature, with a morbid passion for controversy and argument which only 5 leads to envy, dissension, insults, insinuations, and constant friction between people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the Truth. They imagine religion is a 6 paying concern. And so it is—provided it goes with a 7 contented spirit; for we bring nothing into the world,

* The words, "Give up being a total abstainer; take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent attacks of illness," which follow, are either a marginal gloss or misplaced.

- 8 and we can take nothing out of it. If we have food and 9 clothes, we must be content with that. Those who are eager to be rich get tempted and trapped in many senseless and pernicious propensities that drag men down to ruin 10 and destruction. For love of money is the root of all mischief; it is by aspiring to be rich that certain individuals have gone astray from the faith and found themselves 11 pierced with many a pang of remorse. Shun that, O man of God, aim at integrity, piety, faith, love, steadfastness, and 12 suavity; fight in the good fight of the faith, secure that life eternal to which you were called when you voiced the good 13 confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God who is the Life of all, and of Christ Jesus who testified to the good confession before Pontius Pilate, I 14 charge you to keep your commission free from stain, free from reproach, till the appearance of our Lord Jesus 15 Christ—which will be brought about in due time by that blessed and only Sovereign, King of kings and Lord of 16 lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in light that none can approach, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To him be honour and eternal dominion: Amen.
- 17 Charge the rich of this world not to be supercilious, and not to fix their hopes on so uncertain a thing as riches but on the living God who richly provides us with all the 18 enjoyments of life; tell them to be bountiful, rich in good 19 works, open-handed and generous, amassing right good * treasure for themselves in the world to come, in order to secure the life which is life indeed.
- 20 O Timotheus, keep the securities of the faith intact:
 avoid the profane jargon and contradictions of what is 21 falsely called 'Knowledge.' Certain individuals have failed in the faith by professing that.
- Grace be with you. [Amen.]

* For θεμέλιον I accept the attractive conjecture θέμα λαν, in view of the close parallel in Tobit iv. 9-10 (θέμα γὰρ ἀγαθὸν θησαυρίζεις σεαυτῷ εἰς ἡμέραν ἀνάγκης · διότι ἐλεημοσύνη ἐκ θανάτου ῥύεται).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHEUS

- 1 PAUL an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God in the service of the Life he has promised in Christ Jesus 2 —to his beloved son Timotheus: grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 3 I render thanks to God, the God of my fathers whom I worship with a pure conscience, as I mention you con-4 stantly in my prayers. When I recall the tears you shed when we parted, I long by night and day to see you again.
5 That would fill me with joy, for I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, as it dwells (I feel sure) 6 in yourself. Hence I would remind you to rekindle the divine gift which you received when my hands were laid 7 upon you; for God has not given us a timid spirit but a 8 spirit of power and love and discipline. So do not be ashamed to testify to our Lord, and do not be ashamed of a prisoner of the Lord like me; join me in bearing suffer-9 ing for the gospel by the power of the God who has saved us and called us to a life of consecration—not for anything we have done but because he chose to do it himself, by the 10 grace which he gave us ages ago in Christ Jesus and has now revealed in the appearance of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who has put down death and brought life and immortality 11 to light by the gospel. Of that gospel I have been ap-12 pointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, and this is why I am suffering. Still, I am not ashamed of it; I know whom I have trusted and I am certain he is able to keep what I have put into his hands till the great Day.
- 13 Model yourself on the sound instruction you have had 14 from me in the faith and love of Christ Jesus. Keep the great securities of your faith intact, by aid of the holy 15 Spirit that dwells within us. You are aware that all the Asiatics have discarded me, including Phygelus and 16 Hermogenes. May the Lord show favour to the household of Onesiphorus, for many a time he braced me up; he was 17 not ashamed of my imprisonment—no, he made eager search for me when he reached Rome, and he found me 18 (may he find favour with the Lord on the great Day!

The Lord grant it!). And you know very well what a help he was to me in Ephesus.

2 Now, my son, be strong in the grace of Christ Jesus, 2 and transmit the instructions I gave you in presence of many witnesses to trustworthy men, that they may be 3 competent to teach others. Join the ranks of those who 4 bear suffering, like a loyal soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civil pursuits; his aim is to satisfy 5 his commander. Again, a competitor in the games is not 6 crowned unless he observes the rules. The farmer who has done the work must have the first share of the fruit.
7 Think what I mean! The Lord will help you to understand perfectly.
8 Never forget "Jesus Christ risen from the dead, descended 9 from David"—that is my gospel, for which I have to suffer imprisonment as if I were a criminal. (But there is 10 no prison for the word of God.) All I endure is for the sake of the elect, to let them obtain their share of the 11 salvation of Christ Jesus and also of eternal glory. It is a sure word, that

"If we have died with him, we shall live with him, 12 if we endure, then we shall reign with him, if we disown him, then he shall disown us, 13 if we are faithless, he remains faithful"— for he cannot be untrue to himself.

14 Remind men of this: adjure them before the Lord not to bandy arguments—no good comes out of that, it only 15 means the undoing of your audience. Do your utmost to let God see that you at least are a sound workman, with no need to be ashamed of the way you handle the word of 16 the Truth. Avoid all that profane jargon, for it leads 17 people still further into irreligion, and their doctrine spreads like a gangrene. So it is with Hymenaeus and 18 Philetus; they have failed in the Truth by arguing that the resurrection has taken place already, and they are 19 undermining some people's faith. But the solid foundation laid by God remains, and this is its inscription:

the Lord knows who are his,
and

'let everyone who names the name of the Lord give up evil.'

20 In any great house there are indeed vessels not only of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for noble, 21 some for menial service. If one will only keep clear of the latter, he will be put to noble use, he will be consecrated and useful to the Owner of the House, he will be set apart 22 for good work of all kinds. So shun the lusts of youth and aim at integrity, faith, love and peace, in the company

23 of those who invoke the Lord out of a pure heart. Shut your mind against foolish, popular controversy; be sure 24 that only breeds strife. And the Lord's servant must not be a man of strife; he must be kind to everybody, a skilled 25 teacher, a man who will not resent injuries; he must be gentle in his admonitions to the opposition—God may per-26 haps let them change their mind and admit the Truth; they may come to their senses again and escape the snare of the devil, as they are brought back to life by God to do his will.

3 MARK this, there are hard times coming in the last days.
 2 For men will be selfish, fond of money, boastful, haughty, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, 3 irreverent, callous, relentless, scurrilous, dissolute, and 4 savage; they will hate goodness, they will be treacherous, 5 reckless and conceited, preferring pleasure to God—for though they keep up a form of religion, they will have 6 nothing to do with it as a force. Avoid all such. Some of them worm their way into families and get hold of the women-folk who feel crushed by the burden of their sins—7 wayward creatures of impulse, who are always curious to learn and never able to attain the knowledge of the Truth.
 8 For these guides of theirs are hostile to the Truth, just as Jannes and Jambres were hostile to Moses; they are de-9 praved in mind and useless for all purposes of faith. However, they will get no further, for their aberration will be detected by everyone, as was the case with these magicians.
 10 Now you have followed my teaching, my practice, my 11 aims, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings—all that befell me at Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, all the persecutions I had to undergo, 12 from which the Lord rescued me. Yes, and all who want to live the religious life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.
 13 Bad characters and impostors will go from bad to worse, 14 deceiving others and deceived themselves; but hold you to what you have been taught, hold to your convictions, remem-15 ber who your teachers were, remember you have known from childhood the sacred writings that can impart sav-16 ing wisdom by faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for 17 amendment, and for moral discipline, to make the man of God proficient and equip him for good work of every kind.
 4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus who will judge the living and the dead, in the light of his appear-2 ance and his reign, I adjure you to preach the word; keep at it in season and out of season, refuting, checking, and exhorting men; never lose patience with them, and never

- 3 give up your teaching, for the time will come when people will decline to be taught sound doctrine and will accumulate teachers to suit themselves and tickle their own 4 fancies; they will give up listening to the Truth and turn to myths.
- 5 Whatever happens, be self-possessed, flinch from no suffering, do your work as an evangelist, and discharge all your duties as a minister.
- 6 The last drops of my own sacrifice are falling; my time 7 to go has come. I have fought in the good fight; I have 8 run my course; I have kept the faith. Now the crown of a good life awaits me, with which the Lord, that just Judge, will reward me on the great Day—and not only me but all who have loved and longed for his appearance.
- 9 Do your best to come soon to me, for Demas, in his love 10 for this world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; 11 Crescens is off to Gaul, Titus to Dalmatia, Luke is the only one who is with me. Pick up Mark and bring him along 12 with you, for he is of great use in helping me. (I have had 13 to send Tychicus to Ephesus.) When you come, bring the mantle I left at Troas with Carpus, also my books, and particularly my paper.
- 14 Alexander the blacksmith has done me a lot of harm: the Lord will pay him back for what he has done (beware of him), for he has been bitterly hostile to anything I 15 have said. The first time I had to defend myself, I had no supporters; everyone deserted me. God grant it may not be 17 brought up against them! But the Lord supported me and gave me strength to make a full statement of the gospel and let all the heathen hear it. I was rescued from the jaws of 18 the lion. The Lord will rescue me from every assault of evil, he will bring me safe to his own realm in heaven. To him be glory for ever and ever! Amen.
- 19 Salute Prisca and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus.
- 20 Erastus stayed on at Corinth: I left Trophimus ill at 21 Miletus. Do your best to come before winter.
Eubulus salutes you; so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brotherhood.
- 22 The Lord Jesus be with your spirit.
Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

- 1 PAUL a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ 2 for the faith of God's elect and for their knowledge of 3 the Truth that goes with a religious life, serving in hope 4 of the life eternal which God, who never lies, promised 5 ages ago—he gave effect to his word in due time by a 6 proclamation with which I have been entrusted by command 7 of God our Saviour:—to Titus my lawful son in a faith 8 we hold in common; grace and peace from God the Father 9 and Christ Jesus our Saviour.
- 10 I left you behind in Crete in order to finish putting things 11 right and to appoint presbyters in every town as I told 12 you, men who are above reproach, only once married, with 13 children who believe and who are not liable to the charge 14 of being profligate or insubordinate. [For a bishop must 15 be above reproach—he is a steward of God's house—he must 16 not be presumptuous or hot-tempered or a drunkard or 17 violent or addicted to pilfering; he must be hospitable, a 18 lover of goodness, master of himself, a just man, a reli-19 gious man, and abstemious; he must hold by the sure 20 truths of doctrine so as to be able to give instruction in 21 sound doctrine and refute objections raised by any.]* For 22 there are plenty of insubordinate creatures who impose on 23 people with their empty arguments, particularly those who 24 have come over from Judaism; they must be silenced, for 25 they are undermining whole families by teaching objec-26 tionable doctrine for the base end of making money. It has 27 been said by one of themselves, by a prophet of their own, 28 that—
29 “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.” 30 That is a true statement. So deal sharply with them, to 31 have them sound in the faith instead of studying Jewish 32 myths and rules laid down by men who have discarded the 33 Truth. For the pure all things are pure, but nothing is 34 pure for the polluted and unbelieving; their very mind and 35 conscience are polluted. They profess to know God, but they derry him by their deeds; they are detestable, disobedient, and useless for good work of any kind.

* This passage seems to have been added, rather awkwardly, to the original text.

- 2 You must instruct people in what is due to sound doctrine. Tell the older men to be temperate, serious, masters of themselves, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness. Tell the older women also to be reverent in their demeanour and not to be slanderers or slaves to drink; they must give good counsel, so that the young women may be trained to love their husbands and children, to be mistress of themselves, chaste, domestic, kind, and submissive to their husbands—otherwise it will be a scandal to the gospel. Tell the young men also to be masters of themselves at all points; set them an example of good conduct; be sincere and serious in your teaching, let your words be sound and such that no exception can be taken to them, so that the opposite side may be confounded by finding nothing that they can say to our discredit. Tell servants to be submissive to their masters and to give them satisfaction all round, not to be refractory, not to embezzle, but to prove themselves truly faithful at all points, so as to be an ornament to the doctrine of God our Saviour in all respects. For the grace of God has appeared to save all men, and it schools us to renounce irreligion and worldly passions and to live a life of self-mastery, of integrity, and of piety in this present world, awaiting the blessed hope of the appearance of the Glory of the great God and of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who gave himself up for us to redeem us from all iniquity and secure himself a clean people with a zest for good works.
- 15 Tell them all this, exhort and reprove, with full authority; let no one slight you.

- 3 Remind them to be submissive to their rulers and authorities; they must obey, they must be ready for any good work, they must abuse no one, they must not quarrel, but be conciliatory and display perfect gentleness to all men. For we ourselves were once senseless, disobedient, astray, enslaved to all manner of passions and pleasures; we spent our days in malice and envy, we were hateful, and we hated one another. But "the goodness and affection of God our Saviour appeared; and he saved us, not for anything we had done but from his own pity for us, by the water that means regeneration and renewal under the holy Spirit which he poured upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs to the hope of life eternal." It is a sure saying.

I want you to insist on this, that those who have faith

- in God must profess honest occupations. Such counsels 5 are right and good for men. But avoid foolish controversy, and let genealogies and dissensions and strife over the Law alone, for these are fruitless and futile.
- 10 After a first and a second warning have no more to do 11 with a factious person; you may be sure a man like that is perverted; he is sinning and he knows it.
- 12 Whenever I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter 13 there. Give a hearty send-off to Zenas the jurist and 14 Apollos; see that they want for nothing. Our people must really learn to profess honest occupations, so as to be able to meet such special occasions; they must not be idle.
- 15 All who are with me salute you.
Salute those who love us in the faith.
Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

PHILEMON

- 1 PAUL a prisoner of Christ Jesus and brother Timotheus, 2 to our beloved fellow-worker Philemon, to our sister 3 Apphia, to our fellow-soldier Archippus, and to the church 4 that meets in your house: grace and peace to you from 5 God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
6 I always thank my God when I mention you in my 7 prayers; for as I hear of your love and loyalty to the Lord 8 Jesus and to all the saints, I pray that by their participation in your loyal faith they may have a vivid sense of how 9 much good we* Christians can attain.
10 I have had great joy and encouragement over your love, 11 my brother, over the way you have refreshed the hearts 12 of the saints. Hence, although in Christ I would feel quite 13 free to order you to do your duty, I prefer to appeal to you 14 on the ground of love. Well then, as Paul the old man, 15 who now-a-days is a prisoner for Christ Jesus, I appeal to 16 you on behalf of my spiritual son born while I was in 17 prison. It is Onesimus! Once you found him a worthless 18 character, but now-a-days he is worth something to you and 19 me. I am sending him back to you, and parting with my 20 very heart. I would have liked to keep him beside me, 21 that as your deputy he might serve me during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I did not want to do anything 22 without your consent, so that your goodness to me might 23 come of your own free will, without any appearance of 24 constraint.
25 Perhaps this was why you and he were parted for a 26 while, that you might get him back for good, no longer a 27 mere slave but something more than a slave—a beloved 28 brother; especially dear to me but how much more to you 29 as a man and as a Christian! You count me a partner?
30 Then receive him as you would receive me, and if he has 31 cheated you of any money or owes you any sum, put that 32 down to my account. This is in my own handwriting: 'I

* Reading ἡμῶν instead of ὁμῶν. As Lightfoot observes, "scribes would be strongly tempted to alter ἡμῶν into ὁμῶν from a misapprehension of the sense, and a wish to apply the words to Philemon and his household."

Paul promise to refund it'—not to mention that you owe me, over and above, your very soul. Come, brother, let me have some return from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ.

I send you this letter relying on your obedience; I know you will do even more than I tell you. And get quarters ready for me, for I am hoping that by your prayers I shall be restored to you.

Epaphras my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus salutes you. So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow-workers.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

- 1 MANY were the forms and fashions in which God spoke 2 of old to our fathers by the prophets, but in these days at the end he has spoken to us by a Son—a Son whom he appointed heir of the universe, as it was by him that he 3 created the world. He, reflecting God's bright glory and stamped with God's own character, sustains the universe with his word of power; when he had secured our purification from sins, he sat down at the right hand of the 4 Majesty on high; and thus he is superior to the angels, as 5 he has inherited a Name superior to theirs. For to what angel did God ever say,
*'Thou art my son,
 to-day have I become thy father'?*
 Or again,
'I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me'?
 6 And further, when introducing the Firstborn into the world, he says,
'Let all God's angels worship him.' 7 While he says of angels,
'Who makes his angels into winds, his servants into flames of fire,' 8 he says of the Son,
*'God is thy throne for ever and ever, thy royal sceptre is the sceptre of equity:
 thou hast loved justice and hated lawlessness,* therefore God, thy God, has consecrated thee with the oil of rejoicing beyond thy comrades'—* 10 and,
*'Thou didst found the earth at the beginning, O Lord, and the heavens are the work of thy hands;
 they will perish, but thou remainest, they will all be worn out like a garment, thou wilt roll them up like a mantle and † they will be changed,*

* Reading ἀνομίαν instead of ἀδικίαν.

† Omitting [ὡς ἱμάτιον], which has been repeated from the previous line.

*but thou art the same,
and thy years will never fail.'*

- 13 To what angel did he ever say,
*'Sit at my right hand,
till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet'?*
14 Are not all angels merely spirits in the divine service, commissioned for the benefit of those who are to inherit salvation?

2 We must therefore pay closer attention to what we have 2 heard, in case we drift away. For if the divine word spoken by angels held good, if transgression and disobedience 3 met with due punishment in every case, how shall we escape the penalty for neglecting a salvation which was originally proclaimed by the Lord himself and guaranteed 4 to us by those who heard him, while God corroborated their testimony with signs and wonders and a variety of miraculous powers, distributing the holy Spirit as it pleased him.
5 For the world to come, of which I am speaking, was not 6 put under the control of angels. One writer, as we know, has affirmed,

*What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
or the son of man, that thou carest for him?*

- 7 *For a little while thou hast put him lower than the angels, crowning him with glory and honour, 8 putting all things under his feet.

Now by putting all things under him, the writer meant to leave nothing out of his control. But, as it is, we do not 9 yet see all things controlled by man; what we do see is Jesus who was put lower than the angels for a little while to suffer death, and who has been crowned with glory and honour that by God's grace he might taste death for every-10 one. In bringing many sons to glory, it was befitting that He for whom and by whom the universe exists, should 11 perfect the Pioneer of their salvation by suffering. For sanctifier and sanctified have all one origin. That is why 12 he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying,
'I will proclaim thy name to my brothers, in the midst of the church I will sing of thee,'

- 13 and again,
'I will put my trust in him,'
and again,
'Here am I and the children God has given me.'

14 Since the children then share blood and flesh, he himself participated in their nature, so that by dying he might crush him who wields the power of death (that is to say,

* Omitting καὶ κατέστησας αὐτὸν ἐπὶ τὰ ἔργα τῶν χειρῶν σου.

15 the devil) and release from thralldom those who lay under 16 a life-long fear of death. (For of course it is not angels 17 that he succours, it is the offspring of Abraham.) He had to resemble his brothers in every respect, in order to prove a merciful and faithful high priest in things divine, to 18 expiate the sins of the People. It is as he suffered by his temptations that he is able to help the tempted.

3 Holy brothers, you who participate in a heavenly calling, 2 look at Jesus then, at the apostle and high priest of our confession; he is faithful to Him who appointed him. For while Moses also was faithful in every department of God's 3 house, Jesus has been adjudged greater glory than Moses, inasmuch as the founder of a house enjoys greater honour 4 than the house itself. (Every house is founded by someone, 5 but God is the founder of all.) Besides, while Moses was faithful in every department of God's house as an attendant 6 —by way of witness to the coming revelation—Christ is faithful as a Son over God's house.

Now we are this house of God, if we will only keep confi-7 dent and proud of our hope.* Therefore, as the holy Spirit says,

To-day, when you hear his voice,
 8 harden not your hearts as at the Provocation, on the day of the Temptation in the desert, 9 where your fathers put me to the proof, and for forty years felt what I could do.
 10 Therefore I grew exasperated with that generation,
I said, 'They are always astray in their heart':
They would not learn my ways; 11 so I swore in my anger,
'they shall never enter my Rest.'

12 Brothers, take care in case there is a wicked, unbelieving heart in any of you, moving you to apostatize from the liv-13 ing God. Rather admonish ore another daily, so long as this word To-day is uttered, that none of you may be 14 deceived by sin and hardened. For we only participate in Christ provided that we keep firm to the very end the 15 confidence with which we started, this word ever sounding in our ears,

To-day, when you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts as at the Provocation.

16 Who heard and yet provoked him? Was it not all who left 17 Egypt under the leadership of Moses? And with whom was he exasperated for forty years? Was it not with those 18 who sinned, whose corpses fell in the desert? And to whom

* Omitting μεχρι τέλους βεβαλαν, which has probably been inserted from
 ver. 14, where the same words occur in a similar connexion.

did he swear that they would never enter his Rest? To whom but those who disobeyed? Thus we see it was owing

- 4 to unbelief that they could not enter. Well 5 then, as the promise of entrance is still left to 6 us, let us be afraid of anyone being judged to have 7 missed it. For we have had the good news as well as they;
 8 only, the message they heard was of no use to them, 9 *because it did not meet with * faith in the hearers. For we* 10 do enter the Rest by our faith: according to his word,

As I swore in my anger,

they shall never enter my Rest—

- 11 although his works were all over by the foundation of the 12 world. For he says this somewhere about the seventh day:
 13 And God rested from all his works on the seventh day.
 14 And again in this passage, they shall never enter my Rest.
 15 Since then it is reserved for some to enter it, and since 16 those who formerly got the good news failed to enter owing 17 to their disobedience, he again fixes a day; To-day—as he 18 says in 'David' after so long an interval, and as has been 19 already quoted—

To-day, when you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

- 20 Thus if Joshua had given them Rest, God would not speak 21 later about another day. There is a sabbath-Rest, then, 22 reserved still for the People of God (for once a man enters 23 his rest, he rests from work just as God did).

- 24 Let us be eager then to enter that Rest, in case anyone 25 falls into the same sort of disobedience. For the Logos of 26 God is a living thing, active and more cutting than any 27 sword with double edge, penetrating to the very division of 28 soul and spirit, joints and marrow—scrutinizing the very 29 thoughts and conceptions of the heart. And no created 30 thing is hidden from him; all things lie open and exposed 31 before the eyes of him with whom we have to reckon.

- 32 As we have a great high priest, then, who has passed 33 through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast 34 to our confession; for ours is no high priest who is in- 35 capable of sympathizing with our weaknesses, but one who 36 has been tempted in every respect like ourselves, yet with- 37 out sinning. So let us approach the throne of grace with 38 confidence, that we may receive mercy and find grace to 39 help us in the hour of need.

- 40 Every high priest who is selected from men and 41 appointed to act on behalf of men in things divine, offer-

2 ing gifts and sacrifices for sins, can deal gently with those who err through ignorance, since he himself is beset with 3 weakness—which obliges him to present offerings for his 4 own sins as well as for those of the People. Also, it is an office which no one elects to take for himself; he is 5 called to it by God, just as Aaron was. Similarly Christ was not raised to the glory of the high priesthood by himself but by Him who declared to him,

Thou art my son,

to-day have I become thy father.

6 Just as elsewhere he says,

Thou art a priest for ever, with the rank of Melchizedek.

7 In the days of his flesh, with bitter cries and tears, he offered prayers and supplications to Him who was able to save him from death; and he was heard, because of his 8 godly fear. Thus, Son though he was, he learned by all 9 he suffered how to obey, and by being thus perfected he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey 10 him, being designated by God high priest with the rank of Melchizedek.

11 On this point I have a great deal to say, which it is hard to make intelligible to you. For you have grown dull of 12 hearing. Though by this time you should be teaching other people, you still need someone to teach you once more the rudimentary principles of the divine revelation. You 13 are in need of milk, not of solid food. (For anyone who is fed on milk is unskilled in moral truth; he is a mere 14 babe. Whereas solid food is for the mature, for those who have their faculties trained by exercise to distinguish good and evil.)

6 LET us pass on then to what is mature, leaving elementary Christian doctrine behind, instead of laying the foundation over again with repentance from dead works, 2 with faith in God, with instruction about ablutions and the laying on of hands, about the resurrection of the dead and 3 eternal punishment. With God's permission, we will take 4 this step.* For in the case of people who have been once enlightened, who tasted the heavenly Gift, who participated 5 in the holy Spirit, who tasted the goodness of God's word and the powers of the world to come, and then fell away crucify the Son of God in their own persons and hold him 7 up to obloquy. For land which absorbs the rain that often 8 whom it is tilled, receives a blessing from God; whereas, if it produces thorns and thistles, it is reprobate and on the verge of being cursed—its fate is to be burned.

9 Though I say this, beloved, I feel sure you will take the 10 better course that means salvation. God is not unfair; he will not forget what you have done, or the love you have shown for his sake in ministering, as you still do, to the 11 saints. It is my heart's desire that each of you would prove equally keen upon realizing your full hope to the very end, 12 so that instead of being slack you may imitate those who inherit the promises by their steadfast faith.

13 For in making a promise to Abraham God swore by him-14 self (since he could swear by none greater), I will indeed 15 bless you and multiply you. Thus it was that Abraham by his steadfastness obtained what he had been promised.
16 For as men swear by a greater than themselves, and as an 17 oath means to them a guarantee that ends any dispute, God, in his desire to afford the heirs of the Promise a special 18 proof of the solid character of his purpose, interposed with an oath; so that by these two solid facts (the Promise and the Oath), where it is impossible for God to be false, we 19 refugees might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us, anchoring the soul to it safe and sure, as it enters the inner Presence behind the veil.

20 There Jesus entered for us in advance, when he became 7 high priest for ever with the rank of Melchizedek. For Melchizedek, the king of Salem, a priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham on his return from the 2 slaughter of the kings and blessed him—who had a tenth part of everything assigned him by Abraham—this Melchizedek is primarily a king of righteousness (that is the meaning of his name); then, besides that, king of Salem
3 (which means, king of peace). He has neither father nor mother nor genealogy, neither a beginning to his days nor an end of his life, but, resembling the Son of God, continues 4 to be priest permanently. Now mark the dignity of this man. The patriarch Abraham paid him a tenth of the 5 spoils. Those sons of Levi who receive the priestly office are indeed ordered by law to tithe the people (that is, their brothers), although the latter are descended from Abraham; but he who had no Levitical genealogy actually tithed 6 Abraham and blessed the possessor of the promises! (And there is no question that it is the inferior who is blessed by 7 the superior.) Again, it is mortal men in the one case who receive tithes, while in the other it is one of whom the 8 witness is that 'he lives.' In fact, we might almost say that even Levi the receiver of tithes paid tithes through 9 Abraham; for he was still in the loins of his father when 10

11 Melchizedek met him. Further, if the Levitical priesthood had been the means of reaching perfection (for it was on the basis of that priesthood that the Law was enacted for the People), why was it still necessary for another sort of priest to emerge with the rank of Melchizedek, instead of simply with the rank of Aaron (for when the priesthood is changed, a change of law necessarily follows)? He who is thus described belongs to another tribe, no member of which ever devoted himself to the altar; for it is evident that our Lord sprang from Judah, and Moses never mentioned priesthood in connexion with that tribe. This becomes all the more plain when another priest emerges resembling Melchizedek, one who has become a priest by the power of an indissoluble Life and not by the law of an external command; for the witness to him is,

Thou art priest for ever, with the rank of Melchizedek.
18 A previous command is set aside on account of its weakness and uselessness (for the Law made nothing perfect), and there is introduced a better Hope, by means of which we can draw near to God. A better Hope, because it was not promised apart from an oath. Previous priests became priests apart from any oath, but he has an oath from Him who said to him,

The Lord has sworn, and he will not change his mind, thou art a priest for ever.

22 And this makes Jesus surety for a superior covenant. Also, while they became priests in large numbers, since death prevents them from continuing to serve, he holds his priesthood without any successor, since he continues for ever. Hence for all time he is able to save those who approach God through him, as he is always living to intercede on their behalf.

26 Such was the high priest for us, saintly, innocent, unstained, lifted high above the heavens, far from all contact with the sinful, one who has no need, like yonder high priests, day by day to offer sacrifices first for their own sins and then for those of the People—he did that once for all in offering up himself. For the Law appoints human beings in their weakness to the priesthood; but the word of the Oath appoints a Son who is made perfect for ever.

8 The point * of all this is, we do have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of Majesty in the heavens, and who officiates in the sanctuary or true tabernacle set up by the Lord and not by man. Now, as every high priest is appointed to offer gifts

* Or, as Coverdale translates, "the pith." "All this" means "all the previous argument."

- 4 and sacrifices, he too must have something to offer. Were he on earth, he would not be a priest at all, for there are 5 priests already to offer the gifts prescribed by Law (men who serve a mere outline and shadow of the heavenly—as Moses was instructed, when he was about to execute the building of the tabernacle: see, God said, that you make everything on the pattern shown you upon the mountain).
 6 As it is, however, the divine service he has obtained is superior, owing to the fact that he mediates a superior 7 covenant, enacted with superior promises. For if the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occa-8 sion for a second. Whereas God does find fault with the people of that covenant, when he says:
*The day is coming, saith the Lord, when I will conclude a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.
 It will not be on the lines of the covenant I made with their fathers,*
 9 *on the day I took them by the hand to lead out of Egypt's land;
 for they would not hold to my covenant, so I let them alone,* saith the Lord.*
 10 *This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel when that day comes, saith the Lord; I will set my laws within their mind, inscribing them upon their hearts;
 I will be a God to them, and they shall be a People to me;* 11 *one citizen will no longer teach his fellow, one man will no longer teach his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,'
 for all will know me, low and high together.*
 12 I will be merciful to their iniquities, and remember their sins no more.
 13 By saying 'a new covenant,' he antiquates the first. And whatever is antiquated and aged is on the verge of vanishing.

9 THE first covenant had indeed its regulations for worship and a material sanctuary. A tent was set up, the outer tent, containing the lampstand, the table, and the 3 loaves of the Presence; this is called the Holy place. But behind the second veil was the tent called the Holy of 4 Holies, containing the golden altar of incense, and also the ark of the covenant covered all over with gold, which held the golden pot of manna, the rod of Aaron that once

* The same Greek word as is translated "neglected" in ii. 3.

5 blossomed, and the tablets of the covenant; above this were the cherubims of the Glory, overshadowing the mercy 6 seat—matters which it is impossible for me to discuss at present in detail. Such were the arrangements for worship.
The priests constantly enter the first tent, in the discharge 7 of their ritual duties, but the second tent is entered only once a year by the high priest alone—and it must not be without blood, which he presents on behalf of himself and 8 the errors of the People. By this the holy Spirit means that the way into the Holiest Presence was not disclosed 9 so long as the first tent (which foreshadowed the present age) was still standing, with its offerings of gifts and sacrifices which cannot possibly make the conscience of the 10 worshipper perfect, since they relate merely to food and drink and a variety of ablutions—outward regulations for the body, that only hold till the period of the New Order.
11 But when Christ arrived as the high priest of the bliss that was to be, he passed through the greater and more perfect tent which no hands had made (no part, that is 12 to say, of the present order), not taking any blood of goats and oxen but his own blood, and entered once for all into the Holy place. He secured an eternal redemption.
13 For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkled on defiled persons, give them a holiness 14 that bears on bodily purity, how much more shall the blood of Christ, who in the spirit of the eternal offered himself as an unblemished sacrifice to God, cleanse your conscience 15 from dead works to serve a living God? He mediates a new covenant for this reason, that those who have been called may obtain the eternal inheritance they have been promised, now that a death has occurred which redeems them from the transgressions involved in the first covenant.
16 Thus in the case of a will, the death of the testator must be 17 announced. A will only holds in cases of death; it is never 18 valid so long as the testator is alive. Hence even the first covenant of God's will was not inaugurated apart from 19 blood; for after Moses had announced every command in the Law to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, together with water, scarlet wool and hyssop, 20 sprinkling the book and all the people, and saying, This is the blood of that covenant which is God's command for you.
21 He even sprinkled with blood the tent and all the utensils 22 of worship in the same way. In fact, one might almost say that by Law everything is cleansed with blood. No blood 23 shed, no remission of sins! Now, while the copies of the heavenly things had to be cleansed with sacrifices like these, the heavenly things themselves required nobler 24 sacrifices. For Christ has not entered a holy place which human hands have made (a mere type of the reality!); he has entered heaven itself, now to appear in the presence 25 of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, like the high priest entering the holy place every 26 year with blood that was not his own:—for in that case he would have had to suffer repeatedly, ever since the world was founded. Nay, once for all, at the end of the world, 27 he has appeared with his self-sacrifice to abolish sin. And just as it is appointed for men to die once and after that 28 to be judged, so Christ, after being once sacrificed to bear the sins of many, will appear again, not to deal with sin but for the saving of those who look out* for him.

10 For as the Law has a mere shadow of the bliss that is to be, instead of representing the reality of that bliss, it can never perfect those who draw near with the 2 same annual sacrifices that are perpetually offered. Otherwise, they would surely have ceased to be offered; for the worshippers, once cleansed, would no longer be conscious 3 of sins! As it is, they are an annual reminder of sins 4 (for the blood of bulls and goats cannot possibly remove 5 sins!). Hence, on entering the world he says,

Thou hast no desire for sacrifice or offering;

it is a body thou hast prepared for me—

6 in holocausts and sin-offerings thou takest no delight.

7 So I said, 'Here I come—in the roll of the book this is written of me—

I come to do thy will, O God.'

8 He begins by saying, thou hast no desire for, thou takest no delight in, sacrifices and offerings and holocausts and sin-offerings (and these are what are offered in terms of 9 the Law); he then adds, Here I come to do thy will. He does away with the first in order to establish the second.
 10 And it is by this will that we are consecrated, because Jesus Christ once for all has offered up his body.

11 Again, while every priest† stands daily at his service, offering the same sacrifices repeatedly, sacrifices which 12 never can take sins away—He offered a single sacrifice for sins and then seated himself for all time at the right 13 hand of God, to wait until his enemies are made a footstool 14 for his feet. For by a single offering he has made the 15 sanctified perfect for all time. Besides, we have the testimony of the holy Spirit; for after saying, 16 This is the covenant I will make with them when that day comes, saith the Lord,

* Paul's word in Phil. iii. 20; but I translate "look out" here, in order to suggest the antithesis in x. 27.

† Reading ιερεὺς instead of ἀρχιερεὺς.

I will set my laws upon their hearts, inscribing them upon their minds,

he adds,

17 And their sins and breaches of the law I will remember no more.

18 Now where these are remitted, an offering for sin exists no longer.

19 Brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy 20 Presence in virtue of the blood of Jesus, by the fresh, liv-21 ing way which he has inaugurated for us through the veil 22 (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great Priest 23 over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart, in absolute assurance of faith, our hearts sprinkled clean from a bad conscience, and our bodies washed in pure 23 water; let us hold the hope we avow without wavering 24 (for we can rely on him who gave us the Promise); and let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good 25 deeds—not ceasing to meet together, as is the habit of some, but admonishing one another, all the more so, as you see 26 the Day coming near. For if we sin deliberately, after receiving the knowledge of the Truth, there is no longer 27 any sacrifice for sins left, nothing but an awful outlook of doom, of that burning Wrath which will consume the 28 foes of God. Anyone who has rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy, on the evidence of two or of three 29 witnesses. How much heavier, do you suppose, will be the punishment assigned to him who has spurned the Son of God, who has profaned the covenant-blood with which he was sanctified, who has insulted the Spirit of grace?
30 We know who said, Vengeance is mine, I will exact a re- quital: and again, The Lord will pass sentence on his peo- 31 ple. It is an awful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 Recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, 33 you endured a hard struggle of suffering, partly by being held up yourselves to obloquy and anguish, partly by mak-34 ing common cause with those who fared in this way; for you did sympathize with the prisoners, and you took the confiscation of your own belongings cheerfully, conscious that elsewhere you had higher, you had lasting, possessions.
35 Now do not drop that confidence of yours; it carries with 36 it a rich hope of reward. Steady patience is what you need, so that after doing the will of God you may get what you 37 have been promised. For in a little, a very little now,

The Coming One will arrive without delay.

38 *Meantime my just man shall live on by his faith;
if he shrinks back, my soul takes no delight in him.*

39 We are not the men to shrink back and be lost, but to have faith and so to win our souls.

11 Now faith means we are confident of what we hope for, convinced of what we do not see. It was for 3 this that the men of old won their record. It is by faith we understand that the world was fashioned by the word of God, and thus the visible was made out of the invisible.
 4 It was by faith that Abel offered God a richer sacrifice than Cain did, and thus won from God the record of being 'just,' on the score of what he gave; he died, but by his faith 5 he is speaking to us still. It was by faith that Enoch was taken to heaven, so that he never died (he was not overtaken by death, for God had taken him away). For before he was taken to heaven, his record was that he 6 *had satisfied * God*; and apart from faith it is impossible to satisfy him, for the man who draws near to God must believe that he exists and that he does reward those who 7 seek him. It was by faith that Noah, after being told by God what was still unseen, reverently constructed an ark to save his household; thus he condemned the world and 8 became heir of the righteousness that follows faith. It was by faith that Abraham obeyed his call to go forth to a place which he would receive as an inheritance; he went forth, although he did not know where he was to go.
 9 It was by faith that he sojourned in the promised land, as in a foreign country, residing in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob who were co-heirs with him of the same promise; 10 he was waiting for the City with its fixed foundations, 11 whose builder and maker is God. It was by faith that even Sara got strength to conceive, bearing a son when she was past the age for it—because she considered she could rely 12 on Him who gave the promise. Thus a single man, though he was physically impotent, had issue in number like the stars in heaven, countless as the sand on the seashore.
 13 (These all died in faith without obtaining the promises; they only saw them far away and hailed them, owning 14 they were 'strangers and exiles upon earth.' Now people who speak in this way plainly show they are in search of 15 a fatherland. If they thought of the land they have left 16 behind, they would have time to go back, but they really aspire to the better land in heaven. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God; he has prepared a 17 City for them.) It was by faith, when Abraham was put to the test, that he sacrificed Isaac; he was ready to sacrifice his only son, although he had received the prom-

* Here, as elsewhere, "satisfy" is used in the sense of a servant giving satisfaction to his master.

18 ises and had been told that it is through Isaac that your 19 offspring shall be reckoned—for he considered God was able even to raise men from the dead. Hence he did get him back, by what was a parable of the resurrection.
 20 It was by faith that Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in con-21 nection with the future. It was by faith that, when Jacob was dying, he blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bending 22 in prayer over the head of his staff. It was by faith that Joseph at his end thought about the exodus of the sons of 23 Israel, and gave orders about his own bones. It was by faith that Moses was hidden for three months after birth by his parents, because they saw the child was beautiful, 24 and had no fear of the royal decree. It was by faith that Moses refused, when he had grown up, to be called the son 25 of Pharaoh's daughter; ill-treatment with God's people he 26 preferred to the passing pleasures of sin, considering obloquy with the messiah to be richer wealth than all 27 Egypt's treasures—for he had an eye to the Reward. It was by faith that he left Egypt, not from any fear of the king's wrath; like one who saw the King Invisible, he 28 never flinched. It was by faith that he celebrated the passover and performed the sprinkling by blood, so that 29 the destroying angel might not touch Israel's first-born. It was by faith that they crossed the Red Sea like dry land —and when the Egyptians attempted it they were drowned.
 30 It was by faith that the walls of Jericho collapsed, after 31 being surrounded for only seven days. It was by faith that Rahab the harlot did not perish along with those who were disobedient, as she had welcomed the scouts peaceably.

32 And what more shall I say? Time would fail me to tell of Gideon, of Barak, and Samson and Jephthah, of David 33 and Samuel and the prophets—men who by faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, 34 shut the mouth of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness won to strength, proved valiant in warfare, and routed hosts of 35 foreigners. Some were given back to their womankind, raised from the very dead; others were broken on the wheel, refusing to accept release, that they might obtain 36 a better resurrection; others, again, had to experience 37 scoffs and scourging, aye chains and imprisonment—they were stoned,* sawn in two, and cut to pieces; they had to roam about in sheepskins and goatskins, forlorn, oppressed,

* The next word, ἐπειράσθησαν, is either due to dittography (with the following ἐπλήσθησαν) or a corruption of some word like ἐπυράσθησαν or ἐπειρώθησαν. I have left it untranslated.

38 ill-treated (men of whom the world was not worthy), wanderers in the desert and among the hills, in caves and 39 gullies. They all won their record for faith, but the 40 Promise they did not obtain. God had something better in store for us; he would not have them perfected apart from us.

12 Therefore, with all this host of witnesses* encircling us, we must strip off every handicap, strip off sin with its clinging folds, to run our appointed course steadily, 2 our eyes fixed upon Jesus as the pioneer and the perfection of faith—upon Jesus who, in order to reach his own appointed joy, steadily endured the cross, thinking nothing of its shame, and is now seated at the right hand of the 3 throne of God. Compare him who steadily endured all that hostility from sinful men, so as to keep your own hearts 4 from fainting and failing. You have not had to shed blood 5 yet in the struggle against sin. And have you forgotten the word of appeal that reasons with you as sons?—

My son, never make light of the Lord's discipline, never faint under his reproofs;

6 for the Lord disciplines the man he loves, and scourges every son he receives.

7 It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons; for where is the son who is not disciplined 8 by his father? Discipline is the portion of all; if you get 9 no discipline, then you are not sons but bastards. Why, we had fathers of our flesh to discipline us, and we yielded to them! Shall we not far more submit to the Father of 10 our spirits, and so live? For while their discipline was only for a time, and inflicted at their pleasure, he disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his own 11 holiness. Discipline always seems for the time to be a thing of pain, not of joy; but those who are trained by it reap the fruit of it afterwards in the peace of an upright 12 life. So up with your listless hands! Strengthen your 13 weak knees! And make straight paths for your feet to walk in. You must not let the lame get dislocated, but 14 rather make them whole. Aim at peace with all—and at that consecration without which no one will ever see the 15 Lord; see to it that no one misses the grace of God, that no root of bitterness grows up to be a trouble by contami-16 nating all the rest of you; that no one turns to sexual vice or to a profane life as Esau did—Esau, who for a single 17 meal parted with his birthright. You know how later on, when he wanted to obtain his inheritance of blessing,

* The Greek word is beginning already to hover round the special sense of "martyrs"; but the broader sense is obviously required here.

he was set aside; he got no chance to repent, though he tried for it with tears.

18 You have not come to what you can touch, to flames 19 of fire, to mist and gloom and stormy blasts, to the blare 20 of a trumpet and to a Voice whose words made those who 21 heard it refuse to hear another syllable (for they could not 22 bear the command, If even a beast touches the mountain, 23 it must be stoned)—indeed, so awful was the sight that 24 Moses said, I am terrified and aghast. You have come to 25 mount Sion, the city of the living God, the heavenly Jeru-26 salem, to myriads of angels in festal gathering, to the 27 assembly of the first-born registered in heaven, to the God 28 of all as judge, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 29 to Jesus who mediates the new covenant, and to the 30 sprinkled blood whose message is nobler than Abel's. See 31 that you do not refuse to listen to His voice. For if they 32 failed to escape, who refused to listen to their instructor 33 upon earth, much less shall we, if we discard Him who 34 speaks from heaven. Then his voice shook the earth, but 35 now the assurance is, once again I will make heaven as well 36 as earth to quake. That phrase, once again, denotes the 37 removal of what is shaken (as no more than created), to 38 leave only what stands unshaken. Therefore let us render 39 thanks * that we get an unshaken realm; and in this way 40 let us worship God acceptably—but with godly fear † and 41 awe, for our God is indeed a consuming fire.

2 13 Let your brotherly love continue. Never forget to be 3 hospitable, for by hospitality some have entertained 4 angels unawares. Remember prisoners as if you were in 5 prison yourselves; remember those who are being ill-6 treated, since you too are in the body.

7 Let marriage be held in honour by all, and keep the mar-8 riage-bed unstained. God will punish the vicious and 9 adulterous.

10 Keep your life free from the love of money; be content 11 with what you have, for He has said,

Never will I fail you, never will I forsake you.

12 So that we can say confidently,

The Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid.

What can men do to me?

13 Remember your leaders, the men who spoke the word of 14 God to you; look back upon the close of their career, and 15 copy their faith.

16 Jesus Christ is always the same, yesterday, to-day, and

* Reading ἔχωμεν.

† Like Jesus himself (v. 7).

- 9 for ever. Never let yourselves be carried away with a variety of novel doctrines; for the right thing is to have one's heart strengthened by grace, not by the eating of food—that has never been any use to those who have had 10 recourse to it. Our altar is one of which the worshippers 11 have no right to eat. For the bodies of the animals whose blood is taken into the holy Place by the high priest as a 12 sin-offering, are burned outside the camp; and so Jesus also suffered outside the gate, in order to sanctify the 13 people by his own blood. Let us go to him outside the 14 camp, then, bearing his obloquy (for we have no lasting 15 city here below, we seek the City to come). And by him let us constantly offer praise to God as our sacrifice, that is, 16 the fruit of lips that celebrate his Name. Do not forget beneficence and charity, either; these are the kind of sacrifices that are acceptable to God.
- 17 Obey your leaders, submit to them; for they are alive to the interests of your souls, as men who will have to account for their trust. Let their work be a joy to them and not a grief—which would be a loss to yourselves.
- 18 Pray for me, for I am sure I have a clean conscience; 19 my desire is in every way to lead an honest life. I urge you to this all the more, that I may get back to you the sooner.
- 20 May the God of peace who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, with the blood 21 of the eternal covenant, furnish you with everything* for the doing of his will, creating in your lives by Jesus Christ what is acceptable in his own sight! To him be glory for ever and ever: Amen.
- 22 I appeal to you, brothers, to bear with this appeal of mine. It is but a short letter.
- 23 You must understand that [our] brother Timotheus is now free. If he comes soon, he and I will see you together.
- 24 Salute all your leaders and all the saints. The Italians salute you.
- Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF

JAMES

- 1 JAMES, a servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: greeting.
- 2 Greet it as pure joy, my brothers, when you come across 3 any sort of trial, sure that the sterling temper of your 4 faith produces endurance; only, let your endurance be a 5 finished product, so that you may be finished and complete, 6 with never a defect. Whoever of you is defective in wisdom, 7 let him ask God who gives to all men without question or reproach, 8 and the gift will be his. Only, let him ask in faith, with never a doubt; 9 for the doubtful man is like surge of the sea whirled and swayed by the wind; 10 that man need not imagine he will get anything from God, 11 double-minded creature that he is, wavering at every turn.
- 12 Let a brother of low position exult when he is raised; 13 but let one who is rich exult in being lowered; for the rich 14 will pass away like the flower of the grass—up comes the sun with the scorching wind and withers the grass, its flower drops off, and the splendour of it is ruined: so shall 15 the rich fade away amid their pursuits. Blessed is he who endures under trial; for when he has stood the test, he will gain the crown of life which is promised to all who love 16 Him. Let no one who is tried by temptation say, 'My temptation comes from God'; God is incapable of being 17 tempted by evil and he tempts no one. Everyone is tempted 18 as he is beguiled and allured by his own desire; then Desire conceives and breeds Sin, while Sin matures and 19 gives birth to Death. Make no mistake about this, my beloved brothers: all we are given is good, and all our endowments are faultless, descending from above, from the Father of the heavenly lights, who knows no change of 20 rising and setting, who casts no shadow on the earth. It was his own will that we should be born by the Word of the truth, to be a kind of firstfruits among his creatures.
- 21 Be sure of that, my beloved brothers.
- Let everyone be quick to listen, slow to talk, slow to be angry—for human anger does not promote divine righteousness; so clear away all the foul rank growth of malice, and make a soil of modesty for the Word which roots itself

22 inwardly with power to save your souls. Act on the Word, instead of merely listening to it and deluding yourselves.
 23 For whoever listens and does nothing, is like a man who 24 glances at his natural face in a mirror; he glances at him-25 self, goes off, and at once forgets what he was like. Whereas he who gazes into the faultless law of freedom and remains in that position, proving himself to be no forgetful listener but an active agent, he will be blessed in his 26 activity. Whoever considers he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, his religion is 27 futile. Pure, unsoiled religion in the judgment of God the Father means this: to care for* orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself from the stain of the world.

2 My brothers, as you believe in our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Glory, pay no servile regard to people.
 2 Suppose there comes into your meeting a man who wears gold rings and handsome clothes, and also a poor man in 3 dirty clothes; if you attend to the wearer of the handsome clothes and say to him, "Sit here, this is a good place," and tell the poor man, "You can stand," or "Sit there † at 4 my feet," are you not drawing distinctions in your own minds and proving that you judge people with partiality?
 5 Listen, my beloved brothers; has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and to inherit the realm 6 which he has promised to those who love him? Now you insult the poor. Is it not the rich who lord it over you and 7 drag you to court? Is it not they who scoff at the noble 8 Name you bear? If you really fulfil the royal law laid down by scripture, You must love your neighbour as yourself, 9 well and good; but if you pay servile regard to people, you commit a sin, and the Law convicts you of transgression.
 10 For whoever obeys the whole of the Law and only makes 11 a single slip, is guilty of everything. He who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not kill. Now if you do not commit adultery but if you kill, you have transgressed the 12 Law. Speak, act, as those who are to be judged by the 13 law of freedom; for the judgment will be merciless to the man who has shown no mercy—whereas the merciful life 11 will triumph in the face of judgment. ‡ Do not defame one another, brothers; he who defames or judges his brother defames and judges the Law; and if you judge the Law, 12 you pass sentence on it instead of obeying it. One alone is the legislator, who passes sentence; it is He who is able

* As in Matthew xxv. 36, the word implies personal service and help.

to save and to destroy; who are you, to judge your neighbour?

- 14 My brothers, what is the use of anyone declaring he has faith, if he has no deeds to show? Can his faith save him?
 15 Suppose some brother or sister is ill-clad and short of daily 16 food; if any of you says to them, "Depart in peace! Get warm, get food," without supplying their bodily needs, what 17 use is that? So faith, unless it has deeds, is dead in itself.
 18 Someone will object, 'And you claim to have faith!' Yes, and I claim to have deeds as well; you show me your faith without any deeds, and I will show you by my deeds 19 what faith is! You believe in one God? Well and good.
 20 So do the devils, and they shudder. But will you understand, you senseless fellow, that faith without deeds is 21 dead? When our father Abraham offered his son Isaac 22 on the altar, was he not justified by what he did? In his case, you see, faith co-operated with deeds, faith was com-23 pleted by deeds, and the scripture was fulfilled: Abraham believed God, and this was counted to him as righteousness 24 —he was called God's friend. You observe it is by what he does that a man is justified, not simply by what he believes.
 25 So too with Rahab the harlot. Was she not justified by what she did, when she entertained the scouts and got them away by a different road?
 26 For as the body without the breath of life is dead, so faith is dead without deeds.
 17 Whoever, then, knows what is right to do and does not do it, that is a sin for him.*

- 3 My brothers, do not swell the ranks of the teachers; remember, we teachers will be judged with special strict-2 ness. We all make many a slip, but whoever avoids slips of speech is a perfect man; he can bridle the whole of the 3 body as well as the tongue. We put bridles into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and so, you see, † we can 4 move the whole of their bodies. Look at ships too; for all their size and speed under stiff winds, they are turned by a tiny rudder wherever the mind of the steersman chooses.
 5 So the tongue is a small member of the body, but it can boast of great exploits. What a forest is set ablaze by a 6 little spark of fire! And the tongue is a fire, the tongue proves a very world of mischief among our members, staining the whole of the body and setting fire to the round circle 7 of existence with a flame fed by hell. For while every

* This seems likely to have been the original position of 4¹⁷.

kind of beast and bird, of creeping animals and creatures 8 marine, is tameable and has been tamed by mankind, no man can tame the tongue—plague of disorder that it is, 9 full of deadly venom! With the tongue we bless the Lord and Father, and with the tongue we curse men made in 10 God's likeness; blessing and cursing stream from the same 11 lips! My brothers, this ought not to be. Does a fountain pour out fresh water and brackish from the same hole?
 12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, bear olives? Or a vine, figs?
 No more can salt water yield fresh.

13 Who among you is wise and learned? Let him show by his good conduct, with the modesty of wisdom, what his 14 deeds are. But if you are cherishing bitter jealousy and rivalry in your hearts, do not pride yourselves on that—15 and be false to the truth. That is not the wisdom which comes down from above, it is an earthly wisdom, sensuous, 16 devilish; for wherever jealousy and rivalry exist, there dis-17 order reigns and every evil. The wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, forbearing, conciliatory, full of mercy and wholesome fruit, unambiguous, straight-18 forward; and the peacemakers who sow in peace reap 4 righteousness.

Where do conflicts, where do 2 wrangles come from, in your midst? Is it not from these 2 passions of yours that war among your members? You crave, and miss what you want: you envy * and covet, but you cannot acquire: you wrangle and fight—you miss what 3 you want because you do not ask God for it; you do ask and you do not get it, because you ask with the wicked intention 4 of spending it on your pleasures. (Wanton creatures! do you not know that the world's friendship means enmity to God? Whoever, then, chooses to be the world's friend, 5 turns enemy to God. What, do you consider this is an idle word of scripture?—'He yearns jealously for the spirit he 6 set within us.') Yet he gives grace more and more: thus it is said,

*The haughty God opposes,
 but to the humble he gives grace.*

7 Well then, submit yourselves to God; resist the devil,

and he will fly from you:

8 draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

9 Lament and mourn and weep,

* Accepting φθονεῖτε, the conjecture of Erasmus, for the φονεύετε of the MSS.

let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to depression;

- 10 humble yourselves before the Lord, and then he will raise you up.

- 13 Come now, you who say, "To-day or to-morrow we are going to such and such a city; we shall spend a year there 14 trading and making money"—you who know nothing about to-morrow! For what is your life? You are but a mist, 15 which appears for a little and then vanishes. You ought rather to say, "If the Lord will, we shall live to do this or 16 that." But here you are, boasting in your proud preten-sions! All such boasting is wicked.

5 COME now, you rich men, weep and shriek over your impending miseries!

- You have been storing up treasure in the very last days; * 2 your wealth lies rotting, and your clothes are moth-eaten; 3 your gold and silver lie rusted over, and their rust will be evidence against you, it will devour your flesh like fire.
4 See, the wages of which you have defrauded the workmen who mowed your fields call out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.
5 You have revelled on earth and plunged into dissipation; you have fattened yourselves as for the Day of slaughter; 6 you have condemned, you have murdered the righteous—unresisting.
7 Be patient, then, brothers, till the arrival of the Lord.
See how the farmer waits for the precious crop of the land, biding his time patiently till he gets the autumn and the 8 spring rains; have patience yourselves, strengthen your 9 hearts, for the arrival of the Lord is at hand. Do not murmur against one another, brothers, lest you are judged; 10 look, the Judge is standing at the very door! As an example of fortitude and endurance, brothers, take the proph-11 ets who have spoken in the name of the Lord. See, we call the steadfast happy; you have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord with him, seen 12 that the Lord is very compassionate and pitiful. Above all, my brothers, never swear an oath, either by heaven or by earth or by anything else; let your "yes" be a plain "yes," your "no" a plain "no," lest you incur judgment.

* Transferring the last clause of ver. 3 to what appears to have been its original position.

- 13 Is anyone of you in trouble? let him pray. Is anyone 14 thriving? let him sing praise. Is anyone ill? let him summon the presbyters of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; 15 the prayer of faith will restore the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; even the sins he has committed will be 16 forgiven him. So confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed; the prayers 17 of the righteous have a powerful effect. Elijah was a man with a nature just like our own; but he offered prayer that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did 18 not rain; then he prayed again, and the sky yielded rain, the earth brought forth its fruit.
- 19 My brothers, if anyone of you goes astray from the truth 20 and some one brings him back, understand that he who brings a sinner back from the error of his way saves his soul from death and hides a host of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF

PETER

- 1 PETER an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and 2 Bithynia, whom God the Father has predestined and chosen, by the consecration of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: may grace and peace be multiplied to you.
- 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew to a life of hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the 4 dead, born to an unscathed, inviolate, unfading inheritance;
5 it is kept in heaven for you, and the power of God protects you by faith till you do inherit the salvation which is all 6 ready to be revealed at the last hour. You will rejoice then, though for the passing moment you may need to suffer 7 various trials; that is only to prove your faith is sterling (far more precious than gold which is perishable and yet is tested by fire), and it redounds to your praise and glory 8 and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ. You never knew him, but you love him; for the moment you do not see him, but you believe in him, and you will thrill with an 9 unspeakable and glorious joy to obtain the outcome of your 10 faith in the salvation of your souls. Even prophets have searched and inquired about that salvation, the prophets 11 who prophesied of the grace that was meant for you; the Spirit of messiah within them foretold all the suffering of messiah and his after-glory, and they pondered when or 12 how this was to come; to them it was revealed that they got this intelligence* not for themselves but for you, regarding all that has now been disclosed to you by those who preached the gospel to you through the holy Spirit sent from heaven. The very angels long to get a glimpse of this!
- 13 Brace up your minds, then, keep cool, and put your hope for good and all in the grace that is coming to you at the

* On the basis of Enoch i. 2 (οὐκ εἰς τὴν νῦν γενέαν διεννοούμενην ἀλλ' ἐπὶ πόρρω ὅσαν ἐγὼ λαλῶ) Dr. Rendel Harris plausibly reads διεννοοῦντο, as above, for the διηκόνουν of the ordinary text.

14 revelation of Jesus Christ. Be obedient children, instead of moulding yourselves to the passions that once ruled the 15 days of your ignorance; as He who called you is holy, so you must be holy too in all your conduct—for it is written, 16 You shall be holy because I am holy. And as you call upon 17 a Father who judges everyone impartially by what he has done, be reverent in your conduct while you sojourn here 18 below; you know it was not by perishable silver or gold that you were ransomed from the futile traditions of your 19 past, but by the precious blood of Christ, a lamb unblem-20 ished and unstained. He was predestined before the foundation of the world and has appeared at the end of the ages 21 for your sake; it is by him that you believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory; and thus your faith means hope in God.

22 Now that your obedience to the Truth has purified your souls for a brotherly love that is sincere, love one another 23 heartily and steadily. You are born anew of immortal, not 24 of mortal seed, by the living, lasting word of God; for All flesh is like the grass, and all its glory like the flower of grass:

the grass withers

and the flower fades,

25 but the word of the Lord lasts for ever—

2 and that is the word of the gospel for you. So off

2 with all malice, all guile and insincerity and envy and 2 slander of every kind! Like newly-born children, thirst for the pure, spiritual milk to make you grow up to salva-3 tion. You have had a taste of the kindness of the Lord:
 4 come to him then—come to that living Stone which men 5 have rejected and God holds choice and precious, come and, like living stones yourselves, be built into a spiritual house, to form a consecrated priesthood for the offering of those spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus 6 Christ. For thus it stands in the scripture:

Here I lay a Stone in Sion, a choice, a precious cornerstone:

he who believes in him will never be disappointed.

7 Now you believe, you hold him 'precious,' but as for the unbelieving—

the very stone the builders rejected is now the cornerstone,

8 a stone over which men stumble and a rock of offence;
 they stumble over it in their disobedience to God's word.

9 Such is their appointed doom. But you are the elect race, the royal priesthood, the consecrated nation, the People who belong to Him, that you may proclaim the wondrous deeds of Him who has called you from darkness to his

- 10 wonderful light—you who once were no people and now are God's people, you who once were unpitied and now are pitied.
- 11 Beloved, as sojourners and exiles I appeal to you to abstain from the passions of the flesh that wage war upon 12 the soul. Conduct yourselves properly before pagans; so that for all their slander of you as bad characters, they may come to glorify God when you are put upon your trial, by what they see of your good deeds.
- 13 Submit for the Lord's sake to any human authority; 14 submit to the emperor as supreme, and to governors as deputed by him for the punishment of wrongdoers and the 15 encouragement of honest people—for it is the will of God that by your honest lives you should silence the ignorant 16 charges of foolish persons. Live like free men, only do not make your freedom a pretext for misconduct; live like serv-17 ants of God. Do honour to all, love the brotherhood, rever- ence God, honour the emperor.
- 18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with perfect respect, not simply to those who are kind and reasonable 19 but to the surly as well—for it is a merit when from a 20 sense of God one bears the pain of unjust suffering. Where is the credit in standing punishment for having done wrong? No, if you stand suffering for having done right, 21 that is what God counts a merit. It is your vocation; for when Christ suffered for you, he left you an example, and you must follow his footsteps.
- 22 He committed no sin,
no guile was ever found upon his lips; 23 he was reviled and made no retort, he suffered and never threatened, 24 but left everything to Him who judges justly; he bore our sins in his own body on the gibbet, that we might break with sin and live for righteousness; and by his wounds 25 you have been healed. You were astray like sheep, but you have come back now to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.
- 3 In the same way, you wives must be submissive to your husbands, so that even those who will not believe the Word may be won over without a word by the behaviour 2 of their wives, when they see how chaste and reverent you 3 are. You are not to adorn yourselves on the outside with braids of hair and ornaments of gold and changes of dress, 4 but inside, in the heart, with the immortal beauty of a gentle and modest spirit, which in the sight of God is of 5 rare value. It was in this way long ago that the holy women who hoped in God adorned themselves. They were 6 submissive to their husbands. Thus Sara obeyed Abraham

- by calling him 'lord'. And you are daughters of Sara if 7 you do what is right and yield to no panic.* In the same way you husbands must be considerate in living with your wives, since they are the weaker sex; you must honour them as heirs equally with yourselves of the grace of Life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.
- 8 Lastly, you must all be united, you must have sympathy, brotherly love, compassion, and humility, never paying 9 back evil for evil, never reviling when you are reviled, but on the contrary blessing. For this is your vocation, to bless and to inherit blessing;
- 10 he who would love Life and enjoy good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking guile:
- 11 let him shun wrong and do right,
 let him seek peace and make peace his aim.
- 12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the upright, and his ears are open to their cry;
 but the face of the Lord is set against wrongdoers.
- 13 Yet who will wrong you if you have a passion for good-14 ness? Even supposing you have to suffer for the sake of what is right, still you are blessed. Have no fear of their 15 threats, do not let that trouble you, but reverence Christ as Lord in your own hearts. Always be ready with a reply for anyone who calls you to account for the hope you cherish, but answer gently and with a sense of reverence; 16 see that you have a clean conscience, so that, for all their slander of you, these libellers of your good Christian be-17 haviour may be ashamed. For it is better to suffer for doing right (if that should be the will of God) than for doing 18 wrong. Christ himself died for sins, once for all, a just man for unjust men, that he might bring us near to God; in the flesh he was put to death but he came to life in the Spirit.
 19 (It was in the Spirit that Enoch † also went and preached 20 to the imprisoned spirits who had disobeyed at the time when God's patience held out during the construction of the ark in the days of Noah—the ark by which only a few souls, eight in all, were brought safely through the water.) 21 Baptism, the counterpart of that, saves you to-day (not the mere washing of dirt from the flesh but the prayer for a clean conscience before God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ who is at God's right hand—for he went to heaven after angels, authorities, and powers celestial had been made subject to him.)

* Apparently an allusion to the fear of violence at the hands of their (pagan?) husbands. The language, but not the idea, is that of Proverbs iii. 25.

† Accepting the emendation of Dr. Rendel Harris that 'Ενώχ has been omitted after ἐν ᾧ καὶ (ΕΝΩΚΑΙ [ΕΝΩΧ]), by "a scribe's blunder in dropping some repeated letters." The story of this mission is told in the Book of Enoch (see above, p. 351).

4 Well, as Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, let this very conviction that he who has suffered in the flesh gets quit of sin, nerve you to spend the rest of your time in the flesh for the will of God and no longer for human passions. It is quite enough to have done as pagans choose to do, during the time gone by! You used to lead lives of sensuality, lust, carousing, revelry, dissipation and illicit idolatry, and it astonishes them that you will not plunge with them still into the same flood of profligacy. They abuse you, but they will have to answer for that to Him who is prepared to judge the living and the dead (for this was why the gospel was preached to the dead as well, that while they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live as God lives in the spirit).

7 Now the end of all is near. Steady then, keep cool and pray! Above all, be keen to love one another, for love hides a host of sins. Be hospitable to each other, and do not grudge it. You must serve one another, each with the talent he has received, as efficient stewards of God's varied grace. If anyone preaches, he must preach as one who utters the words of God; if anyone renders some service, it must be as one who is supplied by God with power, so that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. The glory and the dominion are his for ever and ever: Amen.

12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the ordeal that has come to test you, as though some foreign experience befell you. 13 You are sharing what Christ suffered; so rejoice in it, that you may also rejoice and exult when his glory is revealed. 14 If you are denounced for the sake of Christ, you are blessed; for then the Spirit of glory and power, the Spirit of God himself, is resting on you. None of you must suffer as a murderer or a thief or a bad character or a revolutionary; but if a man suffers for being a Christian, he must not be ashamed, he must rather glorify God for that. It is time for the Judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the fate of those who refuse obedience to God's gospel?

18 If the just man is scarcely saved, what will become of the impious and sinful?

19 So let those who are suffering by the will of God trust their souls to him, their faithful Creator, as they continue to do right.

- 5 Now I make this appeal to your presbyters (for I am a presbyter myself, I was a witness of what Christ suffered and I am to share the glory that will be revealed), 2 be shepherds to your flock of God; take charge of them willingly * instead of being pressed to it, not to make a 3 base profit from it but freely, not by way of lording it over 4 your charges but proving a pattern to the flock. Then you will receive the unfading crown of glory, when the chief 5 Shepherd makes his appearance. You younger men must also submit to the presbyters. Indeed you must all put on the apron of humility to serve one another, for the haughty God opposes,
but to the humble he gives grace.
 6 Humble yourselves under the strong hand of God, then, 7 so that when it is time, he may raise you; let all your anxieties fall upon him, for his interest is in you.
 8 Keep cool, keep awake. Your enemy the devil prowls like a roaring lion, looking out for someone to devour.
 9 Resist him; keep your foothold in the faith, and learn to pay the same tax of suffering as the rest of your brother-10 hood throughout the world. * Once you have suffered for a little, the God of all grace who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, will † repair and recruit and 11 strengthen you. The dominion is his for ever and ever: Amen.
 12 By the hand of Silvanus, a faithful brother (in my opinion), I have written you these few lines of encouragement, to testify that this is what the true grace of God means. Stand in that grace.
 13 Your sister-church in Babylon, elect like yourselves, 14 salutes you. So does my son Mark. Salute one another with a kiss of love.
 Peace be to you all who are in Christ [Jesus].

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

1 SYMEON PETER, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, 1 to those who have been allotted a faith of equal privilege with ours, by the equity of our God and saviour Jesus 2 Christ: grace and peace be multiplied to you by the knowl-3 edge of * our Lord. Inasmuch as his power divine has bestowed on us every requisite for life and piety by the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and 4 excellence—bestowing on us thereby promises precious and supreme, that by means of them you may escape the corruption produced within the world by lust, and par-5 ticipate in the divine nature—for this very reason, do you contrive to make it your whole concern to furnish your 6 faith with resolution, resolution with intelligence, intelligence with self-control, self-control with steadfastness, sted-7 fastness with piety, piety with brotherliness, brotherliness 8 with Christian love. For as these qualities exist and increase with you, they render you active and fruitful in the 9 knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; whereas he who has not these by him is blind, shortsighted, oblivious that he 10 has been cleansed from his erstwhile sins. So be the more eager, brothers, to ratify your calling and election, for as 11 you practise these qualities you will never make a slip; you will thus be richly furnished with the right of entry into the eternal realm of our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ.
 12 Hence I mean to keep on reminding you of this, although 13 you are aware of it and are fixed in the Truth as it is; so long as I am in this tent, I deem it proper to stir you up 14 by way of reminder, since I know my tent must be folded up very soon—as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has shown 15 me. Yes, and I will see to it that even when I am gone, 16 you will keep this constantly in mind. For it was no fabricated fables that we followed when we reported to you the power and advent of our Lord Jesus Christ; we 17 were admitted to the spectacle of his sovereignty, when he was invested with honour and glory by God the Father, and when the following voice was borne to him from † the sublime Glory, "This is my son, the Beloved, in whom I delight." That voice borne from heaven we heard, we who were beside him on the sacred hill, and thus we have gained fresh confirmation of the prophetic word. Pray attend to that word; it shines like a lamp within a darksome spot, till the Day dawns and the daystar rises within your hearts—understanding this, at the outset, that no prophetic scripture allows a man to interpret it by himself; for prophecy never came by human impulse, it was when carried away by the holy Spirit that the * holy men of God spoke.

* Omitting, with P and the Latin Vulgate, τοῦ θεοῦ καὶ Ἰησοῦ.

2 Still, false prophets did appear among the People, as among you also there will be false teachers, men who will insinuate destructive heresies, even disowning the Lord who ransomed them; they bring rapid destruction on themselves, and many will follow their immorality (thanks to them the true Way will be maligned); in their lust they will exploit you with cunning arguments—men whose doom comes apace from of old, and destruction is awake upon their trail. For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but committing them to pits of the nether gloom in Tartarus, reserved them under punishment † for doom: if he did not spare the ancient world but kept Noah, the herald of righteousness, safe with seven others, when he let loose the deluge on the world of impious men: if he reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorra to ashes when he sentenced them to devastation, and thus gave the impious ‡ an example of what was in store for them, but rescued righteous Lot who was sore burdened by the immoral behaviour of the lawless (for when that righteous man resided among them, by what he saw and heard his righteous soul was vexed day after day with their unlawful doings)—then be sure the Lord knows how to rescue pious folk from trial, and how to keep the unrighteous under punishment till the day of doom, particularly those who fall in with the polluting appetite of the flesh and despise the Powers celestial. Daring, presumptuous creatures! they are not afraid to scoff at the angelic Glories; whereas even angels, superior in might and power, lay no scoffing charge against these before the Lord. But those people!—like irrational animals, creatures of mere instinct, born for capture and corruption, they scoff at what they are ignorant of; and like animals they will suffer corruption and ruin, done out of * the profits of their evil-doing. Pleasure for them is revelling in open daylight—spots and blots, with their dissipated revelling, as they carouse in your midst!—their eyes are full of harlotry, insatiable for sin; their own hearts trained to lust, they beguile unsteady souls. Accursed generation! they have gone wrong by leaving the straight road, by following the road of Balaam son of Bosor, who liked the profits of evil-doing—but he got reproved for his malpractice: a dumb ass spoke with human voice and checked the prophet's infatuation. These people are waterless fountains and mists driven by a squall, for whom the nether gloom of darkness † is reserved. By talking arrogant futilities they beguile with the sensual lure of fleshly passion those who are just escaping from the company of misconduct—promising them freedom, when they are themselves enslaved to corruption (for a man is the slave of whatever overpowers him). After escaping the pollutions of the world by the knowledge of our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ, if they get entangled and overpowered again, the last state is worse for them than the first. Better had they never known the Way of righteousness, than to know it and then turn back from the holy command which was committed to them. They verify the truth of the proverb:

"The dog turns back to what he has vomited, the sow when washed will wallow in the mire."

3 This is the second letter I have already written to you, beloved, stirring up your pure mind ‡ by way of reminder, to have you recollect the words spoken by the holy prophets beforehand and the command given by your apostles from the Lord and saviour. To begin with, you know that mockers will come with their mockeries in the last days, men who go by their own passions, asking, "Where is His promised advent? Since the day our fathers fell asleep, things remain exactly as they were from the beginning of creation." They wilfully ignore the fact that heavens existed long ago, and an earth which the word of God formed of water and by water. By water the then-existing world was deluged and destroyed, but the present heavens and earth are treasured up by the same word for fire, reserved for the day when the impious are doomed and 8 destroyed. Beloved, you must not ignore this one fact, that with the Lord a single day is like a thousand years, 9 and a thousand years are like a single day. The Lord is not slow with what he promises, according to certain people's idea of slowness; no, he is longsuffering for your sake,* he does not wish any to perish but all to betake 10 them to repentance. The day of the Lord will come like a thief, when the heavens will vanish with crackling roar, the stars will be set ablaze and melt, the earth and all its 11 works will disappear.† Now as all things are thus to be dissolved, what holy and pious men ought you to be in your 12 behaviour, you who expect and hasten the advent of the Day of God, which dissolves the heavens in fire and makes 13 the stars blaze and melt! It is new heavens and a new earth that we expect, as He has promised, and in them 14 dwells righteousness. Then, beloved, as you are expecting this, be eager to be found by him unspotted and un-15 blemished in serene assurance. And consider that the long-suffering of our Lord means salvation; as indeed our beloved brother Paul has written to you out of the wisdom 16 vouchsafed to him, speaking of this as he has done in all his letters—letters containing some knotty points, which ignorant and unsteady souls twist (as they do the rest of 17 the scriptures) to their own destruction. Now, beloved, you are forewarned: mind you are not carried away by the error of the lawless and so lose your proper footing; 18 but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ. To him be the glory now and to the day of eternity: Amen.

1 It is of what existed from the very beginning, of what we heard, of what we saw, of what we witnessed and touched with our own hands, it is of the Logos of Life (the Life has appeared; we saw it, we testify to it, we bring you word of that eternal Life which existed with the Father and was disclosed to us)—it is of what we heard and saw that we bring you word, so that you may share our fellowship; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing this to you that our own joy may be complete.

5 Here is the message we learned from him and announce to you: 'God is light and in him there is no darkness, none.' If we say, 'We have fellowship with him,' when we live and move in darkness, then we are lying, we are not practising the truth; but if we live and move within the light, as he is within the light, then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from every sin. If we say, 'We are not guilty,' we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us; if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, he forgives our sins and cleanses us from all iniquity; if we say, "We have not sinned," we make him a liar and his word is not within

2 us. My dear children, I am writing this to you that you may not sin; but if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father in Jesus Christ the just; he is himself the propitiation for our sins, though not for ours alone but also for the whole world.

3 This is how we may be sure we know him, by obeying his commands. He who says, 'I know him,' but does not obey his commands, is a liar and the truth is not in him; but whoever obeys his word, in him love to God is really complete. This is how we may be sure we are in him: he who says he 'remains in him' ought to live as he lived.

7 Beloved, I am not writing you any new command, but an old command which you have had from the very beginning: the old command is the word you have heard. And yet it is a new command I am writing to you—realized in him and also in yourselves, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. He who says he is 'in the light' and hates his brother, is in darkness still. He who loves his brother remains in the light—and in the light there is no pitfall; but he who hates his brother is in darkness, he walks in darkness and does not know where he is going, for the darkness has blinded his eyes.

My dear children, I am writing to you, because your sins are forgiven for his sake:
fathers, I am writing to you, because you know him who is from the very beginning:
young men, I am writing to you, because you have conquered the evil One.
children, I have written to you, because you know the Father:
fathers, I have written to you,
because you know him who is from the very beginning:
young men, I have written to you, because you are strong, and the word of God remains within you, and you have conquered the evil One.

Love not the world, nor yet what is in the world; if anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the proud glory of life, belongs not to the Father but to the world; and the world is passing away with its desire, while he who does the will of God remains for ever.

Children, it is the last hour. You have learned that 'Antichrist is coming.' Well, but many antichrists have appeared—which makes us sure it is the last hour. They withdrew from us, but they did not belong to us; had they belonged to us, they would have remained with us, but they withdrew to make it plain that they are none of us. Now, you have been anointed by the holy One, and you all possess knowledge. I am not writing to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and know that no lie has any connexion with the truth.

Who is the real liar?
who but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ?
This is 'antichrist,' he who disowns the Father and the Son.

No one who disowns the Son can possess the Father:
he who confesses the Son possesses the Father as well.

Let that remain in you which you learned from the very beginning; if what you learned from the very beginning remains with you, then you will remain in the Son and in the Father.

25 Now this is what he has promised you,* eternal life.
 26 I am writing to you in this way about those who would 27 deceive you, but the unction you received from him remains within you, and you really need no teaching from anyone; simply remain in him, for his unction teaches you about everything and is true and is no lie—remain in him, as it 28 has taught you to do. Remain within him now, my dear children, so that when he appears, we may have confidence 29 instead of shrinking from him in shame at his arrival. As you know he is just, be sure that everyone who practises 3 righteousness is born of him. 'Born of him!' Think what a love the Father has for us, in letting us be called 'children of God!' That is what we are. The world does not recognize us? That is simply because it did not recog-2 nize him. We are children of God now, beloved; what we are to be is not apparent yet, but we do know that when he appears, we are to be like him—for we are to see him 3 as he is. And everyone who rests this hope on him, 4 purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin 5 commits lawlessness: sin is lawlessness, and you know he appeared to take [our] sins away. In him there is no sin; 6 anyone who remains in him does not sin—anyone who sins has neither seen nor known him. Let no one deceive you, 7 my dear children: he who practises righteousness is just, 8 as He is just; he who commits sin belongs to the devil, for the devil is a sinner from the very beginning. (This is why the Son of God appeared, to destroy the deeds 9 of the devil.) Anyone who is born of God does not commit sin, for the offspring of God remain in Him, 10 and they cannot sin, because they are born of God. Here is how the children of God and the children of the devil are recognized; anyone who does not practise righteousness does not belong to God, and neither does he 11 who has no love for his brother. For this is the message you have learned from the very beginning, that we are to 12 love one another: we are not to be like Cain, who belonged to the evil One and slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's 13 just. Do not wonder, brothers, that the world hates you.
 14 We know we have crossed from death to life, because we love the brotherhood; he who has no love [for his brother] 15 remains in death. Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know no murderer has eternal life 16 remaining within him. We know what love is by this, that He laid down his life for us; so we ought to lay down 17 our lives for the brotherhood. But whoever possesses this

* Reading ὑμῖν instead of ἡμῖν.

world's goods, and notices his brother in need, and shuts his heart against him, how can love to God remain in him?

18 My dear children, let us put our love not into words or into talk but into deeds, and make it real.

19 Thus it is that we may be sure we belong to the truth

20 and reassure ourselves whenever our heart condemns us; for God is greater than our heart, and he knows all.

21 If our heart does not condemn us, beloved, then we have 22 confidence in approaching God, and we get from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commands and do what

23 is pleasing in his sight. Now this is what he commands, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and 24 love one another as he has commanded us to do; he who obeys his commands remains within him—and He remains within him. And this is how we may be sure he remains 4 within us, by means of the Spirit he has given us.

Do not believe every spirit, beloved, but test the spirits to see if they come from God; for many false

2 prophets have emerged in the world. You can recognize the Spirit of God by this: every spirit which confesses

3 Jesus as the Christ incarnate comes from God, and every spirit which does not confess Jesus [incarnate] does not come from God. This latter is the spirit of antichrist; you were told it was coming, and here it is already in the 4 world. My dear children, you belong to God, and you have conquered all such, for He who is within you is greater than he who is in the world.

5 They belong to the world, therefore they speak as inspired by the world, and the world listens to them:

6 we belong to God—

he who knows God listens to us, he who does not belong to God does not listen to us.

This is how we recognize the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love belongs to God, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God;

8 he who does not love, does not know God, for God is love.

9 This is how the love of God has appeared for us, by God sending his only Son into the world, so that by him we

10 might live. Love lies in this, not in our love for him but in his love for us—in the sending of his Son to be the 11 propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God had such love for us, we ought to love one another. God no one has ever

12 seen; but if we love one another, then God remains within us, and love for him is complete in us. This is how we 13 may be sure we remain in him and he in us, because he has 14 given us a share in his own Spirit; and we have seen, we can testify, that the Father has sent the Son as the Saviour 15 of the world. Whoever confesses that 'Jesus is the Son of 16 God,' in him God remains, and he remains in God; well, we do know, we have believed, the love God has for us.

God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, 17 and God remains in him. Love is complete with us when we have absolute confidence about the day of judgment, 18 since in this world we are living as He lives. Love has no dread in it; no, love in its fulness drives all dread away, for dread has to do with punishment—anyone who has 19 dread, has not reached the fulness of love. We love, be-20 cause He loved us first. If anyone declares, 'I love God,' and yet hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who will not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot possibly love the 21 God whom he has never seen. And we get this command from him, that he who loves God is to love his brother as well.

5 Everyone who believes Jesus is the Christ, is born of God;
 and everyone who loves the Father, loves the sons * 2 born of him. This is how we are sure that we love God's 3 children, by loving God and obeying his commands (for love to God means keeping his commands). And his commands 4 are not irksome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. Our faith, that is the conquest which conquers the 5 world. Who is the world's conqueror but he who believes 6 that Jesus is the Son of God? Jesus Christ, he it is who came by water, blood, and Spirit—not by the water alone, 7 but by the water and the blood. The Spirit is the witness 8 to this, for the Spirit is truth. The witnesses are three, the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three 9 of them are in accord. If we accept human testimony, God's testimony is greater; for God's testimony consists 10 in his testimony to his Son. He who believes in the Son of God possesses that testimony within himself; he who will not believe God, has made God a liar by refusing to believe 11 the testimony which God has borne to his Son. And the testimony is, that God gave us life eternal and this life is in his Son.

12 He who possesses the Son possesses life:

he who does not possess the Son does not possess life.

13 I have written in this way to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may be sure you have 14 life eternal. Now the confidence we have in him is this, that he listens to us whenever we ask anything in accordance 15 with his will; and if we know he listens to whatever we

* The Greek word is singular. It may be taken strictly, as meaning "the Son," or generically as above (see the next verse).

- ask, we know we obtain the requests we have made to him.
- 16 If anyone notices his brother committing a sin which is not deadly, he will ask and obtain life for him—for anyone who does not commit a deadly sin. There is such a thing
- 17 as deadly sin; I do not mean he is to pray for that. All iniquity is sin, but there are sins which are not deadly.
- 18 We know that anyone who is born of God does not sin; He who was born of God preserves him, and the evil One never catches him.
- 19 We know that we belong to God, and that the whole world lies in the power of the evil One.
- 20 We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us insight to know Him who is the Real God; and we are in Him who is real, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is
- 21 the real God, this is life eternal. My dear children, keep clear of idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

- 1 THE presbyter, to the elect Lady and her children whom I love in the Truth (and not only I but all who know 2 the Truth) for the sake of the Truth which remains 3 within us and will be with us for ever: grace, mercy, peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
- 4 I was overjoyed to find some of your children leading the true Life, as we were commanded to do by the Father.
5 And now I entreat you, Lady—not as though I were writing you any new command, it is the command which we have 6 had from the very beginning—let us love one another. To live by his commands, that is what love means: and the command is, live in love as you have learned to do from 7 the very beginning. I say this, because a number of impostors have emerged in the world, men who will not acknowledge the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh; that 8 marks the real ‘impostor’ and ‘antichrist.’ Watch yourselves; you must not lose what you have been working for, 9 but gain a full reward. Anyone who is ‘advanced’ and will not remain by the doctrine of Christ, does not possess God:
he who remains by the doctrine of Christ possesses both the 10 Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not 11 bring this doctrine, do not admit him to the house—do not even greet him, for he who greets him shares in his wicked work.
- 12 I have a great deal to write to you, but I do not mean to use ink and paper; I hope to visit you and have a talk with you, so that your * joy may be unimpaired.
- 13 The children of your elect Sister greet you.

* Reading with A B and several versions, ὑμῶν, instead of ἡμῶν.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

- 1 THE presbyter, to the beloved Gaius whom I love in the 2 Truth. Beloved, I pray you may prosper in every way 3 and keep well—as indeed your soul is keeping well. For I 4 was overjoyed when some brothers arrived and testified to 5 the truth of your life, as indeed you do lead the true Life; 6 I have no greater joy than to hear of my children living in 7 the Truth. Beloved, you are acting loyally in rendering 8 any service to the brothers and especially to strangers; 9 they have testified to your love before the church. Pray 10 speed them on their journey worthily of God; they have 11 started out for his sake and declined to take anything 12 from pagans; hence we are bound to support such men, to 13 prove ourselves allies of the Truth.
- 14 I have written to the church; only, Diotrephes, who likes 15 to take the lead among them, repudiates me. So when I 16 come, I shall bring up what he is doing, babbling against 17 me with wicked words—and, not satisfied with words, he 18 refuses to welcome the brothers, checks those who want to 19 welcome them, and excommunicates them from the church.
- 20 Beloved, do not imitate evil but good; he who does good 21 belongs to God, he who does evil has never seen God.
- 22 Everybody testifies to Demetrius, and so does the Truth 23 itself: I testify to him too, and you know my testimony is 24 true.
- 25 I had a great deal to write to you, but I do not want to 26 write to you with ink and pen; I am hoping to see you 27 soon, and we will have a talk.
- 28 Peace to you! The friends salute you: salute the friends 29 one by one.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDAS (JUDE)

- 1 JUDAS, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to those who have been called, who are beloved by God 2 the Father and kept by Jesus Christ: mercy, peace and love be multiplied to you.
- 3 Beloved, my whole concern was to write to you on the subject of our common salvation, but I am forced to write you an appeal to defend the faith which has once for all 4 been committed to the saints; for certain persons have slipped in by stealth (their doom has been predicted long ago), impious creatures who pervert the grace of our God into immorality and disown our sole liege and Lord, Jesus 5 Christ. Now I want to remind you of what you are perfectly aware, that though the Lord once* brought the People safe out of Egypt, he subsequently destroyed the un-6 believing, while the angels who abandoned their own domain, instead of preserving their proper rank, are reserved by him within the nether gloom, in chains eternal, 7 for the doom of the great Day—just as Sodom and Gomorra and the adjacent cities, which similarly gluttled themselves with vice and sensual perversity, are exhibited as a warning of the everlasting fire they are sentenced to suffer.
8 Despite it all, these visionaries pollute their flesh, scorn 9 the Powers celestial, and scoff at the angelic Glories. Now the very archangel Michael, when he disputed the body of Moses with Satan, did not dare to condemn him with scoffs; 10 what he said was, The Lord rebuke you! But these people scoff at anything they do not understand; and whatever they do understand, like irrational animals, by mere in-11 stinct, that proves their ruin. Woe to them! they go the road of Cain, rush into Balaam's error for what it brings 12 them, and perish in Korah's rebellion. These people are stains on your love-feasts; they have no qualms about carous-ing in your midst, they look after none but themselves— rainless clouds, swept along by the wind, trees in autumn 13 without fruit, doubly dead and so uprooted, wild waves

* ἄπαξ must be connected, as in the Syriac and Egyptian versions, with ὥσας, not with εἰδότες as in most manuscripts.

foaming out their own shame, wandering stars for whom the nether gloom of darkness has been reserved eternally.

14 It was of these, too, that Enoch the seventh from Adam prophesied, when he said,

Behold the Lord comes with myriads of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment upon all,

and to convict all the impious of all the impious deeds they have committed, and of all the harsh things said against him by impious sinners.

16 For these people are murmurers, grumbling at their lot in life—they fall in with their own passions, their talk is arrogant, they pay court to men to benefit themselves.

17 Now, beloved, you must remember the words of the 18 apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; they told you beforehand, "At the end of things there will be mockers who 19 go by their own impious passions." These are the people who set up divisions and distinctions, sensuous creatures,

20 destitute of the Spirit. But do you, beloved, build up yourselves on your most holy faith and pray in the holy Spirit,

21 so keeping yourselves within the love of God and waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that ends in life

22 eternal. Snatch some from the fire, and have mercy on the 23 waverers, *trembling as you touch them, with loathing for the garment which the flesh has stained.

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from slipping and to make your stand unblemished and exultant before his 25 glory—to the only God, our saviour through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time and now and for all time: Amen.

* Reading καὶ οὓς μὲν ἐκ πυρὸς ἀρπάζετε, διακρινομένους δὲ ἐλεᾶτε, with Syr^{phil} Clement and Jerome.

THE REVELATION

OF ST. JOHN

- 1 A REVELATION by Jesus Christ, which God granted him for his servants, to show them what must come to pass very soon; he disclosed it by sending it through his angel
2 to his servant John, who now testifies to what is God's word 3 and Jesus Christ's testimony—to what he saw. Blessed is he who reads aloud, blessed they who hear the words of this prophecy and lay to heart what is written in it; for the time is near.
- 4 John to the seven churches in Asia: grace be to you and peace from HE WHO IS AND WAS AND IS COMING, and from 5 the seven Spirits before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the first-born from the dead, and the prince over the kings of earth; to him who loves us and 6 has loosed us from our sins by shedding his blood—he has made us a realm of priests for his God and Father,—to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever: Amen.
7 Lo, he is coming on the clouds, to be seen by every eye, even by those who impaled him, and all the tribes of earth
8 will wail because of him: even so, Amen. "I am the alpha and the omega," saith the Lord God, who is and was and is coming, the almighty.
- 9 I John, your brother and your companion in the distress and realm and patient endurance which Jesus brings, found myself in the island called Patmos, for adhering to God's 10 word and the testimony of Jesus. On the Lord's day I found myself rapt in the Spirit, and I heard a loud voice 11 behind me like a trumpet calling, "Write your vision in a book, and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus and Smyrna and Pergamum and Thyatira and Sardis and Phil-12 adelphia and Laodicea." So I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me; and on turning round I saw seven 13 golden lampstands and in the middle of the lampstands One who resembled a human being, with a long robe, and a 14 belt of gold round his breast; his head and hair were white as wool, white as snow; his eyes flashed like fire, 15 his feet glowed like burnished bronze, his voice sounded 16 like many waves, in his right hand he held seven stars, a sharp sword with a double edge issued from his mouth, and 17 his face shone like the sun in full strength. When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man; but he laid his hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the First and 18 Last.* I was dead and here I am alive for evermore, hold-19 ing the keys that unlock death and Hades. Write down 20 your vision of what is and what is to be hereafter. As for the secret symbol of the seven stars which you have seen in my right hand, and of the seven golden lampstands—the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and 2 the seven lampstands are the seven churches. To the angel of the church at Ephesus write thus:—These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right 2 hand, who moves among the seven golden lampstands: I know your doings, your hard work and your patient endurance; I know that you cannot bear wicked men, and that you have tested those who style themselves apostles (no 3 apostles they!) and detected them to be liars; I know that you are enduring patiently and have borne up for my 4 sake and have not wearied. But I have this against you: you have given up loving one another as you did at first.

 5 Now, remember the height from which you have fallen; repent and act as you did at first. If not, I will come to you [very soon] and remove your lampstand, unless you 6 repent. Still, you have this in your favour: you hate the 7 practices of the Nicolaitans, and I hate them too. Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches: 'The conqueror I will allow to eat from the tree 8 of Life which is within the paradise of God.' Then to the angel of the church at Smyrna write thus:—These are the words of the First and Last, who was dead and came to 9 life: I know your † distress and your poverty (but you are rich!); I know how you are being slandered by those who style themselves Jews (no Jews are they, but a mere syna-10 gogue of Satan!). Have no fear of what you are to suffer.
 The devil indeed is going to put some of you in prison, that you may be tested; you will have a distressful ten days. Be faithful, though you have to die for it, and I will 11 give you the crown of Life. Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches: 'The con-12 queror shall not be injured by the second death.' Then to the angel of the church at Pergamum write thus:—These are the words of him who wields the sharp sword with the 13 double edge: I know where you dwell, where Satan sits enthroned, and yet you adhere to my Name, you have not renounced your faith in me even during the days when my witness, my faithful Antipas, was martyred in your † Omitting, as in ver. 13, [τὰ ἔργα καί].

14 midst—where Satan dwells. But I have one or two things against you: you have some adherents there of the tenets of Balaam, who taught Balak how to set a pitfall before the sons of Israel by making them eat food which had been sacrificed to idols and give way to sexual vice. So even 15 with you; you likewise have some adherents of the tenets 16 of the Nicolaitans. Repent; if not, I will very soon come to you and make war upon them with the sword of my mouth.
17 Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches: ‘The conqueror I will allow to share the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone inscribed with a new name, unknown to any except him who receives 18 it.’ Then to the angel of the church at Thyatira write thus:—These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes 19 flash like fire and whose feet glow like bronze. I know your doings, your love and loyalty and service and patient endurance; I know you are doing more than you did at 20 first. Still I have this against you: you are tolerating that Jezebel of a woman who styles herself a prophetess and seduces my servants by teaching them to give way to sexual vice and to eat food which has been sacrificed to idols.
21 I have given her time to repent, but she refuses to repent 22 of her sexual vice. Lo, I will lay her on a sickbed, and bring her paramours into sore distress, if they do not 23 repent of her practices; and her children I will exterminate.
So shall all the churches know that I am the searcher of the inmost heart; I will requite each of you according to 24 what you have done. But for the rest of you at Thyatira, for all who do not hold these tenets, for those who have not (in their phrase) ‘fathomed the deep mysteries of Satan’—for you this is my word: I impose no fresh burden 25 on you; only hold to what you have, till such time as I 26 come. ‘And the conqueror, he who till the end lays to heart what I enjoin, I will give him authority over the nations— 27 aye, he will shepherd them with an iron flail, shattering them like a potter’s jars—as I myself have received authority from my Father; 28 also I will grant him to see the Morning-star.’ Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

3 Then to the angel of the church at Sardis write thus:
—These are the words of him who holds the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your doings, 2 you have the name of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up, rally what is still left to you, though it is on the very point of death; for I find nothing you have done is complete 3 in the eyes of my God. Now remember what you received and heard, hold to it and repent. If you will not wake up,

I shall come like a thief; you will not know at what hour I 4 come upon you. Still, you have a few souls at Sardis who have not soiled their raiment; they shall walk beside me in 5 white, for they deserve to. 'The conqueror shall be clad in white raiment; I will never erase his name from the book of Life, but will own him openly before my Father and 6 before his angels.' Let anyone who has an ear listen to 7 what the Spirit says to the churches. Then to the angel of the church at Philadelphia write thus:—These are the words of the true Holy One, who holds the key of David, who opens and none shall shut, who shuts and none shall 8 open.^{*} Lo, I have set a door open before you which no one is able to shut; for though your strength is small, you have 9 kept my word, you have not renounced my Name. Lo, I will make those who belong to that synagogue of Satan, who style themselves Jews (no Jews are they, but liars!)—lo, I will have them come and do homage before your feet and 10 learn that I did love you. Because you have kept the word of my patient endurance, I will keep you safe through the hour of trial which is coming upon the whole world to test 11 the dwellers on earth. I am coming very soon: hold to 12 what you have, in case your crown is taken from you. 'As for the conqueror, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God (nevermore shall he leave it), and I will inscribe on him the name of my God, the name of the city of my 13 God (the new Jerusalem which descends out of heaven from my God), and my own new name.' Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.
 14 Then to the angel of the church at Laodicea write thus:
 These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true 15 witness, the origin of God's creation. I know your doings, you are neither cold nor hot—would you were either cold 16 or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor 17 cold, I am going to spit you out of my mouth. You declare,
 'I am rich, I am well off, I lack nothing!'—not knowing you are a miserable creature, pitiful, poor, blind, naked.
 18 I advise you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich, white raiment to clothe you and prevent the shame of your nakedness from being seen, and salve to 19 rub on your eyes, that you may see. I reprove and disci- pline those whom I love; so be in warm earnest and repent.
 20 Lo, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and sup with him, 21 and he with me. 'The conqueror I will allow to sit beside me on my throne, as I myself have conquered and sat down

* Omitting (with Primasius) οἶδά σου τὰ ἔργα, 'I know your doings,' a harmonistic gloss which interrupts the connexion of thought.

22 beside my Father on his throne.' Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches."

4 AFTER this I looked, and there was a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice I had heard talking with me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must come to pass after this." At once I found myself rapt in the Spirit; and lo a Throne stood in heaven with One seated on the throne—the seated One resembled in appearance jasper and sardius—and round the throne a rainbow resembling emerald in appearance; also round the throne four and twenty thrones, and on these thrones four and twenty Presbyters seated, who were clad in white raiment with golden crowns upon their heads. From the throne issue flashes of lightning and loud blasts and peals of thunder. And in front of the throne seven torches of fire burn (they are the seven Spirits of God); also in front of the throne there is like a sea of glass, resembling crystal. And on each side of the throne, all round it, four living Creatures full of eyes inside and outside; the first living Creature resembling a lion, the second living Creature resembling an ox, the third living Creature with a face like a man's, the fourth living Creature like a flying eagle. The four living Creatures, each with six wings apiece, are full of eyes all over their bodies and under their wings, and day and night they never cease the chant, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God almighty, who was and is and is coming."
9 And whenever the living Creatures render glory and honour and thanksgiving to him who is seated on the throne, who lives for ever and ever, the four and twenty Presbyters fall down before him who is seated on the throne, worshipping him who lives for ever and ever, and casting their crowns before the throne, with the cry, 11 "Thou deservest, our Lord and God,* to receive glory and honour and power, for it was thou who didst create all things: they existed and were created by thy will."

5 THEN I saw lying on the right hand of him who was seated on the throne, a scroll with writing on the back as well as inside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel exclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is fit to open the scroll, to break the seals of it?" But no one was fit, either in heaven or on earth or underneath the earth, to open the scroll or look into it. So I began to weep

* Omitting [ὁ ἅγιος].

bitterly because no one had been found fit to open the 5 scroll or look into it; but one of the Presbyters told me, "Weep not; lo, the Lion of Judah's tribe, the Scion of David, he has won * the power of opening the scroll and its 6 seven seals." Then I noticed a Lamb standing in the midst of the throne and the four living Creatures and the Presbyters; it seemed to have been slain, but it had seven heads and seven eyes (they are the seven Spirits of God 7 sent out into all the earth), and it went and took the scroll out of the right hand of him who was seated on the throne.
 8 And when it took the scroll, the four living Creatures and the four and twenty Presbyters fell down before the Lamb, each with his harp and with golden bowls full of 9 incense (that is, full of the prayers of the saints), singing a new song:

"Thou deservest to take the scroll and open its seals, for thou wast slain and by shedding thy blood hast ran-somed for God men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation;

10 thou hast made them kings and priests for our God, and they shall reign on earth."

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels round the throne and of the living Creatures and of the Presbyters, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thou- 12 sands, crying aloud, "The slain Lamb deserves to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and 13 glory and blessing." And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth crying, "Blessing and honour and glory and dominion for ever and ever, to him 14 who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!" "Amen," said the four living Creatures, and the Presbyters fell down and worshipped.

6 And when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, I looked, and I heard one of the four living Creatures 2 calling like thunder, "Come." † So I looked, and there was a white horse, its rider holding a bow; he was given a crown, and away he rode conquering and to conquer.

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second 4 living Creature calling, "Come." And away went another red horse; its rider was allowed to take peace from the earth and to make men slay each other; he was given a huge sword.

5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living Creature calling, "Come." So I looked and there

* Literally, "has conquered (see iii. 21), so that he can open."

† Addressed either to the seer or, more probably, to the mounted

was a black horse; its rider held a pair of scales in his hand, and I heard like a voice in the midst of the four living Creatures saying, "A shilling for a quart of wheat, a shilling for three quarts of barley; but harm not oil and wine!"

And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living Creature calling, "Come." So I looked, and there was a livid horse; its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed him. They were given power over the fourth part of the earth, to kill men with sword and famine and plague and by the wild beasts of the earth.

And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain for adhering to God's word and to the testimony which they bore; and they cried aloud, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long wilt thou refrain from charging and avenging our blood upon those who dwell on earth?" But they were each given a white robe, and told to remain quiet for a little longer, until their number was completed by their fellow-servants and their brothers who were to be killed like themselves.

And when he opened the sixth seal, I looked; and a great earthquake took place, the sun turned black as sackcloth, the full moon turned like blood, the stars of the sky dropped to earth as a fig tree shaken by a gale sheds her unripe figs, the sky was swept aside like a scroll being folded up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. Then the kings of the earth, the magnates, the generals, the rich, the strong, slaves and freemen everyone of them, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains, calling to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall upon us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne and from the anger of the Lamb; for the great Day of their anger has come, and who can stand it?"

After that I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds from blowing on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. And I saw another angel rise up from the east, with the seal of the living God; he shouted aloud to the four angels who were allowed to injure the earth and sea, "Do no harm to earth or sea or trees, until we seal the servants of our God upon their foreheads." And I heard what was the number of the sealed—a hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel, twelve thousand sealed from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand from the tribe of

Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin * twelve thousand 6 from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand sealed from the tribe of Manasseh.

- 9 After that I looked, and there was a great host whom no one could count, from every nation and tribe and people and tongue, standing † before the throne and before the Lamb, clad in white robes, with palm-branches in their 10 hands; and they cried with a loud voice, "Saved by our God who is seated on the throne, and by the Lamb!"
 11 And all the angels surrounded the throne and the Presbyters and the four living Creatures, and fell on their faces 12 before the throne, worshipping God and crying, "Even so! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and 13 ever: Amen!" Then one of the Presbyters addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clad in white robes? where have 14 they come from?" I said to him, "You know, my lord." So he told me, "These are the people who have come out of the great Distress, who washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." 15 For this they are now before the throne of God, serving ‡ him day and night within his temple. and he who is seated on the throne shall overshadow them.
 16 Never again will they hunger, never again will they thirst, never shall the sun strike them, nor any scorching heat;
 17 for the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, guiding them to fountains of living water; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

- 8 AND when he opened the seventh seal, silence reigned 2 in heaven for about half-an-hour. Then I saw seven trumpets being given to the seven angels who stand before 3 God. And another angel went and stood at the altar with a golden censer; he was given abundant incense; to be laid with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden 4 altar in front of the throne; and the smoke of the incense

* The simple transposition of 5c-6 to a place after 8, as Dr. G. B. Gray has pointed out (Encyclopaedia Biblica 5209), yields a far more normal list of the tribes.

with the prayers of all the saints rose up from the angel's hand before God. And the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and poured it on the earth; then followed peals of thunder, loud blasts, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake. And the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their blasts. The first blew, and there came hail and fire mixed with blood, falling on the earth; a third of the earth was burnt up, a third of the trees were burnt up, and all the green grass was burnt up. The second angel blew, and what looked like a huge mountain on fire was hurled into the sea; a third of the sea turned blood, a third of the creatures in the sea—the living creatures—perished, and a third of the ships were destroyed. The third angel blew, and a huge star blazing like a torch dropped out of the sky, dropped on a third of the rivers and on the fountains (the name of the star is Wormwood); a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died of the waters, because they had turned bitter. The fourth angel blew; and a stroke fell on a third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so as to darken one third of them, withdrawing light from a third of the day and likewise of the night. Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven with a loud cry, "Woe, woe, woe to the dwellers on earth, for the rest of the trumpet-blasts that the three angels are about to blow!"

THE fifth angel blew, and I saw a Star which had dropped from heaven to earth; he was given the key of the pit of the abyss, and he opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke poured out of the pit, like the smoke of a huge furnace, till the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit. And out of the smoke came locusts on the earth; they were granted power like the power wielded by scorpions on earth, but they were told not to harm the grass on earth nor any green thing nor any tree, only such human beings as had not the seal of God upon their foreheads; these they were allowed, not to kill but to torture, for five months—and their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it stings a man.

In those days men will seek death, but they will not find it:
they will long to die, but death flies from them.

The appearance of the locusts resembled horses armed for battle; on their heads were sort of crowns like gold; their faces were like human faces, their hair like women's hair, and their teeth like lions' fangs; they had scales like iron coats of mail; the whirring of their wings was like the 10 noise of many chariots rushing to battle; their tails and their stings were like scorpions', and their power of hurt-11 ing men for five months lay in their tails; they had a king over them, the angel of the abyss—his Hebrew name is Abaddon, but in Greek he is called Apollyon.

12 The first woe has passed:

two woes are still to come.

13 Then the sixth angel blew; and I heard a voice from the 14 four horns of the golden altar before God, telling the sixth angel with the trumpet, "Let loose the four angels who are 15 bound at the great river Euphrates." So the four angels were unloosed, who had been kept ready for that hour and 16 day and month and year, to kill the third of men. And the number of the troops of their cavalry was two hundred 17 millions (I heard what was their number). And this is how the horses and their riders looked in my vision: they wore coats of mail red as fire, dark-blue as jacinth and yellow as smoke; the horses' heads were like lions' heads, and from their mouths poured fire and smoke and brim-18 stone. By these three plagues the third of men were killed, by the fire, the smoke, and the brimstone, that poured out 19 of their mouths; for the power of the horses lies in their mouths—and also in their tails (their tails are like serpents, they have heads, and it is with their heads that 20 they hurt). But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands and give up worshipping daemons and idols of gold and silver and brass and stone and wood, which cannot either 21 see or hear or stir; nor did they repent of their murders or of their magic spells or of their sexual vice or of their thefts.

10 THEN I saw another* strong angel descend from heaven; he was clad in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head, his face like the sun, his feet like columns of fire, 2 and a small scroll open in his hand. He set his right foot 3 on the sea, his left upon the earth, and shouted aloud like a lion roaring; and at his shout the seven thunders gave 4 voice. After the seven thunders had spoken, I was going to write it down; but I heard a voice from heaven saying,
 "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, do not write 5 it." Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and the 6 earth raised his right hand to heaven and swore by Him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heaven and

* Referring to v. 2, in all probability; but it may simply mean, "another angel, a strong one."

- what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and*
- 7 what is in it, "There shall be no more delay; in the days of the seventh angel's voice, when he now blows his blast, then shall the secret purpose of God be fulfilled, as he
- 8 assured his servants the prophets." Then the voice I had heard from heaven again talked to me, saying, "Go and take the small scroll which lies open in the hand of the
- 9 angel who is standing on the sea and the earth." So I went to the angel, saying, "Give me the small scroll."
- "Take it," said he, "and swallow it; it will taste sweet as
- 10 honey, but it will be bitter to digest." Then I took the small scroll from the hand of the angel and swallowed it; it did taste sweet, like honey, but when I had eaten it, it
- 11 was bitter to digest. Then I was told, "You must prophesy again of many peoples and nations and languages and
- 11 kings." And I was given a reed like a rod, and told,
- 2 numbering the worshippers; but omit the court outside the temple, do not measure that, for it has been given over to the Gentiles; and the city will be under their heel for
- 3 two and forty months. But I will allow my two witnesses to prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days, clad in
- 4 sackcloth (they are the two olive-trees and the two lamp-stands which stand before the Lord of the earth):
- 5 whoever tries to harm them, fire will issue from their mouth and consume their enemies; whoever should try to harm them, so must he be killed."
- 6 They have power to shut up the sky, so that no rain falls during the days when they are prophesying; and they have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and also to smite the earth with all manner of plagues as often as
- 7 they choose. But, when they have finished their testimony, the Beast that ascends from the abyss will make war on
- 8 them and conquer them and kill them, and their corpses will lie in the streets of that great City whose mystical name is Sodom and Egypt—where their Lord also was
- 9 crucified. For three days and a half men from all peoples and tribes and tongues and nations look at their corpses,
- 10 refusing to let their corpses be buried; and the dwellers on earth will gloat over them and rejoice, sending presents to congratulate one another—for these two prophets were
- 11 a torment to the dwellers on earth. But after three days and a half the breath of life from God entered them; they stood on their feet (terror fell on those who saw them)
- 12 and heard a loud voice from heaven telling them, "Come up here." So up to heaven they went in a cloud, before the 13 eyes of their enemies. At that hour a great earthquake took place, a tenth of the City was destroyed, and seven thousand souls perished in the earthquake: the rest were awestruck, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe has passed: the third woe soon is coming.

15 Then the seventh angel blew; and loud voices followed in heaven, crying, "The rule of the world has passed to our Lord and his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever."

16 Then the four and twenty Presbyters who are seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshipped God, saying,

17 "We thank thee, Lord God almighty, who art and wast, that thou hast assumed thy great power and begun to reign;

18 the nations were enraged, but thine anger has come;
the time has come for the dead to be judged, the time for rewarding thy servants the prophets, and the saints who reverence thy name, both low and high,
the time for destroying the destroyers of the earth."

19 Then the temple of God in heaven was thrown open, and the ark of his covenant was seen inside his temple; there were flashes of lightning, loud blasts, peals of thunder, an

12 earthquake, and a hailstorm. And a great portent was seen in heaven, a woman clad in the sun—with the moon under her feet, and a tiara of twelve stars on her

2 head; she was with child, crying in the pangs of travail, in

3 anguish for her delivery. Then another portent was seen in heaven! There was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and seven horns and seven diadems upon his heads;

4 his tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and flung them to the earth. And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was on the point of being delivered, to devour

5 her child as soon as it was born. She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to shepherd all the nations with an iron flail; her child was caught up to God and to his

6 throne, and she herself fled to the desert, where a place has been prepared for her by God, in which she is to be

7 nourished for twelve hundred and sixty days. And war broke out in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting with

8 the dragon; the dragon and his angels also fought, but he failed, and there was no place for them in heaven any

9 longer. So the huge dragon was thrown down—that old serpent called the Devil and Satan, the seducer of the whole world—thrown down to the earth, and his angels thrown 10 down along with him. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now it has come, the salvation and power, the reign of our God and the authority of his Christ!—for the Accuser of our brothers is thrown down, who accused them before God day and night. But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they had to die for it, but they did not cling to life. Rejoice for this, O heavens and ye that dwell in them! But woe to earth and sea! The devil has descended to you in fierce anger, knowing that his time is short.” And when the dragon found himself thrown down to earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child; but the woman was given the two wings of a great eagle for her flight to the desert, to her appointed place, where she is nourished for a Time, two Times, and half a Time, safe from the serpent. Then from his mouth the serpent poured water after the woman like a river, to sweep her away with a flood; but the earth came to the rescue of the woman, the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon had poured out of his mouth. So, enraged at the woman, the dragon went off to wage war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep God’s commandments and hold the testimony of Jesus.

13 Then I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a Beast rising out of the sea with ten horns and seven heads, ten diadems on his horns, and blasphemous titles on his heads. The Beast I saw resembled a leopard, his feet were like a bear’s, and his mouth like a lion’s. To him the dragon gave his own power and his own throne and great authority. One of his heads looked as if it had been slain and killed, but the deadly wound was healed, and the whole earth went after him in wonder, worshipping the dragon for having given authority to the Beast, and worshipping the Beast with the cry, “Who is like the Beast?”*

Who can fight with him?” He was allowed to utter loud and blasphemous vaunts, and allowed to exert authority for two and forty months; so he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and his dwelling (that is, the dwellers in heaven). He was allowed to wage war on the saints and to conquer them, and given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation; and all the dwellers on earth will be his worshippers, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of Life.† Let anyone who has an ear listen:—

* Here, as in xii. 3, an assumption of the royal power which really belonged to God (see xix. 12).

† The words “of the Lamb slain” (τοῦ ἀρνίου τοῦ ἐσφαγμένου) are

- 10 Whoever is destined for captivity, to captivity he goes:
whoever kills with the sword, by the sword must he be killed.

This is what shows the patience and the faith of the saints.

- 11 Then I saw another Beast rising from the land; he had 12 two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon. He exerts the full authority of the first Beast in his presence, causing the earth and its inhabitants to worship the first 13 Beast, whose deadly wound was healed. He performs amazing miracles, even making fire descend from heaven on 14 earth in the sight of men, and by dint of the miracles he is allowed to perform in presence of the Beast, he seduces the dwellers on earth; he bids the dwellers on earth erect a statue to the Beast who lived after being 15 wounded by the sword, and to this statue of the Beast he was allowed to impart the breath of life, so that the statue of the Beast should actually speak. He has everyone put to death who will not worship the statue of the Beast, 16 and he obliges all men, low and high, rich and poor, freemen and slaves alike, to have a mark put upon their right 17 hand or their forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he bears the mark, that is the name of the Beast 18 or the cipher of his name. Now for the gift of interpretation! Let the discerning calculate the cipher of the Beast; it is the cipher of a man, and the figures are six hundred and sixty-six.

- 14 THEN I looked, and there was the Lamb standing on mount Sion, and along with him a hundred and forty-four thousand bearing his name and the name of his Father 2 written on their foreheads! And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waves and the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like harpists playing on 3 their harps; they were singing a new song* before the throne and before the four living Creatures and the Presbyters, and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been ransomed from 4 earth. They have not been defiled by intercourse with women—they are celibates; they follow the Lamb wherever he goes; they have been ransomed from among men, as 5 the first to be reaped for God and the Lamb. And on their lips no lie was ever detected † ; they are stainless.

probably a gloss from xxi. 27. The book of Life elsewhere appears without any such addition.

* Omitting [ὧς].

† The thought and phraseology of the whole passage should be compared and contrasted with 1 Pet. ii. 21-22.

- 6 Then I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven with an eternal gospel for the inhabitants of the earth, for every 7 nation and tribe and tongue and people; he cried aloud, "Fear God and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come; worship him who made heaven and earth, the 8 sea and the fountains of water." And another, a second angel followed, crying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, who made all nations drink the wine of the passion of her 9 vice!" They were followed by another, a third angel, crying aloud, "Whoever worships the Beast and his statue, and 10 lets his forehead or hand be marked, he shall drink the wine of God's passion, poured out untempered in the cup of his anger, and shall be tortured with fire and brimstone
 11 before the holy angels and before the Lamb: the smoke of their torture rises for ever and ever, and they get no rest from it, day and night, these worshippers of the Beast and 12 his statue, and all who are marked with his name." This is what shows the patience of the saints—they who keep God's commands and the faith of Jesus.
- 13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this:— 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth! Even so, it is the voice of the Spirit—blessed in resting from their toils; for what they have done goes with them.'"
- 14 Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud One resembling a human being, a golden 15 crown upon his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. And another angel came out of the temple shouting aloud to him who sat upon the cloud, "Thrust your sickle in and reap, the time has come to reap, the harvest of earth is ripe and ready."
- 16 So he who sat upon the cloud swung his sickle over the 17 earth, and the earth was reaped. Then another angel came 18 out of the temple, he too with a sharp sickle; and another angel came from the altar—he who has power over fire—and called loudly to the one who had the sharp sickle, "Thrust your sharp sickle in, cull the clusters from the Vine of earth, for its grapes are fully ripe."
- 19 So the angel swung his sickle on the earth and culled the clusters from the Vine of earth, flinging the grapes into the 20 great winepress of God's wrath; outside the City was the winepress trodden, and blood gushed out of the winepress as high as a horse's bridle for the space of two hundred miles.

15 THEN I saw another portent in heaven, great and marvellous: seven angels with seven plagues—the last

- 2 plagues, for they complete the wrath of God. And I saw what was like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and, standing beside the sea of glass, those who came off conquerors from the Beast and his statue and the cipher of his name; 3 they had harps of God and they were singing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb—

"Great and marvellous are thy deeds,

Lord God almighty!

Just and true thy ways,

O King of nations!

- 4 Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name?
for thou alone art holy.

Yea, all nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgments are disclosed."

- 5 After that * I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of 6 testimony in heaven was thrown open, and out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, robed in pure dazzling linen, their breasts encircled with golden 7 belts. Then one of the four living Creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who 8 lives for ever and ever; and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his might, nor could anyone enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven

- 16 angels were over. Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on earth." So the first went off and poured his bowl upon the land; and noisome, painful ulcers broke out on those who bore the mark of the 3 Beast and worshipped his statue. The second poured out his bowl upon the sea; it turned blood like the blood of a corpse, and every living thing within the sea perished.
4 The third poured out his bowl upon the rivers and 5 fountains of water, and they turned blood. Then I heard the angel of the waters cry, "O holy One, who art and wast, just art thou in this thy sentence. They poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them 7 blood to drink! They deserve it!" And I heard the altar cry,

"Even so, Lord God almighty:

true and just are thy sentences of doom."

- 8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun; and 9 the sun was allowed to scorch men with fire, till men, scorched by the fierce heat, blasphemed the name of the God who had control of these plagues; yet they would not 10 repent and give him glory. The fifth poured out his bowl

* That is, after the interlude of 2-4. The words always denote a fresh phrase or stage of the vision.

upon the throne of the Beast; his realm was darkened, and 11 men gnawed their tongues in anguish, blaspheming the God of heaven for their pains and their ulcers, but refus-12 ing to repent of their doings. The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its waters were dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the east.
 13 Then I saw issuing from the mouth of the dragon and from the mouth of the Beast and from the mouth of the false 14 Prophet, three foul spirits like frogs—demon-spirits performing miracles, who come out to muster the kings of the whole world for battle on the great Day of almighty God.
 15 (Lo, I am coming like a thief; blessed be he who keeps awake and holds his raiment fast, not to go naked and have 16 the shame of exposure!) * And they were mustered at the 17 spot called (in Hebrew) Harmagedon. The seventh angel poured out his bowl in the air; then came a loud voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, crying, "All is 18 over!" followed by flashes of lightning, loud blasts, peals of thunder, and a mighty earthquake, the like of which never was since man lived on earth, such a mighty earth-19 quake it was; the great City was shattered in three parts, the cities of the nations fell, and God remembered to give Babylon the great the cup of the wine of the passion of 20 his anger. Every island fled away, the mountains dis-21 appeared, and huge hailstones fell from heaven on men, till men blasphemed God for the plague of the hail—for the plague of it was fearful.

17 THEN came one of the seven angels with the seven plagues and spoke to me, saying, "Come and I will show you the doom of the great Harlot who is seated on 2 many waters, with whom the kings of earth have committed vice, and the dwellers on earth have been drunk 3 with the wine of her vice." So he bore me away rapt in the Spirit to the desert, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet Beast covered with blasphemous titles; it had 4 seven heads and ten horns. The woman was clad in purple and scarlet, her ornaments were of gold and precious stones and pearls, in her hand was a golden cup full of all abomi-5 nations and the impurities of her vice, and on her forehead a name was written by way of symbol, "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of all abominations on 6 earth." Then I saw the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the witnesses of Jesus; and 7 as I looked at her I marvelled greatly. But the angel said

* Ver. 15 interrupts the sequence of thought; it is either a gloss or misplaced, perhaps from the third chapter.

to me, "Why marvel? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman, and of the Beast with the seven heads and the ten horns who carries her. The Beast you have seen was, is not, but is to rise from the abyss—yet to perdition he shall go—and the dwellers on earth will wonder (all whose names have not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of Life), when they see that the Beast was, is not, but is coming. Now for the interpretation of the discerning mind! The seven heads are seven hills, on which the woman is seated: also, they are seven kings, of whom five have fallen, one is living, and the other has not arrived yet—and when he does arrive, he can only stay a little while. As for the Beast which was and is not, he is an eighth head; he belongs to the seven, and to perdition he shall go. As for the ten horns you have seen, they are ten kings who have no royal power as yet, but receive royal authority for an hour along with the Beast; they are of one mind, and they confer their power and authority upon the Beast. They will wage war on the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—the Lamb and the elect, the chosen, the faithful who are with him." He also told me, "The waters you saw, on which the woman is seated, are peoples and hosts, nations and tongues. As for the ten horns you have seen, they and the Beast will hate the harlot, lay her waste, and strip her naked; they will devour her flesh and burn her with fire, for God has put it into their hearts to execute his purpose, by having one mind and by conferring their royal power upon the Beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. As for the woman you have seen, she is the great City which reigns over the kings of the earth." *

2 18 After that I saw another angel descend from heaven, great in might; his radiance lit up the earth, and he shouted aloud with a strong voice,

"Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great,
now she is a haunt of demons, the den of all foul spirits, a cage for every foul and loathsome bird:

3 for all nations have drunk the wine of the passion of her vice, the kings of the earth have committed vice with her, and by the wealth of her wantonness earth's traders have grown rich."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven crying, "Come out of her, O my people,

* Possibly xix. 9-10 ("The angel also . . .") originally came at this place in the narrative.

- that you share not her sins, that you partake not of her plagues:
- 5 for high as heaven her sins are heaped, and God calls her misdeeds to the reckoning.
- 6 Render to her what she rendered to others, aye, double the doom for all she has done; mix her the draught double in the cup she mixed for others.
- 7 As she gloried and played the wanton, so give her like measure of torture and tears.
Since in her heart she vaunts, 'A queen I sit, no widow I, tears I shall never know,'
- 8 so shall her plagues fall in a single day, pestilence, tears, and famine:
she shall be burnt with fire—for strong is God the Lord her judge.
- 9 And the kings of the earth who committed vice and wantonied with her shall weep and wail over her, as they
- 10 watch the smoke of her burning; for fear of her torture they will stand far off, crying,
"Woe and alas, thou great city!
thou strong city of Babylon!
In one brief hour thy doom has come.'
- 11 And the traders of earth shall weep and wail over her;
- 12 for now there is none to buy their freights, freights of gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine linen, purples, silk, scarlet stuff, all sorts of citron wood and ivory wares, all articles of
- 13 costly wood, of bronze, of iron and of marble, with cinnamon, balsam, spices, myrrh, frankincense, wines, olive-oil, fine flour and wheat, with cattle, sheep, horses, carriages,
- 15 slaves, and the souls of men.* The traders in these wares, who made rich profits from her, will stand far off for fear of her torture, weeping and wailing:
'Woe and alas, for the great city, robed in linen, in purple and scarlet, her ornaments of gold, of jewels and pearl!
And all this splendour gone in one brief hour!'
- 17 And all shipmasters and sea-faring folk, sailors and all
- 18 whose business lies upon the sea, stood far off as they watched the smoke of her burning, crying, 'What city was like the great City?' They threw dust on their heads and cried, as they wept and wailed,
'Woe and alas for the great City, where all shipmen made rich profit by her treasures!
Gone, gone in one brief hour!'

* Ver. 14 has been misplaced from its original position in the middle of ver. 23.

- 20 O heaven, rejoice over her!
Saints, apostles, prophets, rejoice!
For God has avenged you on her now."
- 21 Then a strong angel lifted a boulder like a huge millstone and flung it into the sea, crying,
"So shall the great city, Babylon, be hurled down, hurtling, and never be seen any more:
- 22 and the sound of harpists and minstrels and fluteplayers and trumpeters shall never be heard in thee more:
and craftsmen of any craft shall never be found in thee more:
and the sound of the millstone shall never be heard in thee more:
- 23 and the light of a lamp shall never be seen in thee more:
and the voice of the bridegroom and bride shall never be heard in thee more.
- 14 Vanished the ripe fruit of thy soul's desire!
 Perished thy luxury and splendour!
 Never again to be seen.
- 23 For the magnates of earth were thy traders;
 all nations were seduced by thy magic spells.
- 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, *of all who were slain upon earth."

19 AFTER that I heard what was like the shout of a great host in heaven, crying,

- "Hallelujah! salvation and glory and power are our God's!
 2 True and just are his sentences of doom;
he has doomed the great Harlot who destroyed earth with her vice, he has avenged on her the blood of his servants."
- 3 Again they repeated,
 "Hallelujah! And the smoke of her goes up for ever and ever!"
- 4 Then the four and twenty Presbyters and the four living Creatures fell down and worshipped God who is seated on 5 the throne, crying, "So be it, hallelujah!" And a voice came from the throne,
 "Extol our God, all ye his servants, ye who reverence him, low and high!"
- 6 Then I heard a cry like the shout of a great host and the sound of many waves and the roar of heavy thunder—
 "Hallelujah! now the Lord our God almighty reigns!"

* Ver. 24, like ver. 20, links xvii. 6 to the outburst of xix. 2.

- 7 Let us rejoice and triumph,
let us give him the glory!
For now comes the marriage of the Lamb; his bride has arrayed herself,
- 8 Yea, she is allowed to put on fine linen, dazzling white" (the white linen is the righteous conduct of the saints).
- 9 Then I was told, "Write this:—'Blessed are those who have been called to the marriage-banquet of the Lamb!'"
The angel also told me, "These are genuine words of God."
- 10 Then I fell before his feet to worship him; but he said to me, "No, not that! I am but a servant like yourself and your brothers, who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God" (for the testimony borne by Jesus is the breath of all prophecy).
- 11 Then I saw heaven open wide— and there was a white horse:
his rider is faithful and true, yea, just are his judgments and his warfare.
- 12 His eyes are a flame of fire,
on his head are many diadems, he bears a written name which none knows but himself.
- 13 He is clad in a robe dipped in blood (his name is called THE LOGOS OF GOD), and the troops of heaven follow him on white horses, arrayed in pure white linen.
- 14 A sharp sword issues from his lips, wherewith to smite the nations;
*he will shepherd * them with an iron flail,* and trample the winepress of the passion of the anger of God almighty.
- 15 And on his robe, upon his thigh, his name is written,
KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.
- 16 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun,* who shouted aloud to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, "Come, gather for the great banquet of God, to devour the flesh of kings, the flesh of generals, the flesh of the strong, the flesh of horses and their riders, the flesh of all men, free and slaves, low and high alike." And I saw the Beast and the kings of earth and their troops mustered to wage war on him who was seated on the horse and on his troops. But the Beast was seized, together with the false Prophet who had performed in his presence the miracles by means of which he seduced those who received the mark of the Beast and worshipped his statue; both of them were flung alive into

* The verb had really come to mean no more than "rule" by this time; but the literal rendering may be retained for the sake of the antithesis in vii. 17.

21 the lake of fire that blazes with brimstone, while the rest were killed by the sword of him who is seated on the horse, by the sword that issues from his lips. And all the birds were glutted with their flesh.

2 20 Then I saw an angel descend from heaven with the key of the abyss and a huge chain in his hand; he gripped the dragon, that old serpent (who is the devil and Satan), and bound him for a thousand years, flinging him into the abyss and shutting and sealing it on the top of him, to prevent him seducing the nations again until the thousand years were completed—after which he has to be released for a little while. And I saw thrones with people sitting on them, who were allowed to judge—saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and God's word, those who would not worship the Beast or his statue, and who would not receive his mark on their forehead or hand; they came to life and reigned along with the Christ for a thousand years. As for the rest of the dead, they did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who shares in the first resurrection; over such the second death has no power, they shall be priests of God and the Christ, and reign along with him during the thousand years. But when the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison, and he will emerge to seduce the nations at the four corners of the earth, even Gog and Magog, mustering them for the fray. Their number was like the sand of the sea, and they swarmed over the broad earth, encircling the leaguer of the saints and the beloved City; but fire descended from heaven and consumed them, and their seducer, the devil, was flung into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the Beast and the false Prophet also lie, to be tortured day and night for ever and ever.

11 Then I saw a great white throne, and One who was seated thereon;
from his presence earth and sky fled, no more to be found.

12 And I saw the dead, high and low, standing before the throne, and books were opened—also another book, the book of Life, was opened—and the dead were judged by what was written in these books, by what they had done.

13 The sea gave up its corpses,

Death and Hades gave up their dead, and all were judged by what each had done.

14 Then Death and Hades were flung into the lake of fire,

15 and whoever was not found enrolled in the book of Life was flung into the lake of fire—which is the second death, the lake of fire.*

21 Then I saw the new heaven and the new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and the sea is no more. And I saw the holy City, the new Jerusalem, descending from God out of heaven, all ready like a bride arrayed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice out of the throne, crying,

"Lo, God's dwelling-place is with men, with men will he dwell;

they shall be his people, and God will himself be with them:

4 he will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more—no more wailing or crying or pain, for the first things have passed away."

5 Then he who was seated on the throne said, "Lo, I make all things new." And he said, "Write this: 'these words

6 are trustworthy and genuine.'" Then he said, "All is over! I am the alpha and the omega, the First and the Last. I will let the thirsty drink of the fountain of the 7 water of Life without price. The conqueror shall obtain

8 this, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son; but as for the craven, the faithless, the abominable, as for the murderers, the immoral, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and liars of all kinds—their lot is the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

9 Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues; and he spoke to me thus, "Come, and I will show you the Bride, the wife 10 of the Lamb." So he carried me off, rapt in the Spirit, to a huge, high mountain, where he showed me the City, the holy Jerusalem, descending from God out of heaven,

11 with the glory of God. The sheen of it resembled some rare

12 jewel like jasper, clear as crystal; it has a huge, high wall with twelve gates, twelve angels at the twelve gates, and names inscribed thereon which are the names of the twelve

13 tribes of the sons of Israel, three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates 14 on the west. And the wall of the City has twelve foundation-stones, bearing the twelve names of the twelve apostles 15 of the Lamb. He who talked to me had a golden wand by way of a measuring-rod, to measure the City and its 16 gates and wall; the City lies foursquare, the length the same as the breadth, and he measured fifteen hundred

* Unless this line is to be omitted altogether, it must be placed thus after ver. 15, not after 14 (as in the ordinary text), since there is no question of a second death except for human beings.

- miles with his rod for the City, for its breadth and length 17 and height alike; he made the measure of the wall seventy-18 two yards, by human, that is, by angelic reckoning. The material of the wall is jasper, but the City is made of pure 19 gold, transparent like glass. The foundation-stones of the city-wall are adorned with all sorts of precious stones, the first foundation-stone being of jasper, the second of sap-20 phire, the third of agate, the fourth of emerald, the fifth of onyx, the sixth of sardius, the seventh of chrysolite, the eighth of beryl, the ninth of topaz, the tenth of chryso-prase, the eleventh of jacinth, the twelfth of amethyst.
 21 The twelve gates are twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl; and the streets of the City are pure gold, 22 clear as crystal. But I saw no temple in the City, for its 23 temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb. And the City needs no sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God illumines it, and the Lamb lights it up.
 24 By its light will the nations walk;
 and into it will the kings of earth bring their glories 25 (the gates of it will never be shut by day, and night there shall be none), 26 they will bring to it the glories and treasures of the nations.
 27 Nothing profane, none who practises abomination or falsehood shall enter, but those alone whose names are written in the Lamb's book of Life.

- 22 THEN he showed me the river of the water of Life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and 2 of the Lamb through the streets of the City; on both sides of the river grew the tree of Life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, each month having its own fruit; and the leaves served to heal the nations.
 3 None who is accursed will be there;
 but the throne of God and the Lamb will be within it, his servants will serve and worship him, 4 they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.
 5 Night there shall be none;
 they need no lamp or sun to shine upon them, for the Lord God will illumine them;
 and they will reign for ever and ever.
 6 And the angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and genuine, for the Lord God of the spirits of the prophets has sent his angel to show his servants what must very 7 soon come to pass. Lo, I am coming very soon; blessed is he who lays to heart the words of the prophecy of this book!"

- 8 I John saw and heard all this; and when I heard and saw it, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel
- 9 who had shown me it all. But he said to me, "No, not that! I am but a servant like yourself and your brothers the prophets, who lay to heart the words of this book. Worship
- 10 God." Then he said, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near:
- 11 Let the wicked still be wicked, let the filthy still be filthy, let the righteous still do right, let the holy still be holy!
- 12 Lo, I am coming very soon, with my reward,
to requite everyone for what he has done.
- 13 I am the alpha and the omega, the First and the Last,
the beginning and the end.
- 14 Blessed are those who *wash their robes, that theirs may be the right to the tree of Life, the right to enter the gates
- 15 of the City! Begone, you dogs, you sorcerers, you vicious men, you murderers, you idolaters, you who love and practise falsehood, every one of you!"
- 16 "I Jesus have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches; I am the Scion and offspring of David, the bright star of the Morning."
- 17 "Come," say the Spirit and the Bride:
let the hearer too say, "Come";
and let the thirsty come,
let anyone who desires it, take the water of Life without price.
- 18 I adjure all who hear the words of the prophecy of this book:
"If anyone adds to them,
God will add to him the plagues described in this book; 19 and if anyone removes any words written in this book, God will remove his share in the tree of Life and in the holy City described in this book."
- 20 He who bears this testimony says, "Even so: I am coming very soon." Amen, Lord Jesus, come!
- 21 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.†
Amen.
